

Here's Real Value for You!

One and Two Pant Suits FOR MEN AND YOUNG MEN!

Products of the foremost designers and leading makers of this country come to this store for your inspection. Clothes that reduce your annual costs—right in style, fabric, workmanship and incidentally price.

$19⁷⁵ $24⁷⁵

The H. M. Soennichsen Co.

"The Store with the Big Values"

ROBBERS FOILED AT EAGLE LAST WEEK

Alertness of Talmage Norris, Brother of "Two-Gun-Bill" Norris, Saves Adams Store.

From Tuesday's Daily—
Yeggmen again visited Eagle at an early hour this morning, and again were foiled in their attempt. At 2 o'clock this morning while Talmage Norris, who is serving as night-watchman during his brother's absence, was passing down the alley at the rear of the A. W. Adams store he discovered a pair of men working to remove the rear window of the store building. He did not delay in opening fire upon them and they beat a hasty retreat, leaving their tools behind, but not without returning his fire. The north side of the building is peppered pretty generously with shot and pistol bullets, but in the darkness the aim was high and there is no indication that the robbers were hit.

W. E. Norris, the watchman who gained notoriety in the attempted bank robbery last spring, is visiting his old home in Kentucky, but his brother, who seems to be a chip off the same block, is substituting for him, and eight-fingered fellows are warned to steer clear of Eagle and the Norris family.—Eagle Beacon.

FOR SALE OR TRADE

For livestock, 7 passenger Buick in good condition, repainted. Ford truck.—T. H. Pollock at Farmers' State bank. s18-31sw

A healthy man is a king in his own right; an unhealthy man an unhappy slave. For impure blood and sluggish liver, use Burdock Blood Bitters. On the market 35 years. $1.25 a bottle.

C. T. Peacock of Lincoln, was in the city today for a few hours attending to some matters of business and visiting with relatives and friends.

Dress Up!

No one loves a "flat" man.

To strangers, the only difference between you and the beggar who asks for a dime is a shave and a suit of clothes.

Your auto may be rusty—your house may need painting—your garden may be weedy without great damage to your standing. But when you, yourself, start looking seedy you are headed down just as surely as tho' you fell down an elevator shaft.

"Dress Well and Succeed" is a nation wide call.

Fall in line—get in tune with Prosperity. We are supplying "Success Clothes."

Hart Schaffner & Marx $40, $45, $50
Our Feature Line $25, $30, $35

C. E. Wescott's Sons

"ON THE CORNER"

RECALLS OPENING OF THE CHEROKEE STRIP IN SOUTH

Charles Taylor, Who Was one of The Pioneers in Oklahoma Writes To Mother, Mrs. W. A. Taylor

From Wednesday's Daily—
The older residents in Cass county will recall the opening of the famous "Cherokee Strip" in Northwestern Oklahoma which occurred in 1893 and many from here were there to take advantage of the opening and at this time there are hundreds of former residents here who are living in that portion of the young state.
Charles Taylor, a son of Mrs. W. A. Taylor of this city, who was one of the boys of thirty-one years ago to make a dash over the Kansas line on September 15, 1893, writes home to the mother of the anniversary and in which he had a part, and feels that the change of the past few years has been wonderful as his present home at Waukomis, is in the heart of the new country. The Daily Oklahoman in speaking of the anniversary has the following:
Today marks the thirty-first anniversary of the opening of the Cherokee Strip for settlement. In many of the counties homesteaders and old-timers will gather at county seats and the larger cities for celebration and in some counties the annual custom of staging a replica of the run September 16, 1893 will be followed out. It is said that some of the horses ridden into the strip on the original run are still able to be around.
The Kansas line was the northern and the upper line of "Old Oklahoma" was the southern boundary of the strip. Before the opening the prospective settlers were kept up waiting for the signal which would start the run. Arkansas City, Kansas, was the headquarters for the boomers who stayed there all one summer waiting for the announcement from Washington when the opening would occur. The largest stream of settlers started just south of Arkansas City and for three or four miles west.
On account of the thousands assembled at the line who tried to slip in before the official opening the guard made a formal report to Washington. Hoke Smith, of Georgia, secretary of the interior at the time, announced that if necessary a fence would be built around the 200 by 60 mile Cherokee area before opening and in fact a fence was built, a human fence of densely packed men on horseback and in "prairie schooners" facing a line of soldiers patrolling the border.
And when the signal shot was finally fired the rush that followed has gone down in history as one of the most outstanding events in Oklahoma. The majority of the men rode in on horses leaving the women and children to follow in the heavier buggies and covered wagons.
The opening, September 16, was on Saturday and on the following Monday the work of starting homes was commenced. First many had to thrust out contests over the right for choice locations. The covered wagons furnished temporary shelter for hundreds and within a week the strip was dotted with frame shacks, sod houses and dugouts.
The free homes bill passed by congress put the settlers in good shape and those who were able to hang on saw themselves grow in wealth by constant increasing value of the land. Farms in the Cherokee strip are now worth more than $100 an acre.
The land was formerly left as a passage way through which Indians could travel to the western buffalo hunting grounds between the strip of "Old Oklahoma" which had been bought by the government and Kansas. The United States government paid the Cherokees $3,326,000, and the Otoes and Pawnees $111,000 for the right to throw the land open to settle all disputes between the government. The board devised plans for holding elections and divided the territory into three districts. An election was held in November 1886 at which time two representatives were elected from each district except Beaver which elected four. The government was instituted the following March.

