MUSIC WEEK GREAT SUCCESS HERE

PROGRAMS SPONSORED BY WOMAN'S CLUB ENTERTAIN PUBLIC.

EVENING OF MUSIC THURSDAY

Concert by Eagles Band and Extension Program at Presbyterian Church Last Evening.

From Friday's Daily— Music week in this city has been one of the most delightful that has marked this feature of the national observance, the ladies of the Plattsmouth Woman's club having arranged a series of strong programs that have fully carried out the spirit of the great event.

The general public has participated in the various features of the week with more interest than in any previous observance which indicates a growing appreciation of the value of music in the life of the community and the individual.

The culmination of the week's observance was last evening when one of the most interesting musical programs ever offered in the city was presented that embraced every type of music and while it was presented wholly by local artists it was one that would have been a credit to any city in the United States.

The offerings of the Eagles band and the instrumental and vocal numbers that were given at the First Presbyterian church demonstrated what has often been contended, that this city has within it some of the best musical talent of the state and which can give a strong and varied program of music.

Band Concert— The Eagles band, under the direction of Mr. E. H. Schullhof, opened the evening's program with a splendid open air concert at Garfield park and it is to be regretted that the thousands who served to keep many away as the program was one of the best that has been offered by the band and embraced the high class standard numbers with the popular hits of the day. The band in its first appearance this season, was at its best and the congratulatory on its very artistic rendition of the various selections. Mr. Anton Bejcek, one of the members of the band, gave a very delightful xylophone solo that was one of the features of the concert.

The high school choral club also gave a group of songs that proved a decided hit to the audience and the singers under the direction of Miss Frances Field proved a real treat.

Program at Presbyterian Church

The program at the First Presbyterian church was one that was participated in by a large number of the Plattsmouth musical artists and it was fully appreciated by the audience of music lovers who feel very grateful to the ladies in having arranged so well selected and artistic offerings that was most fitting for Music Week.

Mrs. H. F. Coos and Miss Kathryn Wadick were each heard in two pipe organ numbers which displayed the greatest skill on the part of the ladies and were very beautifully executed.

Vocal solos were given by Mrs. James T. Begley, Clifford Cecil, Miss Catherine Schneider, B. A. McElwain, Mrs. E. H. Wescott and Raymond C. Cook, in which the sweet voices of the vocalists found great expression in their well selected offerings.

Two quartet numbers were given, one by the P. H. S. faculty quartet composed of Misses Dorothea Pond and Estelle Baird and Messrs. C. H. Peden and Irving Wiltsie, while the second offering was by the Mascot quartet composed of Messrs. Frank A. Clويد, Lynn O. Minor, Harry G. McClusky and Raymond C. Cook. These were very harmonious and brought a warm response from the audience.

Duets were given by Miss Estelle Baird and Mr. Frank A. Clويد and by Mrs. P. J. Flynn and Mrs. William Woolcott, both well selected and very charmingly given by the talented singers.

A delightful piano number was offered by Miss Catherine Flynn which was a much enjoyed feature of the concert.

E. H. Wescott, one of the most earnest workers in the musical circles of the city, was called upon for a few remarks and told of the significance of Music Week, which is now being celebrated over the nation and the wonderful strides that have been made in recent years in the teaching and love of music in this nation and in our own community.

Mrs. A. D. Caldwell offered as her portion of the program a very artistic violin number that was filled with beauty and expression and made a most enjoyed feature of the evening.

Just as the excitement was at its peak the car was brought back to the park, as it had been borrowed for a few moments by a friend of Mr. Smith's who had thought to get back to the park before the concert was over, but was a little late and caused some worry to the owner of the machine.

GLEN PHEBUS WINS CASE AT LOS ANGELES

From Friday's Daily— The Plattsmouth friends of Joseph Glen Phebus, former resident here but now of Los Angeles, will be pleased to learn that Mr. Phebus was acquitted of the charge preferred against him by Mrs. Grace Moore of that place, who claimed Mr. Phebus was the man known as James W. Moore, who married her in St. Louis in 1904 and later deserted her.

The case attracted much attention in the California city where Mr. Phebus has a very responsible position with the street railway company and many of the former Plattsmouth people now living in the California city were witnesses in the case to show that Phebus at the time he was alleged to have been married was here engaged in working in a grocery store.

Birth records and school reports from Plattsmouth were a part of the evidence which clearly proved that the woman was badly mistaken and the court turned the defendant loose without question.

A full account of the trial was given a few days ago in the Journal and the friends here have been anxiously awaiting word as to the outcome and learn with pleasure of the vindication of this young man.

CLAIM NOT ALLOWED

Mr. Patrick was the attorney for the state in the Quinton, Jones, Kaufmann and Holmes cases, winning convictions in all but the Holmes case, all of which were sustained by the state supreme court.

Mrs. Dunbar has been one of the hard workers in the cause of the church here and her departure is occasioning a great deal of regret among the members of the St. Luke's parish in which she has been so much of an active figure.

MORE GRAVELING FOR CASS COUNTY ROADS PROJECTED

Residents of Road District No. 14 South of Weeping Water File Petition Before Board.

From Friday's Daily— Another graveling project is to be floated in Cass county the coming summer as the result of a petition signed by the residents of road district No. 14 just south of Weeping Water which covers three miles of highway connecting the O street road and the city of Weeping Water.

The project will be purely local and the funds for graveling are asked in the levying of a tax of two mills on the property in the road district for the coming year which will pay the larger part of the cost.

To supplement the amount raised by the levy in the road district, donations will be secured in the town of Weeping Water which will be one of the beneficiaries of the improved roadway.

This roadway will connect with the O street road which is expected to be one of the next federal and state aid roads in the county to be gravelled on the completion of the will give Weeping Water a route over the gravel from there to Plattsmouth and the east portion of the county.

With this additional graveling the residents of the central portion of the county are hopeful that the gravel can be extended north thru Center precinct to connect with the Louisville graveling and give a highway practically through the county from north to south which will make two complete gravelled roads thru the county on the completion of the K. of T. highway from the Oso county line to Plattsmouth. At Union the K. of T. and the O street projects meet, furnishing a very fine roadway from the southwest part of the county to Plattsmouth.

While these projects are being boosted there is also pressing need of the hard surfacing of the Louisville road. Louisville will extend its gravel to the precinct line at the Schmadner farm where it joins Eight Mile Grove precinct. The graveling of the road through Eight Mile Grove and Plattsmouth precincts would provide another fine east and west highway to serve the residents of the northern portion of the county and should be seriously considered in the next few months.

Mrs. Dunbar has been one of the hard workers in the cause of the church here and her departure is occasioning a great deal of regret among the members of the St. Luke's parish in which she has been so much of an active figure.
