

Nehawka Department!

Prepared in the Interests of the People of Nehawka and Surrounding Vicinity Especially for the Journal Readers.

E. E. Leach and A. W. Propst were visiting at the home of Robert Troop last Sunday.

William Ost was a business visitor in Nebraska City last Monday morning driving down in his car.

E. M. Pollard has been visiting in the west for the past few days looking after some business matters.

Vincent Straub of near Avoca, was looking after some business matters in Nehawka last Monday afternoon.

Sam Brooks and wife, who are working in the neighborhood north of Nehawka were in Plattsmouth last Saturday night.

W. O. Troop and wife and Henry Meisinger were in attendance at the funeral of Edgar Marks at Weeping Water last week.

Lycurgus McCarty was a visitor for the day at Nebraska City, last Monday, he making the trip via the Missouri Pacific train.

John Livingston was a visitor in Nehawka and north of town last Monday afternoon looking after some business matters.

F. M. Lomon, and wife were visiting and looking after some business in Lincoln last Monday they making the trip in their auto.

There is a demand for corn pickers in the vicinity of Nehawka, and labor is pretty well employed and good pickers are at a premium at this time.

Clarence Simpson, of Arnold, Nebraska, is here visiting at the home of Elmer Philpot and family, and guests of Orville and Herold Philpot for the week.

Last Friday, Frank Lemon, the barber, and wife, were called to Omaha to look after some business and also visit with relatives while in the big city.

A. W. Propst of Union, the Ford dealer, was over in the neighborhood of Nehawka last Monday and disposed of one of his excellent Ford cars to Ray Norris.

R. M. Christweiser and wife were visiting in Nehawka last Sunday being guests at the parents of Mrs. Christweiser, Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Shrader, while here.

Henry Knabe has been having all the buildings at the farm painted.

the house barn and the rest of the out buildings and this has made the farm look much better.

J. M. Palmer and wife were spending last Sunday at the home of Mrs. Palmer's brother, C. D. Quinton and family in Plattsmouth, where they enjoyed the day very much.

Frank Trotter was a business visitor in Omaha a number of days last week, and he has also to divide honors with Frank McConnerall, who has a lead to Omaha most every day.

Mr. O'Dell, the star man, has added to his possessions a new Ford touring car, on which he traded his ancient Hup, and he is pretty well satisfied with the new acquisition.

Last Sunday C. D. St John and family hitched their wagon not to a star, but has driven to Alvo, where he spent the day most pleasantly with R. M. Coatman and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Nutzman were enjoying a visit from a friend of Mrs. Nutzman, who went to school with her, Mrs. Maude Blomer and husband, who are now making their home in Omaha, last Sunday.

Jess Vallery was attending the funeral of Edgar Marks, which was held in Weeping Water last Friday.

Miss Velma Stoll and brother spent Saturday and Sunday at the Flemings homestead near Plattsmouth.

Miss Frank Linabough of Boone, Iowa, a cousin of Mrs. A. F. Strum, has visited at the Strum home in Nehawka for some time. Mrs. Linabough was accompanied by her daughter, Miss Frances, while here.

J. J. Pollard and wife departed last Friday for the northwest portion of the state, they going to a point in Cherry county where they have some land, and where they will inspect it as well as visit and have an outing.

J. J. Pollard and wife were visiting and looking after some business matters in Omaha last Monday morning, they making the trip in their car, and were accompanied by Mrs. Chalmer Switzer and Mrs. J. W. Magney.

Carl W. Stone and son, who had such a successful sale a short time ago, of their excellent herd of fine dairy cows and hogs have again started a herd having purchased three fine blooded dairy cows a few days ago.

Henry Strum sawed wood Monday, getting ready for winter.

H. P. Strum and wife entertained Henry Knabe and family, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Lathrop of Nebraska City spent Sunday at Henry Thiele's.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Fitch and children visited relatives near Murray Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Schoemaker were entertaining relatives from Syracuse, Sunday.

Messers and Mesdames Bruce Stone and Leo Switzer were Nebraska City visitors Sunday.

John P. Stoll is feeling much better, and his many friends are very glad to hear the good news.

Granville Heebner had clover for Messers. Irvin Markland, Frank Cox, S. Sprague and Henry Urish the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brown and son, Dwight, and Mrs. Charles Philpot were Sunday evening callers at the Elmer Philpot home.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Rough and sons, George and Harry of Tekamah, Neb. spent Sunday night at Elmer Philpot's home, returning to their home Monday. Miss Tessie Philpot accompanied them.

