

Union Department

Prepared Exclusively for The Journal.

E. E. Leach was a business visitor at both Louisville and Plattsmouth the latter portion of last week.

L. G. Todd, L. G. Mead and Joe Banning were visiting hogs dressed for themselves last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. LaRue were visiting with friends in Nebraska City last Saturday, driving down in their auto.

Raymond Hathaway and Red Bitte were spelling and delivering corn during the week at the Farmers' elevator in Union.

You Never Know

featuring Earl Williams, Gertrude Astor and an all-star Cast

There is always something romantic and appealing in stories woven around the revolutions of South American republics. You never know when you may need a friend or whom that friend may be. A tramp dog, a street urchin or a banker's daughter may befriended you tomorrow and in return you may do them a great favor. "You Never Know." Don't fail to see this beautiful story in pictures.

Also 2-reel Jimmy Aubrey Comedy

THE BACK YARD

Show will be out in plenty time to go to the dance in Woodman Hall.

-Union Theatre-

Saturday Nite, January 17th

Dr. J. W. Thomas of Nehawka was a visitor in Union last Monday looking after some matters of business for a short time.

David Churchill and wife of Twin Falls, Idaho, was visiting here last week and renewing acquaintances and looking over the town.

Miss Eva Hathaway was a visitor at Omaha on last Tuesday where she was looking after some shopping as well as visiting with friends.

W. B. Banning was having hay delivered to the W. H. Pitzer farm near Union last Monday which is being used for feeding there.

The Higgins truck backed into the gas serving station of L. G. Todd recently and broke the same which was repaired by Frank Owings.

Last Monday, John Lidgett marked the Nebraska City market by Edward Dowler, the truckman.

Joe Lidgett has been doing some carpenter repair work at the home of George Lindsay which is adding to the convenience of the farm home.

Miss Fannie McCarroll was a visitor in Omaha last Tuesday where she was looking after some business matters as well.

Henry H. Becker has been kept pretty busy shelling corn near Wyoming, some of the corn coming to Union and other being shipped from the station at Wyoming.

L. G. Todd has had two cars of ice shipped from the reservoir from Weeping Water and will store enough to supply his needs but will not expect to have ice for sale.

Ray Chriswiser, Harry Vantine, Ben Albin and Joseph Everett were all taking advantage of the good prices for wheat and were delivering some to the Union elevators.

Lloyd Cole of Weeping Water was a visitor in Union last Sunday coming over to see a number of his friends and also incidentally was looking after some business as well.

A. W. Knox, who formerly the proprietor of the lower hotel and eating house, assumed control of the place again during this week and will conduct the business in the future.

Miss Ora Clark who is an accomplished musician, has a number of classes in music and who are all doing most exceptionally well under her skillful instruction. See her ad in another column.

R. M. Taylor has been quite ill at his home near Union for the past more than a week and while he has been showing some improvement he is still very ill and all is being done for his recovery possible.

Burley Huston who has been making his home in Union for some time for that has been with the Missouri Pacific, departed one day last week for Seattle where he is expecting to make his home in the future.

Clarence Smith, a brother of Clifton D. Smith, who was visiting here for a short time at the home of his brother, departed last week for his home at Yuma, Colo. after having enjoyed his stay here very much.

James Simmons, the operator, has been confined to his home with an acute attack of neuralgia which has caused him much suffering. He is, however, reported as being some better at this time though still quite ill.

W. H. Porter, who with the wife have recently moved to Union, is preparing to engage in farming the coming summer and is making purchases of the things which will be required for that purpose, he having purchased of the things which C. M. F. W. chased some stock at this time.

Senator W. B. Banning who is at this time in the legislature at Lincoln, was a visitor at Union for over Sunday where he was looking after some business matters for a short time and returned to Lincoln where the family are making their home during the session of the legislature.

Being in a very venturesome mood last Monday morning, Mrs. Daniel Lynn and Mrs. John Lidgett tackled the Missouri Pacific train for a ride to Nebraska City where they went to do some trading in line which they could not be supplied by the stores of Union.

The Rev. Aulritz of Lincoln was a visitor in Union last Sunday, conducting services during the morning hour and during the afternoon made an address to the young men and in the evening talked before the young peoples meeting, making a full day of it and is a most interesting speaker and a favorite of the Union people.

