

The Plattsmouth Journal

PUBLISHED SEMI-WEEKLY AT PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA
Entered at Postoffice, Plattsmouth, Neb., as second-class mail matter

R. A. BATES, Publisher

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE $2.00 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

TO LAY HOLD ON ETERNAL LIFE

Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high minded nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth as richly all things to enjoy; laying up in store for themselves against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

—I Timothy 6:17-19.

Life is a puzzle to which the answer is never published.

The price of wheat is up so they are saying it with flowers.

Consider the busy bee, and how quickly he works himself to death.

Charlie Chaplin's notion of marriage: A honeymoon and make it snappy.

Mrs. Sack of Providence, R. I., got $300,000 because her husband left her holding the sack.

A Detroit woman robbed men and gave the money to her husband, but they are hard to train that way.

Even though it was an army dentist, a soldier shot in Washington, we say he shouldn't have done it.

In Arkansas a prisoner leaped from the train and escaped; a quaint old custom fast coming back in style.

It took 12,000 men to clean up after New York's snow storm, so maybe they were paid out of a slush fund.

Our language changes. A pedestrian once meant one who walks. Now it means one who runs and jumps.

They do such strange things in Texas. Besides electing a woman governor, they arrested an oil stock salesman.

Federal income taxes will be due shortly, which is certainly proof that the world isn't thinking about bettering itself immediately.

A woman bootlegger was sentenced in Adrian, Michigan. She had hauled 5,000 cases of beer in one year. Working too hard will ruin her health.

"Fifty Below Zero Is Registered Today in New Zealand"—gleaned from the headlines. And we haven't heard a word about Calvin Coolidge meeting his fellow farmers on his native beach.

When a British minister spoofs our prohibition at a dinner to a retiring American ambassador some red-blooded law-abider ought to get mad. Our first choice for the job is Wayne Wheeler, but we'll compromise on Judge Gary.

Diogenes, seeing a ruined profiteer make a meal of a few olives, said to him: "If you had dined so, you would not be supping so." He finally discovered himself to be the honest man he was looking for, since he admitted that he didn't himself know what he meant by the above.

Intrenched wealth becomes impudent and reckless. Ten years ago more than three days would have been permitted to elapse between the announcement of John D. Jr.'s gift of $250,000 to a church and the announcement of an increase in the price of gasoline.

"The Mississippi oyster is 100 percent O. K.," say health authorities on the gulf coast. Of course it is. Only Chicago has indicted the oyster, and they never convict anything or anybody in the Windy City! Besides, the Mississippi oyster has not been indicted. Bivalves from other sections of the country are under suspicion.

Those Americans who are morbid enough to enjoy barbarity at its best, and have neither time nor money to visit Russia, are advised to make a trip to Herrin, Ill. Here organizations, operating in the names of civilization, law and order, and other things which are to their members vague and mysterious, wipe out at one fell swoop, great groups of the population. You see, there is an excuse for barbarity in Herrin. Most thugs offer none. It is the revelation of refinement that appeals to us.

TRIED AND TRUE

It is an old saying, tried and true, that "the laborer is worthy of his hire."

Especially is this true of those who toil in the Lord's vineyard.

As a rule, spiritual workers are poorly rewarded, insofar as material offerings are concerned. It is a pathetic fact that people are mean, niggardly and miserly where members of the clergy are the recipients.

If the average preacher would devote the same energy, ability and devotion to duty to some form of material work that he gives to his high calling as a laborer for Christ Jesus, he would soon be rich beyond all dreams of avarice.

But the average preacher is poor in worldly goods from the cradle to the grave. He knows little, and cares less about the luxuries of this world. Always he is satisfied with a modest competence, and he is fortunate indeed, if when dying, he leaves his family sufficiently provided for to keep the wolf from his widow's door and his children out of the poorhouse.

We would ask nothing better in life than to be one of the heirs to the Edwards estate. To one so fortunate, there can be no sleepless nights. Five minutes of deep thinking about one's share of that rich treasure would do more to woo slumber than a million sheep, counted backwards.

But those who report to this particular nepenth should not blame the Chinese for going to the pipe for the same result.

The time for introducing bills in the state legislature is up. Good!

