

Alvo Department

Simon Rehmeyer was shelling and shipping corn which he has had in the crib in the ear near the elevator.

Mrs. F. E. Cook was a visitor in Lincoln last Thursday where she was visiting and looking after some shopping.

Mr. William Suders has been quite ill at his home for some time and is at this time in about the same condition.

J. L. Pilkington has been working in Murdock during the past week, where he is assisting in the building of a house for Emil Kiehl.

The school gave a musical at the school building last Thursday which was greatly enjoyed by all of the large crowd that was there.

E. M. Stone has had to plow up all of his 28 acres of wheat and put it to corn as the wheat was so thin it would not amount to anything.

J. C. Wheeler of Omaha was a visitor in Alvo and a guest at the home of Frank E. Cook and his uncle, Geo. Cook, for a few days last week.

Mrs. Louise Rosenow and son, Will, and family of Elmwood were visiting in Alvo last Sunday, being guests at the home of C. F. Rosenow and family.

C. E. Cook of Plattsmouth was a visitor with his many relatives in and about Alvo for the day last Thursday and enjoyed the seeing of the folks very much.

W. W. Coatman has completed the planting of his corn and plowed all his wheat up but about twelve acres which left only about thirty-five per cent of his planting.

Dr. L. Muller was a visitor in Lincoln last Wednesday where he was called on business in connection with his profession and also was visiting with friends as well.

William Stewart and Chester Ough were over to Manly last Wednesday where they went to take their well machinery and returned on Thursday to sink a well there.

J. H. Weichel and wife were looking after some business matters in Alvo last Thursday morning, driving over to look after some business matters for a short time.

J. M. Manners was compelled to plow up all the wheat which he had in and put it to corn, and has all the corn planted and ready for anything else which may come along.

Eddie Craig, the barber, was looking after some business matters in Lincoln last Thursday, he made the trip in his car and was looking after some business matters in his line.

John Skinner was a visitor for three days in Omaha last week with stock for the farmers, and also Mr. R. M. Coatman had a load up one day he also made a trip to Lincoln with stock.

J. M. Manners has been constructing a chicken house for the care of the chicks, Mrs. Manners now having something over 500 chicks of this spring's hatching and all are doing nicely.

Burle Rosenow, who is employed in the Burlington shops at Havelock was a visitor in Alvo for over last Sunday, being a guest at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Rosenow.

Eward Craig and Miss Irene Friend accompanied by John Skinner were visiting with friends in Fremont last Sunday, driving over in the auto of Mr. Skinner, and while there visited for the day.

The senior class fully feeling the what the school has done in the contributing to their excellent education presented it with an elegant rocking chair, another chair and a settee, all made of wickerwork.

In a ball game which was played between the teams of Eagle and Alvo, which was staged at Eagle last week, the Alvo boys won over the Eagle lads by a score of four for the Alvo team to two for the Eagleites.

The Rev. C. A. Norlin, minister of the Methodist church delivered the Baccalaureate sermon last Sunday at the church and was listened to by a large and very appreciative audience, as well as the members of the class which were graduating.

The closing of the year of the Alvo school will be celebrated this year by a picnic in which all will participate and also a game of ball, and all are expected to have a good time and enjoy the day before they tackle the problems of the world.

William H. Bornemeier has purchased for himself and family a fine new universal coupe, which will afford a means for transportation for the family, but perhaps they will have to go a part of them at a time. The new car is a dandy and no mistake.

The Parent-Teachers' association held their last meeting for the present year on last Wednesday evening and a large and deeply interested attendance of the Alvo citizens showed the interest that is being taken by both the parents and the teachers of the community.

August Bornemeier was out with his tractor and gang plows turning under what little there remained of the wheat on his farm and will put it to corn, checking the same instead of listing in order to give it an opportunity on account of its getting little late and to keep the land from washing.