Last Thursday Dan Lynn became a full fledged justice of the peace and in many instances having coordinate jurisdiction with the county judge and has offered should John Tizner and R. D. Stine supply the bride, a widow preferred, and Attorney C. L. Graves pay for the license, to perform the ceremony of marrying the bride to the young man. This offers stands until revoked by the court. Now, boys, get busy and do not be too long about it, either.

cian LaRue, Bernard Austin, Justin Anderson, Cecil Nickles, Donald Harris, Arthur Foster, Paul Pickering, John and Ray Mead, E. Ruhlia and Oscar Smith.

Lost a Hunting Dog

I have lost a valuable hunting dog which is a black and tan, and for its return will pay ten dollars. Two of its toes are off.—Willis Eaton. 115-2wks. w

Card of Thanks

For the very sincere kindnesses of the many friends who ministered to our needs during the illness and at the time of the death of our wife and sister, Mrs. James Wilson, and for the flowers for the singing and for the sympathy which all extended to us, we wish to extend our heartfelt thanks.—James F. Wilson, husband, and her brother and sister.

Union School Notes

Union high school has formed a "self-governing student body." Seven members are chosen to act for a period of three weeks, as overseers. Each having a period to act. We have done this to build up our school. We show enough respect for the school and ourselves to govern ourselves to the best of our ability. This plan has been successfully carried out and we hope it will continue.

Dunbar will play basketball at Union Friday, January 16. This is the first game on Union's floor this season. Let's have a large crowd.

P. T. A. will be held January 22. Charlotte Boardman is absent from school.

Oliver Lewis was absent from school Monday.

Beulah Clark and Dorothy Pell were absent Friday.

Miss Sallie Mae Fox spent the Christmas holidays at her home in Ashland, Kansas.

Bud Marcell spent Christmas vacation at his home in Highland, Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Boyd were guests at the home of his parents at Dunbar for Christmas dinner.

Uncle "Gabe" Austin, the janitor of the Union school building, has been ill during Christmas vacation, but is feeling much better and is able to begin his work again.

Allison Clark spent three days of his vacation at his brother's home in Omaha.

The Union basketball team played one game during vacation. They motored to Murdock last Friday evening. Both teams were defeated by a score of, Oh, well, we're not going to tell you the score—but we hope to do better next time.

The new student council had the right Christmas spirit when they took a collection from the student body for the benefit of the "Goodfellow Christmas Fund" at Nebraska City.

During vacation the senior class spent a day with their former instructor, Miss Moss, at her home in Bethany. They were well pleased with the cordial reception accorded them.

The seniors are now selecting their class pins and rings.

In spite of the two weeks hard work that the American history class spent on their 5,000 word theme, they are still unfinished. Nevertheless, we expect to finish them in another week.

A number of girls in High school are interested in cross-word puzzles. They are working for the $200 prize.

The humidity in room seven was very high Tuesday morning. In fact, it was so hot that the record. The results were pleasing as the damp moisture washed the blackboards.

The 11th and 12th English class are writing book reports on any of James Fenimore Cooper's books this week.

Miss Anna Rieke was visiting in Omaha during Christmas vacation at her brother's home.

The advanced domestic science class are now taking up the study of home management. Look out, boys! "Allison" what is meant by the word "avarice?" Haven't you ever heard the preacher use it?"

Allison (giving himself away): "No, I never did hear him."

Owing to the fact that Union had two weeks vacation, Monday was known as "Blue Monday," or better yet, "Dumb Monday."

Union is waking up to the fact that galoshes are in style.

Stock For Sale or Trade

I have some stock which I will sell or trade. Anyone wanting any of the following, please call me: 8 hules, 2 jacks, 6 mares, 2 geldings, 2 mares, type Poland-China sows.—G. S. Upton, Union, Neb.

Entered Their Friends

Last Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Lynn entertained their friends for the evening and for refreshments, consisting of ice cream, cake and coffee and at which time all enjoyed the occasion very much. There were there for the occasion: Messrs. and Mesdames Wayne Garrett, D. C. LaRue and John Lidgett.

REPORT OF THE CONDITION

OF

BANK OF UNION

of Union, Nebraska.

Charter No. 1002 in the State of Nebraska at the Close of Business December 31, 1924.