Miss Doris Magney, who is teaching at the Nebraska City schools, was a visitor of home over the week end, and Sunday afternoon her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Magney, took her to Nebraska City, they also enjoyed their trip.

W. J. Wunderlich and Henry Thiele departed last week for Brown county where something had been lost, that is such is supposed to be the case for they went hunting. They will find a good appetite, and probably a number of ducks and other wild game.

Miss Tessie Philpot, who has been visiting for some time at Takama, with relatives returned home last Sunday. Messrs. Paul and Troy Murdoch, and Miss Mable Gallin went up for her in the auto of the Murdoch brothers, and all enjoyed the trip up and also coming home.

Wm Highfield and Leslie McKinney, and a number of others from Plattsmouth, reinforced by a number of Nehawka men were working this week industriously to change the lines of the Nebraska Gas and Electric Co. so that Nehawka might get better service and have the lines in better condition.

Last Sunday, Grover Hoback and wife went down to the farm south of town to visit the father of the former postmaster, Mr. B. F. Hoback, and found that he had gone to Union to visit for the day at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Anderson, and family. Grover and family, however, visited at the home of his brother, Oscar Hoback, and family.

Carl W. Stone and the family visited at the home of the parents of Mrs. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. James Wafe and family of Springfield, last Sunday, where a most pleasant time was had. There were also there for the occasion, Misses Rhea, Alra and Leona Rowe, of Omaha, also relatives, which made the occasion the more enjoyable. Marion Stone and Granville Heebner were along and drove the autos.

Elmer Philpot, who has been in the western portion of the state for some time, where he was visiting with his father, Uncle Charles Philpot, near Hoagland, returned home last week, and reports the crops looking very good out there. Mr. Philpot tells of helping his father look after his stock which has become slightly infested with the Texas itch and all of the cattle had to be dipped. The elder Philpot is also building a house which he is striving to complete before the coming of winter.

Enjoyed a Coon Hunt
Last Saturday evening John O. Yeiser and family, and M. R. Phillips of Omaha, came to Nehawka and while Mrs. Yeiser visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Strum, the gentlemen with George Hanson went coon hunting and conducted their search all thru Saturday night, getting home early Sunday morning, and with no luck as far as coons were concerned, but they did get one opossum, and when they went to skin it in the morning to make a meal for breakfast, for they were very hungry after their night's hard work hunting, they found the animal was a bird, and had feathers on it like a barred Plymouth rock. But O. Mamma, it tasted good.

Nehawka School Notes.
The little folks in the first and second grades are very interested in the Alphabet Booklets they are making in handiwork class.

In the above mentioned grades, Margaret Austin has won the most stars in the conduct race.

In Geometry class Miss Reymann: "All those who did not get this geometry problem please watch the board while I go through it."

Several of the girls in sewing class are making childrens' clothes, others are finishing work-dresses. It is a very busy class and much is being accomplished.

The members of the home management class have completed their essays on "Better Lighting." All essays must be in by Friday, the thirty-first, of this month. The best one of these will be entered in the district contest.

Miss Greenhalgh spent the week-end at her home in Lincoln.

Freshly: "Do they ring two bells at the end of the class hour?"

Senior: "Of course not, they ring the same bell twice."

Miss Maybelle Troop was an Omaha visitor Saturday.

Miss Velma Wessel spent part of last Saturday in Nebraska City.

Miss Reymann: "Carl, I take great pleasure in giving you $1 in Algebra."

Carl Pierce: "Oh! Miss Reymann, make it a 100 and enjoy yourself."

Miss Isadore Stone spent Friday in Omaha.

The home management girls were practicing salesmanship this past week. Enamelware, kitchen cabinets and cook stoves were among the articles which the girls were explaining and endeavoring to sell to their classmates.

At present we have thirteen basketball games on our schedule. We are going to have some real fast games and we want all of you to come out and "Root" for Nehawka.

The basketball girls have been having a number of very good practices. Every player has her pep and sportsmanship in every play. Each one is working to be a member of the team.

Delphia in English class: Irving was born at the age of nineteen."

Tuesday morning measurements were taken for the boys' new basketball suits. New pants and sweat shirts will be issued while the same jerseys will be used another season.

Everyone is busy making his costume for the Halloween party to be held in the school house Friday night.

Miss Dorothy Lewis was a visitor in Plattsmouth Saturday.

Miss Julia Troop spent the week-end in Plattsmouth.

Four of the boys in the Agriculture class have been making a concrete sidewalk at the home of Ralph Harshman.

"Like to islands in the seas Stand our personalities."

