

CASS COUNTY FAMILY HOLDS REUNION DURING PAST WEEK

Children of Mrs. Catherine Perry Gather at Old Home to Spend Time With Mother.

From Wednesday's Daily—
The children of Mrs. Catherine Perry, one of the old residents of Eight Mile Grove precinct, have just enjoyed one of the always delightful family reunions at the old Perry homestead west of Mynard where the mother still makes her home amid the scenes that have endeared themselves to her through association of the years and where for so long a time she and her husband, the late Peter Perry, enjoyed life and took their part in the building up of the community and rearing of their large family.

The occasion of the reunion was also one of tender recollection of the boys and girls of childhood days to the members of the family circle who had been drawn back for the occasion, some from the sun-kissed waves that lap the shores of California, some from the broad acres that cover the great wheat belt of Canada and others of the family from the soft and pleasant southland.

The mother has not been in the most robust health and the children as well as grandchildren and other relatives took the opportunity of gathering once more in the ties of family relationship at the old home. Mrs. Perry is now in her seventy-seventh year.

All but one of the children were present, Mrs. Albert Long, a daughter, residing in Washington, who a few months ago was here for a visit, being unable to attend the gathering at this time. The children who were here were: Glen Perry and daughter, Helene, of Plattsmouth;

John Perry and wife of Lethbridge, Canada; Walter W. Perry of Orange, California; Mrs. S. G. Unland of Alhambra, California; Charles Perry and wife of Lincoln; Verner Perry, Big Springs; Mrs. Earl Cole and family of Brule, Nebraska; Mrs. Will Cook and family of Elmwood; Mrs. S. A. Barker and daughter of Mynard; Mrs. Charles Spangler and family of Mynard.

Of the grandchildren and their families there were present, Orist Cook and family of Alvo; Guy Kiser and family of Mynard; Forest Leonard and family of Mynard; Everett Spangler and wife of Mynard.

To enjoy the day there also came a number of relatives by car from North Carolina including Orlando Lindley and son, Tarks; Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, Miss Eunice Coleman.

The day was marked Sunday by a big family dinner that was held on the spacious lawn at the Perry home and from the wealth of good things that came from the farms of Cass county was a feast provided that will be long very pleasantly remembered by all of the family circle.

A number of the family have now departed for home and will carry with them pleasant memories of the reunion and the wish that in the future they can all again meet under the parental roof trees as they did as boys and girls.

CHANGES IN PASTORATE

From Wednesday's Daily—
The United Brethren church at Mynard, over which Rev. W. L. Crom has presided for the past two years, will have a new pastor in the next two weeks as the conference of the church has assigned Rev. J. L. Turner, who has just recently come to the Nebraska conference from Missouri, to the Mynard church. Rev. Crom will not be in the active work of the ministry this coming year and will take a rest from the work of the church.

Rev. F. H. Pontius, who was formerly at the Mynard church has been returned to his charge at Geneva, where he has been for the past three years.

The Nehawka church will have Rev. Con Hewitt, the present pastor returned there for the coming year.

MOVE ON ELMWOOD

The Farmers' Union picnic of Cass county was held today at the Vogt grove, one mile west and three-quarters of a mile north of Elmwood and was a big feature of the week end in the western portion of the county. From the early morning the flock of candidates for various offices from governor down were busy moving on to Elmwood and the picnic will have plenty of political atmosphere to satisfy the entire crowd. From this city, Sheriff E. P. Stewart, candidate for sheriff; C. L. Beal and D. C. Morgan, candidates for clerk of the district court; M. S. Briggs and A. H. Duxbury, candidates for county judge; and W. G. Kleck and Joseph A. Capwell, republican and democratic candidates for county attorney also stopped off to mingle with the fearless voters.

Everybody's friend—Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil, the great household remedy for toothache, earache, sore throat, cuts, bruises, scalds. Sold at all drug stores. 30c and 60c.

GIVES DELIGHTFUL SHOWER FOR AN EARLY FALL BRIDE

Young Woman's Auxiliary of Methodist Church Entertain at the Home of Mrs. H. B. Perry

From Wednesday's Daily—
Last evening the home of Mrs. Hallie Perry was the scene of a very delightful meeting of the young woman's auxiliary of the Methodist church and the nature of the occasion was a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Florence Balsor, who is to be one of the brides of the coming fall season.

