Pure bred Buff Orpington cockerels for sale.—Mrs. Jas. H. Brown, Murray, Telephone 2412. n6-4T
Frank Schiltmeier had a load of sheep to market at South Omaha one day during the first portion of the week.

Misses Betty and Jean Stangenberg of Lincoln, were visitors at the Bible school at the Christian church last Sunday.

E. W. Milburn and T. J. Brendel were looking after some business matters in Lincoln last Tuesday, they making the trip in their auto. Thomas Woods and family were visiting a short time since at the home of the folks of Mr. Woods in Essex, Iowa, driving over for a Sunday's visit.

J. C. Snavely and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Louie Meade from near Union, were in attendance at the funeral of the late William Nickels last Tuesday afternoon, at the Lewiston church.

Oscar Naylor, who is a rustler and no doubt about it, will give a dance on Thanksgiving eve for those loving this enjoyment, and you had better keep your eyes open for an announcement of the event.

Bud Nickels, who is an expert auto driver, will work with Dr. J. F. Brendel this winter and will care for his auto and do his driving, thus assisting materially with the winters work of the busy doctor.

The ladies of the Christian church will give a supper and dinner Thanksgiving day and evening, look for an announcement of the matter the coming week, and for an ad telling about the dinner and supper.

Little Flora Jane Boedeker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Boedeker, who has been suffering from affected tonsils was in Omaha with her parents last Thursday and had the tonsils removed and is getting along nicely.

Mrs. Addie Bartlett, who has been at the Saint Catherine's hospital at Omaha for some time, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis, returned home last Monday evening and is getting along very nicely at this time.

The Murray schools are preparing to give a box social at the Peterson Hall some time before the coming of Thanksgiving, and are promising a most pleasant time when the event occurs, better keep your weather eye out for the occasion.

W. W. Johnson of Colorado Springs, who was a visitor at Orient, Iowa, while on his way to his home, stopped in Murray last Thursday and visited at the home of his sister Mrs. G. W. McCracken and husband for a short time before continuing his trip to Colorado Springs.

Dr. G. H. Gilmore has purchased himself a new Universal Coupe, which he will use for his winter work, and which is a great step in advance of the open car, especially for winter service to a busy doctor. Both Murray doctors are busy and the coupe is just the thing for winter traveling.

Mrs. William Hendricks, who is making her home with her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Carroll, who has been looking after the work, is not feeling the best either so Mrs. J. E. Hatchett has been assisting a portion of the time with the work.

The Herman paper contains two articles, one which tells of the reelection of John H. Johnson, who is nephew to Mrs. J. W. Berger and A. A. Johnson of Murray, who was chosen again to represent his county, which is Washington, in the state legislature, this time with an increased majority. When in the legislature last term he made a most excellent record for himself and his county. The other article was regarding his making an address from the broadcasting station WOAW, which went all over the state.

Has Moved His Shop.
Kemper Frans, the barber, has moved his barber shop to the building where Uncle J. W. Edmunds has been, the building having been divided making excellent rooms for both these gentlemen. The new location which Mr. Frans has now, seems to be a better one than the one which he has vacated, though both places are good. M. G. Churchill will occupy the other room he having purchased it some time since.

William Clarence Poorly.
William Clarence, who is well advanced in years, has been feeling quite poorly for some time and on last Monday his daughter, Mrs. W. I. Taylor, of Omaha, arrived to assist in his care.

Observe the Birthday.

Last Sunday being the anniversary of one of the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Puls, a number of their friends gathered to appropriately celebrate the event. The order of the gathering enjoyed the occasion in social conversation and visiting, while the younger ones joined in games, music and singing, which enlivened the day and made it so pleasant that it hastened away. The dinner was a most enjoyable feast which all were more than pleased to take pleasure in eating. There were present for the occasion, W. H. Puls and family of Plattsmouth, L. H. Puls and family, William Puls and wife, A. F. Gansmer and family, Fred Lutz and family of Murray, Phillip Hill and family of west of Mynard, James Tigner and family of near Murray, M. R. Schnell and family of Omaha, and John Frizzle and family of Weeping Water.

Getting Away From Ourselves.

Last Monday and Tuesday Rudolph Schumaker thrashed, and had for the occasion a horse power machine which has to have the bands cut and fed by hand in order to get the best results. While it has been but a few years since this style of thrashing was in vogue, it seems very strange at this time to have to put some one on the straw pile to keep the straw out of the way of the straw carrier as it used to be called. We did not know we had gotten away from that old machine until someone used it again.

Are Holding Series of Meetings.

At the Presbyterian church in Murray there is being conducted a series of meetings which are being conducted by the pastor Rev. W. F. Graham, assisted by the Synodical superintendent of the church, the Rev. James F. Ross. They have been having some very interesting meetings, which are being attended by a large number of people.

Card of Thanks.

During the late illness of our father, William Nickels, and at the time of his death and funeral our friends have with the utmost kindness ministered to the wants of our father, and for the beautiful floral tokens, the beautiful singing and the kindness and sympathy we extend our sincere thanks.—The children and other relatives of the late William Nickels.

