

EXTRA VALUE
Overcoats!
 The supreme expression of money's worth is found in our extra value overcoats at $25 $30 $35

The price is right, the quality is there and no monkey business.

C. E. Wescott's Sons

"One Price and No Monkey Business."

DIRECTOR FRANK LLOYD BUILDS A "MOVIE" TOWN

Complete Village Constructed for Actors and Assistants on Location on Large Island.

Among the big achievements in Frank Lloyd's production of "The Sea Hawk," was Camp Lloyd on the isthmus...

Camp Lloyd sprang into being when the early sea scenes for the photoplay were being made...

FOR OVER 40 YEARS
HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE has been used successfully in the treatment of Catarrh...

Joe J. Stibal, D.C. B.C.
Chiropractor
 Phone No. 3 Schmidtman Bldg. PLATTSMOUTH, NEBR.

Chiropractic Deals with the CAUSE OF DISEASE and does not Treat Effects

Locating the cause and adjusting it is the most modern and more permanent way to health.

Dr. H. C. Leopold
Osteopathic Physician
 General practice. Also Eyes Tested and Glasses Fitted.

Three other Algerian buildings also were constructed for atmosphere.

The four ancient ships, ranging from 195 to 192 feet in length and manned by from 100 to 400 men each...

For three weeks Camp Lloyd buzzed like an army cantonment, the 700 principals, extras, technicians and laborers rising at 6:30 each morning...

Camp Lloyd was a picturesque village indeed each morning as the sun arose from the ocean in the East and cast its reflections upon galleys...

MONEY TAKES WINGS

The cup of misfortune of William Dasher, residing at Ninth and Timber streets, seems to be filled to overflowing and the first of the troubles was Sunday, when Mr. Dasher fell from a flat car in the Burlington yards...

Mr. Dasher had some $60 in good hair oil of the United States brand which had been placed in the family cupboard for safe keeping but the place failed in the purpose that it was intended...

Suspicion was attached to a party that had been around the place at different times and the matter was laid before County Attorney Kieck and Sheriff E. P. Stewart...

DE MOLAY INSTALLS

Last evening, Cass chapter, Order of DeMolay, held a very interesting session at their lodge rooms in the Masonic temple and conducted the installation of the officers for the ensuing term...

Master Councilor—Fred Tritley. Senior Councilor—James A. V. Warren. Junior Councilor—John Iverson.

Impure blood runs you down—makes you an easy victim for disease. For pure blood and sound digestion—Burdock Blood Bitters.

Buy your big size pants at the Yoke Corner Store and Hardware Store.

THOUGH TIME MAY FLY THE CAR STILL RUNS

Parking of Car for a Period of Several Hours With Motor Running Attracts Attention.

Much has been said in poetry and prose of the faithfulness of man's truest friend, the humble canine, who asks no greater boon than to feel the caressing touch of the master's hand...

One of the well known citizens of the community who is alert and active in the affairs of everyday life, suffered a slight attack of lumbago...

CONSTABLE JACK BRITAIN

From Tuesday's Daily—John C. Britain, councilman from the fourth ward has added dignity today to his personality and has blossomed forth as an official of the county court...

Some four hours later a voice over the telephone called the well known citizen and asked as to what disposition should be made of the car as it had stood faithful to its trust in front of the postoffice...

LOCAL NEWS

Dr. Heineman, Dentist, Hotel Main Bldg., Phone 567.

From Monday's Daily—Mrs. J. L. Wagner of Gretna, and John I. Dolan of Faith, South Dakota, are here enjoying a visit at the home of their sister, Mrs. Charles McGuire and family.

Oscar Hagerstrom of Magnet, Nebraska, who has been here visiting at the home of his cousin, J. H. Hallstrom and family, departed this morning for his home, going on the early Burlington train.

Father M. A. Shine departed this morning for Lincoln where he goes to spend the day attending the meeting of the native sons and daughters of Nebraska as well as the state historical society that will be in session there this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mathelson of Canton, South Dakota, were in Omaha Saturday and had a short time to spare came down to enjoy Sunday here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Rice, the parents of Mrs. Mathelson.