There were some thirty present and in the games and contests a great deal of pleasure was derived by the ladies. In the pin picking contest, Mrs. R. B. Hayes was the prize winner and Mrs. Glen Spidell received the consolation prize in this event. Each of the ladies also wrote their favorite recipe in the bride's book that she will take with her into the new home.

The shower was carried out very pleasantly when the guest of honor assisted by Mrs. Alvin Craig served very dainty and delicious refreshments that were very much enjoyed by all of the party.

At an appropriate hour the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Alvin Craig served very dainty and delicious refreshments that were very much enjoyed by all of the party.

LOCAL NEWS

Dr. Meineman, Dentist, Hotel Main Bldg., Phone 527.

From Monday's Daily—
Mrs. Will Troop and family of Nehawka were here Saturday looking after some shopping and visiting with friends.

Judge James T. Begley departed this morning for Papillion where he will hold court today, the September term of the court opening there today.

Mrs. Joseph Warka, Sr., and daughter, Miss Anna, and Mrs. J. F. Warka are visiting for a short time at Chicago with relatives and friends.

Harry Long, one of the well known residents of South Bend, was here today attending to some matters at the court house and visiting with old friends.

S. S. Chase and wife who have been visiting in Colorado for the summer have returned home, arriving here yesterday and report fine crops in the west.

Mr and Mrs. J. W. Hendricks of near Murray motored out Saturday to Lincoln, accompanying their son, Vern, to that city, where he will attend the state university.

Mrs. Robert Troop, Jr., of near Mynard, who was visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lohnes, near Grant, Nebraska, has returned home and reports a very pleasant outing in the west.

Green Piggott of Murray was here this morning looking after some matters of business and while here called at the Journal and renewed his subscription to the semi-weekly edition of the paper.

Herman Reichstadt and wife and family and their guest, Otto Reichstadt of Wyoming, who is visiting here from the ranch in the west, were visitors in Omaha yesterday, making the trip via Glenwood and Council Bluffs.

Ed McHugh of Falls City came up Saturday from his home and was joined here by his sister, Miss Mary McHugh of Omaha, and with Mrs. Thomas Walling and son, Edmund, the party were visitors in Murdock over Sunday at the J. E. McHugh home.

Chris Miller, one of the old time residents of this community, who is now at the Milford Soldiers Home, is here enjoying a visit with the old time friends and neighbors. Mr. Miller is well pleased with his location in the home, but enjoys the trip back among the once familiar scenes.

From Tuesday's Daily—
Fred Johnson departed this morning for Omaha and from where he will go to Chicago to locate in the future.

James M. Teegarden, of Weeping Water was here today, motoring over to look after some matters of business for a few hours.

County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water and C. F. Harris of Union were here today attending the meeting of the commissioners.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wells of Washington, Kansas, who was here to attend the funeral of Mrs. John Alwin, returned yesterday to their home.

George Alwin of Palmer, Kansas, and Dan Alwin of Concordit, Kansas, who were here to attend the funeral services of their sister-in-law, Mrs. John Alwin, returned yesterday to their home.

Mrs. S. C. Alwin of Washington, Kansas, is here for a weeks visit at the home of her son, John Alwin, which was recently visited by the death messenger taking away the wife and mother.

Sam Ann, who has been confined to his home for several weeks with an attack of scarlet fever, is so much improved that he is able to be up and around and out mingling with his playmates again.

Mrs. Wendell Beaver of Chadron, a sister of the late Mrs. John Alwin, departed yesterday for Steel City, Nebraska, to visit there with relatives and was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. T. Pool of near Chadron, who was here for the funeral of Mrs. Alwin.

Mrs. Ida Wagner and sister, Miss Alma Waterman, old residents of this city, will leave this week for Detroit, Michigan, where they expect to make their home in the future and where Mrs. Wagner has a home, having resided there a number of years ago.

From Wednesday's Daily—
Judge James T. Begley was in Papillion today holding a session of the district court there.

Ralph Larson, John Gauer and Leonard Wendt of Louisville were here today attending to some matters of business.

O. A. Davis and wife and Mrs. Ed Tutt of Murray were here today, motoring up to attend to some matters of business with the merchants.

SPLENDID OLD VETERAN

From Wednesday's Daily—
Peter Fritzer, one of the splendid old boys in blue who served the nation in the stirring days of 1861-1865, is here enjoying a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Charles Hitt, Sr., and family. Mr. Fritzer is en route to his home at Edison, Nebraska, after attending the encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic at Boston and has on his way west stopped for visits at New York city, Massillon, Ohio, and South Bend, Indiana.