Circumstances do not make the man who makes the circumstances.

A bachelor is a man who has no one to throw his worn out neckties away for him.

A man isn't old until he can no longer enjoy the conviction that he is misunderstood.

Not here to brag to our friends about how relieved we are.

The Edwards heirs who take their chances seriously can never be hopeless. If they strongly desire the wealth which they believe to be theirs by right, the dream of some day obtaining it must mitigate every misfortune which befalls them. No matter how up against it they may be, the way out always looms ahead, just around the next bend.

People who have all the money they can use are denied this comfort. When life hands them a poke in the nose and they get their share, they cannot take stock of their material assets and say, "Well, all this will be different as soon as we get that hundred thousand!" They already have theirs, and when they discover that it hasn't made them immune to human misery, they are in a jam, indeed.

People who have all the money they can use are denied this comfort. When life hands them a poke in the nose and they get their share, they cannot take stock of their material assets and say, "Well, all this will be different as soon as we get that hundred thousand!" They already have theirs, and when they discover that it hasn't made them immune to human misery, they are in a jam, indeed.

People who have all the money they can use are denied this comfort. When life hands them a poke in the nose and they get their share, they cannot take stock of their material assets and say, "Well, all this will be different as soon as we get that hundred thousand!" They already have theirs, and when they discover that it hasn't made them immune to human misery, they are in a jam, indeed.

People who have all the money they can use are denied this comfort. When life hands them a poke in the nose and they get their share, they cannot take stock of their material assets and say, "Well, all this will be different as soon as we get that hundred thousand!" They already have theirs, and when they discover that it hasn't made them immune to human misery, they are in a jam, indeed.

People who have all the money they can use are denied this comfort. When life hands them a poke in the nose and they get their share, they cannot take stock of their material assets and say, "Well, all this will be different as soon as we get that hundred thousand!" They already have theirs, and when they discover that it hasn't made them immune to human misery, they are in a jam, indeed.

People who have all the money they can use are denied this comfort. When life hands them a poke in the nose and they get their share, they cannot take stock of their material assets and say, "Well, all this will be different as soon as we get that hundred thousand!" They already have theirs, and when they discover that it hasn't made them immune to human misery, they are in a jam, indeed.

People who have all the money they can use are denied this comfort. When life hands them a poke in the nose and they get their share, they cannot take stock of their material assets and say, "Well, all this will be different as soon as we get that hundred thousand!" They already have theirs, and when they discover that it hasn't made them immune to human misery, they are in a jam, indeed.

People who have all the money they can use are denied this comfort. When life hands them a poke in the nose and they get their share, they cannot take stock of their material assets and say, "Well, all this will be different as soon as we get that hundred thousand!" They already have theirs, and when they discover that it hasn't made them immune to human misery, they are in a jam, indeed.

People who have all the money they can use are denied this comfort. When life hands them a poke in the nose and they get their share, they cannot take stock of their material assets and say, "Well, all this will be different as soon as we get that hundred thousand!" They already have theirs, and when they discover that it hasn't made them immune to human misery, they are in a jam, indeed.

People who have all the money they can use are denied this comfort. When life hands them a poke in the nose and they get their share, they cannot take stock of their material assets and say, "Well, all this will be different as soon as we get that hundred thousand!" They already have theirs, and when they discover that it hasn't made them immune to human misery, they are in a jam, indeed.

People who have all the money they can use are denied this comfort. When life hands them a poke in the nose and they get their share, they cannot take stock of their material assets and say, "Well, all this will be different as soon as we get that hundred thousand!" They already have theirs, and when they discover that it hasn't made them immune to human misery, they are in a jam, indeed.

People who have all the money they can use are denied this comfort. When life hands them a poke in the nose and they get their share, they cannot take stock of their material assets and say, "Well, all this will be different as soon as we get that hundred thousand!" They already have theirs, and when they discover that it hasn't made them immune to human misery, they are in a jam, indeed.

People who have all the money they can use are denied this comfort. When life hands them a poke in the nose and they get their share, they cannot take stock of their material assets and say, "Well, all this will be different as soon as we get that hundred thousand!" They already have theirs, and when they discover that it hasn't made them immune to human misery, they are in a jam, indeed.