E. M. Stone has recently constructed a very fine chicken park, and Mrs. Stone has a large number of very fine chickens, and also having disposed of some 500 baby chicks, which she has hatched and is still conducting the spring campaign, but will, on the coming of warmer weather, discontinue the work for the season.

A young man and his two lady friends, who went to Lincoln last Wednesday, nearly got into serious trouble, when they were caught by the police of that city speeding with the auto, but on account of their youth and inexperience they were allowed to go for that time with the admonition that they be careful how fast they drive in the future.

Emil bornemeier was getting in his alfalfa and drilling about a peck of oats to the acre in order to shade the tender plants from the hot sun, when it becomes that way, and it certainly will. The ground is in excellent condition for the seeding.

spending last Sunday at the home of friends and relatives in Union, they driving over to the eastern city in their auto.

The children of Aunt "Bina" Kitzel, all were to see her at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. M. Stone, last Sunday on Mother's day, and she enjoyed their company very much, there were present, her son, Bert Kitzel, and wife, William Kitzel and family, A. H. Weichel and wife, and as Mrs. Edith Kitzel could not come, she wrote a most kind and encouraging letter to the aged invalid, who is kept in her bed by age and her feeble condition.

William Baldwin, who has been visiting here with his sister since his return from the soldiers home at Leavenworth, departed this morning for Omaha to look after some matters at the veterans bureau in connection with his disability.

Mrs. Earl Hassler and babe departed this morning for Osceola, Nebraska, after a visit here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hassler, and will arrange to move in the next few days to Grand Island where Mr. Hassler, who is now traveling on the road, will have his headquarters.

From Friday's Daily—Henry Sabs and two daughters, from south of Louisville, were here yesterday afternoon for a few hours and while here stopped at the Journal office for a brief visit.

Mrs. John Haynie departed this morning for Omaha where she will visit her daughter, Miss Viola, at the Lord Lister hospital where the young lady is to undergo an operation for appendicitis.

Charles Galloway of Avoca and Raymond Berger departed this morning for Omaha where they will look after securing a new auto for Mr. Galloway and if the weather conditions permit will drive the car back home.

Attorney C. A. Rawls was a visitor in Nebraska City yesterday to spend a few hours with W. H. Pitzer, former attorney of this city and well known member of the Otoe county bar. Mr. Pitzer has been in poor health for some time but is now in an improving condition.

H. E. Pankonin, one of the old and highly respected residents of Louisville, was in the city today for a few hours, coming down on the "Schuyler" to look after some matters of business and while in the city paid the Journal office a very enjoyable social call.

Fred and Ed Schunaker, Henry Sturm, Charles E. Heebner, former commissioneer, and Irwin Morkland, all of Nehawka, were here yesterday afternoon for a few hours, stopping en route from Omaha where they were called to look after the destruction of several head of T. B. cattle.

Frank Boedecker and wife of Nehawka were here yesterday afternoon and stopped at the Journal office for a short visit with the publisher of this paper, Mr. Boedecker, who is now with the state bank guarantee fund commission, is preparing to move to Lincoln to reside in the future.

From Saturday's Daily—W. G. Boedecker, the Murray banker, was here today for a few hours looking after some matters of business at the court house.

Attorney C. D. Ganz of Alvo, was here today for a few hours attending to some matters of business at the county court.

WILL GO TO NEBRASKA CITY

From Saturday's Daily—Secretary E. A. Fricke, of the Plattsmouth Golf Club, has received notice from a number of the well known golf players of the city that they will go to Nebraska City on next Tuesday to visit the golf club there and enjoy the day in shooting over the course of the club. Mr. Fricke wishes the local club to have as strong a representation as possible and urges that those who wish to go but have no means of transportation notify him so that arrangements can be made for their accommodation, as the players from here are expected to make the trip by auto. Nebraska City had a very pleasant representation here at the meeting of the southeastern golfers and it is hoped to return the favor. The clubs at Weeping Water and Ashland will also be at Nebraska City.