RESOURCES

Loans and discounts	$198,922.31
Overdrafts	140.30
Bonds, securities, judgments, claims, etc., including all government bonds	7,944.32
Banking house, furniture and fixtures	5,000.00
Other real estate	17,629.47
Bankers' conservation fund	396.86
Due from National and State banks	49,830.11
Currency	2,430.00
Silver, nickel and cents	1,593.26
Liberty loan bonds held as cash reserve	2,100.00
TOTAL	$285,997.63

LIABILITIES

Capital stock paid in	$5,000.00
Surplus fund	11,000.00
Undivided profits (Net)	3,172.87
Dividends unpaid, dep. reserve	2,280.00
Individual deposits subject to check $155,646.23
Demand certificates	17.33
Time certificates of deposit	52,480.87
Savings deposits	8,522.99
Cashier's checks outstanding	3,230.81
Outstanding notes	2,250.00
Depositor's guaranty fund	2,594.43
TOTAL	$285,997.63

State of Nebraska } ss
County of Cass }
I, W. B. Banning, cashier of the above named bank, do hereby swear that the above statement is a correct and true copy of the report made to the State Bureau of Banking.

W. B. BANNING, Cashier.
WM. G. JAMES, Director.
L. G. TODD, Director.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 10th day of January, 1925.
CHARLES L. GRAVES,
(Seal) Notary Public.
(My commission expires May 1, 1928.)

Dr. J. W. Thomas of Nehawka was a visitor in Union last Monday looking after some matters of business for a short time.

David Churchill and wife of Twin Falls, Idaho, was visiting here last week and renewing acquaintances and looking over the town.

Miss Eva Hathaway was a visitor at Omaha on last Tuesday where she was looking after some shopping as well as visiting with friends.

W. B. Banning was having hay delivered to the W. H. Pitzer farm near Union last Monday which is being used for feeding there.

The Higgins truck backed into the gas serving station of L. G. Todd recently and broke the same which was repaired by Frank Owings.

Last Monday, John Lidgett marked the Nebraska City market by Edward Dowler, the truckman.

Joe Lidgett has been doing some carpenter repair work at the home of George Lindsay which is adding to the convenience of the farm home.

Miss Fannie McCarroll was a visitor in Omaha last Tuesday where she was looking after some business matters as well.

Henry H. Becker has been kept pretty busy shelling corn near Wyoming, some of the corn coming to Union and other being shipped from the station at Wyoming.

L. G. Todd has had two cars of ice shipped from the reservoir from Weeping Water and will store enough to supply his needs but will not expect to have ice for sale.

Ray Chriswiser, Harry Vantine, Ben Albin and Joseph Everett were all taking advantage of the good prices for wheat and were delivering some to the Union elevators.

Lloyd Cole of Weeping Water was a visitor in Union last Sunday coming over to see a number of his friends and also incidentally was looking after some business as well.

A. W. Knox, who formerly the proprietor of the lower hotel and eating house, assumed control of the place again during this week and will conduct the business in the future.

Miss Ora Clark who is an accomplished musician, has a number of classes in music and who are all doing most exceptionally well under her skillful instruction. See her ad in another column.

R. M. Taylor has been quite ill at his home near Union for the past more than a week and while he has been showing some improvement he is still very ill and all is being done for his recovery possible.

Burley Huston who has been making his home in Union for some time for that has been with the Missouri Pacific, departed one day last week for Seattle where he is expecting to make his home in the future.

Clarence Smith, a brother of Clifton D. Smith, who was visiting here for a short time at the home of his brother, departed last week for his home at Yuma, Colo. after having enjoyed his stay here very much.

James Simmons, the operator, has been confined to his home with an acute attack of neuralgia which has caused him much suffering. He is, however, reported as being some better at this time though still quite ill.

W. H. Porter, who with the wife have recently moved to Union, is preparing to engage in farming the coming summer and is making purchases of the things which will be required for that purpose, he having purchased of the things which C. M. F. W. chased some stock at this time.

Senator W. B. Banning who is at this time in the legislature at Lincoln, was a visitor at Union for over Sunday where he was looking after some business matters for a short time and returned to Lincoln where the family are making their home during the session of the legislature.

Being in a very venturesome mood last Monday morning, Mrs. Daniel Lynn and Mrs. John Lidgett tackled the Missouri Pacific train for a ride to Nebraska City where they went to do some trading in line which they could not be supplied by the stores of Union.

The Rev. Aulritz of Lincoln was a visitor in Union last Sunday, conducting services during the morning hour and during the afternoon made an address to the young men and in the evening talked before the young peoples meeting, making a full day of it and is a most interesting speaker and a favorite of the Union people.

Last Thursday Dan Lynn became a full fledged justice of the peace and in many instances having coordinate jurisdiction with the county judge and has offered should John Tizner and R. D. Stine supply the bride, a widow preferred, and Attorney C. L. Graves pay for the license, to perform the ceremony of marrying the bride to the young man. This offers stands until revoked by the court. Now, boys, get busy and do not be too long about it, either.