Mr. Fritzer is really a striking figure of ripe old age as he is eighty two years of age, does not need glasses to read with and every day that he is home he walks a mile and a quarter from his home to Edison and back. The service of Mr. Fritzer in the army covered several years as he enlisted when a lad of 19 years in the 104th Ohio infantry. After a short visit here he is going on to his home in the west.

SUES ON NOTE

From Wednesday's Daily—
In the district court here today action was filed entitled Chris Parkinson, et al vs. Walter Sims, et al, and in which the plaintiffs seek the collection of $13,000 alleged to be due on a note and mortgage issued by the defendants in March 1920, and which is now due and unpaid. C. A. Rawls appears as the attorney for the plaintiff.

THEIR WEDDING BROADCAST

From Wednesday's Daily—
Last Monday, Will Lindner and Miss Gladys Mrasek, two very popular young people of Murray, with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rheinaekle, Mrs. A. J. Augustine of South Omaha and Mrs. Joseph Mrasek, mother of Miss Gladys, departed for Iowa via their auto and soon found they way to Glenwood where a license was procured and the wedding of the young people accomplished. All went as merry as a marriage bell and the happy bridal company concluded they would go home via Shenandoah and enjoy a program on the radio and show the older folks how the broadcasting was done. Uncle Louis Rheinaekle, the father, was a young man himself a few years ago and is not very slow at this time, and engaging in conversation with Mr. Henry Fields, told him of the circumstances and to the amazement of the young folks when just before the program was to begin, Mr. Fields stepped in front of the microphone and announced: "We have with us today, Mr. Will Lindner, who this morning was united in marriage to Miss Gladys Mrasek, both of Murray, Nebraska. The wedding occurred at Glenwood, Iowa. Murray people be ready to shivari them when they arrive at home this evening." The party were then congratulated and Mr. Fields, in extending wishes for a long, happy and useful life. They will make their home with Mrs. W. E. Dill in Murray.

WERE HELD UP

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Reid returned home Wednesday from visiting relatives at Stapleton, Comstock and Ansley, Nebraska. They also stopped at St. Paul on their way home to visit J. L. Cox and wife, a nephew of Mr. Reid. The most exciting time was when they were held up by a gang of cow boy bandits on the road to the M Bar Ranch, but it was quite a relief when they discovered it was Mrs. Reid's cousin and wife. But they were got a kick out of it, for there were nine in the party and they were all pretty badly frightened, although they know how it feels now to be held up. But they made up the next day for it, for the entertained them by riding real bucking broods off the range and riding steers.

Mr. and Mrs. Reid report having enjoyed their trip to the utmost—
Elmwood Leader-Echo.

ROCK BLUFF REPUBLICANS

There will be a meeting of the republicans of Rock Bluff precinct at the M. W. A. hall in Murray Friday evening at 8 o'clock. This meeting will take up the nomination of assessor, road overseer, justice of the peace and constable.

O. A. DAVIS, Committeeman.

Itching, torturing skin eruptions, disfigure, annoy, drive one wild. Doan's Ointment is praised for its good work. 60c at all drug stores.

"COLD IN THE HEAD"

is an acute attack of Nasal Catarrh. Those subject to frequent "colds" are generally in a "run down" condition. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a treatment consisting of an Ointment, to be used locally, and a Tonic, which acts quickly through the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces, building up the System, and making you less liable to "colds." Sold by druggists for over 40 Years. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O.

These are "Prepare for Winter" Days and have made ample preparations for all your Winter needs. Every kind of Blanket, Comforter and other Bedding can be had here at the price you want to pay. Observe these low cash prices.

The H.M. Soenwicksen Co.

Cotton Blankets

Regulation size cotton blanket in plain gray, tan or white, with colored border. A Nashua product, heavily napped, warm and durable. An example of low cash prices at our store. Per pair only $2.89

Cotton plaid blankets, large size, pretty patterns. A wonderful value at this low price. Per pair $2.98

Novelite White Spreads

Just the thing for children's beds. Easy to launder. Size 72x90. Our special cash price $2.39

"Soft as Thistledown"

are these wool finished blankets that have the appearance of wool without the wool price. They come in pretty plaids and are bound with tape to match. Our special cash price, per pair $5.50

Wool Mixed Blankets

These give a lot of service and are as warm as all wool. They are exceptional values at, per pair $5.59

Blankets for the Baby

Everything the baby needs in warm bedding is here. Blankets of all sizes and colors at 75c to $1.95

If You Make Your Own Comforts—Here Are

Yard Wide Challies

Your choice of many patterns, both light and dark. Our money-saving cash price per yard, is only 15c

Cotton Batts

3-lb. stitched batts, white cotton. Full weight and size 72x90. Our cash price, per batt $1.39

STORE EDITORIAL

If we could put into our lives and our business that indomitable spirit of those "round-the-world" air men, nothing would stand in the way of the successful accomplishment of our purposes.