People who have all the money they can use are denied this comfort. When life hands them a poke in the nose and they get their share, they cannot take stock of their material assets and say, "Well, all this will be different as soon as we get that hundred thousand!" They already have theirs, and when they discover that it hasn't made them immune to human misery, they are in a jam, indeed.

People who have all the money they can use are denied this comfort. When life hands them a poke in the nose and they get their share, they cannot take stock of their material assets and say, "Well, all this will be different as soon as we get that hundred thousand!" They already have theirs, and when they discover that it hasn't made them immune to human misery, they are in a jam, indeed.

People who have all the money they can use are denied this comfort. When life hands them a poke in the nose and they get their share, they cannot take stock of their material assets and say, "Well, all this will be different as soon as we get that hundred thousand!" They already have theirs, and when they discover that it hasn't made them immune to human misery, they are in a jam, indeed.

People who have all the money they can use are denied this comfort. When life hands them a poke in the nose and they get their share, they cannot take stock of their material assets and say, "Well, all this will be different as soon as we get that hundred thousand!" They already have theirs, and when they discover that it hasn't made them immune to human misery, they are in a jam, indeed.

People who have all the money they can use are denied this comfort. When life hands them a poke in the nose and they get their share, they cannot take stock of their material assets and say, "Well, all this will be different as soon as we get that hundred thousand!" They already have theirs, and when they discover that it hasn't made them immune to human misery, they are in a jam, indeed.

People who have all the money they can use are denied this comfort. When life hands them a poke in the nose and they get their share, they cannot take stock of their material assets and say, "Well, all this will be different as soon as we get that hundred thousand!" They already have theirs, and when they discover that it hasn't made them immune to human misery, they are in a jam, indeed.

People who have all the money they can use are denied this comfort. When life hands them a poke in the nose and they get their share, they cannot take stock of their material assets and say, "Well, all this will be different as soon as we get that hundred thousand!" They already have theirs, and when they discover that it hasn't made them immune to human misery, they are in a jam, indeed.

People who have all the money they can use are denied this comfort. When life hands them a poke in the nose and they get their share, they cannot take stock of their material assets and say, "Well, all this will be different as soon as we get that hundred thousand!" They already have theirs, and when they discover that it hasn't made them immune to human misery, they are in a jam, indeed.

People who have all the money they can use are denied this comfort. When life hands them a poke in the nose and they get their share, they cannot take stock of their material assets and say, "Well, all this will be different as soon as we get that hundred thousand!" They already have theirs, and when they discover that it hasn't made them immune to human misery, they are in a jam, indeed.

People who have all the money they can use are denied this comfort. When life hands them a poke in the nose and they get their share, they cannot take stock of their material assets and say, "Well, all this will be different as soon as we get that hundred thousand!" They already have theirs, and when they discover that it hasn't made them immune to human misery, they are in a jam, indeed.

People who have all the money they can use are denied this comfort. When life hands them a poke in the nose and they get their share, they cannot take stock of their material assets and say, "Well, all this will be different as soon as we get that hundred thousand!" They already have theirs, and when they discover that it hasn't made them immune to human misery, they are in a jam, indeed.

People who have all the money they can use are denied this comfort. When life hands them a poke in the nose and they get their share, they cannot take stock of their material assets and say, "Well, all this will be different as soon as we get that hundred thousand!" They already have theirs, and when they discover that it hasn't made them immune to human misery, they are in a jam, indeed.

TIME TO PLANT TREES

Plattsmouth property owners should not overlook the fact that this is the time of year when the sap has run low, and new trees should be set out.

There are some very beautiful trees in this city. Some have been here longer than the oldest citizen, since Plattsmouth was a mere village. Some of the faithful sentinels have fallen from the weight of years and others have risen to take their places.

As sturdy as are some of the old oaks and elms here today, they too must give way in time. Will there be any young trees growing up to replace them?

In some sections of the midwest there are entire cities that can boast no tree of any size. The homes are modern, the public buildings represent the investments of many thousands of dollars, the cities themselves are thriving and progressive.

But we think we would not like to live in any of them, unless it were possible to transport there, some of our oaks and elms and magnolias and others that flourish here almost without attention if they are once planted properly.

