

MURDOCK DEPARTMENT.

PREPARED EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE JOURNAL.

Mr. Dan Schlaphoff, a real live farmer, purchased a Model 15 De Laval Separator from L. Neitzel.

E. L. Pothast was a visitor in Lincoln last Thursday evening, making the trip on the evening train of the Rock Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gillespie were visiting for the past week at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Blattspieser of Tobias, where all had a most enjoyable time.

R. Panska and wife from south of Elmwood were visiting and looking after some matters of business in Murray last Thursday, driving over in their auto.

Henry P. Dehning was shelling and delivering his last year's corn crop last Thursday. He sold it to the elevator at Wabash. This is part of his preparation for leaving the farm.

Mrs. O. J. Hitchcock of Havelock, came down last Sunday with Olga Mary, between trains to see the folks at home and help to celebrate the 47th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. L. Neitzel.

Charles Rau of Dunning, has been visiting in Murdock during the past week a guest of friends and relatives coming for a short stay while John Gakemeier was looking after the things on the ranch.

And still they go (the Colonial Banquet Ranges). Geo. Bauer, Albert Blum and Mrs. Gus Neumann of South Bend bought one each this week, but L. Neitzel has more of them on hand. This is the stove that sells itself.

Mrs. Chris Backmeier of Waco, was a visitor with friends and relatives here during the past week and was the guest at the home of Mrs. Matt Thimngan and Mrs. C. I. Long, the ladies being her sisters and with her father, C. L. Mills and brothers Emil and Otto.

Frank Bourks and Son, who are always endeavoring to make their place of business the best and are scrupulous in keeping it clean and sanitary have placed a linoleum covering over a portion of the floor of their business place thus rendering it clean and sanitary.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tool were in attendance at the convention of the retail dealers which was held in Omaha during the past week and enjoyed the occasion very much. They were guests at the banquet which was served, and Mr. Tool was one of the speakers on the program, which entertained and also instructed those who were in attendance.

L. Neitzel returned from a trip to Kansas City, Mo., where he visited with P. A. Harting and family. He reports K. C. as the most active and wide awake city he ever visited. Hundreds of houses are going up in the city; a $11,000,000 water works begun; Sears-Robuck Co. started their $5,000,000 plant, where 7 steam shovels make the dirt fly, and a hundred teams haul it away.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tool were in attendance at the convention of the retail dealers which was held in Omaha during the past week and enjoyed the occasion very much. They were guests at the banquet which was served, and Mr. Tool was one of the speakers on the program, which entertained and also instructed those who were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tool were in attendance at the convention of the retail dealers which was held in Omaha during the past week and enjoyed the occasion very much. They were guests at the banquet which was served, and Mr. Tool was one of the speakers on the program, which entertained and also instructed those who were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tool were in attendance at the convention of the retail dealers which was held in Omaha during the past week and enjoyed the occasion very much. They were guests at the banquet which was served, and Mr. Tool was one of the speakers on the program, which entertained and also instructed those who were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tool were in attendance at the convention of the retail dealers which was held in Omaha during the past week and enjoyed the occasion very much. They were guests at the banquet which was served, and Mr. Tool was one of the speakers on the program, which entertained and also instructed those who were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tool were in attendance at the convention of the retail dealers which was held in Omaha during the past week and enjoyed the occasion very much. They were guests at the banquet which was served, and Mr. Tool was one of the speakers on the program, which entertained and also instructed those who were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tool were in attendance at the convention of the retail dealers which was held in Omaha during the past week and enjoyed the occasion very much. They were guests at the banquet which was served, and Mr. Tool was one of the speakers on the program, which entertained and also instructed those who were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tool were in attendance at the convention of the retail dealers which was held in Omaha during the past week and enjoyed the occasion very much. They were guests at the banquet which was served, and Mr. Tool was one of the speakers on the program, which entertained and also instructed those who were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tool were in attendance at the convention of the retail dealers which was held in Omaha during the past week and enjoyed the occasion very much. They were guests at the banquet which was served, and Mr. Tool was one of the speakers on the program, which entertained and also instructed those who were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tool were in attendance at the convention of the retail dealers which was held in Omaha during the past week and enjoyed the occasion very much. They were guests at the banquet which was served, and Mr. Tool was one of the speakers on the program, which entertained and also instructed those who were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tool were in attendance at the convention of the retail dealers which was held in Omaha during the past week and enjoyed the occasion very much. They were guests at the banquet which was served, and Mr. Tool was one of the speakers on the program, which entertained and also instructed those who were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tool were in attendance at the convention of the retail dealers which was held in Omaha during the past week and enjoyed the occasion very much. They were guests at the banquet which was served, and Mr. Tool was one of the speakers on the program, which entertained and also instructed those who were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tool were in attendance at the convention of the retail dealers which was held in Omaha during the past week and enjoyed the occasion very much. They were guests at the banquet which was served, and Mr. Tool was one of the speakers on the program, which entertained and also instructed those who were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tool were in attendance at the convention of the retail dealers which was held in Omaha during the past week and enjoyed the occasion very much. They were guests at the banquet which was served, and Mr. Tool was one of the speakers on the program, which entertained and also instructed those who were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tool were in attendance at the convention of the retail dealers which was held in Omaha during the past week and enjoyed the occasion very much. They were guests at the banquet which was served, and Mr. Tool was one of the speakers on the program, which entertained and also instructed those who were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tool were in attendance at the convention of the retail dealers which was held in Omaha during the past week and enjoyed the occasion very much. They were guests at the banquet which was served, and Mr. Tool was one of the speakers on the program, which entertained and also instructed those who were in attendance.

