CHURCH BUILDING IS BEING THOROLY OVERHAULED

St. Luke's Church of This City Being Placed in First Class Condition by Improvements.

From Saturday's Daily—
 The St. Luke's Episcopal church, one of the oldest houses of worship in the city, is being given a thorough overhauling which will place it in first class shape and improved in a number of ways that will be for the beauty of the building as well as the comfort of the congregation of the church.
 The building has been entirely re-roofed the past summer and which was quite an extensive job as the roof is a large one of the Gothic type and it required a great deal of work and a large amount of shingles to cover it and will be an improvement that will last for a number of years. The interior of the church there has been an entire new hardwood floor placed that is now all in and the work of staining the same is being conducted and will be a dull brown in shade that will be fitting with the dark beams of the interior of the church building. This dark floor with the red aisle carpeting and the dark pew seats with their red velvet coverings will make a very artistic effect when it is all completed.
 The basement of the church has also been improved by renovating the room used there by the choir of the church and will make a very acceptable place for the use of the choir as a robing room and for other purposes that may arise from time to time in the church activities.
 Ornamental posts have been placed at the entrance to the church that will be used for the lighting of the approaches to the church and one has also been placed at the west of the church at the entrance to the choir room in the basement.
 The work on the church is being needed and will give the parish a very fine house of worship when it is entirely completed.

FINISHING UP WALKS

From Saturday's Daily—
 The sidewalks on the west side of Chicago avenue which have been in the progress of construction for some time past by William Kief, the contractor, are now completed and will be a splendid addition to that part of the city and a great improvement.
 For a long time the need of a sidewalk along the avenue has been felt as the residents along there, south of Tenth street have had to use the street for walking purposes and with the large amount of auto traffic this has been dangerous to life and limb and several accidents have occurred there that would have been prevented had there been a sidewalk there. The walk placed will extend from the C. A. Troop residence southwest to the Louisville road.

GASOLINE PRICES STABILIZED

The price of gasoline in Omaha, Nebraska City and a number of other of the near-by towns has taken a slight raise in the last few days and is now selling at the price of 15 1/2 cents per gallon. In these places the price has been at 13 1/2 for the past months. In this city the price has been at 15 1/2 for some time and was cut a quarter of a cent this week and is now at the standard price of 15 1/4.

SICK DOING NICELY

From Friday's Daily—
 Two of the Plattsmouth ladies who have just recently returned to their homes from the hospital are doing very nicely now and are well on the highway to what is hoped will be a permanent recovery. Mrs. August Bach, Jr., who has just passed through a very severe operation, has been feeling very much improved since her return home and is able to be around quite a little now, although she has not been able to resume her former activities. It is at the rate of improvement it is hoped that the time is not far distant when she will be back in her former good health.
 Mrs. George Luschinsky is also doing very nicely at her home and feeling very much improved and with the present condition it is thought that it will not be long before Mrs. Luschinsky is restored to her former good health.
 The friends here are much pleased with the return of these two estimable ladies and their improving condition.

WHAT SHALL RED CROSS DO IN CASS COUNTY

From Thursday's Daily—
 Red Cross work is divided into two kinds of work: Obligatory and Optional. Firsts and foremost our obligation is to the Ex-Service man and his family; secondly, Disaster Relief. Optional work is Public Health Nursing; Home Hygiene and Nutrition; First Aid; Life Saving and Junior Red Cross. Could a program be more beneficial to humanity? Does Cass county need any of these in the county? Express your opinion to your Branch Officers and they will present your opinions to the Chapter and in this manner the citizens of the county will begin to realize the Peace-time Program the Red Cross is undertaking.

KILL OFF RATS

The residents of the west and middle west alarmed by dangers of the spread of the form of plague that is now raging on the west coast, are planning a general warfare on the rats that are carriers of the maldady and it would not be out of place for the Plattsmouth people to join in the campaign to exterminate the rodents that are a source of annoyance and loss every year in addition to being a health menace.
 The danger from the spread of the plague is that the rats might make their way in freight and other means eastward to the inland and other coast cities and there fore make a widespread area of the plague menace.
 There are in every community thousands of the rodents that cause heavy losses every day in the year in eating and carrying away food-stuffs and other property and which should be stopped by a concerted warfare that would rid the community of a large part of them. The efforts of individuals to rid themselves and their property of the rats only drives them to other places, but a general campaign would drive them out entirely and repetitions of these warfare moves keep the community clear of them.

CARD OF THANKS

I desire to express to the voters of Cass county my appreciation of their splendid support and assistance in the race for county assessor and assure them that, appreciative of their confidence, I shall endeavor to give them a good business like administration of the office for which I have been chosen.
 W. H. PULS.

AN APPRECIATION

I desire to return my greatest appreciation to the voters and citizens of Cass county who so splendidly gave me their support at the election on November 4th and assure them that I shall endeavor to administer the office of sheriff so that they will have no cause for regret for their support. The spirit shown by the voters is one that is helpful in the administration of the law.

NOW SEEKING SHELTER

From Saturday's Daily—
 The crimping and chilly nights are having a noticeable effect in the increasing number of wanderers that are seeking shelter each evening at the city jail and Officers Libershi and Jackson are handling a very large number there each evening. The practice of sheltering the unfortunate at the jail during the winter months is a practical idea as well as a charitable one as it keeps the men where the police know where they are at instead of wandering around over the city and perhaps committing some depredation.
 The men are released each morning and make their way to other points and the larger number of the men are heading for the southland as the weather in the northern states is not the most pleasant in the nation after Jack Frost makes his appearance.

Aiding in the Book Week campaign the Plattsmouth Woman's club as one of the civic organizations of the city is urging that every family in the city donate one book to the Plattsmouth public library where it can be made of the greatest use in being put into circulation.
 The Plattsmouth public library serves a larger number of patrons than any of its size in the state and reaches practically all of the homes of the city, and it is with a view of adding to the efficiency of the library that the ladies are urging the residents of the city to join in and each one that can give a book to the great public institution.

LOOKING BACKWARDS

This morning one of the attractive and charming young ladies of the city, employed in one of the leading business houses of the city, created not a little excitement when she made her appearance this morning at her place of labor as the sentinel of time was striking the hour of eight. The excitement was due not to the fact that the lady was down so early but because of the fact that she made her appearance with her chic and modish gown placed on her graceful figure with the back of the gown bewitchingly adorning the front portion of the lady. When reproached by her friends the lady hotly denied having knowledge of the switch in the way of wearing her dress and it required considerable argument to convince her that she was looking backward.
