W. O. Coatman is seeding this year about sixty-five acres of wheat, that is, if it will rain in time to seed it. W. P. Cook and wife of Plattsmouth, were visiting and looking after some business matters in Alvo the first of last week.

John Skinner was a visitor last Sunday at Benedict and Grand Island, making the drive in his car, and found the roads good.

S. C. Boyles and wife were visiting with relatives in Lincoln last Thursday and also looking after some business matters as well.

J. W. Kollmeyer and wife with their little daughter were visiting last Sunday, at the home of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bade, of Dunbar.

H. J. Lowe, of near Eagle, was a visitor in Alvo last Thursday looking after some business matters, and while here had his name put on the journal roll.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Mockenhaupt were visiting last Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Ayres, of Cheusey, who are uncle and aunt of Mr. and Mrs. Mockenhaupt.

R. A. Coatman and wife were attending the funeral of a little daughter, M. and Mrs. Peterson in Weeping Water Thursday afternoon of last week.

Mr. Stroemer, after having carried the mail route, is kept very busy by installing a Round Oak furnace at the telephone office, where his mother is living, and is getting along very nicely.

Paul Stangenberg of the State Journal, of Lincoln, was a visitor in Alvo looking after some business matters and was accompanied by his two daughters, Misses Betty and Jean, last Thursday.

P. A. Mockenhaupt, while working with some glass jars had the misfortune to receive a very severe cut on one of his fingers which caused him to carry that member in a bandage for several days.

Messrs. P. A. Mockenhaupt, John Kelley and Harry Leeseley were all in attendance of the wedding which was held at Manley last Wednesday. It was the Tighe-Rauth wedding which was celebrated at the St. Patrick's church, in Manley.

Mr. and Mrs. David Simpson, of Barnard, Kansas, have been in Alvo looking after matters for their son, Will Simpson, during his illness and were over to the sanitarium yesterday and report the condition of the son as being slightly improved but still very bad.

Miss Bessie Ober, who was one of the faculty of the Alvo schools last year, and who is teaching at Benedict, this year has been at Grand Island, where both her parents are in the hospital. Miss Ober has many friends here who will sympathize with her in this, her trouble.

At one of the dangerous intersections last Wednesday evening, a car from Ashland, and the one of W. J. Aulhouse, came together with the result that the cars immediately depreciated in value very rapidly. In fact the damage done was appalling, but not beyond repair. The occupants were uninjured but had a mite added to their experience.

Wm. Simpson, the barber, who has been sick for some time was taken to a hospital in Lincoln, where he underwent an operation for a tumor which had grown in his nose and which after the operation, was some easier, but the young man remains very sick at this time. The business is being looked after by M. Carl Rosenow, and is running along nicely.

Mrs. Maggie Alloway of San Diego, Cal., Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Demaray and Mrs. Jessie Cane of Alexandria, Neb., Mr. and Mrs. Chris Dreamer and daughter Nora, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dreamer and son, Ralph were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Lizzie Lewis. Some forty odd years ago the Demaray family lived where the Alvo cemetery is now situated.

Mr. Demaray broke the prairie sod where the town of Alvo now stands. They were close friends and neighbors of the Dreamer family and have kept in touch with each other throughout the years and it was indeed a pleasure for them to renew their old friendship.

Will Make Home Here.

M. R. Cowles formerly of Bellevue, have moved to Alvo and will make their home here in the future. They were brought to Alvo by John Skinner with his truck, bringing all the household effects last Thursday. They will make their home at the east end of main street just beyond the telephone exchange.

Mrs. Richardson Passes Away.

Death has again entered one of our communities' homes and taken its toll. Last Sunday evening Mrs. Joseph Richardson was taken ill and grew worse so rapidly that she was taken to the hospital at Lincoln early Monday morning for an operation, but her condition was such from pain and nervousness that she died before it was deemed advisable to attempt the operation. The immediate cause of her death is given as an obstruction of the bowels.

The remains were brought to Eagle Wednesday and the funeral was held at the Methodist church, Rev. Laphorne coming from Swanton to conduct the last rites. Burial was in the Eagle cemetery, and a large number of friends and neighbors present testified to the high esteem in which the deceased was held in the community.

The following obituary was prepared and read at the funeral:

Metta Alice Wilson was born in Jasper county, Iowa April 16, 1867. Her mother died while she was small. She was adopted by Aron T. and M. J. Henshaw on September 11, 1869. They came to Nebraska when she was about 14 years of age. She united with the Quaker church before leaving Iowa.

She was married to R. W. Stewart on May 7, 1888. To this union were born three children, one of whom died in infancy. They lived on the Stewart farm near Alvo about five years, and separated.

She married Joseph H. Richardson at Bancroft, Neb. January 12, 1904.

She died September 29, 1924, at the age of 57 years, 5 months and 3 days, at the Shoemaker hospital at Lincoln, Neb., after a short sickness of thirty-six hours.

She is survived by her husband, two grandchildren, Josephine and two sons, Lee and Roy Stewart, Mamie Stewart; three sisters, Mrs. Pettigrew and Miss Mable Wilson of Oak, Neb., and Mrs. Bertha Hammill of Nora, Neb.; also a nephew, Ray Pettigrew of Oak, Neb., all of whom were present.

She was a member of the W. C. T. U. of Eagle, Neb.