son, Charles Hitt, Jr., and family in that city.
Henry C. Long and Henry Hill motored in this morning from Murray to spend a few hours attending to some matters of business at the court house.
G. P. Meisinger, Jr., and family were in Saturday to look after some of the week end trading and visiting with relatives and friends for a few hours.
J. C. Knabe, of near Nehawka, was here Saturday afternoon looking after some matters of business and enjoying a visit with his friends in the county seat.
J. L. Smith and son, Herman Smith and family of near Nehawka, were here Saturday for a few hours attending to some trading and visiting with friends.
Edwin A. Fricke, who has been attending the American Legion convention at St. Paul as well as enjoying a fishing trip in the lake country of Minnesota, returned home yesterday afternoon.
J. C. Meisinger, one of the well known residents of near Cedar Creek, was here Saturday with his family to look after some matters of business with the merchants.
August Jochim and wife and daughters, Leda, Elsie and Thelma, motored in Saturday afternoon from their home near Louisville and spent a few hours here visiting with their friends and looking after some trading.
C. E. Noyes, chairman of the republican county central committee was here from Louisville Saturday, attending the committee meeting and was accompanied by W. J. O'Brien of South Bend, the secretary of the committee.
From Wednesday's Daily—
Dr. G. H. Gilmore and wife and son John, of Murray, were here yesterday afternoon looking after some matters of business and visiting with friends.
Ernest Melbern, of Murray, was among the visitors in the city today, looking after some matters of business and visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Melbern.
James Mitchell, old time resident of the city, and who is now engaged as a bookkeeper at the Soldier's Home at Grand Island, was here today visiting with friends and taking in the sights of the old home town.
Ed P. Betts, the well known resident of near Eagle was here yesterday afternoon for a few hours visiting with his friends and looking after some business matters. This is the first visit of Mr. Betts in some time to this city.
C. E. Hartford, former state fire marshal under the McKelvie regime, was here last evening and today in the interest of the Coolidge-Dawes-McMullen ticket and interviewing the faithful as well as distributing buttons and thimbles for the G. O. P. ticket.
W. G. Meisinger from Louisville, was here today to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. George Schoemann.
Ed Kruger of near Nehawka was here this morning looking after some matters of business and visiting with friends.
Fred Clark of near Union was here yesterday for a few hours attending to some matters of business for a few hours.
L. G. Meisinger and wife motored in this afternoon to attend the funeral services of the late Mrs. George Schoemann.
George Lutz of Louisville, was here today visiting with relatives and friends and looking after some matters of business.
H. Kupper and wife of Yankton, South Dakota, are here, arriving last evening to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. George Schoemann.
Clarence Busche was here today driving in from his home near Cedar Creek in front of the funeral of his great aunt, Mrs. George Schoemann, which was held at the First Methodist church.
J. F. Behrens, one of the prominent residents of the vicinity of Nehawka, was here today in company with Mrs. Behrens to look after some matters of business and while here called at the Journal office to renew their subscription to the semi-weekly.

