FLEEING FROM GOD'S JUDGMENT

If ye shall despise my statutes, or if your soul abhor my judgments, I will set my face against you; and ye shall flee when none pursueth you. I will punish you seven times more for your sins.

Leviticus 26:14-18.

Pity is love when grown into excess.

Meditation is the soul's perspective glass.

The man who loses his opportunity, loses himself.

Even an optimist can't see much fun in missing a street car.

A man's rights to drink are fast becoming his funeral rites.

Game is the easiest thing on earth to find when you have no gun.

People won't feel sorry for you unless you feel sorry for yourself.

During the hunting season calves are warned not to look like deer.

Ford is selling about 5,000 cars a day, much to the disgust of the men.

Which is the worst—demagogue or plutogogue? Take your choice.

"When thieves fall out honest men get their dues." Look at the Iowa situation.

When a girl throws a good man down he bounces right into another one's lap.

An opportunist is an old maid who keeps silk pajamas near to slip on in case of fire.

Four yards of short skirt can look more interesting than half a yard of bathing suit.

Robbers stole a Springfield, Ill. bank's safe as the building itself was too heavy to carry away.

On the first of the month, when the bills come in, it is very hard to laugh at your own expense.

A man has started around the world in a 20-foot boat, setting sail, of course, from our 12-mile limit.

The law says you can't make home-made wine, but many citizens know it will turn to vinegar, anyway.

John W. Davis will be the next president of the United States as sure as the sun rises and sets on the 4th of November.

Don't forget Bargain day, Wednesday, October 15th. The bargains are more extensive than ever. Come and secure your share of them.

Governor Bryan will speak in Plattsmouth Monday night at 8 o'clock. Come out and hear the next vice president of the United States.

When you vote for John H. Morehead for congressman, you know you are voting for a man who has been tried and is true to his constituents.

Dawes calls Brookhart a demagogue and Brookhart replies that Dawes is a plutogogue. Go to it, boys, but be careful as you go, you don't get hurt.

New York City checks up and finds 65,000 horses still work in its streets. No danger of Dobbin becoming extinct by competition with the automobile. More horses now than when horseless carriages were invented. They will still be more when airplanes swarm by millions. Inventions no longer displace. We need both, old as well as new. Progress is extension rather than displacement.

"Big Business" was the chief victim of deflation in 1920 and later, an eastern bank claims. It goes on to demonstrate its case by shrinkage of income, as reported to tax collectors. While it is true that many large businesses lost money, a considerable part juggled their books so much, to dodge taxes, that their reported income doesn't mean anything. An unscrupulous lawyer, with a staff of cunning accountants, can find more sinkholes for income tax reports than there are in a sieve.

Go to it, Fire Chief; you are doing a good work.

The proud are ever most provoked by pride.—Cowper.

Tax-dodging and taxi-dodging keep us all up in the air.

A puncture in the ego is harder to fix than one in the auto.

If all our wishes were granted, who would build the autos?

Don't be content by taking things as they come. Go after them.

Brookhart says "Iowa is in a heluva shape," politically speaking.

Marriage is becoming an incident to man and an accident to woman.

To live long is almost everyone's wish, but to live well is the ambition of a few.

Make your arrangements to come in and hear Governor Bryan next Monday night.

Remember that Governor Bryan will speak in Plattsmouth Monday night at 8 o'clock.

One big vote getting for Coolidge is the Washington baseball team did so well this season.

Bobbed hair is about like all modern improvements. It isn't the initial cost, it's the upkeep.

When a man becomes disappointed in love it is usually because love is disappointed in him.

There is talk of a balloon trip to the North Pole. Well, the pole will be near here before long.

It is a rule in friendship, when distrust enters in at the foregate, love goes out at the postern.

This being fire prevention week, baseball fans are urged not to get too hot up over the world series.

Cutting Samson's hair made him weak, but bobbing a woman's hair seems to make her strong, for it.

The price of gas is down a little, but this won't reduce the number of cars parked along the country lanes.

Former leaders in the republican party are deserting the old ship of state like rats desert a sinking ship.

The Garden of Eden, it is reported, has been discovered in Nevada. Some distance from Reno, evidently.

An optimist is a man who keeps his thermometer in the ice box in the summer and in the stove in the winter.

If we were in Germany we would not come home by the new dirigible, no matter how crazy we were to get out.

Many of the young sheiks are wearing belts two inches wide which are just above where they should be used.

A man who escaped from Sing Sing over a year ago was either caught or one winter outside was enough for him.

A woman seldom makes dough like her husband's mother did. And a man seldom makes dough like his wife's father did.

It took a hundred years to educate the men against it, and now it has to be done over again. Girls, don't have your hair cut on Saturday.

There is a warm dispute on in the republican party as to whom the party belongs to, but the national organization sticks to the old adage that possession is nine points of the law.

The arctic regions used to have a warm climate. Fossils proving this were brought back by Explorer MacMillan. When the experts on weather claim the climate doesn't change, they really mean that it changes so extremely slowly that it takes thousands of years to observe any difference. The change seems to be taking place faster of late years. Many parts of central and northern Canada report that "queer winters" have nearly exterminated field mice and squirrels.

SILENCE THE REMEDY

John W. Davis described the situation when he said at Baltimore: "No one can deny that the chief characteristic of the present administration is silence.

"If scandals break out in the government, the way to treat them is silence.

"If petted industries make exorbitant profits under an extortionate tariff, the answer, of course, is silence.

"If the league of nations or foreign powers invite us into conference on questions of world-wide importance, again the answer is silence.

"If race and religious prejudice threaten our domestic harmony, again the answer is silence.

"If a wandering secretary of the navy plans a speaking trip in the west, as soon as the fact is discovered he is brought back to Washington and reduced to silence.

"Occasionally there are those who have been in the cabinet and are no longer there, and therefore are not subject to discipline, who break out by writing a letter. I had one the other day myself.

"But in the main, silence, vast, mysterious, portentous, broods in solemn majesty over the entire argument of my friends on the other side."
