CLASS OF 1925
 SAYS ITS LAST
 FOND FAREWELL

LARGEST CLASS IN HISTORY OF LOCAL SCHOOL—52 BOYS AND GIRLS IN CLASS.

HAS HIGH GRADES FOR WORK

Edith Quinton and Helen Wurl, Honor Students, Complete
 Course in 3 Years.

From Saturday's Daily—
 Last evening the class of 1925 of Plattsmouth High school were given the corded diplomas that certified that after well and faithful work in their studies that they were graduated from the schools with all the honors that their earnest and faithful work had entitled them to receive.

The class this year is the largest that has ever been graduated from the school, 52 numbering the class roll of those who were given their diplomas. It was a class that the school can well feel proud of and was fittingly representative of the city in the personnel of the boys and girls that comprised its membership.
 Twenty-one boys and thirty-one girls comprised the roll and showing the growing number of young men that complete their school work instead of as in the years past, leaving school after the first or second year in school.

As is the usual experience, the auditorium of the school building was wholly inadequate to hold the large audience that was desirous of gaining admission and many were unable to secure seats at every table made by the school authorities to see that the relatives of the graduates were given seats.

The professional was played by Miss Estelle Baird, one of the faculty of the school and to which the young men and women, gowned in the gray robes and with their mar-for board caps, entered the auditorium and marched to the seats on the platform which had been very prettily arranged for the occasion with the baskets of the bright hued flowers.

The invocation was offered by the Rev. Walter R. Robb, pastor of the First Christian church, which formally opened the exercises of the evening.

One of the gifted members of the class, Damian Flynn, was heard in a vocal number, "Macushla," in which the sweet voice of the singer was heard at its best. The accompaniment for the number was played by Miss Helen Wescott.

The salutatory of the class was given by one of the honor students, Miss Helen Wurl, who spoke of the appreciation of the class of 1925 for the opportunity that the school affered them of the inspiration of the ideas that had been given them by their teachers in their high school work. They had entered the school with darkened eyes but in the years of their high school labors they had experienced a broadening vision and would fit them to solve many of the problems that could come to them.
 Their training had given confidence to them for their duties and responsibilities. The speaker wished for the class that those who were responsible for their education to be pleased with their work.

Miss Edith Quinton, who had the highest grade of the class and, like Miss Wurl, had completed the four-year course in three years, was the valedictorian of the class. Her address was one carefully given and filled with many very important facts as to the class and its work in the high school period. Fact by fact and idea by idea the education had been secured and by intelligent knowledge well given they had been allowed to realize the hopes they had held of being graduated with honor and credit to themselves and to the school. The need of thoughtful, earnest study was stressed by the valedictorian in her remarks; the faculties in grasping the knowledge of life as presented in the school, giving them a clearer idea of the value of the education that they had secured. The speaker thanked the faculty, the members of the board of education and the parents for their aid in making the school career a success.

Theodore Hadraba, one of the high ranking members of the class, was heard on the program of the evening in a very finished and well given piano selection, "Staccato Op. 272" by Bohm, that certainly reflected the greatest credit on the young man and showed his marked musical ability.

The address of the evening was made by Millard C. Lefler, superintendent of schools of Lincoln, and was in every way most inspiring to the audience and the members of the class of 1925. "The Challenge of the Day" was the keynote of the address and called for the young people to give and bring to the tasks that they might be doing a thoughtful conclusion, to secure a self control that would give them a better appreciation of the real meaning of life, not the least being the proper respect for the institutions of our country. To the class he stated that they were about to face new conditions and a widely different viewpoint as they would be called upon to exercise their own individual responsibilities, instead of the class that had prevailed at school and the future would not measure them as a class but as they stand forth in their individual life. To run the race of life fairly and honestly was brought out most pleasingly by the speaker in several very effective illustrations. He stated that one of

WRIGLEYS
"after every meal"

 children to care for their teeth!
 Give them Wrigley's.
 It removes food particles from the teeth. Strengthens the gums. Combats acid the great temptations of the present day was to be ordinary rather than to try for the best that lay within the man or woman. The members of the class could attain any end they wished if they set their will that way and made the sacrifices that were necessary. The price of a life of success was a life of worthwhile labor and accomplishment.