We should take even more advantage of the gifts of nature. There are homes here, particularly in some of the newer sections just growing up, which are of pleasing style and attractive—yet they lack something. A tree or so would make them restful and beautiful.

Even in the heart of winter, when the branches are bare, it is necessary to look forward to the time of budding leaf and of cool foliage that will temper the hot rays of summer sun. Now is the time to plant trees. All those whose premises need them should attend to this important matter now.

Let most any man get right confidential and he's likely to admit before he gets through that, in his day he's been something of a lady-killer.

The old timer who resented it when anybody tried to tell him how to run his business, now has a son who hires efficiency experts for no other reason.

One nice thing about the new large legged trousers. It is that if they go out of style there will be enough material in one pair to make two extra pairs.

Down in Missouri a bill has been introduced to unhood the Ku Klux Klan. The Klan has already done a power of good in this country, and it should be left alone. It doesn't bother anybody who does half-way right.

To those who are not used to dealing in big figures, and also those who don't seem to care a cuss where their tax money goes, it might be interesting to know that the total taxable income of the American people, personal and corporation, amounted in 1922 to $28,300,021,637, and of this amount the federal government collected taxes of $1,644,833,576. Stupendous, but correct, according to figures compiled by the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Those Americans who are morbid enough to enjoy barbarity at its best, and have neither time nor money to visit Russia, are advised to make a trip to Herrin, Ill. Here organizations, operating in the names of civilization, law and order, and other things which are to their members vague and mysterious, wipe out at one fell swoop, great groups of the population. You see, there is an excuse for barbarity in Herrin. Most thugs offer none. It is the revelation of refinement that appeals to us.

Those Americans who are morbid enough to enjoy barbarity at its best, and have neither time nor money to visit Russia, are advised to make a trip to Herrin, Ill. Here organizations, operating in the names of civilization, law and order, and other things which are to their members vague and mysterious, wipe out at one fell swoop, great groups of the population. You see, there is an excuse for barbarity in Herrin. Most thugs offer none. It is the revelation of refinement that appeals to us.

Those Americans who are morbid enough to enjoy barbarity at its best, and have neither time nor money to visit Russia, are advised to make a trip to Herrin, Ill. Here organizations, operating in the names of civilization, law and order, and other things which are to their members vague and mysterious, wipe out at one fell swoop, great groups of the population. You see, there is an excuse for barbarity in Herrin. Most thugs offer none. It is the revelation of refinement that appeals to us.

Those Americans who are morbid enough to enjoy barbarity at its best, and have neither time nor money to visit Russia, are advised to make a trip to Herrin, Ill. Here organizations, operating in the names of civilization, law and order, and other things which are to their members vague and mysterious, wipe out at one fell swoop, great groups of the population. You see, there is an excuse for barbarity in Herrin. Most thugs offer none. It is the revelation of refinement that appeals to us.

Those Americans who are morbid enough to enjoy barbarity at its best, and have neither time nor money to visit Russia, are advised to make a trip to Herrin, Ill. Here organizations, operating in the names of civilization, law and order, and other things which are to their members vague and mysterious, wipe out at one fell swoop, great groups of the population. You see, there is an excuse for barbarity in Herrin. Most thugs offer none. It is the revelation of refinement that appeals to us.

Those Americans who are morbid enough to enjoy barbarity at its best, and have neither time nor money to visit Russia, are advised to make a trip to Herrin, Ill. Here organizations, operating in the names of civilization, law and order, and other things which are to their members vague and mysterious, wipe out at one fell swoop, great groups of the population. You see, there is an excuse for barbarity in Herrin. Most thugs offer none. It is the revelation of refinement that appeals to us.

Those Americans who are morbid enough to enjoy barbarity at its best, and have neither time nor money to visit Russia, are advised to make a trip to Herrin, Ill. Here organizations, operating in the names of civilization, law and order, and other things which are to their members vague and mysterious, wipe out at one fell swoop, great groups of the population. You see, there is an excuse for barbarity in Herrin. Most thugs offer none. It is the revelation of refinement that appeals to us.