REV. EMANUEL THINGAN PASSES TO HIS REWARD
Former Resident of Murdock Answers Last Call at Home Near Sutton After Long Illness.

At his home near Sutton, Nebraska, where he has been for several weeks in a very serious state of health, the Rev. Emanuel Thimngan passed to his last reward on Tuesday evening at 4:30.

Rev. Thimngan was at the time of his death a little past fifty years of age, having been born on the farm near Murdock August 9, 1874, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Thimngan, having come to Cass county in 1873 and were among the early settlers in this locality.

His youth was spent in Murdock and vicinity where he received his early education and in later years he decided to follow the teaching of the gospel of the Master and was given his theological training in college at Naperville, Illinois, in the Evangelical faith. With his message he returned to Nebraska and has served in the cause of the church since that time.

Several years ago he located near Sutton and has resided there on a farm since that time.

He left behind him a widow and two children, Mrs. Thimngan and Lillian, who reside with the parents at Sutton. There are also several brothers and sisters to mourn his passing.

EXTRA FINE
Watch, Clock and Jewelry Repairing!
We are Heavy on Mail Order Work.
SEND THEM IN!
FRED J. PETERSON
P. O. BOX 15
Next Door to Post Office, Weeping Water, Neb.

achieved a pinnacle of power a short time ago when he was elevated to the chairmanship of the military affairs committee, following the death of Representative Julius Kahn of California.

Representative Frank Clark, democrat, Florida, will leave twenty years ago when he was elected to the March 5 for his citrus fruit grove in St. Lucie county, Florida. Clark has been a popular member of the house ever since he was chairman of the public buildings and grounds committee, while the democrats were in control. He had a record of being liberal with public buildings bills.

Deciding that he had his fill of congress and Washington, Representative Everett Sanders, republican, Indiana, refused to run for the next congress. But President Coolidge has made him his secretary, and his eight years in the house will be a great asset in the new job.

SALE OF BUTTER SUBSTITUTES HIT
Co-operative Dairy Head Attacks the Large Amount of Margarine Purchased by Nebraskans.

That Nebraska, one of the leading dairy states, bought 165,000 pounds of butter substitutes for the state institutions in 1924, is the charge made today by O. Hanson, general manager of the Farmers' Equity Co-operative Creamery association, Orleans, Neb.

Hanson says that 90,000 farmers throughout the state are interested in dairying and that in 1921 they paid 68 per cent of the state taxes and have an investment of $400,000,000 in the dairy business and own about half a million cows.

"See that White Speck?"

WELL THAT IS THE

"Covered Wagon"

One of the Best of Shows!

Watch for the Date

Tool Bros. Show

Your Pleasure is Our Business

Here are Bargains!

A 4-hole Sandwich corn sheller in fine condition.
One two-row John Deere cultivator.
A yearling Hereford grade bull.

SEE
Edward Guilstorff
Murdock, Neb.

Get Ready for Spring!

Winter has her back bone broken. Yes, some more cold weather will come. But it won't be long till you'll hear the "call of the road" and then you'll want the car to work its best—attune with the springtime surroundings.

Best of Service in Auto Repairing
WE SELL THE BUICK
E. W. Thimngan Garage
Murdock - - - Nebraska

RADIO PARTS

Closing Out Radio Sale!

I am closing out my entire stock of radio supplies. I will go east to accept a position soon and must close out the stock, which is all fully guaranteed and best standard parts.

