John Christianson of near Murray was a visitor at the home of his father, Hans Christianson, on last Monday and was also looking after some business while in town.

D. C. La Rue and family and Ellis La Rue and wife were all enjoying a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Garrett, where all enjoyed last Sunday most pleasantly.

J. Alexander Eaton has disposed of his garage and the garage business to A. W. Propst and Alex will look after the trucking and long distance hauling, especially in the future.

W. E. Keedy and family were visiting in Lincoln last Sunday and were accompanied by Attorney C. H. Taylor, who remained while Mr. and Mrs. Taylor returned home on Monday morning.

Mrs. Lucinda Comer remains about the same at the home of her son, George W. Comer, where she is being cared for and given the best of medical attention in order to restore her health.

Alda Taylor, who has been down some lands and where he was looking after some business matters for a few days, returned home on last Monday afternoon.

Bruce Stone, Dave West, Walter Wunderlich, George Switzer, Henry Theile and their families took their dinners and went to Shenandoah on Sunday, where they took in the sights of that noted city.

King Clark was a business visitor in Omaha last Monday, where he was called to make purchases for the restaurant and eating house which he maintains on lower Main street, and where he says business is very good.

Little Marjorie Hoback, granddaughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor, is making her home with her grandparents and enjoying life in the town very much, and is quite an assistant to her grandmother as well, being a perfect little lady.

Dr. W. J. Luxford was called to Decatur, where he has a very dear friend who is very ill and who called the Union doctor to come and see him. Dr. Luxford went and found his friend, Jack Walker, in a very feeble condition with but slight hope of his recovery.

A. L. Becker and son, H. Becker, were looking after some business matters in Omaha last Monday, they making the trip in the car of Mr. H. H. Becker. Mr. A. L. Becker expects to depart for the west in a short time to begin on the harvesting of his wheat and oats.

Joe Banning was out plowing corn a number of days during the present week. He says he can hear the corn grow, and it looks so fine he cannot resist the opportunity to go out and plow some even if he has to have the Missus keep store for him while he works in the field.

Mrs. Mabel E. Reynolds says business is good with me in the store and there is no complaint, which is a good omen for we want all to be satisfied with business, and as the prices are now about right, taking all things into consideration, why should not business be good?

W. H. Porter has been busy in the corn field and thinks he has some of the finest corn growing hereabouts. He has some very fine corn, but when he has beaten that of his brother, D. Porter, he is doing pretty well. However, he had time to stop and put in a cistern pump at the house.

Last Sunday evening while Mrs. Wm. Shonaker was on her way to church, she had the misfortune to have one of her feet injured, being struck by a wagon and a deep cut inflicted in one of her feet which it was necessary for the doctor to dress. She is getting along nicely at this time.

J. D. Cross and wife and Mrs. Vesta Clark were visiting at Bellevue last Saturday, where they were being held the 115th anniversary of the founding of the first white settlement in Nebraska. A large crowd from all over the state were present and many historical exhibits were on display.

Edward Grimes and wife, of St. Louis, arrived in Union a short time since and are visiting with relatives and friends here. They with many friends were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Stine last Sunday, where a most pleasant time was had. While here they will be guests of Mrs. Tabitha Smith and the Omaha families as well as others.

Last Sunday many were guests at the home of A. L. Becker and family. During the morning, W. L. Taylor and sons, Almond, Wilson and William from Omaha were there as well as Attorney C. H. Taylor, of Lincoln, all for dinner and a most pleasant time was had. During the afternoon there were there W. L. Pell and family, Joseph Banning, C. F. Morton and W. H. Orter and the family.

Walter Munn and his sister, Mrs. A. H. Wolfe took a tour of the county Sunday afternoon, going south to see the fine stock farm of the Bros., who train horses. All kinds of pacing, trotting and other horses at any age, one big gray horse, 13 years old, being among the number, and it would stand on its hind feet or lay down at the command of his trainer. It is a fine sight to see them work with the horses. They do this after they come in from the field.

The Rev. C. L. Elliott was a visitor in Louisville last Sunday, where he assisted in conducting the funeral of Miss Edith Knutsen, a young lady of that town, who was a member of the church at that time he was pastor there. The young lady had been in an Omaha hospital for a long time, following a breakdown in her health more than a year ago that prevented her from graduating with the other members of her class from the Louisville high school last year. She was a well beloved young lady and her passing was the occasion of great sorrow in Louisville.

Business Changes Hands E. W. Keedy, who has been the druggist of Union for some time, and who has ever been accommodating and careful in his work and a man on whom people could rely, has disposed of his business to Mr. W. R. Moore, who with the family have arrived and are now living in the Saxon property east of the Baptist parsonage and are looking after the business at the store. Mr. Moore and the family come well recommended and we are certain that they will make excellent citizens for Union. Mr. and Mrs. Keedy will continue to reside here for some time as Mr. Keedy has some business matters to settle. In the way of collections which will require some time to effect, but which will be adjusted as rapidly as possible.