Those Americans who are morbid enough to enjoy barbarity at its best, and have neither time nor money to visit Russia, are advised to make a trip to Herrin, Ill. Here organizations, operating in the names of civilization, law and order, and other things which are to their members vague and mysterious, wipe out at one fell swoop, great groups of the population. You see, there is an excuse for barbarity in Herrin. Most thugs offer none. It is the revelation of refinement that appeals to us.

Those Americans who are morbid enough to enjoy barbarity at its best, and have neither time nor money to visit Russia, are advised to make a trip to Herrin, Ill. Here organizations, operating in the names of civilization, law and order, and other things which are to their members vague and mysterious, wipe out at one fell swoop, great groups of the population. You see, there is an excuse for barbarity in Herrin. Most thugs offer none. It is the revelation of refinement that appeals to us.

Those Americans who are morbid enough to enjoy barbarity at its best, and have neither time nor money to visit Russia, are advised to make a trip to Herrin, Ill. Here organizations, operating in the names of civilization, law and order, and other things which are to their members vague and mysterious, wipe out at one fell swoop, great groups of the population. You see, there is an excuse for barbarity in Herrin. Most thugs offer none. It is the revelation of refinement that appeals to us.

Those Americans who are morbid enough to enjoy barbarity at its best, and have neither time nor money to visit Russia, are advised to make a trip to Herrin, Ill. Here organizations, operating in the names of civilization, law and order, and other things which are to their members vague and mysterious, wipe out at one fell swoop, great groups of the population. You see, there is an excuse for barbarity in Herrin. Most thugs offer none. It is the revelation of refinement that appeals to us.

Those Americans who are morbid enough to enjoy barbarity at its best, and have neither time nor money to visit Russia, are advised to make a trip to Herrin, Ill. Here organizations, operating in the names of civilization, law and order, and other things which are to their members vague and mysterious, wipe out at one fell swoop, great groups of the population. You see, there is an excuse for barbarity in Herrin. Most thugs offer none. It is the revelation of refinement that appeals to us.

Those Americans who are morbid enough to enjoy barbarity at its best, and have neither time nor money to visit Russia, are advised to make a trip to Herrin, Ill. Here organizations, operating in the names of civilization, law and order, and other things which are to their members vague and mysterious, wipe out at one fell swoop, great groups of the population. You see, there is an excuse for barbarity in Herrin. Most thugs offer none. It is the revelation of refinement that appeals to us.

Those Americans who are morbid enough to enjoy barbarity at its best, and have neither time nor money to visit Russia, are advised to make a trip to Herrin, Ill. Here organizations, operating in the names of civilization, law and order, and other things which are to their members vague and mysterious, wipe out at one fell swoop, great groups of the population. You see, there is an excuse for barbarity in Herrin. Most thugs offer none. It is the revelation of refinement that appeals to us.

Those Americans who are morbid enough to enjoy barbarity at its best, and have neither time nor money to visit Russia, are advised to make a trip to Herrin, Ill. Here organizations, operating in the names of civilization, law and order, and other things which are to their members vague and mysterious, wipe out at one fell swoop, great groups of the population. You see, there is an excuse for barbarity in Herrin. Most thugs offer none. It is the revelation of refinement that appeals to us.

Those Americans who are morbid enough to enjoy barbarity at its best, and have neither time nor money to visit Russia, are advised to make a trip to Herrin, Ill. Here organizations, operating in the names of civilization, law and order, and other things which are to their members vague and mysterious, wipe out at one fell swoop, great groups of the population. You see, there is an excuse for barbarity in Herrin. Most thugs offer none. It is the revelation of refinement that appeals to us.

Those Americans who are morbid enough to enjoy barbarity at its best, and have neither time nor money to visit Russia, are advised to make a trip to Herrin, Ill. Here organizations, operating in the names of civilization, law and order, and other things which are to their members vague and mysterious, wipe out at one fell swoop, great groups of the population. You see, there is an excuse for barbarity in Herrin. Most thugs offer none. It is the revelation of refinement that appeals to us.

Those Americans who are morbid enough to enjoy barbarity at its best, and have neither time nor money to visit Russia, are advised to make a trip to Herrin, Ill. Here organizations, operating in the names of civilization, law and order, and other things which are to their members vague and mysterious, wipe out at one fell swoop, great groups of the population. You see, there is an excuse for barbarity in Herrin. Most thugs offer none. It is the revelation of refinement that appeals to us.