She leaves many friends and kind neighbors.—Eagle Beacon.

Europe as we Saw It in 1924

By Miss Marie E. Kaufmann

To "See America First" should be the desire of every American. Then, after you have traveled in your own country, take a trip across the ocean and see the land, customs, people and beauty of the home of your forefathers.

A summer's vacation spent in Europe is well worth your time and money. It was at the close of the school year, 1924, when we left Plattsmouth, Nebraska. Allow me to mention here that Mrs. Coffman and myself were both less than ten years old when our parents left Europe to come to America. Mrs. Coffman being born in England, myself in Switzerland and our companion, Mrs. Hesse, also from Plattsmouth, who accompanied us as far as Cherbourg, France, was sixteen when she came from Germany.

Months before we left on our trip, geography was studied, maps were consulted—and let me tell you, I think we studied more geography the two months before sailing than in a whole year at school. As the time of our departure drew near we began to get just a little bit nervous, as one naturally would going so far, and expecting to meet so many strange faces and meet people whom we could not understand. We feel that it will be of interest to our readers if we begin right at home and take you along on our journey as we travel.

The first thing that has to be done after you make up your mind to go, if you are an American citizen, is to have your picture taken, 2 1/2 x 3 inches will, have it unmounted and not retouched, you need two at least, three are better, then apply for your passport through the district or federal court. This passport will cost you ten dollars, nine of which is sent to Washington and one remaining with the court through which your passport is secured. Some may say, why not find out first on what ship you are going and then the passport. Well, about one of the first questions you will be asked by your steamship agent is, "Do you have your passport?" So why not get it first? It will require from two to three weeks to get the passport. We didn't realize at the time the importance of this document until we reached New York city, our sailing port. Here the steamship official cared but little about seeing our tickets, but was deeply interested in our passports and the works of art, (?) our photos, with which they were embellished.

The three of us left on No. 2, May 21. A large crowd had gathered at the station to see us off, and when the train pulled out my eyes were filled with tears and I could not see whether my companions were laughing or crying. Our baggage was light, we each took only two suit cases, one we carried and the other we checked through, and let me say right here, if we ever went again we would take only one suitcase. Our first stop was Pacific Junction, Iowa, where we had about an hour of waiting, which passed quickly, each busy thinking and wondering if, perhaps, we had left something that we might need on our stay—just like a woman, I hear you say. At Pacific Junction, Mrs. Coffman and I boarded the Pullman while Mrs. Hesse preferred the day coach, she was too excited to sleep the first night, she thought. So while we are on our way to St. Louis we will bid you all adieu and meet you again in St. Louis next Monday evening.

SMALL FIRE TODAY

From Saturday's Daily—
 The residence owned by Frank Sitzmann in the south part of the city, and which is occupied by Lee Cotner, had a close call from serious fire this morning when the roof was found to be smoldering and only the prompt action of the neighbors saved the place from destruction.

Ed Cotner was passing the house when he saw a small blaze on the roof and at once called to Arthur Falk, a neighbor, and they got into action at once and checked the blaze with only the loss of a few shingles. There had been a small bonfire in the yard and it is thought that sparks from this caused the blaze. It was most fortunate that the fire was caught at the time it was, as the prompt action saved a heavy loss.

SHOWS FAVORABLE INDICATIONS

From Saturday's Daily—
 The latest reports from the bedside of Charles Richards, Jr., in Omaha last evening indicated that the young man was showing some improvement over his suffering and was recovering from the condition that he had remained in from Thursday evening until late yesterday afternoon, as he has now regained his faculties, although suffering considerable pain.

The case, which has been decided upon as one of acute appendicitis, was expected to be looked after by the surgeons at the St. Joseph hospital this morning and the young man operated upon if his condition would permit. The friends here have received no word today as to whether or not the operation was performed.

A. W. Viternsek departed for Omaha where he is having an injured eye treated by a specialist in that city.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine
 Those who are in "run-down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE consists of an Ointment which quickly Relieves by local application, and the Internal Medicine, which assists in improving the General Health. Sold by druggists for over 40 Years. Dr. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

RAYMOND LAIRSON IS BROUGHT FROM FREMONT TODAY

Young Man charged with Manslaughter in Connection with Death of Mrs. Dodge, Here.

From Saturday's Daily—
 Sheriff E. P. Stewart was at Fremont yesterday and returned last evening, bringing with him Raymond Lairson, against whom an information was filed Thursday by County Attorney J. A. Capwell charging him with manslaughter in connection with the death of Mrs. Lorissa Dodge, aged Fremont woman, who was fatally injured in an auto accident near Union on September 18th.

The prisoner is a man of some thirty years and has been mixed in various troubles in Fremont and Omaha in the past it is stated, but does not bear the stamp of a serious offender. Mr. Lairson came with Sheriff Stewart without dispute and was brought on to this city and lodged in jail and will remain here until his case is brought up for the preliminary hearing, which will be held on Monday morning, it is thought.

HAND WAS BADLY MANGLED

On Tuesday morning, Mrs. Roy Rhoden happened with a very severe accident while washing. She was wringing clothes with a power washer when her left hand was caught in the wringer and badly mashed and lacerated. This is indeed unfortunate for her, for her left hand is also her right hand. The injury was very painful and required the doctor's attention although at the present time she is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.—Elmwood Leader-Echo.