Children's Day at Baptist Church Children's day at the Baptist church was celebrated last Sunday, and many of the little ones were out and enjoyed the occasion very much. There was to have been services as well but the program which was put on extended to such a length that there remained no time for the service following the exercises. The coming Sunday there will be Bible school and a discourse by the Rev. W. A. Taylor, who is the regular minister at the church at this time, and he will preach every Sunday morning. Following the preaching services there will be a basket dinner held in the basement of the church and to which all who are interested in the welfare of the church and Bible school are very cordially invited to attend. The church is indeed very fortunate in securing the services of the Rev. W. A. Taylor for their minister at this time as he is a very able minister as well as being an industrious worker and devoted to the cause of the master.

Heart in Right Place Florence H. McCarthey, who is a lover of children and ever willing to show them a kindness took his car last Sunday and took Master Paul Davis and sister, Catherine, Winifred Uhley and brother Donald and his own three children, Florence, Mary Ellen and John, Jr., and went with them for a ride to Murray and sure the little ones did enjoy the trip and were of the opinion that Flossie enjoyed the trip as much as anyone.

Why Not a Commercial Club? Union will be the best town that the efforts of the citizens can make it possible. To most effectively work for the better condition of the town, those who are interested in its welfare should be organized. A commercial club with all the factors for the betterment of the town working in concert instead of isolated is bound to effect good returns for the things they work for.

Card of Thanks Having recently disposed of my store to W. E. Moore, of Lushton, Nebraska, I wish to thank the people of Union and vicinity for their patronage during my time in business at Union.

My successor, by being a registered pharmacist, graduate of Creighton College of Pharmacy and having had several years of business experience, will be capable of taking care of all your needs in the druggists' line.

E. W. KEEDY.

Ship Cattle from Union Among those who were shipping cattle from the Union station to the stock market at South Omaha on last Monday were L. G. Todd, Luther Meade, Thomas McQuinn and Hans Christensen.

Restaurant Changes Hands Mrs. Pickins, who has been working at the lower hotel and restaurant for some time, has purchased the place and will continue to conduct the same.

Notice! Having disposed of my drug store to W. E. Moore, will ask all parties owing me to settle accounts at once.

E. W. KEEDY.

CARNIVAL CLOSES IN THIS CITY SATURDAY EVENING

American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps Realize Neat Sum from Entertainment of Week.

From Monday's Daily—The Ister Greater Shows gave their last performance in this city Saturday evening, to a huge crowd that filled the tourist park, where the company was exhibiting, to its utmost capacity, and as the result of the very generous patronage of the public, the American Legion drum and bugle corps will receive as their share of the entertainment, $550, which will be devoted to the securing of uniforms and equipment for this new organization of the Legion, which will attend the national convention of the Legion in Omaha in October.

The Ister Shows proved one of the best carnival attractions that has appeared in the city for many years and in their shows and the persons connected with the shows gave the people of this city with real week of clean entertainment and amusement by a company of perfect ladies and gentlemen in every way.

There was no complaint as to the shows or any person connected with the company, and from Mr. Ister on down the company has left a most pleasant memory with the Platts mouth people and it is hoped that in the future this company may again have the opportunity of visiting this city.

The train got out at 9:30 yesterday morning, bound for Villisca, at which place the shows will exhibit this week and next week they will be in Shenandoah, Iowa.

WHY CHILDREN LIE

A scientific inquiry by the wife of a Columbia university professor, "The child's lie is a symptom." And it is, that is what Eugenie Andrus Leonard says. Mrs. Leonard wanted to be able to tell parents what a lie meant. A lot had been written especially for mothers. She gathered more than six hundred fibs told by healthy, average children, and sorted them. Some were confessions, others were from childhood. A few were of them was signed with the name of the liar. The boys and girls in a junior high school gave three hundred and seventy-nine instances; college students and others gave two hundred and ninety-four more, remembered from childhood. A few misunderstood and wrote out fairy tales, but the lies that were studied all came from life. Those who gave them knew they were wanted for a serious study.

Symptoms of what? Listen again to Mrs. Leonard: "Most of them stand for these two great things: "Estrangement between parent and child—estrangement neither may realize which creates, none the less, a breach. "Fear—fear of defeat, of work, of ridicule or punishment, of having to do without some possession which seems a trifle to the parent but is great riches in the eyes of childhood. You yourself must see with the child's eyes—get his point of view—if you are to tame or slay fear, which is the father of lies.

DE MOLAYS ELECT OFFICERS

From Wednesday's Daily—Last evening Cass chapter, Order of De Molay, held their election of officers for the ensuing three months and the following were named to the leading positions in the chapter: Master Councilor—Elmer P. Johnson. Senior Councilor—Roy Olson. Junior Councilor—Norris Cummings. The chapter made no selection in the office of treasurer held by Norris Cummings and Thomas Green was continued in the office of scribe. Those who have ordered copies of the Delenator and Designer at the Bates Book store are requested to call for the same.