Those Americans who are morbid enough to enjoy barbarity at its best, and have neither time nor money to visit Russia, are advised to make a trip to Herrin, Ill. Here organizations, operating in the names of civilization, law and order, and other things which are to their members vague and mysterious, wipe out at one fell swoop, great groups of the population. You see, there is an excuse for barbarity in Herrin. Most thugs offer none. It is the revelation of refinement that appeals to us.

Those Americans who are morbid enough to enjoy barbarity at its best, and have neither time nor money to visit Russia, are advised to make a trip to Herrin, Ill. Here organizations, operating in the names of civilization, law and order, and other things which are to their members vague and mysterious, wipe out at one fell swoop, great groups of the population. You see, there is an excuse for barbarity in Herrin. Most thugs offer none. It is the revelation of refinement that appeals to us.

Those Americans who are morbid enough to enjoy barbarity at its best, and have neither time nor money to visit Russia, are advised to make a trip to Herrin, Ill. Here organizations, operating in the names of civilization, law and order, and other things which are to their members vague and mysterious, wipe out at one fell swoop, great groups of the population. You see, there is an excuse for barbarity in Herrin. Most thugs offer none. It is the revelation of refinement that appeals to us.

Those Americans who are morbid enough to enjoy barbarity at its best, and have neither time nor money to visit Russia, are advised to make a trip to Herrin, Ill. Here organizations, operating in the names of civilization, law and order, and other things which are to their members vague and mysterious, wipe out at one fell swoop, great groups of the population. You see, there is an excuse for barbarity in Herrin. Most thugs offer none. It is the revelation of refinement that appeals to us.

Those Americans who are morbid enough to enjoy barbarity at its best, and have neither time nor money to visit Russia, are advised to make a trip to Herrin, Ill. Here organizations, operating in the names of civilization, law and order, and other things which are to their members vague and mysterious, wipe out at one fell swoop, great groups of the population. You see, there is an excuse for barbarity in Herrin. Most thugs offer none. It is the revelation of refinement that appeals to us.

Those Americans who are morbid enough to enjoy barbarity at its best, and have neither time nor money to visit Russia, are advised to make a trip to Herrin, Ill. Here organizations, operating in the names of civilization, law and order, and other things which are to their members vague and mysterious, wipe out at one fell swoop, great groups of the population. You see, there is an excuse for barbarity in Herrin. Most thugs offer none. It is the revelation of refinement that appeals to us.

Those Americans who are morbid enough to enjoy barbarity at its best, and have neither time nor money to visit Russia, are advised to make a trip to Herrin, Ill. Here organizations, operating in the names of civilization, law and order, and other things which are to their members vague and mysterious, wipe out at one fell swoop, great groups of the population. You see, there is an excuse for barbarity in Herrin. Most thugs offer none. It is the revelation of refinement that appeals to us.

Those Americans who are morbid enough to enjoy barbarity at its best, and have neither time nor money to visit Russia, are advised to make a trip to Herrin, Ill. Here organizations, operating in the names of civilization, law and order, and other things which are to their members vague and mysterious, wipe out at one fell swoop, great groups of the population. You see, there is an excuse for barbarity in Herrin. Most thugs offer none. It is the revelation of refinement that appeals to us.

NOTICE

In the District Court of Cass county, Nebraska.

Henry Ofe, Plaintiff, vs. Paul Nuckolls et al. Defendants.

