

MURDOCK DEPARTMENT.

PREPARED EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE JOURNAL.

Jess Landholm was a visitor in Omaha last Thursday, looking after some business matters.

Elsie Deickman was a visitor last Friday in Lincoln, where she spent the day with friends.

Emil Kuehn was called to Lincoln last week to look after some business and made the trip in his auto.

Diller Ut and wife, of Havelock, were visiting at the home of the former's parents last Sunday and with the home folks enjoyed a very pleasant visit.

Wm. Bourke shipped a car of hogs which he had raised and red in his own farm near Wabash, to the Omaha market, they going to market the middle of last week.

Rev. J. W. Peters, who was injured in the auto wreck in the western portion of the state last week, was so much improved that he was able to return to his home here.

Herman R. Schmidt who purchased the school house when sold, has arranged to allow the crew who are putting in the power transmission line to use it for their headquarters.

For a higher quality, more nutritious and finer flavored bread, we recommend "Lincoln Maid" brand bread.—O. J. Hathaway, Union, Nebr.

Free, a large, best made Scooter, or a large, beautiful talking and walking doll, or a Kodak doll carriage or apron. Absolutely free. See them at O. J. Hathaway's, Union, Nebr.

Miss Luella Elkerman, who has been making her home in Ashland was a visitor at Murdock, being a guest of her friends, the Misses Deickman, and while here all enjoyed a very good time.

Will Reister, in the beginning of the corn husking this fall had the misfortune to get his wrist sprained so badly that it put him out of the running in the matter of corn picking early in the game.

Mrs. E. K. Norton was much pleased as well as the family by the arrival last Thursday afternoon of Mr. C. B. Andrus and wife, of Lincoln, Mr. Andrus being a brother of Mrs. Norton home for the day.

A. H. Duxbury, an attorney of Plattsmouth, and candidate for the office of county judge, was looking after his political fences and doing what there was to be done to further his interests at the coming election.

E. W. Thimgan was a visitor in Lincoln last week, where he was called to look after some business matters, and to purchase supplies for his garage and a number of articles for the implement department as well.

Wm. Riordenberg and wife, who have been visiting here for some time past, at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Wm. Knaupe and family, after a most pleasant visit, departed last Monday for their home in Oklahoma.

John Amgwert and brother, Henry, were visiting in Omaha on last Thursday, they making the trip in the car of the latter and were looking after some business matters as well as visiting with relatives for a short time.

Wm. Rheiman and the family of Omaha were visiting last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Bauer, they driving down from their home in their auto for a visit. The time was most pleasantly spent and a good time had by all.

Dr. Chas. Parrish, Veterinarian, Elmwood, Nebraska. Call day phone, 7; night, 58.

Henry E. Guthman of the Bank of Murdock and Gus Wendt, one of the prosperous farmers southeast of Murdock, departed one day last week for Fullerton, where they were looking after some business matters, being away several days.

The work of getting the telephone lines and the light lines in the best of condition for the coming winter and that there may not be interference between the two is getting well done now, though there still remains something for the coming week.

H. R. Schmidt has been doing some work at the home of Herman Kupke in the line of getting the barn ready for winter, repairing and making some new doors for the structure. Mr. Kupke believes in keeping the building on the farm in good condition.

Business called Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heineman to Omaha last week, where they were doing some shopping and looking after a number of matters, and made the trip in their auto. They found the roads excellent but the wind very boisterous and dust flying.

Miss Margaret Tool, who is attending the state university, was a visitor at home over Sunday, and also Saturday, she spending that day in looking after the interests of the class in instruction in the violin, and by the way, Miss Margaret can make the "old fiddle" speak.

Unlimited amount of money to loan on eastern Nebraska farm land. Lowest rates. Applications taken now for future loans. See O. J. Pot-hast at Farmers' & Merchants' Bank, Murdock, Nebr.

Uncle G. V. Pickwell, who has just begun his corn picking, was much elated over the yield, finding it much better than he had expected to find it. This is a bit encouraging as others have been disappointed in their yields, probably expecting more than the season guaranteed.

E. K. Norton, who is at present located at Springfield, Mo., where he is with the Western Union, writes he is liking the work there very well and that he expects to stay there but a short time after which he will be transferred to a point in Illinois, but will visit at home about the last of November.

