

Alvo Department

Jess Holka, Earl Keller and Alva Skinner shelled and delivered corn to the Rehmeier elevator last Thursday.

Dr. L. Miere and wife were visiting and looking after some business matters in Lincoln on last Wednesday.

John Skinner was a business visitor in Lincoln last Friday with the truck, looking after some hauling for the farmers.

Carl Rosemond is working on the farm of Earl Bennett and is getting the corn out of the way for the other work which comes on the farm.

J. W. Banning and wife were enjoying a visit with friends and relatives in Union last Sunday, driving over to that lively city in their car for the day.

Mrs. Wm. Suders has been very sick at her home in Alvo during the past few weeks and is still very poorly, but every thing is being done for her care.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Foreman will soon move to Alvo, and are at this time making some improvement on their property in town, getting ready to move, the farm will be occupied by the boys.

The Coatsman Truck line has hauled during the past week 20 head of cattle and some 68 of hogs to the stock markets besides much other trucking and always bringing merchandise home or the return trip.

Roy Armstrong, of South Bend, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Armstrong, has been very sick at his home for some time with the flu, but at this time is reported as being some better and able to be out again.

Mrs. R. M. Coatsman and son, Sterling were visiting in Lincoln last Thursday, where they were obtaining supplies for the banquet which was given for and in honor of the annual of the Alvo schools.

A. J. Brobst and the family are soon to depart for Minnesota, where Mr. Brobst will engage in the carpenter business, and will assist in the erection of summer cottages for the use of summer visitors in the north.

Mrs. J. R. Rouse, who has been visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. E. Theley, at Union for the past week returned home last Friday coming to Elmwood in the train and from there to Alvo via auto.

Arthur Dinges, the automobile man and one who can be absolutely depended upon on all occasions, last week sold to Clarence Aulhouse a Universal coupe, which will very nicely serve this excellent young man for all his wants, both business and pleasure.

Miss Carmen Muler, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. Muler, who has been teaching at Ogallala, during the past year and where she closed a very successful year of teaching arrived home last week and after visiting here for a time with her parents will attend summer school at Lincoln.

H. D. Richardson, who is traveling on the road now for an Omaha firm, was home last week and he and Simon Rehmeier were out fishing last Thursday evening, but did not call Roy Coatsman with the truck to bring the fish in, as they did not have quite a truck load.

George Curvey and wife arrived during the past week from California, where they had been spending the winter and enjoyed the trip home and the greetings from their many friends here very pleasantly. Clarence went out to accompany the parents home and drove the car back for them.

Change Train Time at Alvo
The Rock Island has changed time and this will show the departing and arrival at Alvo as follows: Train No. 28, which has been making the stop at this place at 11:55, will now arrive just five minutes after noon. No. 37 will now arrive at 7:33, instead of 6:11, the time of its arrival here before. The road has also put back in service a number of its thru trains, but which do not make stops between Lincoln and Omaha.

Card of Thanks
To all friends and neighbors and organizations who have in any way assisted us during the sickness and death of our father, we wish to express our sincere thanks.—Perry Cook; Frank Cook; Mrs. Fred Tams and Families.

The Free Movies
The free movies which are being put on by the business men of Alvo, will be in the open this coming Saturday, providing the weather is right. There will be two reels of comic and two reels of the serial, "The Way of Man," this being the eighth episode. Everybody welcome to come and see these pictures free.

Bobbed Hair Very Popular
Not alone does the style of bobbed hair appeal to the young ladies and girls, but it extends to the middle aged and those well advanced in years. Grandma was in last week and had her locks shorn, and at the same time clipped some twenty years from her age. The girl of seven and the matron of seventy are both well pleased with the style.

George Cook at Rest
Last Sunday occurred the funeral of one of the pioneers of this portion of the state, a man who came to Nebraska in 1856 and to the western portion of Cass county in 1878. The funeral was held from the Methodist church which was not adequate to accommodate more than half of the crowd there to pay tribute to this excellent man. The funeral was conducted by the Rev. C. A. Norlin, pastor of the church, the Modern Woodmen camp of which he was long a member having a part in the services. Raymond Cook, of Plattsmouth, a nephew of the deceased, sang his favorite number, "A Portent Day."