 Mr. Lefler gave the story of "The Man Without a Country" as an illustration of the need of the proper feeling of love and respect for their nation and its laws. He also urged the young men and women to give the just appreciation to their fathers and mothers who had aided them and lauded the home and its sacred relations as one of the real worthwhile things in life. In conclusion the speaker pointed to the fact that character is the diamond that scratches every other stone.

The diplomas were beautifully bound in the blue limp leather and bearing the class colors of blue and white, were presented by President Searl S. Davis of the board of education. The new diplomas are real works of art and can be kept for practically a lifetime by the students. The members of the class to receive the diplomas were: Cordelia Black, Oscar Campbell, Mildred I.
 Crom, Elmer R. Fitchorn, Damian F.
 Flynn, Leslie A. Gansomer, LeVern B. Glaze, Clara B. Gobelman, Frank
 M. Godwin, Edna M. Gorder, Carl B.
 Graves, Clyde H. Graves, Theodore

 lety, Walter Tritsch, Antonia Vanek, Donice Vroman, Mable G. Vroman, Rose M. Warga, W. Victor Wehrbein, Helen R. Wescott, Ella Margaret Wiles and Helen M. Wurl.

Principal R. G. Campbell of the high school announced the honor graduate of the class to be Miss Edith Quinton, who was presented with the certificate entitling her to a scholarship in any of the Nebraska colleges.

Miss E. H. Wescott in behalf of the Plattsmouth chapter of the daughters of the American Revolution announced the winner of the American history prize in the class of 1925 to be Miss Ruth Patton, who was presented with the $5 gold piece offered by the chapter.

A very charming vocal trio was given "Stars Brightly Shining" by Misses Helen Wescott, Mildred Crom and Ruth Patton that proved a real feature of the program and was very much appreciated by all of the audience.

The benediction was pronounced by the Rev. Frank Emory Pfoutz of the First Methodist church and which closed the exercises of the evening.

CATCH SOME FISH

From Saturday's Daily—
 Mahalan Richardson, the well known fisherman residing in the vicinity of the Missouri river just north of Pacific Junction, made a real catch of fish on Wednesday that establishes the seasons record for size and weight of the fish secured.
 Two white catfish were secured by Mr. Richardson. One of the baits weighed sixty-five pounds and the other forty-five pounds. He fished with a throw line to which was attached an empty five gallon jug as a bobber and had the best success that has come to any of the fishermen in this locality in the present season. The two large fish are expected to be used for exhibition purposes.

NAMES ARE OMITTED

In the list of officers installed by Mt. Zion commandery No. 5, Knights Templar, which appeared in the Journal last evening, the names of two of the important officers were omitted, those of treasurer, Philip Thierolf, and the recorder, John E.
 Schutz, who were present and with the other officers duly installed into the offices that they have so very efficiently filled in the past.

SECURES SETTLE-MENT FROM ILLI-NOIS CENTRAL CO.

Barney Bardwell, Who Was Terribly Injured in Wreck Near Bloomington Receives $12,000.

From Saturday's Daily—
 The many friends here of Barney Bardwell, of Bloomington, Illinois, formerly one of the residents of Plattsmouth, will be interested to learn that Mr. Bardwell has made a settlement with the Illinois Central railroad for the severe injuries that he received several months ago in a railroad wreck near his home town.
 Mr. Bardwell is still suffering from the effects of the injury and is at the hospital at Bloomington, his injured arm still being in very bad shape and may require amputation before the patient is able to secure any relief from his long sufferings.
 The settlement made by the railroad is the payment of the sum of $12,000, the payment of the medical and hospital claims of Mr. Bardwell and also the granting to him of a lifetime pass and of a job in some capacity with the company in case of his recovery.

Mr. Bardwell was fring on the railroad at the time of the accident, the train on which he was fring having been caught in a wreck and in which he sustained the injuries that have since incapacitated him as he care and his case is still very serious.

