

Alvo Department

Rev. W. E. Goings, pastor of the Christian church of Murray, was a visitor in Alvo last Thursday afternoon.

Emil Kuehn, of Murdock, was a visitor in Alvo, being a guest of Eddie Craig, whom he came to see on business.

Dr. L. Muller was called to Plattsmouth last Thursday as a witness in a case which was being heard in the district court.

Miss Alice Kellogg was a visitor in Lincoln for a few days last week, returning home on the noon train last Thursday.

Fred Weaver of South Bend was a visitor in Alvo last Tuesday and a guest of G. S. Ough and family, driving over in his car.

John B. Skinner moved R. E. Uhley and family to Union last Wednesday, where Mr. Uhley will work for the Missouri Pacific.

Carl Rosenow, who is working at the home of Clarence Bucknell over on the highway, is liking his farming work very much.

Mrs. Arthur Dinger was a visitor at the home of her sister, Mrs. Walter Thompson, of University Place last Thursday, driving over in her auto.

Mrs. John Murty, who has been enjoying the mildness of the climate in California during the past winter, is to return to Alvo in a short time.

Matt and Victor Thibman were in Alvo last Thursday looking after some business matters in connection with their "Even Chance" stock feeders.

Simon Rehmeier and family were visiting last Sunday at the home of their friends Mr. and Mrs. Carl Carlson of that place, driving over in their car.

E. M. Coatsman was a visitor in Omaha last Thursday, where he went to take a load of stock to market, returning brought with him a load of freight for Alvo.

Mrs. H. D. Wilborn and little daughter, of University Place, were visiting for a few days last week at the home of her uncle, Mr. C. H. Kirkpatrick and wife.

John B. Skinner has not been feeling very well for a number of days and on this account, when Mr. Coatsman was at Omaha, Mrs. Coatsman had to come and run the store.

Verla Rosenow, who is working at Havelock, was a visitor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Rosenow last Sunday, where he and the folks enjoyed the occasion very much.

Messrs. R. M. Coatsman, August Johnson, A. B. Stromer and J. W. Banning, and Spelling, is acting as the vice president of the state commercial contest; while Miss Isabel Hartley, teacher of shorthand and typewriting, is acting as district secretary of the district commercial contest of this year.

In addition to individual honors given, there is a rating of the school by points made by all contestants from each school; Plattsmouth ranked well last year, and hopes to do even better this year.

Dusek Wins Hard Go with Greek Rival Kotsanos

Last Wednesday night, March 18, at Little Rock, Ark., Rudy Dusek, the boy wonder wrestler won his 99th straight victory when he hung up a second defeat over Geo. Kotsanos of the Greek. Although the match was no mans victory till the final fall, Rudy won the first and third and the match. The men had wrestled before with Dusek winner and there was a heated rivalry between them for supremacy that was plainly evident to the spectators and according to the Little Rock paper kept them on their feet most of the time.

Little Rock is Kotsanos home town and he had the support of the fans behind him, but failed to come through with his predicted win.

The paper says the match was unusually clean, considering the bad feeling between the men. It was rough however and silk gloves and pink tie were left at home. It was not a parlor party.

The manner in which Dusek gained supremacy over Kotsanos was for him the admiration of the fans, and the Little Rock paper is very profuse in its compliments of his style of wrestling and clean, aggressive battle to pin the Greek to the mat.

In addition to individual honors given, there is a rating of the school by points made by all contestants from each school; Plattsmouth ranked well last year, and hopes to do even better this year.

FUNERAL OF GEO. W. SHRADER OGCURS WEDNESDAY

Body is Taken to Lewiston Church Near Old Home—Masonic Rites at Grave.

Yesterday afternoon the funeral services of the late George W. Shrader, pioneer resident of Cass county, were held at the Lewiston church in that community where for so many years Mr. Shrader had made his home and had a great part in the developing of the community.

The funeral party left the home of H. H. Shrader in this city at 1 o'clock with an escort of the members of Plattsmouth lodge No. 6, A. F. & A. M., motoring to the Lewiston church east of Murray where the last sad rites were to be held.

At the church the services were in charge of the Rev. W. A. Taylor, of Union, who, while he has been sick for some time and just recently returned from Rochester, Minnesota, responded to the wish for his services for his old time friend. In his usual impressive and comforting manner Rev. Taylor gave words of cheer to those who were bereft of the father's love and to whom had come the bitterness of separation. During the service the Masonic quartet of Plattsmouth, composed of R. W. Knorr, Harley Cecil, Frank A. Croft and John E. Prady, gave two of the old and well loved songs, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," and "Jesus, Savior, Pilot Me."