Dr. J. W. Thomas of Nehawka was a visitor in Union last Monday looking after some matters of business for a short time.

David Churchill and wife of Twin Falls, Idaho, was visiting here last week and renewing acquaintances and looking over the town.

Miss Eva Hathaway was a visitor at Omaha on last Tuesday where she was looking after some shopping as well as visiting with friends.

W. B. Banning was having hay delivered to the W. H. Pitzer farm near Union last Monday which is being used for feeding there.

The Higgins truck backed into the gas serving station of L. G. Todd recently and broke the same which was repaired by Frank Owings.

Last Monday, John Lidgett marked the Nebraska City market by Edward Dowler, the truckman.

Joe Lidgett has been doing some carpenter repair work at the home of George Lindsay which is adding to the convenience of the farm home.

Miss Fannie McCarroll was a visitor in Omaha last Tuesday where she was looking after some business matters as well.

Henry H. Becker has been kept pretty busy shelling corn near Wyoming, some of the corn coming to Union and other being shipped from the station at Wyoming.

L. G. Todd has had two cars of ice shipped from the reservoir from Weeping Water and will store enough to supply his needs but will not expect to have ice for sale.

Ray Chriswiser, Harry Vantine, Ben Albin and Joseph Everett were all taking advantage of the good prices for wheat and were delivering some to the Union elevators.

Lloyd Cole of Weeping Water was a visitor in Union last Sunday coming over to see a number of his friends and also incidentally was looking after some business as well.

A. W. Knox, who formerly the proprietor of the lower hotel and eating house, assumed control of the place again during this week and will conduct the business in the future.

Miss Ora Clark who is an accomplished musician, has a number of classes in music and who are all doing most exceptionally well under her skillful instruction. See her ad in another column.

R. M. Taylor has been quite ill at his home near Union for the past more than a week and while he has been showing some improvement he is still very ill and all is being done for his recovery possible.

Burley Huston who has been making his home in Union for some time for that has been with the Missouri Pacific, departed one day last week for Seattle where he is expecting to make his home in the future.

Clarence Smith, a brother of Clifton D. Smith, who was visiting here for a short time at the home of his brother, departed last week for his home at Yuma, Colo. after having enjoyed his stay here very much.

James Simmons, the operator, has been confined to his home with an acute attack of neuralgia which has caused him much suffering. He is, however, reported as being some better at this time though still quite ill.

W. H. Porter, who with the wife have recently moved to Union, is preparing to engage in farming the coming summer and is making purchases of the things which will be required for that purpose, he having purchased of the things which C. M. F. W. chased some stock at this time.

Senator W. B. Banning who is at this time in the legislature at Lincoln, was a visitor at Union for over Sunday where he was looking after some business matters for a short time and returned to Lincoln where the family are making their home during the session of the legislature.

Being in a very venturesome mood last Monday morning, Mrs. Daniel Lynn and Mrs. John Lidgett tackled the Missouri Pacific train for a ride to Nebraska City where they went to do some trading in line which they could not be supplied by the stores of Union.

The Rev. Aulritz of Lincoln was a visitor in Union last Sunday, conducting services during the morning hour and during the afternoon made an address to the young men and in the evening talked before the young peoples meeting, making a full day of it and is a most interesting speaker and a favorite of the Union people.

Last Thursday Dan Lynn became a full fledged justice of the peace and in many instances having coordinate jurisdiction with the county judge and has offered should John Tizner and R. D. Stine supply the bride, a widow preferred, and Attorney C. L. Graves pay for the license, to perform the ceremony of marrying the bride to the young man. This offers stands until revoked by the court. Now, boys, get busy and do not be too long about it, either.

Dr. J. W. Thomas of Nehawka was a visitor in Union last Monday looking after some matters of business for a short time.

David Churchill and wife of Twin Falls, Idaho, was visiting here last week and renewing acquaintances and looking over the town.

Miss Eva Hathaway was a visitor at Omaha on last Tuesday where she was looking after some shopping as well as visiting with friends.

W. B. Banning was having hay delivered to the W. H. Pitzer farm near Union last Monday which is being used for feeding there.

The Higgins truck backed into the gas serving station of L. G. Todd recently and broke the same which was repaired by Frank Owings.

Last Monday, John Lidgett marked the Nebraska City market by Edward Dowler, the truckman.

Joe Lidgett has been doing some carpenter repair work at the home of George Lindsay which is adding to the convenience of the farm home.

Miss Fannie McCarroll was a visitor in Omaha last Tuesday where she was looking after some business matters as well.