Jess Smith and Fayette Pickett, of Murray were in Nehawka and Union last Monday carrying a large number of large hills for the advertising of the day which will be had in Plattsmouth on the Fourth of July, and to which an invitation is extended to everybody to come and enjoy.

W. C. Steele and wife, with their son, Ranzo, of Polk, were visiting at the home of the sister of Mrs. Steele last Thursday and Friday. The came to see Mrs. Hewitt, the sister of Mrs. Steele, who has not been feeling the best since her return from the hospital several weeks since.

A dainty blue eyed baby girl, arrived last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orin Pollard, coming with the most delightful little smile to make the home happy, the young lady is the first little miss to arrive, the other four children being young men, and they, as well as the parents are very pleased at the arrival of Uncle Peter Opp, who has been visiting for some time in Nehawka with the family of his son, John Opp, went to Nebraska City last week, where he will visit for some time at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. T. Lloyd, and then will return to Omaha where he is making his home but will stop here for a short time on his return trip.

Mrs. L. H. Young, who has been at the hospital for some time writes home that she is getting along nicely at this time and that she hopes to be able to return home by the end of this week, as she is having skin grafted on her hand at this time which completed the operations necessary for the entire cure of the skin cancer which was afflicting this excellent woman.

Herold Kimlon, with Tom Mason and his big car went to Omaha last Sunday where they found Mrs. Kimlon much improved following her operation of some weeks ago. She was so far recovered that they brought her home with them. Mrs. Kimlon is feeling much improved but has not as yet had an opportunity to recover her strength as she is at this time some forty pounds lighter than when she went to the hospital.

Henry N. Stoll, with Clyde and Alta Duckworth, last Monday afternoon departed from Nehawka going via Omaha, to Stockton, California, where they will expect to make their home in the future. They have been making their home in Nehawka for some time past, and go to join other relatives in the west, Miss Alta and Master Clyde Duckworth have their mother in the west, who is also Mr. Stoll's sister, and they will expect to make their homes at Stockton. Joseph Wolpert, C. E. Muckenbaupt and Fred Krecklow, all of Manley, were in Nehawka last Monday morning, driving here that they might find some fish in the lower courses of the Weeping Water creek, but as they were told that the fish were all gone and pretty wild, they never unharassed their fishing tackle from the side of the coupe, but after having enjoyed the scenery and meeting a number of the excellent citizens of Nehawka and vicinity returned to their homes in the center of the county.

Mrs. Parr Young was a visitor in Weeping Water with relatives for over the week end, and enjoyed the occasion very much.

Bert Willis has exchanged the rectifier which he has had for one of a larger capacity, as his business has grown so as to more than tax the output of the old one.

The ball game which was staged between the team of Nehawka and Elmwood was one which was enjoyed every whit by the crowd of enthusiastic fans, but play as hard as they could the Nehawka braves had to succumb to the inevitable, and be satisfied with five runs while the visitors knocked out eight.

Better Watch Your Step. That is what the chicken thieves had better do for with an abundance of ammunition and the old trusty otherwise known as the muzzle loading shot gun, Louis Ross is watching for the prowlers who, the other night, attempted to perlin some of the flocks of his flock of chickens. With corn and other feeds so high, and much care bestowed in the raising and keep of the chickens, neither he nor his wife will stand for some one coming in and helping themselves to the flock, so be sure, you chicken stealers, those of you who visit this place that you are keeping clear of a load of shot or two at and rate farmers carrying guns for he will shoot and means business when he does it.

Entertained Her Friends. Miss Gladys Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Hill, north of town, entertained on last Friday evening, some thirty of her young friends at a lawn party which was given at their farm home.

Gladys proved herself a most excellent entertainer, and all present enjoyed the evening most splendidly, and are now hoping that they may soon have another opportunity of being entertained by this young lady. Very delicious refreshments were served at an appropriate hour, which added very much to the pleasure of the gathering.

Enjoying Their Vacation. Misses Helen and Lydia Todd, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Todd, who have been teaching school for the past year have completed their years work and are home for their much needed vacation. The Misses Todds are excellent teachers as well as being very clever young women and are making much progress with their school work.

KU KLUX KLAN VISITS CHURCH.

From Tuesday's Daily—Last Sunday, during the proceeding of the services at the United Brethren church at Nehawka, in walked four white robed representatives of the Ku Klux Klan and proceeding to the front presented the minister with a purse containing the sum of $25, together with a copy of the By-Laws of the order and a letter, which were read, and then departed as they came, very respectfully. During their visit not one of them said a word. This was a very gracious act as the Rev. Hewett has had a most difficult time in meeting his expenses on account of having his wife in the hospital, and in this instance as in preceding like cases, they have displayed much wisdom in bestowing their gifts where it will do very great good.
