

LOUISVILLE BRIDGE OVER PLATTE RIVER OUT FOR TEN DAYS

Ten Nose Piling Used as Ice Breaks Damaged and Give Way Making Closing Necessary.

Following the damaging and partial giving away of ten of the nose piling used as ice breaks on the Louisville wagon and auto bridge, Sunday, that structure was closed to travel Monday and will for the next two weeks be out of commission while repairs are being made.

The Platte river at Louisville has been filled with a large amount of very heavy ice in the last several days which has kept a constant threat toward the safety of the bridge.

Since the first start of the breaking up of the river there has been two men kept constantly on guard at the bridge to watch the danger from the floating ice and every precaution was taken to prevent the structure from being swept away in a sudden movement of the ice and the work has resulted in saving a great deal of loss to the bridge structure.

The piles that were damaged by the heavy ice will have to be replaced. It is stated with new piling as the bridge has settled slightly as the result of the weakening of the structure, which will be remedied by the placing of the new piles along the bridge.

County Commissioners Fred Gorder and C. F. Harris were in Louisville today looking after the bridge which is now under control of the state and Cass and Sarpy counties, and arranged for the repairs that will be necessary and which will be started as soon as the condition of the river will permit. The commissioners are arranging for a pile driver to be sent to Louisville that will make the necessary repairs and the material necessary is already on hand so that will not be necessary to purchase new material.

The cost of repairing the bridge will be borne by the state and the two counties, the state paying its amount as soon as the work is completed and the two counties taking their share out of the toll receipts.

This bridge was turned over to the two counties and the state on December 1 and has since been operated as a toll bridge by the two counties, which when the purchase price is collected will be made into a free bridge.

INDIAN BUREAU REPORT

"WHITE WASH" IS CHARGE

Washington, Feb. 24.—Representative Howard, democrat, Oklahoma, who originally suggested the house inquiry into the Indian bureau, today told the house that the recent report of the special investigation committee was a "white wash" of Charles H. Burke, Indian commissioner.

Although not a member of the committee, Howard said he had heard most of the evidence and had concluded that the committee "attempted to place a halo around all concerned except the American citizen who had the temerity to call attention to affairs in the Indian bureau."

He asked his colleagues not to take seriously legislative recommendations contained in the committee report, which he declared had been "dominated" by bureaucratic officials.

MILLS COUNTY FOLKS OBSERVE GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Haynie of Near Glenwood Enjoyery Pleasant Occasion With Family.

Those beloved residents now on the John Lewis farm, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Haynie, were greeted by two score relatives on February 21, 1925, who came without giving previous notice to Mr. and Mrs. Haynie.

Since the surprisers were children, grandchildren and other relatives, they knew that a welcome awaited them at any time in that home.

A dinner was served by part of the surprisers, brought by all of them and enjoyed by everybody.

The afternoon was most happily spent at a real visiting time. All three of the living sons of Mr. and Mrs. Haynie and sons of those sons were there and besides there were above 30 other relatives who participated in the joyous time.

The afternoon was most happily spent at a real visiting time. All three of the living sons of Mr. and Mrs. Haynie and sons of those sons were there and besides there were above 30 other relatives who participated in the joyous time.

One of the happy guests was Mrs. Mary Ann Cheney of Emerson, who bears the honor of being present on the occasion of the marriage 50 years ago.

The celebrants have been residents of Mills county most of their lives. Both came with their parents when children from Missouri. They grew up in the same community. On February 21, 1875, on the homestead farm known as the Frank Dasher place, Paul Haynie and Elvira E. Williams were united in marriage by Andrew Boswell, justice of the peace. The groom was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Haynie and the bride was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Williams.—Glenwood Tribune.

SHOWING IMPROVEMENT

The many friends of Thomas F. Murphy will be pleased to learn that he is now doing very nicely at the St. Joseph hospital in Omaha and reports from that institution yesterday stated that he is now thought to be out of danger and on the way to improvement as rapidly as possible under the circumstances. Mr. Murphy was in very serious shape for some time and his improvement is most gratifying to the family and friends.

ICE IN STREAMS IS BREAKING UP

Columbus, Feb. 24.—As a result of Sunday's rain, which recorded a fall of one-eighth of an inch here and two inches in territory west of here near Spalding and Fullerton, ice in the Platte and Loup rivers here began breaking up in earnest here Monday afternoon.

Dynamiters were hurried from Columbus by the Union Pacific to break up an ice jam that had formed in the Platte at North Bend, sending the water out over a dyke that the company has built to protect its tracks there. Though the rivers were several inches higher than Sunday, no immediate danger threatened here last night. It was estimated that both rivers could clear themselves of ice by the end of the week.

The Cedar river overflowed at Belgrade yesterday, water reaching the Union Pacific tracks, but causing no damage.

FIRST DAY OF LENTEN SEASON OPENS TODAY

Services Held at Roman Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran Churches.

From Wednesday's Daily—
The first day of the forty days of Lent which are observed by the Christian world in commemoration of the passion and death of the Saviour, was observed today in the Roman Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran churches of this city.

Special masses and the imposition of the ashes were held at the St. Luke's Episcopal church, the St. John's and Holy Rosary Roman Catholic churches and the holy season opened fittingly.

The members of these churches enjoyed in the last gayeties preceding the commencement of Lent, on Shrove Tuesday, there being a very pleasant Shrove Tuesday supper given by the Episcopal ladies, a dance given at the T. J. Sokol hall in the west part of the city while others enjoyed the theater for the hours that preceded the opening of the season of fasting and repentance.

ANTI-JAPANESE BILL FAILS BY SINGLE VOTE

Boise, Idaho, Feb. 24.—By the narrow margin of one vote the house of representatives of the twenty-eighth Idaho legislature today failed to pass the anti-alien land bill, designed, according to its framers, to prohibit the leasing of land to Japanese farmers up to December 21, 1928. The vote was twenty-nine for passage and thirty against. There was much debate on the measure, particularly as to what possible effect passage would have on Japanese American relations.

COSTUME OF CHAPLIN GETS CREDIT FOR HIS SUCCESS

Los Angeles, Feb. 24.—Charles Spencer Chaplin's full-blown trousers, shuffling shoes and dented derby "made him what he is today," stated a deposition taken from William Vogel of New York, a foreign film distributor, which was read in court records here today where the comedian seeks to bar Charles Amador from imitating his film makeup and mannerisms.

Vogel's deposition further stated that imitators of Chaplin on the screen materially damaged his actual productions when they were exhibited in France, England and other European countries.

The early session of the court was consumed by other depositions of the same nature, much of them introduced over the objections of the defense.

C. D. Keltner of near Nehawka was here today for a few hours attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends.