Henry H. Becker has been kept pretty busy shelling corn near Wyoming, some of the corn coming to Union and other being shipped from the station at Wyoming.

L. G. Todd has had two cars of ice shipped from the reservoir from Weeping Water and will store enough to supply his needs but will not expect to have ice for sale.

Ray Chriswiser, Harry Vantine, Ben Albin and Joseph Everett were all taking advantage of the good prices for wheat and were delivering some to the Union elevators.

Lloyd Cole of Weeping Water was a visitor in Union last Sunday coming over to see a number of his friends and also incidentally was looking after some business as well.

A. W. Knox, who formerly the proprietor of the lower hotel and eating house, assumed control of the place again during this week and will conduct the business in the future.

Miss Ora Clark who is an accomplished musician, has a number of classes in music and who are all doing most exceptionally well under her skillful instruction. See her ad in another column.

R. M. Taylor has been quite ill at his home near Union for the past more than a week and while he has been showing some improvement he is still very ill and all is being done for his recovery possible.

Burley Huston who has been making his home in Union for some time for that has been with the Missouri Pacific, departed one day last week for Seattle where he is expecting to make his home in the future.

Clarence Smith, a brother of Clifton D. Smith, who was visiting here for a short time at the home of his brother, departed last week for his home at Yuma, Colo. after having enjoyed his stay here very much.

James Simmons, the operator, has been confined to his home with an acute attack of neuralgia which has caused him much suffering. He is, however, reported as being some better at this time though still quite ill.

W. H. Porter, who with the wife have recently moved to Union, is preparing to engage in farming the coming summer and is making purchases of the things which will be required for that purpose, he having purchased of the things which C. M. F. W. chased some stock at this time.

Senator W. B. Banning who is at this time in the legislature at Lincoln, was a visitor at Union for over Sunday where he was looking after some business matters for a short time and returned to Lincoln where the family are making their home during the session of the legislature.

Being in a very venturesome mood last Monday morning, Mrs. Daniel Lynn and Mrs. John Lidgett tackled the Missouri Pacific train for a ride to Nebraska City where they went to do some trading in line which they could not be supplied by the stores of Union.

The Rev. Aulritz of Lincoln was a visitor in Union last Sunday, conducting services during the morning hour and during the afternoon made an address to the young men and in the evening talked before the young peoples meeting, making a full day of it and is a most interesting speaker and a favorite of the Union people.

Last Thursday Dan Lynn became a full fledged justice of the peace and in many instances having coordinate jurisdiction with the county judge and has offered should John Tizner and R. D. Stine supply the bride, a widow preferred, and Attorney C. L. Graves pay for the license, to perform the ceremony of marrying the bride to the young man. This offers stands until revoked by the court. Now, boys, get busy and do not be too long about it, either.

Dr. J. W. Thomas of Nehawka was a visitor in Union last Monday looking after some matters of business for a short time.

David Churchill and wife of Twin Falls, Idaho, was visiting here last week and renewing acquaintances and looking over the town.

Miss Eva Hathaway was a visitor at Omaha on last Tuesday where she was looking after some shopping as well as visiting with friends.

W. B. Banning was having hay delivered to the W. H. Pitzer farm near Union last Monday which is being used for feeding there.

The Higgins truck backed into the gas serving station of L. G. Todd recently and broke the same which was repaired by Frank Owings.

Last Monday, John Lidgett marked the Nebraska City market by Edward Dowler, the truckman.

Joe Lidgett has been doing some carpenter repair work at the home of George Lindsay which is adding to the convenience of the farm home.

Miss Fannie McCarroll was a visitor in Omaha last Tuesday where she was looking after some business matters as well.

Henry H. Becker has been kept pretty busy shelling corn near Wyoming, some of the corn coming to Union and other being shipped from the station at Wyoming.

L. G. Todd has had two cars of ice shipped from the reservoir from Weeping Water and will store enough to supply his needs but will not expect to have ice for sale.

Ray Chriswiser, Harry Vantine, Ben Albin and Joseph Everett were all taking advantage of the good prices for wheat and were delivering some to the Union elevators.

Lloyd Cole of Weeping Water was a visitor in Union last Sunday coming over to see a number of his friends and also incidentally was looking after some business as well.

A. W. Knox, who formerly the proprietor of the lower hotel and eating house, assumed control of the place again during this week and will conduct the business in the future.

Miss Ora Clark who is an accomplished musician, has a number of classes in music and who are all doing most exceptionally well under her skillful instruction. See her ad in another column.