Old Settler At Rest.

Last Tuesday afternoon at the Lewiston church, southeast of Murray, was held the services over the remains of one of the best of citizens which Cass county has had for the past more than half century. William Nickels, who passed away last Monday morning at an early hour after an illness extending over more than a year. Mr. Nickels, an account of whose death appears in the Journal of last Monday, was one of the hardy pioneers, who came to this country more than fifty years ago, and by hard work and keeping at it won for himself and family a farm and a competency, and has enjoyed the honor and respect of a host of friends and neighbors during these years. The funeral was conducted by the Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union, and was attended by such a large concourse of people, who desired to pay the excellent service of respect to this excellent citizen that the church was unable to hold them.

Held Interesting Meeting.

There are seven Christian churches in Cass county, and they have in their Bible school entered into a contest for seven weeks, and during each week will meet one night at one of the towns in which there are churches. The first one to have the meeting was Murray. Their meeting was here on last Monday evening with a large crowd of people here, there was a goodly number of people from the Murray church Plattsmouth was represented by 32, Weeping Water by 22, Louisville by 8, and Avooca by 2. Matters pertaining to the success of the contest and of interesting more people in the school of the church was discussed. The matter of securing a minister for the Murray church is looking much brighter at this time and it is hoped that such will be the result. The next meeting will be at Avooca and will be on Tuesday of next week. The following week the meeting will be held at Weeping Water. All interested should attend these meetings. The Rev. J. K. Shellenberger, who is a teacher in Cotner University was in Murray last Sunday and delivered a most eloquent address at the morning and evening services.

United Presbyterian Notes.

W. F. Graham, Pastor
Services every night this week except Saturday, at the United Presbyterian church. Dr. J. F. Ross of Colorado Springs, Colo., will be the speaker. All are cordially invited. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed next Sabbath morning.

BIBLE SCHOOL LESSON

November 16
By M. S. Briggs

"Peter's Confession."

Golden Text: "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God."—Matthew, 16, 16.

The Apostle Peter was one of the outstanding characters among the Twelve, as much so as John and Judas Iscariot. Peter a sturdy fisherman was used and inured to all kinds of physical hardships, many the time he had braved the tempest on the Sea of Galilee, and being a hardy and brave man, he was willing to meet any physical danger for a cause, which he espoused. He had come to the Christ because he was convinced that Jesus was from the Father in heaven, and that he was the son of God. Like the boy, in last Sunday's lesson, was sure that Jesus, the Christ, was the Son of God, and, as such, Peter was willing to conform his life to the message the Christ brought from the Father in heaven. Peter, the heroic apostle, was a leader, and had in mind, that, as he knew for an assurance, that Christ was God's Son, he also understood thoroughly what was the place of the Father and the Son, and in some instances interpreted the words of the Master, and in one instance concerning an idea which did not meet with the divine plan.

When Jesus had said that He must go up to Jerusalem and suffer many indignities from the Elders and be put to death, Peter feeling that the Son of God could not go to death and that he would fight in order that it might not occur, said "Be it far from you, this can never come to you." The Master rebuked Peter for his assumption and being in conflict with the plan of God, saying, "Get behind me Satan. Thou savorest not of the things of God."

Again, at the scene of the last supper in the upper room, when all said we shall never forsake Thee, Peter said, "Altho all others forsake Thee still will I not forsake Thee." Peter thought he knew himself and was assuring the Master of his loyal support, but the Christ did not need to be told of men for he knew what was in man. Then He told Peter "Before the cock shall crow, thou shalt deny me three times." Peter thought the Master mistaken and so contended. Peter really thought his position sure, and in the garden whipped out his sword and cut off the ear of a servant of the high priest. Holding up His hand Jesus said, "That is enough" and touched the ear, healing it instantly. They then led Jesus away to the King of Jerusalem for trial. Then followed Peter afar off, being denied his way of fighting. He was admitted into the house of the high priest, and as they warmed themselves by a fire in the court, or open place between the buildings, he was accosted by a woman, who pointed her tapering finger at him and said, "Thou art one of them." Peter denied, saying, "I know not the man."

Two more times. Then immediately the cock crew, and Peter turning looked at the Master, with the crown of thorns on His head being buffeted and spit upon and went out into the night and wept bitterly. Then with the experience of finding the empty Peter said to others of the disciples, "I go fishing will you go." Thus having lost his vision of the Master and was returning to his old occupation, forgetting the Master.

They had fished all night and caught nothing and as morning came the Christ was on the shore and called to them "Cast your net on the right side of the boat and you shall get fish."

They did and when they had come to land they saw a fire of coals and fish thereon and He bade them come and eat.

As they were eating Jesus said to Peter, "Lovest thou me more than these?" Peter replied, "Yea, Lord I love Thee. The Master said "Feed my sheep." Again He asked the same question with the same reply, and again the third time at which Peter became angry and said "Lord, Thou knowest all things, Thou knowest I love Thee." Jesus said "Feed my lambs." As Peter had denied the Master three times he must need confess himself three times as well.