U. S. Senator R. B. Howell will speak at the District Court room in Plattsmouth, Saturday night, Nov. 1, 6:30-11w, 3td.

Mrs. William Baird was a passenger this morning for Omaha where she will spend the day with friends.

DEATH OF FORMER WELL KNOWN RESIDENT OF THIS CITY

William H. Pickens Passed Away at Home at Elverano, California, On October 21st.

From Wednesday's Daily—
The announcement has been received here by relatives of the death on Tuesday, October 21st, at Elverano, California, of William H. Pickens, at one time a well known Plattsmouth resident and a prominent contractor and builder here in the eighties, but who has been away from here for the past thirty-one years.

William H. Pickens was born in Belfast, Ireland, July 4, 1848, and came to Plattsmouth in 1879 and settled here to take up his work as a contractor and was very successful in this work. On October 12, 1880, he was married here to Miss Emma Despain, sister of C. C. Despain, well known resident of this city, and the family continued to reside here until in 1893 when Mr. Pickens moved to Chicago and has since made his home at various places. The wife passed away a number of years ago and in the last few years Mr. Pickens again married and has been living in California.

The many old friends here will regret very much to hear of the death of Mr. Pickens who during his residence here was a very active figure in the community life.

Do Your Duty—Vote!

The Ballots That are Not Counted—
WILL YOURS
Be Among Them!

The ballots that are not cast—they are the ones to be ashamed of! Voting isn't a family affair. Dad no longer puts in a ballot for the whole family.

Voting is an obligation. Voting is a part of citizenship.

VOTE—
For the honor of the country!
For the honor of the community!
For the sake of your pride!

It's Presidential year!
You have your own choice among candidates. You know the man you want in the White House.

Your ballot registers your selections.

We are proud of Plattsmouth. We want it to stand out as a Real American community.

Your vote will help.

Make sure you go to the polls next Tuesday and take the others of your family with you.

Farmers State Bank
T. H. POLLOCK, President

Plattsmouth - - - - - Nebraska

"Let's all vote next Tuesday—for the good of our Community, our State and our Nation!"

LITTLE GIRL ARRIVES

From Wednesday's Daily—
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Long has been gladden by the arrival of a fine little daughter, who, with the mother, is doing very nicely and the occasion one of the greatest of pleasure to all of the members of the family. The Long family resides on the old Whites homestead southwest of the city.

JAMES ROBERTSON.—Adv.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

—HEAR—

U. S. SENATOR
R. B. HOWELL
Champion of the People's Rights!

District Court Room
Plattsmouth, Nebraska

Saturday Night
November 1st—8:00 P. M.

Mr. Howell is a real Progressive and has always stood for the rights of the people.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

—VOTE FOR—

J. A. CAPWELL
FOR County Attorney
Candidate for Re-Election

Honest Law Enforcement
Justice to All

Will Charge Batteries!

As well as looking after the repair work at the garage, which I give special care to each and every job which comes to my place of business, and guarantee the best of work. I am at this time prepared to charge your batteries and to do such repairs thereon as shall be required. I am thanking all for your liberal patronage and shall ever endeavor to merit what shall come to me.

Bert Willis Garage
Phone No. 3 Nehawka, Nebraska

Buy Bedding Now
and be prepared for the chill nights!

Wool Bats for Comfortables!
Buy a wool bat and enjoy the real pleasure of extreme warmth with the least possible weight.

100% Wool Blankets!
A dependable quality, full size for double beds.

Wool Mixed Blankets, in large plaids. Extra sized and extra weight.

Women's, Men's and Children's Warm Outing Gowns!
High necked and long sleeved. Cut full and long.

F. P. SHELDON
ESTABLISHED 1888
Phone No. 14 Nehawka, Nebr.

Will Charge Batteries!

As well as looking after the repair work at the garage, which I give special care to each and every job which comes to my place of business, and guarantee the best of work. I am at this time prepared to charge your batteries and to do such repairs thereon as shall be required. I am thanking all for your liberal patronage and shall ever endeavor to merit what shall come to me.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

Vote as You Please!

America expects every voter to do his duty. You should vote as you please, and for your best interests. By your careful voting you are safeguarding the purity of the home, the sanctity of the church, the welfare of society, the best administration of the law, and ensuring the safety of the public schools. There is no substitute for safety.

Thanking you for your friendly cooperation for Best Administration of the Law

M. S. BRIGGS
Attorney at Law
Admitted to Practice June 24, 1895
Nominee for Co. Judge Plattsmouth, Nebr.