George C. Cook, son of Joseph and Mary Cook, was born in Pike county, Ohio, December 7, 1854. At the age of two years he moved with his parents to a farm near Plattsmouth, Nebraska. There he lived until he grew to manhood, when he was married to Abbie B. Cook, November 2, 1878. To this union were born three children, George Perry Cook, of Lincoln; Frank Edgar Cook, of Alvo, and Mrs. Fred Tams, of Stewart, Nebraska. There are also left to mourn his death Jake Cook, of Ord, Nebraska; Phil Cook, of Norfolk, Nebraska; John Cook, of Beaver City; Charles Cook, of Plattsmouth; Will Cook, of Elmwood; Joe Cook, Plattsmouth; Mrs. Bina Kitzel, Alvo; Mrs. W. D. Wheeler, Plattsmouth; Mrs. Walter Valley, Murray; Mrs. Olin Cole, Mynard; brothers and sisters; also ten grandchildren, and a host of other relatives.

The spring after their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Cook moved to their farm in this vicinity—then only a piece of prairie—where the deceased lived until his death.

Uncle George, as he was commonly called, was one of the early pioneers settling here when there were only a few white families in this vicinity and the Indians were numerous.

He was a man of sterling quality and strict honesty and many acts of kindness on his part endeared him to his neighbors and friends. He joined the Methodist church in 1891 and remained a faithful member until death.

Mr. Cook was a member of the Modern Woodmen for 25 years, and he was honored by this lodge, whose members were pleased to claim him as a brother and to turn out en masse for his funeral.

The burial took place in the Alvo cemetery with the services of committal in charge of his lodge brethren.

There were here from out of town to attend the funeral W. D. Wheeler and wife; Charles C. Cook and wife and Raymond Cook and wife, all of Plattsmouth; T. W. Valley and S. O. Cole of Mynard; Joseph Cook and family of Murray; Phillip Cook and family of Hadar.

Business is Good
So says Simon Rehmeier, of the elevator here. One day during the past week he weighed and dumped at the elevator 143 wagon loads of grain, a portion of corn and some of it wheat, which as they had to be divided, made the work so much the more. When he says that the is good he sure was right for that would keep most any man out of mischief for the ten long hours.

A. B. Stromer has a new Tudor Ford sedan which he has just purchased and which he will use for the family, and which will make an excellent wagon for the family.

The alumni of the Alvo schools held their banquet on last Friday evening and were served by the Ladies of the Methodist church, who know well how to feed in a hospitable and did it to a nicety. You will find an account of the banquet in another column.

Kill the Lice
Lice keeps the stock from growing. Kill the lice and save the stock. We sell the powders that get the lice. Same as used by the Lincoln hatchery. Excellent for poultry, especially chicks. Going at a discount now.—John W. Banning, at lumber yard. m25-2A

Notice, School Meeting
Annual meeting of School District No. 102 will be held in school house June 5th at 8 p. m. for the purpose of voting $15,500.00 for general school purposes which is in excess of the limit of mill levy and for such other purposes as may legally come before the meeting.

H. L. BORNEMEIER, Secretary.

FLEET WILL STAGE SORTIE BY NIGHT
First Maneuver of Type With Simulation of Wartime Conditions Planned.

U. S. S. Seattle, Hawaiian Waters, May 28.—The flagship Seattle of the United States fleet started back to Lahaina today to participate in the first of a series of maneuvers between the islands of Maui and Lanai.

The battle fleet with ships of the train set out tonight on the first night sortie of the entire fleet ever attempted with simulation of all wartime conditions, including radio silence and darkened ship.

The re-entry of the fleet into the anchorage of Lahaina roadsteads and the third sortie of the week have given commanders of the fleet units additional practice in those particular exercises, which had not been conducted in an entirely satisfactory manner in the previous maneuvers.

The fleet is due back at Honolulu Friday morning. Ships which are to participate in the long cruise to Australia will spend an entire month in preparation.

The exodus of Atlantic fleet vessels which are not going to the antipodes already has begun. The first ships to go were 208 class submarines, which will proceed to San Diego for refueling, thence through the Panama canal and up the Atlantic coast to New York. The submarines are accompanied by their mother ship, and are sailing away.

ARE YOU ALL RUN DOWN?
Many Plattsmouth Folks Have Felt That Way.

Feel all out of sorts? Tired, achy, blue, irritable? Back lame and stiff? It may be the story of weak kidneys!

