Prepared in the interests of the People of Nehawka and Surrounding Vicinity Especially for the Journal Readers.

Frank McConnell was a visitor in Nebraska City last Friday having a load of stock at the market for a patron.

Dr. J. W. Thomas was a visitor, with his wife, at the home of relatives and friends in Weeping Water last Sunday.

Thomas Mason, Jr., was looking after some business matters in Nebraska City last Sunday, driving over in his auto for the day.

Henry Knabe and wife were in Plattsmouth last Saturday where they were looking after some business matters for a few hours.

Walter Wunderlich was a visitor in Nebraska City last week where he was looking after some business matters for a short time last Friday.

Frank Trotter was a visitor in Omaha last Friday taking with him a load of hogs for one of the farmers to the South Omaha stock market.

V. P. Sheldon was a business visitor in Omaha last Monday and Thursday of this week where he was called to attend some matters of business.

M. R. Peters of LaPlatte, was a business visitor in Nehawka last Monday having some matters to look after regarding the exchange of some land.

R. E. Morris was a visitor in Nehawka with his oil gasoline wagon coming to furnish the customers here with their supply of gas and oil last Monday.

R. H. Chriswisser of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Nehawka last Monday coming with the wife, the latter visiting at the home of her parents for a few days while Dick looked after some business matters.

C. W. Chriswisser purchased a truck load of pigs of W. A. Hicks last Monday which he loaded into the vehicle and took home and will see what can be made of the varments notwithstanding the excessive high price of corn.

Mr. George Tate in his struggle with the old man rheumatism, has had a number of his teeth extracted and thinks that has had something to do with the elimination of the rheumatic pains, but will now have to get used to store teeth.

C. D. St. John and wife were visiting the country last Sunday, they making a trip to Wyoming and after having visited with friends there went west and returned via Eugene Nutzman's home and had a very exhilarating drive though not entirely smooth.

D. C. West of the Nehawka bank was in Omaha for a number of days this week, where he was serving on a committee with a banker from Grand Island and one from Elgin in perfecting some measures in the credit bureau of the banking business of the state of Nebraska.

Thomas E. Fulton, while working in the shop, had the misfortune to take hold of a hot tire which he had been setting with the result that he received quite a severe burn on his hand. However, the injury is getting along nicely at this time and it is hoped it will soon be well again.

A. F. Sturm and C. M. Chriswisser were securing their ice harvest last Monday and now are prepared for the sweltering hot days of the coming summer, when they can lay in the shade and place a chunk of ice on their fevered brow and laugh as the blazing sun makes the corn grow.

Charles Chappell, who disposed of his farming implements and had a sale that he might not farm this season, on account of his health, is not feeling the best, having much trouble with his neck, was in town Monday and said he was not expecting to work this summer but look after the restoration of his health.

Richard Hudner of Chicago, who was with the drilling company here, when they prospected for oil, was in town last Monday to superintend the loading of the remainder of the machinery and material for shipment to Nocona, Texas, where they will be used by the Boyd Oil Company, who are sinking a well there at this time.

Mrs. T. E. Fulton was a visitor for a number of days at Nebraska City last week extending over the week end. She went to see her niece, Mrs. Edgar Glaze, who is in the hospital there following an operation for appendicitis and while she the patient is holding her own she has not been making the progress toward recovery that is desired.

Joshua Sutphan was a visitor at the home of Frank McNurlin near Cedar Creek, last Monday where he went to attend the funeral of Mrs. McNurlin, which occurred that day. Mr. Sutphan being old time friends of the family. While he was away W. A. Norris was attending to the business at the store. The funeral of Mrs. McNurlin was conducted by Rev. Hewitt of the United Brethren church of which Mrs. McNurlin is a member.

Fortunate Termination of Accident.
Last Sunday while Walter Wunderlich was putting some belt dressing on the belt of a running engine, which is used at the home of Mr. D. C. West on his air compressor, the splicing of the belt caught the friction stick and in that manner caught Walter's hand in between the belt and the pulley and riddled the arm, hand and wrist in a manner that bruised it very badly. Fortunately indeed was Mr. Wunderlich in that the power was not very heavy on the

RESIDENTS NEAR NEHAWKA SEE A LIONESS MONDAY

Far Famed Animal That Has Been Glimpsed in This Vicinity Reported Near Nehawka.

From Tuesday's Daily—
Now this is a real lion story and not a lying story as might be surmised and good men and true of the vicinity of Nehawka and Union are vouching for the fact that a real honest-to-goodness lioness was seen Monday afternoon near the Charles Hoback farm, northeast of Nehawka and northwest of Union.

According to the story that has come from that locality, the lioness was glimpsed about a half past yesterday afternoon while a number of the men were engaged in butchering on the Hoback place and Ruel Taylor, well known resident of near Union, is the man claimed to have seen the animal at her antics in an oat stubble field.

The lioness, so the story goes, had suddenly emerged from a straw stack where she had been apparently enjoying a snooze and from the indications the lioness must have made a sudden leap after a rabbit as she was springing when the first glimpse of her was seen.

The news of the discovery of the animal spread very rapidly and a delegation from Nehawka was dispatched on the scene and the excitement that reigned was the greatest that has occurred here since the ill-fated expedition that once set forth from Plattsmouth under the leadership of Col. Fred Kroehler to capture the now almost forgotten cannon.

There was no trace of the lioness to be found on the arrival of the party and it had evidently made an escape before the party got near the scene of action where it had first been glimpsed.