Mrs. T. P. Livingston and son, Robert, were visitors in Omaha today where they were called to look after some matters of business.

Joe Cook, taking advantage of the week end vacation at the Burlington shops, departed this morning for Omaha where he will spend the day.

There are eight in the class to graduate this year, and all are well equipped for the battle with the world for the success to which they are entitled. The members of the class for this year are, Misses Edna Lewis, Elma Hardnock, Alma Aulthouse, and Pauline Snively, Masters, Carl Heier, Donald McKinnon, Clyde Johnson and George Coatman.

Notice, School Meeting

Annual meeting of School District No. 102 will be held in school house June 8th at 8 p. m. for the purpose of voting $16,500.00 for general school purposes which is in excess of the limit of mill levy and for such other purposes as may legally come before the meeting.

H. L. BORNEMEIER, Secretary.

Same Price 25 Cents for over 35 years

KC Baking Powder

FUNERAL SERVICES OF MRS. FRED PATTERSON

The funeral services of Mrs. Fred Patterson were held on Friday afternoon at the late home in the vicinity of Rock Bluffs, where for so many years the deceased lady had lived.

The home was filled with the friends and neighbors who gathered to pay their last respects to the memory of this splendid lady and in whose passing on they have felt, with the family circle, the deep sense of personal grief.

The Rev. H. G. McCluskey, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Plattsmouth had charge of the services and gave words of comfort and hope to the sorrowing relatives and friends.

At the conclusion of the services the body was laid to rest in the cemetery near the home where the members of the family circle and others of the friends of former years.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our feelings of heartfelt gratitude for the many acts of kindness and sympathy shown to us at the time of our bereavement at the death of our beloved wife and mother. The many acts of kindness will long be remembered.—Fred Patterson and family.

George Lohnes came in this morning from his country home, enroute to Omaha and while here called at the Journal to re-visit the subscription of Jake Schaefer at Pekin, Illinois, who keeps track of the old friends through the columns of the Journal.

BUSY TIME IN DISTRICT COURT

From Saturday's Daily—There was an unusual activity today in the office of the clerk of the district court, in the filing department, where several new pieces of litigation were filed by members of the bar.

Attorney W. G. Kieck filed an action entitled H. M. Sennichsen vs. Max Pries, an action on account and for which judgment is asked.

The First National bank filed an action for collection of a note of $3,192 against the Olson Photo Co., Attorney W. A. Robertson appearing for the plaintiff bank.

The First National bank also filed an action against Edward Fitzgerald covering a note of $1,000 alleged to be due the plaintiff bank.

Attorney Carl D. Ganz filed an action entitled Mattie M. Strain vs. William S. Strain, Ida G. Breed, William C. Breed, Minnie B. Wilson, John E. Wilson. This is a suit in partition, the plaintiff alleging in her petition that she is the owner of a one-third interest in real estate located in the village of Alvo and asks that the shares of the defendants in the real estate be determined and adjusted.

J. H. Hendee of Chidita, Kansas, with Mrs. Hendee and their son, Searl, came in yesterday afternoon from Detroit and stopped here for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. Searl and a number of old friends. Mr. Hendee was a hardware dealer here for a number of years.

LOCAL NEWS

Dr. H. C. Leopold, Osteopathic physician and surgeon, Office 531 Main Street, phone, office, No. 208; residence phone, 208-2 rings. —tfw

Alvo High School Play Ball.

The Alvo high school has been arranging ball games between their classes and on last Wednesday the seniors and sophomores played the juniors and freshmen, with the result that the former won in a very tightly contested game of five innings by the score of 5 to 4.

Uncle George Cook Epory.

Uncle George Cook has been feeling quite poorly at his home east of Alvo and has been attended by the doctor and while he is able to be up and around he is feeling weak. His many friends are hoping that he may be better in a short time.