MARRIED IN GLENWOOD
The marriage of John J. Burnett and Adelaide Kramer both of this city, occurred on Monday morning at Glenwood, the ceremony being performed by Justice Day of that city. The newly weds returned to this city where they are to make their home and received the hearty well wishes of their many friends in this locality on their new happiness.

SECURES SOME DUCKS
From Tuesday's Daily—
Yesterday John Iverson and Joe Bullin tied themselves to the banks of the Missouri river and proceeded to enjoy several hours of hunting the elusive duck and with the result that they returned with eleven in their game bag. They were out again today and added ten more to the total. The boys have a blind along the river from which they have been able to secure some great results in shooting and are more than pleased with the showing they have had in the last two days.
Herbert C. Sherwood and wife departed this morning for Omaha where they will spend a few hours looking after some matters of business.

LOCAL NEWS
Dr. Heineman, Dentist, Hotel Main Bldg., Phone 527.
From Tuesday's Daily—
Henry Kircher from west of Murray was here Saturday looking after some trading and visiting with friends.
Vilas Sheldon of Nehawka was here Saturday, driving up to attend the meeting of the republican county central committee.
H. A. Schneider and Searl S. Davis were at Weeping Water today, motoring over to look after some matters of business for a few hours.
Mont Shrader from near Murray was here Saturday afternoon visiting with relatives and friends and looking after some matters of business.
Charles Hitt, Sr., departed this morning for Nehawka where he will enjoy a visit there at the home of his son, Charles Hitt, Jr., and family in that city.

Henry C. Long and Henry Hill motored in this morning from Murray to spend a few hours attending to some matters of business at the court house.
G. P. Meisinger, Jr., and family were in Saturday to look after some of the week end trading and visiting with relatives and friends for a few hours.
J. C. Knabe, of near Nehawka, was here Saturday afternoon looking after some matters of business and enjoying a visit with his friends in the county seat.
J. L. Smith and son, Herman Smith and family of near Nehawka, were here Saturday for a few hours attending to some trading and visiting with friends.
Edwin A. Fricke, who has been attending the American Legion convention at St. Paul as well as enjoying a fishing trip in the lake country of Minnesota, returned home yesterday afternoon.
J. C. Meisinger, one of the well known residents of near Cedar Creek, was here Saturday with his family to look after some matters of business with the merchants.
August Jochim and wife and daughters, Leda, Elsie and Thelma, motored in Saturday afternoon from their home near Louisville and spent a few hours here visiting with their friends and looking after some trading.
C. E. Noyes, chairman of the republican county central committee was here from Louisville Saturday, attending the committee meeting and was accompanied by W. J. O'Brien of South Bend, the secretary of the committee.
From Wednesday's Daily—
Dr. G. H. Gilmore and wife and son John, of Murray, were here yesterday afternoon looking after some matters of business and visiting with friends.
Ernest Melbern, of Murray, was among the visitors in the city today, looking after some matters of business and visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Melbern.
James Mitchell, old time resident of the city, and who is now engaged as a bookkeeper at the Soldier's Home at Grand Island, was here today visiting with friends and taking in the sights of the old home town.
Ed P. Betts, the well known resident of near Eagle was here yesterday afternoon for a few hours visiting with his friends and looking after some business matters. This is the first visit of Mr. Betts in some time to this city.
C. E. Hartford, former state fire marshal under the McKelvie regime, was here last evening and today in the interest of the Coolidge-Dawes-McMullen ticket and interviewing the faithful as well as distributing buttons and thimbles for the G. O. P. ticket.
W. G. Meisinger from Louisville, was here today to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. George Schoemann.
Ed Kruger of near Nehawka was here this morning looking after some matters of business and visiting with friends.
Fred Clark of near Union was here yesterday for a few hours attending to some matters of business for a few hours.
L. G. Meisinger and wife motored in this afternoon to attend the funeral services of the late Mrs. George Schoemann.
George Lutz of Louisville, was here today visiting with relatives and friends and looking after some matters of business.
H. Kupper and wife of Yankton, South Dakota, are here, arriving last evening to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. George Schoemann.
Clarence Busche was here today driving in from his home near Cedar Creek in front of the funeral of his great aunt, Mrs. George Schoemann, which was held at the First Methodist church.
J. F. Behrens, one of the prominent residents of the vicinity of Nehawka, was here today in company with Mrs. Behrens to look after some matters of business and while here called at the Journal office to renew their subscription to the semi-weekly.

HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE
Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE consists of an Ointment which quickly Relieves by local application, and the Internal Medicine, a Tonic, which assists in improving the General Health. Sold by druggists for over 40 Years. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

SPECIAL Stoneware Sale!

Extraordinary Values in the largest stock in Cass County. Every kitchen and pantry should have a complete equipment.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 9^c
2-lb. and 3-lb. Butter Jars
1/2-pt. pint and quart size Pans
5-inch Mixing Bowls
6-inch Salad Bowls
Individual Casserole
Small size Refrigerator Jars
Custard Cups
Covered Spice Jars 29^c
8-inch Mixing Bowls
9-inch Salad Bowls
3-lb. Bailed Butter Jars
1-gallon Stew Pans
5-lb. Pantry Jars
No. 3 Casseroles (Covered)
1/2-gallon Pitchers
Cut Flour Jars. | 19^c
1-quart size Pitchers
3-lb. Pantry Jars (Covered)
7-inch Mixing Bowls
8-inch Salad Bowls
10-inch Baking Pans
Medium size Refrigerator Jars
Beater Jars
No. 2 Casseroles (Covered) 39^c
9-inch Mixing Bowls
10-inch Salad Bowls
10-lb. Pantry Jars
1-gallon Pantry Jars
Large size Casseroles
Meat Roasters
9-inch Fancy Jardineres
Hanging Baskets with Chains |
|--|---|

Stoneware is the best food container—Keeps moist food moist, or dry food crisp and dry. Jars for packing vegetables, pickles, kraut, meats and eggs. Containers for flour, bread, cake, crackers, cereals and sugar. We have them all at right prices, too.

See Our Asbestos Pie Plate. Only 10c.

H. M. SOENNICHSEN

Phone No. 53

Plattsmouth, Neb.

Itch, Itch, Itch! Scratch, Scratch, Scratch! The more you scratch, the worse the Itch. Try Doan's Ointment. For eczema, any skin itching. 60c a box.

D. A. Young and wife who have been spending a few days at Moorehead, Iowa, with relatives and friends, returned home last evening and stopped here over night with their son, Rex Young, and wife.

DR. STIBAL CHIROPRACTOR
Ask My Patients!
"THEY GET WELL"
Phone No. 3.
Schmidtman Building

MRS. T. C. M'CARTY

Hemstitching and Picot Edging

Phone 100-J N. 4th St.

Dr. H. C. Leopold

Osteopathic Physician
General practice. Also Eyes Tested and Glasses Fitted.

Office hours, 8:30 to 12; 2 to 6. Sundays and after hours by appointment only.

PHONES
Office, 208 Res. 208-2R

531 Main Street

-80th Series!

We are now issuing shares in the 80th series. Those of you who have been paying $10.00 per month in the 58th series will be entitled to the $1,320.00 which you have paid in and $680.00 profit. This series will be declared due October 19th, 1924.

The Plattsmouth Loan and Building Association

Kirchbaum Clothes

"Lower the Cost of Dressing Well!"

STYLE

Whether it's a single breasted or a double breasted model, the style and quality that's in a Kirschbaum suit is apparent at first glance.

And that quality will remain in the suit as long as you wear it. The natural result when sound all-wool fabrics are combined with skillful tailoring.

$35⁰⁰ and $37⁵⁰

Philip Thieroll
VALUE GIVING CLOTHING

Copyright 1924 The House of Kappeler

Superior Fitting Service!

Good fit is as important as quality—unless you get it in your clothes, you don't get good value. We are careful on that point when you come to our store.