R. M. Taylor has been quite ill at his home near Union for the past more than a week and while he has been showing some improvement he is still very ill and all is being done for his recovery possible.

Burley Huston who has been making his home in Union for some time for that has been with the Missouri Pacific, departed one day last week for Seattle where he is expecting to make his home in the future.

Clarence Smith, a brother of Clifton D. Smith, who was visiting here for a short time at the home of his brother, departed last week for his home at Yuma, Colo. after having enjoyed his stay here very much.

James Simmons, the operator, has been confined to his home with an acute attack of neuralgia which has caused him much suffering. He is, however, reported as being some better at this time though still quite ill.

W. H. Porter, who with the wife have recently moved to Union, is preparing to engage in farming the coming summer and is making purchases of the things which will be required for that purpose, he having purchased of the things which C. M. F. W. chased some stock at this time.

Senator W. B. Banning who is at this time in the legislature at Lincoln, was a visitor at Union for over Sunday where he was looking after some business matters for a short time and returned to Lincoln where the family are making their home during the session of the legislature.

Being in a very venturesome mood last Monday morning, Mrs. Daniel Lynn and Mrs. John Lidgett tackled the Missouri Pacific train for a ride to Nebraska City where they went to do some trading in line which they could not be supplied by the stores of Union.

The Rev. Aulritz of Lincoln was a visitor in Union last Sunday, conducting services during the morning hour and during the afternoon made an address to the young men and in the evening talked before the young peoples meeting, making a full day of it and is a most interesting speaker and a favorite of the Union people.

Last Thursday Dan Lynn became a full fledged justice of the peace and in many instances having coordinate jurisdiction with the county judge and has offered should John Tizner and R. D. Stine supply the bride, a widow preferred, and Attorney C. L. Graves pay for the license, to perform the ceremony of marrying the bride to the young man. This offers stands until revoked by the court. Now, boys, get busy and do not be too long about it, either.

Dr. J. W. Thomas of Nehawka was a visitor in Union last Monday looking after some matters of business for a short time.

David Churchill and wife of Twin Falls, Idaho, was visiting here last week and renewing acquaintances and looking over the town.

Miss Eva Hathaway was a visitor at Omaha on last Tuesday where she was looking after some shopping as well as visiting with friends.

W. B. Banning was having hay delivered to the W. H. Pitzer farm near Union last Monday which is being used for feeding there.

The Higgins truck backed into the gas serving station of L. G. Todd recently and broke the same which was repaired by Frank Owings.

Last Monday, John Lidgett marked the Nebraska City market by Edward Dowler, the truckman.

Joe Lidgett has been doing some carpenter repair work at the home of George Lindsay which is adding to the convenience of the farm home.

Miss Fannie McCarroll was a visitor in Omaha last Tuesday where she was looking after some business matters as well.

Henry H. Becker has been kept pretty busy shelling corn near Wyoming, some of the corn coming to Union and other being shipped from the station at Wyoming.

L. G. Todd has had two cars of ice shipped from the reservoir from Weeping Water and will store enough to supply his needs but will not expect to have ice for sale.

Ray Chriswiser, Harry Vantine, Ben Albin and Joseph Everett were all taking advantage of the good prices for wheat and were delivering some to the Union elevators.

Lloyd Cole of Weeping Water was a visitor in Union last Sunday coming over to see a number of his friends and also incidentally was looking after some business as well.

A. W. Knox, who formerly the proprietor of the lower hotel and eating house, assumed control of the place again during this week and will conduct the business in the future.

Miss Ora Clark who is an accomplished musician, has a number of classes in music and who are all doing most exceptionally well under her skillful instruction. See her ad in another column.

R. M. Taylor has been quite ill at his home near Union for the past more than a week and while he has been showing some improvement he is still very ill and all is being done for his recovery possible.

Burley Huston who has been making his home in Union for some time for that has been with the Missouri Pacific, departed one day last week for Seattle where he is expecting to make his home in the future.

Clarence Smith, a brother of Clifton D. Smith, who was visiting here for a short time at the home of his brother, departed last week for his home at Yuma, Colo. after having enjoyed his stay here very much.

James Simmons, the operator, has been confined to his home with an acute attack of neuralgia which has caused him much suffering. He is, however, reported as being some better at this time though still quite ill.

W. H. Porter, who with the wife have recently moved to Union, is preparing to engage in farming the coming summer and is making purchases of the things which will be required for that purpose, he having purchased of the things which C. M. F. W. chased some stock at this time.

