

Union Department

Prepared Exclusively for The Journal.

Ottie Keene had the misfortune to have one of his fingers crushed while assisting in unloading ice last Monday morning.

Mrs. Wayne Garrett and Miss Wilona Dysart were visiting and looking after some shopping in Nebraska City Saturday.

Herman C. Ross was a visitor and took dinner at Pleasant Hill last Monday where he enjoyed the visit very much.

Charles Swan has been having a time with the grip and while he is some better or is not as yet so he can get out and hustle.

Ross' niece was delivering wheat at the Farmers elevator in Union last Monday and was well pleased with the rise in price.

W. A. Harding was a visitor at his home at Bethany for over the week end and returned to look after the business here on Monday morning.

J. D. Cross who was very poorly last week and was not able to get about scarcely is now much better and so he can get about and look after his work.

Mrs. Emma Hill of South Bend, who is a teacher of the Irvin Echo school, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pearsley near Rock Bluffs for over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bollman were called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor on last Saturday and were accompanied by Mrs. Hattie Austin, all enjoying the visit very much.

Mr. Clarence was delivering some corn at the McCarthy elevator last Monday and notwithstanding the excellent prices now being offered for both wheat and corn there is little for sale.

Frank Boggs who is working in Omaha where he is engaged in the soliciting of insurance, was a visitor at home for over Sunday and returned to his work in the metropolis on Monday evening.

W. H. Porter is getting ready to embark in farming as soon as the winter has subsided and will with the coming of the spring time be out in the fields early and late singing like a lark.

L. G. Todd received and stored three carloads of ice for his summer use last Monday, the ice coming from Weeping Water which insured it being the very best as it comes from a lake fed by springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruel Taylor were spending last Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schwartz, where the men were dressing some hoes and the women were making sausage and rendering lard.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis LaRue were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Simmons for the day last Sunday. Mr. Simmons has been quite ill for the past two weeks but was able to return to his work with the Missouri Pacific.

W. A. Taylor and wife were enjoying the hospitality of their friends Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Austin at the Austin home on last Monday evening for a six o'clock dinner which was greatly enjoyed by all as well as the evening following the feast.

R. M. Taylor, who has been quite ill at his home near Union for some time past, is at this time showing some improvement and is some better and is hoping that he will continue to improve. His many friends are sorry that he has been stricken with the serious illness.

Winfield Swan who was for a lengthy period compelled to remain at home on account of having a tussle with the grip, is so far recovered that he was able to be in town for the first time last Monday afternoon. He is making some good improvement at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Armstrong were blessed with the gift of one of the finest little daughters last Friday and while the joy is great over the arrival, the mother is far from doing as well as would be liked and a nurse is kept caring for her and the best of medical attention.

Wayne Garrett of Omaha was a visitor in Union Sunday, coming to enjoy the week end and visit with Mrs. Garrett and the family of D. C. LaRue. Mr. Garrett is an accountant in the Woodman of the World building and Mrs. Garrett is finishing her school year northeast of Union.

Mrs. L. G. Todd entertained at her home last Thursday the members of the Missionary society at which time a most pleasant gathering was had and pleasing program and a most enjoyable time was had which was heightened by delightful refreshments furnished by Mrs. Todd, the accomplished hostess.

Mrs. H. M. Shumaker entertained at her beautiful home in Murray on last Wednesday the members of the local Woman's Christian Temperance union and after their work was done a most delightful social hour was had which was followed by light refreshments and all pronounced Mrs. Shumaker a most accomplished entertainer.

Workmen are busy getting the room under the store of R. D. Stine ready for occupancy by Ird Clark, the burger, who is expecting to move as soon as the place is ready. Then will the work be commenced in the room which is occupied by Mr. Clark now and which is to be occupied by Mrs. Mable Reynolds, is getting it ready for her store.

Mrs. F. H. McCarthy has been quite ill at her home for the past ten days and unable to be up a good portion of the time and until Mr. McCarthy was able to secure a nurse, which was no easy task, he had to be nurse and cook at the same time. Mrs. McCarthy while some better is quite ill yet and everything possible is being done for her comfort and recovery.

FORMER RESIDENT OF UNION DIES IN WEST

S. M. Cox, Who Conducted the Hotel There Some Years Ago, Buried with Klan Ceremonials.

From Tuesday's Daily—
Silas Martin Cox was laid to rest this morning in Hermosa cemetery, following services held in the Chapel at 10 o'clock. In a beautiful casket rested all that was mortal of this good man who has been a member of the Baptist church for forty years in his native state and a member of the local Baptist church for the past two years. All about the steeple were beautiful floral tributes of love, roses, sweet peas and carnations.