Of toxic poisons circulating about, upsetting blood and nerves. There's a way to feel right again. Help your weakened kidneys with Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic.

Doan's are recommended by many Plattsmouth people.

Mrs. Ada Moore, 410 Granite street, Plattsmouth, says: "After doing a little work about the house my back became lame and sore. I was constantly annoyed with a dull, gnawing ache across my back. Headaches were followed by dizzy spells and my kidneys were in a run down condition. They acted irregularly, too. I found immediate relief through the use of Doan's Pills from Weyrich & Hadraba's Drug Store. An occasional use of Doan's keeps me free from any suffering."

Mrs. Moore is only one of many Plattsmouth people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S PILLS, the same that Mrs. Moore had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60 cents at all drug stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. "When Your Back is Lame—Remember the Name."

Dr. Carl Schmidtman of Omaha, was here today, coming down to spend the day at his home at Plattsmouth, Mr. and Mrs. William Schmidtman and family.

Henry Leacock, Sr., and daughter, Miss Laura, departed this morning for Sterling, Nebraska, where they will attend the Decoration day exercises in that city.

SOLDIER DEAD HAD HIGH TYPE OF CITIZENSHIP

A Tribute to the Soldier Dead and Their Influence on the Citizenship of the Nation.

From Saturday's Daily—

Memorial day brings to us a new reverence for those whose sacrifices made our country sure. In their valor and ideals they revealed the priceless possession of this nation—its abundant treasure of worthy citizenship.

Citizenship is the fiber of any nation. It is the quality that binds the individual and feeds the love of hearth and home, sets aflame the passion of patriotism, lifts the nation above the individual and fosters liberty and equality.

Well may this nation be proud of its citizenship. From Lexington to Sumner, from Santiago to the Argonne, this citizenship has borne as a beacon of democracy. Whether on Flanders Fields or native soil, it revealed its mettle and its high, unselfish aims. It defended freedom and it has the power to bind the wounds of the vanquished.

That citizenship so steadfastly maintained by our manhood in our war and peace, is the quality that has made this nation great. It is the quality that has had immeasurable influence on our national character. We foster it in our hearts and firesides, our churches and our schools. Indeed, our schools are our special instruments for the creation of citizenship, for they are the cradles of character. Training youth in good conduct, right habits, is one of their essential functions. Here is the foundation of good government, the source of good citizenship.

Children taught what is right will tend to act right. The enlightened mind is the constructive mind. In the language of Judge Pen Lindsay of Denver, "The child is the investigator of child delinquency in this country, 'it is better to make children think than to make them good.'" This leaves little doubt the course we should pursue.

It discourages vice and crime. The school is our institution for the general diffusion of knowledge and the building of character. Taking the nation's manhood in the raw, it molds and inspires within those qualities which are the noblest of citizenship, the nobility of character which finds its highest expression in defense of democracy.

So, on this Memorial day, with its lessons of devotion and loyalty to ideals as we pay tribute to the citizenship of our fathers, we may well have concern that we plan safely and well for the citizenship of the Tomorrows.

HARRY THAW IS IN TALKATIVE MOOD

Has Had a Good Time at New York, But Glad to Get Back to Virginia, Where He's Quite a Fellow.

New York, May 28.—Harry K. Thaw left the white lights today to return to Virginia, where, he said, "I'm quite a fellow, and the newspapers leave me alone."

Altho he had complained during his stay in New York, he was in an expansive mood today, and when confronted by a group of reporters invited them all to lunch. He spoke of his doings while in New York, but seemed interested chiefly in the thought of going back to Winchester, Va., where he is constable, deputy sheriff and "magnate" of the baseball team.

"I'm here on business," he said, "but I had a darn good time. And that goes despite the fact that the foolish stories that have been printed. But it's wonderful down there. I'm quite a fellow down there, you know, and the newspapers don't bother me."

"Look here," he added, displaying his badge, "I can arrest folks and everything."

When asked about baseball, Mr. Thaw gave a beaming response. "Why I'm a magnate down there," he said. "One of the things I did here was to buy a new supply of equipment, balls, gloves and uniforms. We've got one of the fastest teams in the valley."

Mr. Thaw said he accomplished the principal object of his visit, finding Frederick M. Affrick, formerly his mother's chauffeur, and taking him back to Virginia.

He said that today he had visited the nerve specialist "who has been looking after me."

"I feel fine," he added.