At the grave in the Lewiston cemetery the services were conducted by Plattsmouth lodge No. 6, A. F. & A. M. as Mr. Shrader had been a member of the order at Nehawka. Oliver C. Dovey, past master, conducted the ritualistic services for the dead, assisted by the members of the lodge. The quartet gave two numbers, "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Rock of Ages" at the grave as the body was laid to the last long rest amid the scenes where in life the departed had so often visited.

COUNTY ASSESSORS IN TODAY FOR CONFERENCE

Some Twenty of the Assessors Gather Here With County Assessor William Puls.

From Saturday's Daily—

The various precinct assessors of the county were here today to attend the meeting held at the commissioner's room in the county court house, by County Assessor W. H. Puls.

The assessors have many problems to come before them in the assessing of the personal property this year that requires some study before the work is started and accordingly the county assessor is holding the meeting to take up these questions and settle them before the work is started.

William Rummel, former county assessor, was also present at the session and outlined many of the questions that will be confronted by the assessors, giving explanations of the operations of the law covering personal property and also the assessing of the intangible property that the law has set a new rate for assessment upon.

L. F. LANGHORST HERE

From Saturday's Daily—

This morning, L. F. Langhorst, well known Elmwood merchant and poultry dealer, was here for a few hours visiting with his many friends in this city. Mr. Langhorst has been engaged in the poultry shipping business in Elmwood for some time and has made quite a success in this line of business as he has found a very good market over the county and at Elmwood where his main office is located there is a great amount of shipping taken care of. Mr. Langhorst has taken up the enlargement of his enterprise so that it is fast covering the entire county and he expects in the future to have a truck here at least three times a week to look after the handling of the poultry business here.

YOUNG PEOPLE ARE JOINED IN WEDLOCK TODAY

Miss Josephine Manners and Frank A. Strough Married at Presbyterian Manse Today.

From Saturday's Daily—

This morning at 10 o'clock at the Presbyterian manse occurred the marriage of Miss Josephine Manners and Mr. Frank A. Strough, two of the well known and popular young people of this community.

The wedding was very quiet in accordance with the wish of the contracting parties and was attended by only the parents of the bride and groom, and G. H. Manners, uncle of the bride.

The bride was very charming in a gown of blue silk crepe while the groom wore the conventional dark suit.

The marriage lines were read in the most impressive manner by the Rev. H. G. McClusky as the young people pledged their vows of love and happiness that were to join them for the remainder of their lives.

The bridal couple will at once start housekeeping in their home in the south portion of the city which the groom has awaiting the coming of the wife and helpmate.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Manners, and has spent her lifetime here in Plattsmouth and vicinity, attending the schools where her work marked her as one of the brightest of students. After completing her school work here Miss Manners attended the Peru Normal for some time, graduating from there with high honors. Since leaving school the bride has been engaged in designing in one of the large millinery establishments of Omaha, laying this aside to take up the duties of her own home. She has a large circle of friends here who will learn with pleasure of the very happy event that has come to her. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Strough, residing on a farm near this city, and is a young man of the highest standing and held in the greatest of esteem by his associates. He is at the present time employed in the Burlington shops in this city.

The many friends are joining in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Strough many years of happiness and success in the future.

REPUBLICANS NAME COUNCIL CANDIDATES

Convention Selects Very Representative Ticket For Consideration Of the Voters.

From Saturday's Daily—

Last evening the convention of the republicans of the city was held at the auditorium of the public library and was called to order at 8 o'clock by H. A. Schneider of the city central committee, who was assisted by George L. Farley as the chairman of the convention.

As the first order of business the convention, after not a little argument, decided to appoint a conference committee with the democratic convention to take up the matter of naming of the non-partisan board of education. The committee named was composed of C. A. Rawls, C. C. Westcott and Mrs. F. R. Gehelman, and after visiting the democratic wigwam, reported that the nominations of E. A. Wuri and Dr. F. L. Cummins were satisfactory to everybody and these candidates were the unanimous choice of the two conventions.

The convention was then divided into ward meetings and after some little time spent in discussion among the ward groups the choice for councilmen was reported back to the main convention with the result that the following very excellent ticket was reported from all five of the wards:

First ward—E. C. Harris.
Second ward—John L. Tidball, Jr.
Third ward—S. S. Chase.
Fourth ward—John E. Schutz.
Fifth ward—J. B. Higley.