Senator W. B. Banning who is at this time in the legislature at Lincoln, was a visitor at Union for over Sunday where he was looking after some business matters for a short time and returned to Lincoln where the family are making their home during the session of the legislature.

Being in a very venturesome mood last Monday morning, Mrs. Daniel Lynn and Mrs. John Lidgett tackled the Missouri Pacific train for a ride to Nebraska City where they went to do some trading in line which they could not be supplied by the stores of Union.

The Rev. Aulritz of Lincoln was a visitor in Union last Sunday, conducting services during the morning hour and during the afternoon made an address to the young men and in the evening talked before the young peoples meeting, making a full day of it and is a most interesting speaker and a favorite of the Union people.

Last Thursday Dan Lynn became a full fledged justice of the peace and in many instances having coordinate jurisdiction with the county judge and has offered should John Tizner and R. D. Stine supply the bride, a widow preferred, and Attorney C. L. Graves pay for the license, to perform the ceremony of marrying the bride to the young man. This offers stands until revoked by the court. Now, boys, get busy and do not be too long about it, either.

Dr. J. W. Thomas of Nehawka was a visitor in Union last Monday looking after some matters of business for a short time.

David Churchill and wife of Twin Falls, Idaho, was visiting here last week and renewing acquaintances and looking over the town.

Miss Eva Hathaway was a visitor at Omaha on last Tuesday where she was looking after some shopping as well as visiting with friends.

W. B. Banning was having hay delivered to the W. H. Pitzer farm near Union last Monday which is being used for feeding there.

The Higgins truck backed into the gas serving station of L. G. Todd recently and broke the same which was repaired by Frank Owings.

Last Monday, John Lidgett marked the Nebraska City market by Edward Dowler, the truckman.

Joe Lidgett has been doing some carpenter repair work at the home of George Lindsay which is adding to the convenience of the farm home.

Miss Fannie McCarroll was a visitor in Omaha last Tuesday where she was looking after some business matters as well.

Henry H. Becker has been kept pretty busy shelling corn near Wyoming, some of the corn coming to Union and other being shipped from the station at Wyoming.

L. G. Todd has had two cars of ice shipped from the reservoir from Weeping Water and will store enough to supply his needs but will not expect to have ice for sale.

Ray Chriswiser, Harry Vantine, Ben Albin and Joseph Everett were all taking advantage of the good prices for wheat and were delivering some to the Union elevators.

Lloyd Cole of Weeping Water was a visitor in Union last Sunday coming over to see a number of his friends and also incidentally was looking after some business as well.

A. W. Knox, who formerly the proprietor of the lower hotel and eating house, assumed control of the place again during this week and will conduct the business in the future.

Miss Ora Clark who is an accomplished musician, has a number of classes in music and who are all doing most exceptionally well under her skillful instruction. See her ad in another column.

R. M. Taylor has been quite ill at his home near Union for the past more than a week and while he has been showing some improvement he is still very ill and all is being done for his recovery possible.

Burley Huston who has been making his home in Union for some time for that has been with the Missouri Pacific, departed one day last week for Seattle where he is expecting to make his home in the future.

Clarence Smith, a brother of Clifton D. Smith, who was visiting here for a short time at the home of his brother, departed last week for his home at Yuma, Colo. after having enjoyed his stay here very much.

James Simmons, the operator, has been confined to his home with an acute attack of neuralgia which has caused him much suffering. He is, however, reported as being some better at this time though still quite ill.

W. H. Porter, who with the wife have recently moved to Union, is preparing to engage in farming the coming summer and is making purchases of the things which will be required for that purpose, he having purchased of the things which C. M. F. W. chased some stock at this time.

Senator W. B. Banning who is at this time in the legislature at Lincoln, was a visitor at Union for over Sunday where he was looking after some business matters for a short time and returned to Lincoln where the family are making their home during the session of the legislature.

Being in a very venturesome mood last Monday morning, Mrs. Daniel Lynn and Mrs. John Lidgett tackled the Missouri Pacific train for a ride to Nebraska City where they went to do some trading in line which they could not be supplied by the stores of Union.

The Rev. Aulritz of Lincoln was a visitor in Union last Sunday, conducting services during the morning hour and during the afternoon made an address to the young men and in the evening talked before the young peoples meeting, making a full day of it and is a most interesting speaker and a favorite of the Union people.