MORMON LEADERS EXCHANGE PLACES

Salt Lake City, May 28.—Charles W. Nibley, presiding bishop of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints (Mormon) today was appointed second counselor in the first presidency of the church, and W. W. Ivins, heretofore second counselor to President Heber J. Grant, appointed first counselor, succeeding the late Charles W. Penrose.

By these appointments, President Ivins is elevated while Bishop Nibley takes the position vacated by the former.

Nibley was born in Hunterfield, a small coal mining town near Edinburgh, Scotland, February 5, 1849.

The father was a coal miner and the Nibley family emigrated to the United States in 1857, soon after being converted to Mormonism.

Nibley is prominently associated with Oregon timber enterprises and the Utah-Idaho Sugar company, which operates in many western states and Canada.

STILL NO DECISION ON SIMMONS' PETITION

Lincoln, May 29.—Governor McCullen, Attorney General Spillman and Secretary of State Pool conferred again today on the question of granting a rehearing on the application of Walter R. Simmons for a commutation of his death sentence, but reached no conclusion.

The board members said at the conclusion of the meeting it was unlikely a decision will be reached until next week, as they wished to go over the entire record in the case.

U. S. PAYS OUT $2,500 TO GET 4 RUM SUSPECTS

Arrest of Alleged Liqueur Ring Headed by Former Sarpy Sheriff "Costly But Worth it," Says Thomas.

What does it cost to catch a bootlegger? "Well, whatever it costs," snapped Elmer Thomas, federal prohibition director for Nebraska, "it is worth it."

"Roughly estimated it cost the department in excess of $2,500 to arrest Charles Hutter, James Corcoran, Jimmy Silks and Louis Meek in the recent 'dry' coup," continued Thomas.

"The expense of catching them," said Thomas, "is borne entirely by the department at Washington."

"It cost the Omaha division $50,000 to operate last year, and more than 1,000 bootleggers were brought to justice," said Thomas. "Which will average about $50 each for each 'legger caught.'"

"Last year in the entire country more than $7,000,000 was paid in fines and $11,000,000 spent to catch them. The bootleggers caught are often repeaters. It is true, but we break them financially and morally within a year."

"I will venture the statement that none of the men caught in the last drive will be bootlegging within a year. They will either be in jail or out of the business. Think of what it costs them to fight a case against them, and then think what it costs them in fines and time lost in jail. They can't afford to keep it up."

Thomas declared it cost the salary of four men from Washington, their apartment rent, which was $120 a month for two months, and expenses of buying alcohol and incidentals, about $1,000.

"And the liquor cost nearly $1,000," Thomas stated. In proof of his statement there are more than a dozen five-gallon cans of alcohol in his possession.

Washington Men Return.
The men who trapped the alleged bootleggers have returned to Washington, according to Thomas.

"They were to have stayed here until the special grand jury met next Tuesday, but now it has been ordered to report in July."

Thomas denied that a woman was used by the agent to lure the prospect to the apartments of the agents.

"The government absolutely refuses to engage women in the capacity of agents," he said.

The loss to those arrested will include whatever they pay their lawyers, the fine imposed and the loss of their cars, confiscated at the time of their arrest, according to Thomas.

SAYS AMUNDSEN COULDN'T REACH CAPE COLUMBIA

MacMillan Declares Polar Ice Would Destroy Canvas Boat Traversing Open Water Leads

Portland, Me., May 29.—Roald Amundsen, who has not been heard from since he left Spitzbergen on a flight to the North Pole, would not be able to walk to Cape Columbia, as he had planned, at this season, Commander Donald B. MacMillan said, Amundsen made the statement that if his planes gave out at the pole, he would return by foot to the cape.

In the summer, MacMillan said, the polar sea is a moving mass of water, with a slight coating of ice which forms overnight and is sharp enough to cut to shreds a canvas boat such as Amundsen carried.

Eighteen years in the polar regions taught the late Rear Admiral Peary that conditions such as described always prevail in summer in the Arctic, the speaker said. He recalled that Peary, when leaving on the expedition which resulted in the discovery of the north pole, said that if he did not return by the end of May, he would never come back.

Commander MacMillan said that it was hard to tell what had become of Amundsen because it was not known how much food and gasoline he took on his airplane for the pole.

The occasion was a farewell to Commander MacMillan before he leaves for the far north.