Those who were at the Hoback farm state that the animal was minus the mane that usually decorates the king of beasts and on this is the only point on which the animal was the female of the species.

This is the first time that a real good description of the animal has been received although it has been reported at various times over the western and northern portion of Otoe county this morning for Otamora, Cass county and the residents there looking heavily armed in the future in fear of a visit from the unwelcome visitor.

Mrs. Julius Nielson was a passenger this morning for Omaha to spend a few hours in that city, looking after some matters of business.

Frank Barkus and little daughter, Catherine, were among the visitors in Omaha today where they spent a short time with Mrs. Barkus' mother in that city.

BIG TEN-DAY CUT PRICE SALE OFFERS UNUSUAL VALUES

Bates Book and Gift Shop Reduces Prices a Third—Opportunity to Save on Useful Goods

The big ten day clearance sale at the Bates Book and Gift Shop that was inaugurated Bargain Wednesday is on in full swing and with added sales force to wait on the trade, the goods are moving out rapidly, although there is a world of merchandise to be sold due to a backward Christmas season and inability of the farmers to get to town then over the impassible country roads.

Now, with a general improvement in the condition of the highways, the farmers can enjoy equally with their city neighbors the advantages of this unusual sale.

In most every line carried by this large book, stationery and gift store the regular selling price has been reduced one-third, which means a net saving of $1 on every three, goods originally priced as low as they could be bought for anywhere.

Among the featured articles in this sale are dolls, of which the store carried a most complete line, including the famous Madam Herndon, the best known doll on the market. These are standard priced articles the world over, but the slow Christmas season has compelled a reduction of stock to normal demands, and they will all be sacrificed at one third-off.

In the line of sporting goods, a clean-up of boxing gloves at one-third off and of foot balls at even greater discount are featured. The store's leader, a well made leather foot ball, previously priced at $1.25, is now on sale at 90c. Other foot balls from 75c to $4.50 for the regular $6 professional balls.

A large assortment of slightly soiled popular copyrights that sold regularly at 75c have been priced during this 10-day sale at 45c. They are all good numbers and are bound to move rapidly at this price.

A clean-up special that will interest students is that of the Webster Dictionary and World Atlas. Only a limited number of these are to be had, but while they last these regularly priced $3 to $4 books will be sold at $1.50.

In shipping baskets, the entire line of 75c to $1.25 values has been placed in three groups, priced at 40c, 50c and 60c.

Several hundred boxes of fancy stationery have been placed on the bargain tables at discounts ranging from 30 to 50 per cent. Boxes formerly sold at 75c to $1 have all been placed on the 50c table and include truly remarkable values. Others at lower prices, and a few higher.

The bargain tables are piled high with odds and ends from this large stock and in nearly every instance

Nehawka -:- Nebraska

Visit Parents Here.
Arno Wessel, who has been located for some time past in Omaha, was a visitor in Nehawka for over the week end here and was a guest at the home of his parents, Harry Wessel and wife, and departed later for Minneapolis where he will be located in the future working for the same company that he is with at present.

Nehawka and Eagle Game.
The basketball game, which was staged between the two teams of the Nehawka school and the two teams of the Eagle school, and which was played at Nehawka last week, attracted a large crowd and great interest was manifested. The results of the girls game was that the Nehawka school won with a score of 42 to 29. To compensate for that the Eagle boys won from the Nehawka boys by a score of 19 to 16.

Mrs. W. S. Steele Buried Sunday.
Eva Gertrude Munn was born on November 1st 1875, five miles south of Nehawka, to Warren and Rachel Munn.

Her mother passed away December 22nd, 1909. In the year of 1910, Eva went to Florida, and was married on June 27 to William S. Steele. To this union five children were born, all now alive save Darrel, a son, who died at the age of eleven months. She lived to mourn her loss, a husband, William Steele, and four children. Early in life Mrs. Steele was with the Congregation al church and was a true follower of the Nazarene. Short service was held at the home in Nehawka at 10 a. m., followed by a service at the Wyoming M. E. church at 11:00 a. m., where many of the relatives and friends of childhood days assembled to pay their respects. The funeral service was conducted by W. A. Taylor of Union and the body was interred in Cowles cemetery.

Card of Thanks.
To our friends and neighbors we wish to extend our sincerest and heartfelt thanks for their sympathetic kindness and beautiful floral offerings. In the hour of our deepest grief and sorrow, in the loss of our beloved wife and mother, in our hearts we, brothers and sisters, say truly, we thank you.—W. S. Steele and children, Adelbert and Warren Munn, and her sisters, Ella, Emma, and Edna.

ENJOYABLE BIRTHDAY PARTY
From Thursday's Daily—
The passing of the birthday of Miss Mary Wynn was made the occasion of a most delightful gathering of friends at the home of Mrs. E. J. Craig, sister of Miss Wynn on Friday evening. The color scheme of the occasion was in pink and white and made a very attractive setting for the event. During the evening games of all kinds were enjoyed and in the flower contest, Miss Laura Skalk proved the winner and was awarded an appropriate prize. In honor of the occasion the guest of honor received a large number of very attractive and beautiful gifts that will be remembrances of the friends in the future years. At a suitable hour a dainty three-course luncheon was served that added very much to the enjoyment of the occasion. At a 10 o'clock hour the members of the party departed homeward wishing Miss Wynn many more such pleasant occasions in the future.