UV 199 tubes at $2.65.
Cardwell condenser, $4.00.
Eria audio frequency transformers, $4.00.

Special prices o ncomplete line of supplies on hand, including a few complete receiving sets. Come early. The supply is limited.
W. P. MEYER
MURDOCK - - - NEBRASKA

Young People Enjoy Evening.

Saturday evening, February 21, a number of young people gathered at the home of Agnes and Carl Rissmann, Jr., northeast of town, giving them a farewell surprise. They will leave in the near future for Liberty, Neb., to make their home. The evening was passed away by playing games and music. At a late hour a lunch was served to all which the people had prepared. Those present were: Eleanor Story, Selma and Clara Neumann, Marie Tonack, Elsie and Amelia Kypke, Edna Thiemann, Hilda and Gertrude Reinke, Hilda Peters, Anna, Helen, Elsie and Mary Bornemeier, Ella, Selma Lau, Clara, Agnes, Elizabeth and Elsie Rissmann, Selma and Hilda Schliefer, Cora Rissmann and Miss Audrey Cox of Liberty, Neb. and Marvin Suna, William Neumann, Fred Tonack, Louis, Paul and Arthur Peters, George Reinke, Arthur Peters, George Kraft, Alvin Bornemeier, Herald Schliefer, Walter and Carl Rissmann and Maurice Buckley of Canada, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rissmann, Sr.

Death Calls Emanuel Thimngan.

Emanuel Thimngan was born near Murdock, August 9th, 1874, and lived here until he was nearly forty years of age, he early adopted the christian faith and united with the church and later became a minister, and has lived for the past number of years at Sutton, where he was minister and also had a farm. He has not been in robust health for some time and on Christmas, New Year and March 1st he has been ill since. He had been growing gradually weaker until the end came on last Monday morning at about four-thirty. Rev. Thimngan leaves a wife and three children, two sons and a daughter. The eldest, Emanuel Thimngan, who is married makes his home at Shenandoah, Iowa. The others, Homer and Lillian are with the mother on the farm near Sutton. The funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon of last week at Sutton, and was conducted by the Rev. Henry, and Wislart, both of Sutton. The Rev. J. W. Oehrling of Clay Center. The Rev. Thimngan has been a most exemplary citizen and a consistent christian. Messrs. Matt and E. W. Thimngan and their wives, of Murdock and Louis Thimngan of Lincoln and wife were present at a practical meeting of relatives from other places were also in attendance.

An Excellent Show Coming.

The Tool Brothers show company has contracted for a show for the near future which has proven very popular at the larger places and has had long runs. The show, "The Covered Wagon," one of the most fascinating of plays, is of the early days, depicting a trip from the east over the plains with love, pathos, and severe hardships on the way, with fighting with Indians and outlaws and at last the train finding their way to a good home in the west. The date of the play will be announced at a later date.

Visited Here From the West.

Conrad Miller and wife of Ogden, were here for the past week visiting with relatives and friends and while here Mr. Miller did not fail to enjoy a shooting match which was on between some of the fans in Murdock. They were here visiting with Mr. Miller's father, Mr. C. L. Miller, and also with the families of Otto Miller, South Bend, E. H. Miller of north of Murdock, brother, at the home of Matthew Thimngan and C. I. Long of Murdock, the ladies being sisters of Mr. Miller. They departed for their home in the west on last Thursday.

Henry Kleiser Dies in South.

A message was received last week telling of the finding of Henry Kleiser at his hotel at Corpus Christi, Texas, where he has been spending the winter, he making it a practice to go south in the cold weather, since his health failed a few years ago, dead in his hotel. Mr. Kleiser had gone to the south last September and expected to return when spring came, thus avoiding the rigors of winter of this climate as he was in delicate health. No particulars were given in the brief message, and the remains were being looked for when we were in Murdock last week. More particulars will be given in the coming weeks paper, he was the brother of the other boys and their sister who make their home near South Bend, where they have lived for many years.

GERMANS LEAD IN IMMIGRANT LIST

Washington, Feb. 26.—Germany is far in the lead in the number of immigrants authorized to enter the United States, according to state department computations made today. More than 30,000 Germans have been granted immigrant visas. There are still nearly 21,000 vacancies before the German quota is exhausted.

Will Hold Food Sale
The members of the Young Married People's class of the Evangelical church of Murdock at the home of Mrs. C. I. Long last week when a most enjoyable evening was had. A most enjoyable program with a social hour and a luncheon which was fit for a king and his queen was served by the ladies. All voted the ladies most admirable entertainers and are longing for the time when they can meet at this home again. The next meeting of this class will be held during the latter portion of March at which time they will gather at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. M. Merkle, and Henry Genesman and Will Rikil.