BIRTHDAY AND FAREWELL

From Saturday's Daily—
 On Friday afternoon the home of Mrs. E. Porter, on South 5th st., was the scene of a happy gathering of young folks of the city. It being a surprise party for Miss Georgia Sullivan, it being her 14 anniversary, in conjunction with a farewell for the guest of honor, who leaves next week for a hospital in Minnesota.
 Miss Georgia received many beautiful gifts of remembrance from her many friends. Mrs. Milton Gillespie made the fortune cake, which caused much merriment. Those attending were, Misses Mildred Elliott, Marie Sperry, Bernice and Marjorie Arn, Jean Hayes, Margaret Nelson, Amelia and Pauline Kief, Sybil Davis, Helen Byers, Vivian Lightbody, Gladys Bushnell, Mildred Hall, Eleanor Steger, Dorothy Gillespie, Lena Woodruff, Fonda Trively, Amy Eliott, Francis Christ, Carlyne Thomas, Treva Edgerton, Isabel Marshall, Mildred Schulz, and Fern Jahrig.

PLATTSMOUTH
 TRACK TEAM
 VISITS AUBURN

Result of Meet is that Auburn Wins First; Peru, Second, and the Local School Third.

 The tri-city track meet held yesterday at Auburn between the Plattsmouth, Auburn and Peru Prep schools resulted in a first place win for Auburn with 70 points, Peru second with 36 and Plattsmouth third with 23.

The Plattsmouth members of the team, however, made a very nice showing and LaVern Glaze, probably the most outstanding of the local trackmen in speed, was able to land first in the low hurdles, second in the high hurdles, second in the 220 yard dash and third in the 100 yard dash.

Joe Buttery secured a second in the pole vault and third in the 440 yard dash.

Joe Krejci secured a second in the shot put while Herbert Johnson was third in the discus throw and javelin throw.

Johnson while hurling the javelin broke the weapon and which prevented him from securing a probable first in the contest.

There were a number of the high school boys accompanying the team and witnessing the days sport and enjoyed very much the exhibition of this line of athletics.
 Coach Rother accompanied the party and looked after their welfare during their visit and the whole party had a fast trip in reaching home to be able to attend the commencement exercises, a number of the athletes being members of the senior class.

Harry Walters and wife departed this morning for Hebron, Nebraska, where they will spend a short time friends.

HAS VERY PLEASING HONOR

From Saturday's Daily—
 Mrs. Adam Hill, one of our old and highly esteemed residents, had a very pleasing honor last evening in connection with the graduating exercises of the Plattsmouth high school. Mrs. Hill had the pleasure of having three of her grandchildren graduate from the school in the class of 1925 and who are to become part of the citizenship of this community and have to inspire them in their duties the splendid life and character of their grandparents. The members of the family graduating were Henry Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Hill, of near Murray; Harley Puls, son of Mr. and Mrs.
 L. H. Puls, of Murray, and Miss Pearl Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
 George M. Hill of this city.

The Hill family is numbered among the leading families of this section of the county and their future is assured in the fine young people that they are contributing to the community life.

PURCHASES NEW COUPE

Mrs. Jennie Kilmm was in the city Saturday from her home south of the city, and was driving a fine new Ford coupe that has been secured from the Plattsmouth Motor company. The car is a very handsome one and will prove a great pleasure to Mr. and Mrs. Kilmm this coming summer.

PURCHASES A CHEVROLET

From Saturday's Daily—
 Jack McNatt has joined the ranks of the Chevrolet owners of the county as he has just secured one of the new touring cars from J. B. Lin-ston, the local dealer, and will be able to enjoy the fine summer days and evenings in the new gas wagon.

LIKES NEW LOCATION

From Saturday's Daily—
 Harley F. Cecil, who has located at Oakland, California, in the Pacific coast branch of the Montgomery

Ward Co., writes back to friends here that he is very much pleased with work very much. The branch of the company is located in a large eight story building and the volume of business handled there is very large.
 Mr. Cecil has charge of the work clothing and children's wear department, filling orders that come in the mail order department.

Frank Downey of Lincoln was here last evening visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Wohlfarth and departed this morning for Omaha where he will spend the day with his wife who is at the Methodist hospital taking treatment.

Attorney A. L. Tidd departed this morning for Omaha where he was called to look after some matters of business for a few hours.