To the Defendants, Paul Nuckolls; Mrs. Paul Nuckolls, real name unknown; Rupert Nuckolls; Mrs. Rupert Nuckolls, real name unknown; Bruce Johnson Nuckolls; Mrs. Bruce Johnson Nuckolls, real name unknown; William Ezra Nuckolls; Mrs. William Ezra Nuckolls, real name unknown; Joseph T. Griffith; Mrs. Joseph T. Griffith, real name unknown; Joseph H. Brown; Mrs. Joseph H. Brown, real name unknown; Adam Cook; Mrs. Adam Cook, real name unknown; Philip Seidenstricker; Mrs. Philip Seidenstricker, real name unknown; the heirs, devisees, legatees, personal representatives and all other persons interested in the estates of Paul Nuckolls; Mrs. Paul Nuckolls, real name unknown; Rupert Nuckolls; Mrs. Rupert Nuckolls, real name unknown; William Ezra Nuckolls; Mrs. William Ezra Nuckolls, real name unknown; Bruce Johnson Nuckolls; Mrs. Bruce Johnson Nuckolls, real name unknown; Joseph T. Griffith; Mrs. Joseph T. Griffith, real name unknown; Adam Cook; Mrs. Adam Cook, real name unknown; Philip Seidenstricker; Mrs. Philip Seidenstricker, real name unknown, each deceased, real names unknown, and all persons having or claiming any interest in the south half (S½) of Lots one (1) and two (2), in Block thirteen (13), in the City of Plattsmouth, Cass county, Nebraska, real names unknown:

You and each of you are hereby notified that the plaintiff Henry Ofe, filed his petition in the District Court of Cass county, Nebraska, on the 6th day of October, 1924, against you and each of you, the object and prayer of which is to obtain a Decree of Court quieting the title in him, in and to the following described real estate, to-wit:

The south half (S½) of Lots one (1) and two (2), in Block thirteen (13), in the City of Plattsmouth, in Cass county, Nebraska—against you and each of you, and for such other and further relief as may be just and equitable.

And each of you are further notified that you are required to answer said petition on or before Monday, the 16th day of March, 1925, or the allegations of plaintiff's petition will be taken as true and a decree will be rendered in favor of plaintiff and against you and each of you according to the prayer of said petition.

Dated this 29th day of January, 1925.

HENRY OFE, Plaintiff.

By A. L. TIDD, Attorney for Plaintiff.

NOTICE OF SALE

Notice is hereby given that under and by virtue of a license to sell real estate and an Order of Sale issued by the Honorable James T. Begley, Judge of the District Court of Cass county, Nebraska, on the 29th day of December, A. D. 1924, that I, Henry M. Soennichsen, in my capacity as administrator of the estate of Harriet L. Hunter, deceased, will sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash; that is to say: ten per cent on the day of sale and the balance when said sale shall be confirmed by the court, at the south front door of the court house in the city of Plattsmouth, Cass county, Nebraska, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon, on the 7th day of March, A. D. 1925, the following described real estate, to-wit:

Outlot sixty-four (64), in Section eighteen (18), Township eleven (11), Range twelve (12), in the City of Plattsmouth, Cass county, Nebraska.

Said sale shall be and remain open one hour.

Dated this 2nd day of February, A. D. 1925.

HENRY M. SOENNICHSEN, Administrator of the Estate of Harriet L. Hunter, Deceased.

J. A. CAPWELL, Attorney.

SHERIFF'S SALE

State of Nebraska, County of Cass, ss.

By virtue of an Order of Sale issued by Clarence L. Beal, Clerk of the District Court within and for Cass county, Nebraska, and to me directed, I will on the 7th day of March, A. D. 1925, at ten o'clock a. m. of said day, at the south front door of the court house in the City of Plattsmouth, in said county, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash the following described real estate, to-wit:

Lot numbered five (5), in Block thirty-three (33), in the City of Plattsmouth, in Cass county, Nebraska, according to the published and recorded plat thereof.

The same being levied upon and taken as the property of John W. Falter; Catherine D. Falter, Hardy E. Nott, Harding E. Nott, Otto Stroberger, May Stroberger, Elmer H. Meisinger, Bestor & Swatek, a copartnership; R. A. Reed, real name unknown; Mrs. R. A. Reed, real name unknown; A. R. Rine, real name unknown; Mrs. A. R. Rine, real name unknown, and all persons having or claiming any interest in or to Lot five (5), in Block thirty-three (33), in the City of Plattsmouth, Cass county, Nebraska, real names unknown. Defendants, to satisfy a Decree and Judgment of said Court recovered by the Plattsmouth Loan and Building Association, Plaintiff against said Defendants.

Plattsmouth, Nebraska, January 31st, A. D. 1925.

E. P. STEWART, Sheriff Cass County, Nebraska.

JOHN