Max Adams of St. Paul, who was here for the week end, visiting with his parents, Mrs. and Mr. Will T. Adams, returned this morning to Lincoln to resume his work as a member of the legislature, he being a representative from Howard county.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Egenberger departed yesterday for Kansas City where they will spend a few days visiting and sight seeing and then leave over the Santa Fe for the Pacific coast, visiting at Los Angeles and other points on the coast with relatives and friends.

From Tuesday's Daily—B. F. Wiles was a business visitor in Omaha today where he spent a few hours attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends.

Mrs. W. T. Smith has been confined to her home for Mrs. Will T. Adams suffering from a very severe attack of lumbago that has proven most painful.

Mrs. J. D. Hawksworth and little daughter of Osmond, Nebraska, are here enjoying a visit at the home of Mrs. Hawksworth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allan J. Beeson.

Leland Briggs, who has been here and at Omaha attending a school of instruction of the Dodge Motor company, returned Sunday evening to his home at Winner, South Dakota, where he is employed in a large automobile concern there.

John A. Libershal departed this morning for a visit of several months throughout the northwest, stopping at Edwinston, South Dakota, and other points, and will visit with relatives and friends en route to his home at St. Paul, Minn.

ett, Washington, to spend some time with friends.

From Wednesday's Daily—B. H. Martin and T. Z. Shrader of near Nebraska were here today for a short time en route to Omaha where they were called to look after some matters of business.

Guy Reese of Bovina, Colorado, is here enjoying a visit with his relatives and friends in this locality and is a guest at the home of his uncle, J. H. McMaken and family.

Mrs. A. S. Chase of Baldwin, Iowa, who is here visiting at the home of her son, S. S. Chase and family, was in Omaha today for a few hours and was accompanied by her granddaughter.

Mrs. Alice Perdue, district deputy of the W. B. A. of the Maccaebas, who was here last evening to attend the installation of the officers of the local review, departed this morning for her home.

Mrs. Jennie Klimm, who has been confined to her home here since Thanksgiving day with a severe attack of rheumatism, was in the city today for the first time since taking sick and is feeling greatly improved, although not entirely over the effects of the attack.

August Roessler and wife departed this afternoon for Newton, Kansas, where they will enjoy a visit with their daughter, Mrs. W. H. Hohmann and family. Mr. Hohmann is a member of the faculty of the Bethel college at Newton and the family have made their home there for the past year.

CONSTATABLE JACK BRITAIN

From Tuesday's Daily—John C. Britain, councilman from the fourth ward has added dignity today to his personality and has blossomed forth as an official of the county court. Mr. Britain was appointed yesterday afternoon by County Judge A. D. Duxbury, to the office of constable, succeeding Thomas Svoboda in that office as far as the county court is concerned...

ANNIVERSARY OF BIG BLOW

From Tuesday's Daily—Yesterday, January 12th marked the anniversary of what has been known in the history of the west as the "great blizzard," a storm that swept over this part of the country on January 12, 1888, and caused great suffering and loss of life all over the west.

PURCHASES OLD HOME

From Tuesday's Daily—The old Bajock homestead in the western part of the city, located on Maiden Lane, which was sold yesterday in a partition of the estate of the late John Bajock and wife, was passed at the sale by Michael Bajock, son of the deceased. The price paid was $3,500, and is considered a very pleasing bargain...

LEAVES $12,000 ESTATE

C. W. Fahnstock, named executor in the will of Jane Johnson, who died Dec. 19, 1924, offered the will for probate Tuesday morning. The will drew up in Avoca, May 28, 1923, provides that her $12,000 estate, consisting of personal property, be divided equally among the following heirs: Emma Maseman, niece of Lincoln; Lizzie Sperber, sister; Alice Englis, niece; J. W. Stopforth and four other nephews; Richard, Charley, Frank, Jr., and Fred Dobney—Lincoln Star.

ENJOYS FINE DANCE

Last evening the members of Plattsmouth lodge No. 739, B. P. O. E., and their families enjoyed a very pleasant dance at the club house on Lincoln. The music was furnished by the orchestra of the Lincoln band, and was the usual tantalizing brand that Al has made famous. The dancing continued until 1 o'clock before the members of the party would permit the playing of "Home Sweet Home."

RECEIVE PLEASANT NEWS

From Wednesday's Daily—The friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Spacht of Peru, have received word of the arrival of a fine little daughter at their home on 30th street at Plattsmouth on Monday, January 13, 1925. The baby is a girl and is named for the mother. The friends here will be pleased to learn of the happy event.