The service opened with the Klansman ritual, which was very impressive. Sixteen Klansmen in white robes marched in, bearing the American flag, and a beautiful floral cross fashioned in red and white blossoms with the letters K K K formed of red carnations on the surface of the cross.

"Blest be the Tie that Binds" was softly sung, followed by Scripture and prayer by members of the Klan. They sang "Our Father's God to Thee, Author of Liberty, to Thee We Sing." At the close of the ritual the order marched out singing "My Country, 'Tis of Thee."

Rev. G. R. Dye, pastor of the First Baptist church of San Bernardino, officiated at the service in the absence of Rev. Horace B. Blood. A quartet composed of Mrs. Everett Hines, Mrs. Bledsoe, G. W. Ogden and E. E. Ward sang "It is Well with My Soul." Rev. Dye read the story of Martha, Mary and Lazarus, followed by selections from Paul written to the churches. Rev. A. B. Whitney offered prayer. Following the reading of the obituary by Rev. Dye, he continued his talk, using the Shepherd's Psalm, the 23rd, reviewing the comforting lines of the whole psalm. He spoke of the beautiful relation of the Shepherd to the sheep.

A very large audience was in attendance at the funeral evincing the love and respect in which the deceased was held. After the sermon and a short prayer, the service concluded with another selection by the quartet, "Know My Savior Cares."

Fall boarders selected to do the last act of service were J. T. Bagwell, W. R. Ellery, G. W. Ogden, E. E. Ward, Mr. Powell and Mr. Bird. And Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and the life; he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live."

I. M. Knopshyder had charge of the funeral arrangements.—San Bernardino (Cal.) Courier.

Lost His Milk Toast

Last Saturday Joseph Ellington who is a friend of the Tigners and by the way a very jovial young man of 63 years of age, came down and paid a visit to his friends, John Tigner and wife. They, in order to entertain their guest and old time friend, had arranged with a good woman from the country for milk toast for the purpose of making milk toast which was left at the store of R. D. Stine. While Mr. Tigner was down the street someone poured the milk out of the pail and substituted water instead. When Mr. Tigner came to go home he seized the pail and toted it home and it was put away for the morning but when the toast was ready other than the application of the milk it was discovered that the milk had turned to water. Mr. Ellington was deprived of his favorite dish and it is whispered that he was on the inner circle when the transfer was made and not without legal counsel. Now everybody is laughing at the mixup which occurred and are expecting to have as much fun out of the predicament as if they really enjoyed the toast. But such is the way of boys when they have passed the three score mark.

Entertained at Dinner

Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor entertained last Saturday at their home for a number of friends at a dinner at which all enjoyed the occasion most pleasantly. There were there for the occasion and assisting in the splendid time Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holbeck and their daughter, Marjorie and son, Donald.

Entertained For Sunday Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Todd entertained at their home last Sunday for the day and dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Todd of Calgary, Canada; Dwyer Todd and family of Norfolk, Nebraska; and Clifton D. Smith and family of Union. The day was made more pleasant on account of the presence of Miss Alice Todd who was home for over Sunday from the state university.

FUNERAL OF MRS. DOERING

From Monday's Daily—
At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jahrig on N. 6th street on Saturday afternoon occurred the funeral of Christina Doering, an old resident of this city, whose death occurred on Thursday afternoon.

The home was filled with a large number of relatives and friends of the deceased to pay their last tributes of love and respect to her memory.

The services were conducted by the Rev. Kohler of Omaha, pastor of the German Methodist church, and also by the Rev. Frank Emory Pfoutz of the First Methodist church of this city, the services being in both English and German.

During the service, Frank A. Coldt gave two numbers, "Some Day We'll Understand" and "Jesus Savior, Pilot Me." Miss Marie Kaufmann and Rev. Kohler also sang a duet of one of the old German hymns that had been a great favorite of the departed lady.

The interment was at Oak Hill cemetery beside that of the husband, who had preceded Mrs. Doering in death a number of years ago.

Sorrow Follows Happiness

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Shinn were blessed last Friday by a little girl baby coming to their home to give light and happiness, but after living but a short time their happiness was changed to sorrow when the angel of death took the little one, calling it to heaven where sorrow and pain is not known. The coming of the little one brought a flood of joy and its being taken back to the bosom of the Father binds close the parents to that eternal shore where all is gladness. The funeral of the little one was held last Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock and the services were conducted by the Rev. W. A. Taylor and the interment made in the West Union cemetery. Mrs. Shinn is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Eaton and with her parents and husband have the sincere sympathy of their many friends in Union.