Last Thursday Dan Lynn became a full fledged justice of the peace and in many instances having coordinate jurisdiction with the county judge and has offered should John Tizner and R. D. Stine supply the bride, a widow preferred, and Attorney C. L. Graves pay for the license, to perform the ceremony of marrying the bride to the young man. This offers stands until revoked by the court. Now, boys, get busy and do not be too long about it, either.

Dr. J. W. Thomas of Nehawka was a visitor in Union last Monday looking after some matters of business for a short time.

David Churchill and wife of Twin Falls, Idaho, was visiting here last week and renewing acquaintances and looking over the town.

Miss Eva Hathaway was a visitor at Omaha on last Tuesday where she was looking after some shopping as well as visiting with friends.

W. B. Banning was having hay delivered to the W. H. Pitzer farm near Union last Monday which is being used for feeding there.

The Higgins truck backed into the gas serving station of L. G. Todd recently and broke the same which was repaired by Frank Owings.

Last Monday, John Lidgett marked the Nebraska City market by Edward Dowler, the truckman.

Joe Lidgett has been doing some carpenter repair work at the home of George Lindsay which is adding to the convenience of the farm home.

Miss Fannie McCarroll was a visitor in Omaha last Tuesday where she was looking after some business matters as well.

Henry H. Becker has been kept pretty busy shelling corn near Wyoming, some of the corn coming to Union and other being shipped from the station at Wyoming.

L. G. Todd has had two cars of ice shipped from the reservoir from Weeping Water and will store enough to supply his needs but will not expect to have ice for sale.

Ray Chriswiser, Harry Vantine, Ben Albin and Joseph Everett were all taking advantage of the good prices for wheat and were delivering some to the Union elevators.

Lloyd Cole of Weeping Water was a visitor in Union last Sunday coming over to see a number of his friends and also incidentally was looking after some business as well.

A. W. Knox, who formerly the proprietor of the lower hotel and eating house, assumed control of the place again during this week and will conduct the business in the future.

Miss Ora Clark who is an accomplished musician, has a number of classes in music and who are all doing most exceptionally well under her skillful instruction. See her ad in another column.

R. M. Taylor has been quite ill at his home near Union for the past more than a week and while he has been showing some improvement he is still very ill and all is being done for his recovery possible.

Burley Huston who has been making his home in Union for some time for that has been with the Missouri Pacific, departed one day last week for Seattle where he is expecting to make his home in the future.

Clarence Smith, a brother of Clifton D. Smith, who was visiting here for a short time at the home of his brother, departed last week for his home at Yuma, Colo. after having enjoyed his stay here very much.

James Simmons, the operator, has been confined to his home with an acute attack of neuralgia which has caused him much suffering. He is, however, reported as being some better at this time though still quite ill.

W. H. Porter, who with the wife have recently moved to Union, is preparing to engage in farming the coming summer and is making purchases of the things which will be required for that purpose, he having purchased of the things which C. M. F. W. chased some stock at this time.

Senator W. B. Banning who is at this time in the legislature at Lincoln, was a visitor at Union for over Sunday where he was looking after some business matters for a short time and returned to Lincoln where the family are making their home during the session of the legislature.

Being in a very venturesome mood last Monday morning, Mrs. Daniel Lynn and Mrs. John Lidgett tackled the Missouri Pacific train for a ride to Nebraska City where they went to do some trading in line which they could not be supplied by the stores of Union.

The Rev. Aulritz of Lincoln was a visitor in Union last Sunday, conducting services during the morning hour and during the afternoon made an address to the young men and in the evening talked before the young peoples meeting, making a full day of it and is a most interesting speaker and a favorite of the Union people.

Last Thursday Dan Lynn became a full fledged justice of the peace and in many instances having coordinate jurisdiction with the county judge and has offered should John Tizner and R. D. Stine supply the bride, a widow preferred, and Attorney C. L. Graves pay for the license, to perform the ceremony of marrying the bride to the young man. This offers stands until revoked by the court. Now, boys, get busy and do not be too long about it, either.

Dr. J. W. Thomas of Nehawka was a visitor in Union last Monday looking after some matters of business for a short time.

David Churchill and wife of Twin Falls, Idaho, was visiting here last week and renewing acquaintances and looking over the town.

Miss Eva Hathaway was a visitor at Omaha on last Tuesday where she was looking after some shopping as well as visiting with friends.

W. B. Banning was having hay delivered to the W. H. Pitzer farm near Union last Monday which is being used for feeding there.

The Higgins truck backed into the gas serving station of L. G. Todd recently and broke the same which was repaired by Frank Owings.

Last Monday, John Lidgett marked the Nebraska City market by Edward Dowler,