OPERATED ON YESTERDAY

From Wednesday's Daily—Mrs. Charles L. Martin of this city was operated on yesterday morning at the Clark hospital in Omaha and she came through the operation in the very best of shape although over 1,000 pounds, average of all in a year. Improvement that has been made in the university here can be duplicated by careful breeders of the state, the college men believe.

For regular action of the bowels; easy, natural movements, relief of constipation, try Doan's Backache Kidney Pills.

STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY TO MEET AT LINCOLN TODAY

Forty-eighth Annual Meeting to be Held Tuesday—Former Senator Hitchcock to Speak.

The forty-eighth annual meeting of the Nebraska State Historical Society will be held in Lincoln today. The business session will be held at 10 a. m. in room 310 of the university library building.

At the business meeting three members of the executive board will be elected. President H. B. Lowry will be in charge. Annual reports will be read and miscellaneous business transacted.

The Historical Society rooms in the library building will be open for all friends of the society from 2 to 5 p. m. to see an exhibition of the museum collections and the library. At the evening session special gifts to the society will be presented with brief addresses.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

Copy for this Department furnished by County Agent

From Tuesday's Daily—The average butterfat production of the University herd in the University of Nebraska's Agricultural college herd at Lincoln was 556 lbs. in 1923. The average cow of the state produced about 104 lbs. in the same period.

WOMENS WORK

Clubs interested in the Home Management Course, don't forget the first meeting of the club on Friday, January 17, at 8 o'clock sharp.

START THIRD YEAR RECORDS

A group of farmers met recently at Eagle for their second annual Farm Account book summarizing study. New account books were started in preparation for a similar study to be made at the end of 1925.

5-IN-1 COWS

The average butterfat production of the University herd in the University of Nebraska's Agricultural college herd at Lincoln was 556 lbs. in 1923. The average cow of the state produced about 104 lbs. in the same period.

POLICE MAKE SEARCH

From Monday's Daily—Last evening, Chief of Police Hinrichsen, Officers Joe Libershal and Clyde Jackson and Constable Tom Svoboda made a visit to the south part of the city to locate if possible a source of supply of illicit liquor, but in their search they were unable to find any indication of the violation of the liquor law.

HIGHWAY NAME IS CHANGED

From Tuesday's Daily—By proclamation of Governor N. E. Kendall a few weeks before he retired from office, the White Pole highway from Davenport to Council Bluffs was officially declared to be the "Gold Star Highway for Iowa."

DEATH OF LITTLE CHILD

From Tuesday's Daily—The death of Alice Ewing, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ewing occurred yesterday afternoon at the University hospital from Iowa where she was taken Sunday at the request of County Attorney W. G. Kieck.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to take this means to thank the many kind friends for their beautiful floral remembrances and the many handsome post cards received on the occasion of my 80th birthday and which event they made much more pleasant.

MRS. MARGARET WEHRBEIN.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

At Plattsmouth, in the State of Nebraska, at the Close of business on December 31, 1924.

Table with columns: RESOURCES, LIABILITIES. Includes items like Loans and discounts, Deposits, Capital stock, Surplus fund, etc.

State of Nebraska } ss. County of Cass } ss. I, Geo. O. Dovey, Cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

ATTORNEYS PROBE ALLEGED ABUSE OF BANKRUPTCY LAWS

Executive Group of American Bar Appoints Special Committee to Investigate Subject. Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 12.—Selection of Detroit as the 1925 convention city and consideration of important reports marked today's sessions of the executive committee of the American Bar association meeting here with Secretary of State Charles Evans Hughes as presiding officer.

DEATH OF LITTLE CHILD

From Tuesday's Daily—The death of Alice Ewing, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ewing occurred yesterday afternoon at the University hospital from Iowa where she was taken Sunday at the request of County Attorney W. G. Kieck.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to take this means to thank the many kind friends for their beautiful floral remembrances and the many handsome post cards received on the occasion of my 80th birthday and which event they made much more pleasant.

MRS. MARGARET WEHRBEIN.

Hey, Boys!
HAVE YOU NOTICED THE—Royal Blue

Sweater slipovers on the streets—the ones with the white bars and stripes—Well they all come from Thierolf's. We make them to your special order.

Philip Thierolf, VALUE LIVING CLOTHING