Celebrates Seventy-Third Birthday

Last Wednesday, on May 13th, Mr. H. S. Ough celebrated his passing of the 73rd birthday, and was visited by his daughter, Mrs. Robert Parmley, who came by bringing a birthday cake and also preparing a birthday supper for her father, which they enjoyed eating very much. The Journal and his many friends are extending wishes for many more happy birthdays and years of health and usefulness.

Junior-Senior Banquet.

The Junior-Senior banquet, which was given last week in honor of the graduating class of 1925, was a most pleasant affair and was one which will long be remembered by the members of both classes. The toastmaster was Phillip Coatman and the responses were made by Miss Elma Gardnock, Opal Steel, Marie Prouty, and Master Carl Hines, and Superintendent Kenneth E. Coon. The subject of the evening was "Breakers Ahead." The scheme was on which took up the voyage of life and each of the speakers carried well their part, carried well their part, making the whole one of the most interesting of stories.

Patience Worketh Wonders.

"The Hired Man," who recently purchased a Chevrolet, has so far mastered the animal that he was able to get it out and with two very pretty girls took a drive. They made on the better stretches of the road, all of five miles per hour and were able to make the round trip to Elmwood and back in one day, though of course it was after sundown before they got home and bedtime before the "Hired Man" got home.

Out Into the World.

Yes, that is where they will go and make a mark for themselves and a very fine advertisement for the high school of Alvo, which gave them their education and where they will graduate on Thursday of this week at the Commencement day exercises.

For Bargain Wednesday!

15 pounds of sugar for	$1
Campbell's pork and beans, can	10c
Van Camp's pork and beans, can	10c
Heinz pork and beans, 2 cans for	27c
Heinz catsup, large bottle	29c
Pink salmon, 3 cans for	49c
Sardines in catsup or mustard, 2 for	25c
Early June peas, No. 3 size, 7 cans	$1
Canned beets, per can	12½c
Cocoa, 2-pound cans	23c
Gallon can pears	65c
Gallon can loganberries	69c
Gallon can blackberries	72c
Gallon can apricots	65c
Gallon can Royal Ann cherries	85c
Fresh fig bars, per pound	15c
Ginger snaps, 2 pounds for	25c
4-tie red handled broom	39c

We pay 26c for Eggs

People's Market

Where Your Dollar Receives Its Full Value in Bargains

Sam Giventer, Manager Telephone No. 239

Now to Farming!

Sure we have the machinery—Plows, Listers, 2-Row Machines, Cultivators and things you want. John Deere or International line.

House Paints, Interior and Floor Varnish, Hardware, Fencing and anything wanted on the farm.

The Coatman Hardware Co.

ALVO — NEBRASKA

FOR SALE

Spotted Poland China Boars

By Creator 64,871 and The Commodore 94,097. Creator is said to be the best producing boar of the breed. He was first prize aged boar at Nebr. State Fair last fall. These boars will weigh in neighborhood of 375 pounds. We are also offering sows for fall farrow. Call or write for particulars.

R. H. Ingwerson & Sons
Nehawka, Nebr.

FOR SALE

Spotted Poland China Boars

By Creator 64,871 and The Commodore 94,097. Creator is said to be the best producing boar of the breed. He was first prize aged boar at Nebr. State Fair last fall. These boars will weigh in neighborhood of 375 pounds. We are also offering sows for fall farrow. Call or write for particulars.

R. H. Ingwerson & Sons
Nehawka, Nebr.

Now is the Time to Plan

That new line of Concrete, Cement and Brick Work.

LET ME FIGURE WITH YOU NOW

WILLIAM KEIF
Teaming of All Kinds
PHONE 651-W

PLATTSMOUTH BOYS AT IOWA TRACK MEET

Contest at Sidney, Iowa, with Representatives of the Iowa High School Who Won.

From Saturday's Daily—Yesterday the track team of the Plattsmouth high school accompanied by Coach Fritz Rother, journeyed over to Sidney, Iowa, where they contested with the pupils of the Fremont county school for the honors of the day.