Mrs. George Towle of Lincoln was a visitor with her daughter, Mrs. J. E. McHugh and family, of Murdock, for a number of days last week, all enjoying the visit very much, and the young people think it a great when Grandmother Towle comes down for a few days. All most thoroughly enjoyed the occasion.

Miss Ruth Miller gave an entertainment to her class in the Bible school at her home last Monday evening and entertained the fellow members with a most pleasant evening. The time was spent in games and a general good time. The genial hostess also served a most delightful luncheon during the course of the evening.

There is joy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Norton on account of the arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Wiseman, near Elmwood, of a new granddaughter, who arrived last Friday. All concerned are doing nicely and the little miss has also added much joy to the home of this family, as well as to that of the grandparents on both sides.

Martin Blum of the eighth grade entertained those of the seventh and eighth grades at a weiner roast that was staged at the Gakemeyer grove on last Wednesday evening. The crowd enjoyed the occasion very much and returned to their studies the next day with a smile and a determination to do the best of work in their lessons, if such were possible.

Charles Cook of Plattsmouth and Earl Towne of Weeping Water, the latter being a candidate on the democratic ticket for state representative, were in Murdock looking after the interests of Mr. Toole for the position for which he is running, and by the way Mr. Towle is making a very thorough canvass and also adding many friends to his list in the campaign he is making.

Arthur Peters, who was a schoolmate of Maurice McCrorey when in school, and who is at present attending school at Omaha came in on last Friday for a short visit at the I. C. McCrorey home, and following the pleasant evening and night spent there, he and Master Maurice departed in their car for Crete, where they went to be present at the Crete-Grand Island game which was staged there on Friday afternoon.

Last Sunday O. E. McDonald and the family visited in Council Bluffs, they starting from home after the business had been closed, it being near midnight, and visited for the day with J. F. O'Neill, and enjoyed the occasion very much. Messrs. McDonald and O'Neill spending a portion of the time in hunting and were able to bag considerable game. They remained until Monday to return.

As they came through Plattsmouth, Miss Marguerite stopped for a visit of a few days with friends there.

Will Take Trip to Coast. Donald Banta, the barber, who has been with the Emil Kuehn barber shop for some time past, accompanied by his friend, Ralph Thompson, of St. Charles, Iowa, who has been here for a short time, departed on Monday of this week for Grand Island, where they will visit for a short time and will, after a short stay there, depart for Los Angeles, where they will expect to remain for the winter. Don has made many friends while here some of whom are very loath to see him depart.

Surprised Their Friends. Last Monday evening the members of the C. L. C. E., the young people's society of the Murdock and other churches, met and surprised John and Paul Stock, it being near their birthday and the event was duly celebrated that evening with considerable odat. All present had a most enjoyable time and would not object if these two genial gentlemen would have a birthday once a month at least.

Ladies Enjoyed the Occasion. Mrs. James Mills entertained the members of the Royal Neighbors Kensington last Thursday at their beautiful country home and the ladies who were present surely enjoyed the occasion. The work calling the ladies together was first looked after, and when the social hours came all were in just the spirit to enjoy the occasion, and with a few special numbers, which added to the interest of the occasion, the climax was reached when Mrs. Mills, the genial hostess, served a most delightful luncheon which was most thoroughly enjoyed by every one.

The members of the Modern Woodmen of America, on last Friday evening enjoyed open house at their hall, and served oysters, having their wives and lady friends as their guests. The gentlemen proved themselves most efficient and genial entertainers, and oh boy how they can cook oysters as well as serve them just right and nothing to complain of. After the repast had been completed the tables were shoved back against the wall and as the strains of music filled the hall, all participated in a social dance, which was surely enjoyed by all.

Volunteer Roll Call Directors. Red Cross roll call supplies have been sent out over the county and an enrollment of members from the county is expected. Our obligation to the National organization must be fulfilled. The following persons have volunteered their services to assist in the roll call which is to be taken some time between November 11th and November 27th: W. W. Coatsman, Alvo; Mrs. Maude Johnson, Louisville; Mrs. G. H. Glinner, Murdock; Mrs. Jess Landholm, Murdock; Mrs. O. K. Cromwell, Weeping Water; Mrs. R. G. Kiser, Myrard; Wm. J. Rau, Manley; Mrs. Raymond C. Pollard, Nehawka, and Miss Myrtle Wood, Wabash. Other places have secured no one for this year. Grandmother Towle comes down for a few days. All most thoroughly enjoyed the occasion.