(Watch for this space every week)

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS OF AMERICA HAVE A FINE TIME

Entertained Last Evening at Social Meeting at Home of Miss May Murphy on 5th Street.

From Wednesday's Daily—
The members of the Catholic Daughters of America enjoyed a very pleasant social meeting last evening at the hospitable home of Miss May Murphy on North Fifth street and on which occasion they were entertained by Miss Murphy, Mrs. Frank M. Bestor, Miss Margaret Hallahan, Mrs. Thomas P. Murphy and Mrs. Joseph F. Hadraba.

The ladies had the rooms of the home arranged with the very pretty cosmos and daisies that added a note of charm to the scene and here the seven tables were placed where the ladies spent the evening in the delights of high 5 and bridge and many very interesting contests were enjoyed by all of the members of the party. In the bridge games, Mrs. Robert Reed was awarded the first prize and in the high five games, Mrs. C. L. Pittman proved the most successful and was awarded the prize of the evening.

At a suitable hour the hostesses served very dainty and delicious refreshments that were very much enjoyed by all of the members of the party and at a late hour they departed expressing the sentiment that the occasion had been one of the rarest pleasure and delightful hospitality.

joyed by all of the members of the party and at a late hour they departed expressing the sentiment that the occasion had been one of the rarest pleasure and delightful hospitality.

Dedicate Murdock Schools

On last Saturday afternoon and evening from 2 to 8 o'clock, the school building was open for the inspection of the patrons, the scholars and the public, and during the time some one was there to explain the uses of the different rooms and to show all visitors around and over the building. During the time also a worth while program was had and a cordial welcome extended to all who came to visit the building.

The efforts of the board of education in building the school was a source of satisfaction to all of the patrons of the school and all were well satisfied with the excellent school building which is a very fine addition to the many substantial buildings of Murdock.

FOR SALE

Two good farms, four miles from Louisville. For particulars address Box 654, Louisville, Nebr. s1-6w

REAL ESTATE

List your farms or acreage for quick possession with C. E. Schlitcher, 1512 Vinton St., Atlantic 0905, Omaha. 74-tf-w

Insurance ads get results.

DEATH OF LITTLE GIRL

From Tuesday's Daily—
Little Kathryn Nichols, granddaughter of Anna Bauer, of Union, who had been fighting for her life during the past week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nichols, of Greenwood, passed away early Monday morning after a most valiant struggle and having the utmost care of loving hands and the best of medical attention.

The mother was also stricken with the same malady—an attack of the flux—but she is reported as being somewhat improved at this time.

The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of the parents and interment was made in the beautiful Greenwood cemetery.

Little Kathryn, with her parents, had often visited in Union, where she was an especial favorite of her uncle, Frank Bauer, and in fact all who knew her, as she was a most likeable little lady. Hosts of friends extend sympathy to the parents and to Mr. and Mrs. Bauer in this hour of their grief.

Many ills come from impure blood. Can't have pure blood with faulty digestion, lazy liver and sluggish bowels. Burdock Blood Bitters is recommended for strengthening the stomach, bowels and liver and purifying the blood.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Maurer, of Omaha were here yesterday afternoon for a few hours looking after some matters of business and visiting with a few old time friends.

Two Pants Suits for Fall

Have to stretch your dollars to pay the rent, dress the wife and kids, keep the butcher and baker happy and have a few nickles left for fun?

Then you'll appreciate—and welcome—the economy of these two trouser suits. They're even made of hard woven woollens that wear extra well!

They'll give you the greatest dollar for dollar value you ever got. The price is

$25

That's the price now and always, because of our no sale policy.

C. E. Wescott's Sons

"ON THE CORNER"

Everyone Should Own a Sweater!

THEY are so convenient, so comfortable, so practical, and so reasonably priced that every one should possess one.

We offer you a sample line of sweaters, all sizes, styles and color combinations. Ages 6 to size 46, and these at prices under wholesale costs

$2.00 to $8.00

Philip Thierolf
VALUE GIVING CLOTHIER