In the scoring of the event, Sidney won by 70½ to 46½ by the Plattsmouth team, but the locals displayed a great improvement in their work and the fact that it is the first year of the track work here spoke well for the boys who represented the school here.

The members of the team going were Lavern Glaze, Herbert Johnson, Joe Buttery, George Perry, John Nelson, Francis Robb, Lawrence Leonard, Robert Wurl and Jerry Adams.

During the various events John Nelson secured a first in the discus throw and the relay team also secured a first. The team was composed of Buttery, Robb, Wurl and Glaze.

The work of Swanson, star all around track man of Sidney, was responsible for the fine showing that their school made as he is one of the best in southwestern Iowa and has been one of the most prominent of the high school men in the Hawkeye state.

CALF TAKEN UP

Taken up on my farm, two and a half miles west and one and three-quarters miles north of Murray, Cass county, Nebraska, a yearling black steer calf, owner can have same by paying for the keeping of same and for the advertising and other expenses. If this calf is not claimed and paid for within thirty days from the first publication of this notice it will be sold according to law, the proceeds used for the paying of expenses.

GLEN L. RHODIN,
Murray, Neb.

Mrs. Henry Born was a visitor in Omaha today with Mrs. Ida Tritsch, who is at the St. Catherine's hospital taking treatment.

Mrs. Cyril Kalina and children, Edmund and Betty, departed this morning for Omaha where they will spend Sunday visiting with relatives and friends in that city.

R. W. Cavender was a business visitor in Omaha today going to that city on this early morning Burlington train.

Herny Leacock, Jr., and wife departed this morning for Lincoln, where they will visit over Sunday in that city with relatives and friends.

ORDER OF HEARING on Petition for Appointment of Administrator

The State of Nebraska, Cass county, ss. In the County Court. In the matter of the estate of Mary Spangler, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition of C. D. Spangler praying that administration of said estate may be granted to E. H. Spangler, as Administrator:

Ordered, that June 9th, A. D. 1926, at 10 o'clock a. m., is assigned for hearing said petition, when all persons interested in said matter may appear at a County Court to be held in and for said County, and show cause why the prayer of petitioner should not be granted; and that notice of the pendency thereof be given to all persons interested in said matter by publishing a copy of this order in the Plattsmouth Journal, a semi-weekly newspaper printed in said county for three successive weeks, prior to said day of hearing.

Dated May 16th, 1925.

A. H. DUXBURY,
County Judge.

(Seal) m18-3w

LEGAL NOTICE

In the matter of the Application of Henry A. Guttmann, Administrator, for license to sell real estate.

Notice of Sale.

Notice is hereby given that under and by virtue of license to sell real estate and order of sale issued by the Honorable James T. Begley, Judge of the District Court of Cass county, Nebraska, on the 2nd day of May, 1925, that I, Henry Gutmman, Administrator of the estate of August W. Panska, deceased, will sell at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, that is to say, ten per cent on the day of sale and balance when said sale shall be confirmed by the Court, at the east front door of the Bank of Murdock, in Murdock, Cass county, Nebraska, at two o'clock in the afternoon on the 6th day of June, 1925, the following described real estate, to-wit:

The northwest quarter (NW¼) of Section five (5), Township eleven (11) North, Range eleven (11), east of the 6th P. M., Cass county, Nebraska.

Said sale to be and remain open for one hour.

Dated this 16th day of May, A. D. 1925.

HENRY GUTTMANN,
Administrator of the Estate of August W. Panska, Deceased
CARL D. GANZ,
Attorney. m18-6w

Chicken Day BARGAIN DAY

Wednesday May 20th

On this one day only, we will pay the following—

Cash Prices
Hens, per lb.	22c
Cox, per lb.	8c
Broilers, per lb.	35c
Leghorns, 5c lb. less.

If you have poultry to sell, better move it now as the market is working lower.

Prompt and Courteous Service Our Motto

Moye Produce Co.

Plattsmouth, Neb.
PHONE 391