Installs Number of Radios. Will P. Meyer, who is an expert in the matter of radio work, and as to that an excellent electrician in any line, has just installed a radio each at the homes of Herman Kupke, John W. Kruger, Charles Lau and W. F. Schliefer. These gentlemen were anxious to get their instruments in and used to them before the coming of election, as they did not want to miss anything of the exciting episodes of the final wind-up of the campaign.

Mr. Meyer also installed some big Superhetrodyne radios at the two Lutheran churches, that they might enjoy the special services which were broadcast from Chicago, at the observance of Martin Luther day.

Local Red Cross Activity. The Murdock branch, Cass county chapter, American Red Cross, met with Mrs. Edward Thimgan Wednesday afternoon and elected the following officers: Mrs. Edward Thimgan, branch chairman; Mrs. Lacey G. McDonald, secretary-treasurer. The department heads at present are as follows: Frank Melvin, Disaster; Dr. A. R. Hornbeck, Home Service; Mrs. H. V. McDonald, Volunteer Service; Mrs. Harry Gillespie, Junior; Mrs. Jess Landholm, roll call director.

Reports were given of the state meeting which was very interesting as three members of the branch were able to attend the state meeting. Discussion of the activities of Red Cross proved that the Murdock branch would like to see arrangements made for classes in First Aid and Home Hygiene.

Lutheran Church Services. Services at Louisville church at 9:20 a. m. Bible school at both Louisville and Murdock churches at 10 a. m. Services in English, 11 to 11:30, and services in German, 11:30 to 12, at Murdock church. Young Peoples' meeting at 7 p. m. and evening preaching services at 7:30. tf

RETURNS FROM HORSE-SHOERS' CONVENTION. Washington A. Young, the veteran blacksmith from west of this city, returned home yesterday afternoon from Omaha where he was in attendance at the Horseshoers' convention at the Hotel Castle that numbered in its attendants many of the best known blacksmiths in the state. Mr. Young, with one of the veterans from the west part of the state, enjoyed the distinction of being the oldest man in the service at the convention and as a special prize received 200 pounds of blacksmith coal which will come in very handy in his business.

BANK AT NORMAL, NEBR., IS ROBBED ON THURSDAY

Two Youths Hold Up Bank Near Lincoln and Make Escape With $600, All Cash on Hand.

The Normal State bank, Nebraska's smallest bank, was robbed by two youthful, unmasked bandits at 10:45 Thursday morning. About $600, all the cash on hand, was taken. The boys drove up in a new Ford coupe belonging to Guy Tou-jahls, which they had stolen from the Bankers Life building, and escaped in a red Chandler car, license No. 212, belonging to Floyd Sey-bolt, president of the bank. The entire loss is covered by insurance. All the securities were in downtown vaults. According to R. Unzicker, cashier of the bank, the boys came to the window and asked for change for a $10 bill.

"What do you want for your bill?" he asked.

"Two tens will do fine," one of the boys replied.

Mr. Unzicker turned to get the change and when he looked up two guns greeted his gaze. The boys then climbed up over the top of the cage and commanded Mr. Unzicker, Mr. Seybolt and Roy Walker, a customer, to lie down on the floor.

"I've got a stiff knee and I can't," said Mr. Seybolt, "if you'll wait just a minute maybe I can make it."

"That's all right," one of the boys replied, "you can sit up but don't look at us."

Mr. Seybolt then told them that they could save time by not looking for securities of any sort as there was nothing to be taken but the cash and currency on hand. This the boys took, stuffing it into the outside pockets of their suit coats.

"We're awful sorry we have to do this," one of them stated.

"One of the boys was very talkative," said Mr. Seybolt. "He sat and talked to me for ten minutes and looked me square in the eye.

The other one wouldn't talk. Both were very nervous and I tried to do nothing to excite them any more, 'cause they might have shot."

After the boys had gotten all the money in the place, they ordered Mr. Seybolt, Mr. Unzicker and Mr. Walker to get in Mr. Seybolt's Chandler car with them. They drove north from Normal to A street, stopped and ordered the bank officers to get out and go into a cornfield. They then drove away.

Mr. Seybolt states that he warned them the tires were poor on the car and that they had better drive slow or the tires would give out. The boys promised they would leave his car downtown.

"Both boys were very well dressed," said Mr. Seybolt, "and they never used a swear word all the while they were talking to us. I believe it was their first job."

Vote for A. H. Duxbury for county judge. He is worthy of your support.
