and Wisconsin Barely Saved to the Cause of Its' Senator.

New York, Nov. 4 .- At 2 o'clock this morning, President Coolidge was maintaining his advantage in the east and middlewest and had established leads in the country beyond the Mississippi, which, if maintained. would give him and overwhelming majority in the electoral cellege with a total running over 300 cotes.

John W. Davis has to his credit only the states of the ultra-demoeratic south, but was leading also in Oklahoma, Missouri and Tennesee, all carried by Harding in the 1920 republican landslide. He also had a slight margin in New Mexico but had surrendered the lead to Coolidge in Kentucky in a nip and uck race.

New York, Nov. 4 .- Returns recived from nearly one-third of New York state before 9 o'clock tonight howed that President Coolidge had two to one lead over John W. Davis or the presidency, with La Follette