Enjoyed the Convention.
Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tool were in attendance at the convention of the retail dealers which was held in Omaha during the past week and enjoyed the occasion very much. They were guests at the banquet which was served, and Mr. Tool was one of the speakers on the program, which entertained and also instructed those who were in attendance.

A Change at the Exchange.
With the moving of the family of Fred Dieckman to the farm again which occurred last week, Miss Minnie Dieckman, who has been the manager of the telephone exchange, has tendered her resignation to take effect with the ending of February, and the company has elected Miss Helen Bornemeier to the position. Miss Minnie Dieckman has made a most efficient and obliging employee and has added much to the betterment of the service of the company and we are certain that Miss Bornemeier will also do the same. They are both very competent operators.

Home From the West.
S. P. Leis, who has been spending the winter in the west, and at the town of Seattle most of the time, returned home last week after having enjoyed the time on the coast and friends also hunting to his hearts desire, and will make his home here again. Mr. Leis also visited Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Cox at Portland and with his sister Mrs. Louise Kern, formerly living at Murray, but not making her home at Union Washington.

Ties on the Shoot.
At the shoot which was had last week while a good many good records were made the best was a file record by Will P. Mayer of Murdock and Conrad L. Miller of Ogden, Utah, who has been visiting here for some time.

Will Go East Soon.
Will P. Meyer, who has been in Murdock for the past winter as a merchant and electrical expert in the retail store at Sutton, and which has been a very nice thing for the town has decided to accept a position with the Westinghouse Electrical Company at East Pittsburgh, Pa., and will go soon to take the position. Mr. Meyer will have to close out his stock of electrical and radio supplies which he is offering at a great sacrifice, better see if you are wanting anything in this line.

Evangelical Church Services
Services at Lutheran church at 9:30 a. m.
Bible school at both Lutheran and Murdock churches at 10 a. m.
Services in English, 11 to 11:30, and services in German, 11:30 to 12, at Murdock church. Young Peoples' meeting at 7 p. m. and evening preaching services at 7:30.

DODGE BANK TO BE REOPENED AT ONCE
Fremont, Neb., Feb. 26.—Announcement was made today that the Dodge State bank, formerly the First National bank of Dodge, has been reorganized with Dr. Ira Atkinson, Lincoln, formerly of Dodge, as president.

The charter of the Dodge State bank has been turned over to the new organization by Dan V. Stephens, Fremont, who was at first affiliated with the newly formed institution. The bank opens with a capital of $25,000 and a surplus of $12,500.

August J. Miller and Emil Chudomeika, both of Dodge, have been named vice presidents. Louis Reznicek is cashier. The reorganization follows a lengthy investigation and much trouble which was averted. All of the stock is owned by residents of Dodge.

Washington, Feb. 26.—Germany is far in the lead in the number of immigrants authorized to enter the United States, according to state department computations made today. More than 30,000 Germans have been granted immigrant visas. There are still nearly 21,000 vacancies before the German quota is exhausted.

MANY NOTABLE FIGURES PASS WITH CONGRESS

General Isaac Sherwood, Ninety Years Old of Ohio, Oldest Member to Pass Out of Congress.

Washington, Feb. 26.—When congress adjourns March 4, many prominent figures in the house will bear their names called for the last time, barring later return.

Probably the most picturesque figure of all who either relinquish their seats or are advanced to the senate, is Representative Isaac R. Sherwood, democrat, Ohio, 90 year old. Sherwood was answering roll calls in congress before many of its sitting members were born. Prior to this, he enlisted under General Grant in 1861 and was mustered out in 1865 as a brigadier general.

SANTE FE OBJECTS IN GRAIN RATES HEARING

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 26.—Opposition to Kansas City's request for lower freight rates on grain shipments to the southwest, being held before a representative of the interstate commerce commission in connection with St. Louis' request for similar rate reductions, featured today's hearing.

Remington Portable

Take any user's advice
Anyone who uses a Remington Portable will tell you how indispensable it is.
It makes writing easier—faster and—without any sacrifice on your part—It makes reading easier.
Compact—fits in your suitcase—fits in your trunk—fits in your car.
Complete—write letters, reports, etc. in all styles—just set type—no adjustments.
Reliable—write with ease and speed. Easy payment terms if desired.
- Bates Book and Stationery Store -