This is the man, whom, with the others, Jesus asked whom do people say that I the Son of Man am? The answer: "Some say Ye are John the Baptist; some, Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets. Thus showing a diversity sayeth Jesus unto them, "But whom say ye that I am?" Then Simon Peter, who had been given a vision from the Father said, "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God."

The Master said, "Flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but My Father, which is in heaven. Blessed art thou, Simon Bai-Jo-Nah, or Simon, the son of John."

This confession which Peter had made, is a confession we all must make, not alone by word of mouth, but must conform our lives to this great certitude of the universe, the Dominion of the Eternal God, who sent his son to the world to redeem it by his love, for "God so loved the world that he gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

Jesus said unto Peter, that upon this rock I will build my church. That I am the Son of God, and the gates of hades shall not prevail against the church.

But in the end the church shall prevail or overcome the world. The flesh and the divine and the last thing to be conquered is death, and the world shall be swallowed up in life everlasting.

Weaker Tone to the Hogs.

Ten thousand fresh hogs arrived Wednesday and sold at prices ranging from steady to a dime lower than Tuesday. Prime butcher weights sold up to $9.25 and bulk of all the trading was at $8.40@9.15.

Receipts were 6,000 head and the market slow but about steady all around. Best woolled lambs brought $13.50, clipped $11.25 and feeders lambs $13.50.

Quotations on sheep and lambs:—

Lambs, good to choice, $13.25@13.60; lambs, fair to good, $12.00@13.25; feeding lambs, $12.00@13.50; wethers, $5.00@7.50; clipped lambs, $4.75@5.75@11.25; yearlings range, $7.00@9.50; fat ewes, $5.50@7.00; breeding ewes, yearlings, excluded, $4.00@8.00; feeding ewes, $5.00@6.25.

"Rime" is now the generally preferred spelling of this word. The spelling "rhyme" does not seem to have occurred until about the middle of the Sixteenth century. It probably arose from the false analogy between "rime" and "rhym." The tendency now is to return to the original and correct form of the word—"rime."—The Pathfinder.

IOWA COUNT ON SENATOR

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 10.—Senator Smith W. Brookhart's unofficial majority over his democratic opponent for the United States senate in Tuesday's election has dwindled from 1,025 to 675 when more than one-half of the election boards in Iowa's ninety-nine counties completed their official canvass of the vote late today. Returns from their official surveys are not expected to be completed in all counties until late this week, numerous boards having adjourned this evening until after armistice day.

The loss and gain for each candidate has fluctuated widely on the reports so far received. In fifty counties the result was a gain of ninety-six votes for Senator Brookhart, while his loss totaled 200 votes. Stead had gained 470 and lost 223.

Brookhart's greatest gain so far in the canvass was in Page county, where he picked up sixty-three votes, while Osceola added twenty-seven. The new total stood tonight: Brookhart, 447,426; Stead, 446,752.

CARD OF THANKS

To the voters of Cass county I desire to express my appreciation of their support at the election on last Tuesday. I will strive to represent the best interests of the people of Cass county in the state legislature. EARL TOWLE.

Mrs. Harold Erickson and son were in Omaha today to spend a few hours looking after some matters of business.

ARMISTICE DAY CELEBRATION IS HELD LAST NITE

Large Number Attend Evening's Entertainment at Eagles Hall by the American Legion.

Last evening the local post of the American Legion staged an observance of Armistice day and in which a number of the well known and talented residents of the city assisted in the excellent program and the enjoyment of the evening.

The evening program was in charge of a committee headed by Fred Lugsch as chairman and the exercises were presided over by J. A. Capwell.

The Plattsmouth high school glee club, one of the newly formed musical societies at the school was present and gave two very pleasing numbers to add to the delights of the evening.

Mrs. Robert Reed, one of the talented pianists of the city, also gave a most enjoyable selection which was received with the most marked approval.

Vocal numbers were also given by Mrs. E. H. Westcott and B. A. McElwain and both of these well known artists were at their best in the well chosen and beautifully given numbers.

Mrs. William Baird was heard in one of her always delightful readings that was very much appreciated by her auditors.

A short address was given by Attorney W. G. Kleck during the course of the evening that covered the spirit of Armistice day and its meaning to the service men and women and in his closing remarks paid a very touching tribute to the fallen heroes and to the memory of President Woodrow Wilson, the war time leader of the nation.

After the program of the evening there was dancing until a late hour, the Kettleson jazz artists furnishing the music for the occasion and which completed the pleasant gathering that had been arranged by the Legion for the marking of this Armistice day.

During the evening refreshments of fruit punch was served in the ante-room of the hall by Mrs. Gerald Holcomb and Mrs. Harrison L. Gayer that added to the pleasure and comfort of the dancers.

Miss Celia Kalasek was a passenger on the train for Omaha to spend a few hours looking after some matters of business and visiting with friends in that city.

Thomas Walling was a visitor in Omaha today where he was called to look after a few matters of business and enjoy a rest from the work of the abstract office.
