

The Plattsmouth Journal.

VOL. NO. XII

PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA, MONDAY, JULY 6, 1925.

NO. 44

KINNEY GOODMAN IS CALLED TO HIS REST LAST NIGHT

Aged Man After Several Weeks of Illness Yields to the Advancing Years and Passes On.

From Thursday's Daily—
The death of Kinney Goodman, aged resident of this community for the past forty years, occurred last night at the home of his son, George W. Goodman, with whom he has been making his home for the past few years and where he has been tenderly cared for in the last days of life as the sands of the long and useful life were sifting away.

Mr. Goodman was a native of the state of Ohio where he was born on August 2, 1835, and where he spent his younger years of life and grew to man's estate. While a youth Mr. Goodman was interested in the new doctrine of religious faith that was preached throughout Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana by Thomas Campbell, and on hearing this fervid evangelist of the then new faith, he became a member of the original church founded by Thomas Campbell in Ohio, and from which has sprung the present day Christian church. It being a distinction possessed by but few to have been a charter member of the church that has grown to be one of the great factors in the religious life of the nation.

Mr. Goodman was married on December 11, 1859, to Miss Nancy Crouse in the old home in Ohio, and who bore with him the trials and joys of life until four years ago when she preceded him in death. To this union there were born ten children, two of whom, a daughter, Ida, passed on twenty-eight years ago and a son, Samuel, dying two years ago. There is left to mourn the passing of the father, eight children, four sons, B. F. Goodman of near Manley, Henry Goodman of Pottawatomie, Mo., William Goodman of Grand Island and George W. Goodman of this city, and four daughters, Mrs. Adolph Steinkamp of Manley, Mrs. Ellen DeFreese of Lincoln, Mrs. Miner Underwood of Burlington and Mrs. Cora Buskirk of North Platte.

Mr. Goodman and family arrived at Plattsmouth April 3, 1885, and have since made their home in this state and largely in Cass county where Mr. Goodman was universally loved and esteemed by those who had the opportunity of knowing him.

PLEASANT BIRTHDAY PARTY

From Thursday's Daily—
Yesterday afternoon the passing of the eighth birthday of Master Richard Ramard was observed at his home by a gathering of the little school friends and associates who joined in making the event one of the greatest pleasure to the little guest of honor. The time was spent in games of all kinds and at an appropriate hour the beautiful birthday cake with its candles was brought forth and with the dainty refreshments served, completed a day of the rarest pleasure. The members of this pleasant party were: Vivian, Johnnie and Charlotte Palmer, Dale and Maxine Cotton, Charley, Kieck, Nellie, Margaret, Roney, Florence, Lawrence, and Betty Rhodes, Katherine and Irene Anthes, Elvin and Elva Johnson, Earl and Jeanette Johnson, Harold and Mildred Vincent, Richard, Robert, Eunice and Raymond Raymond, Mrs. Rainey, Mrs. Rhodes, Mrs. Cotton, Mrs. Vincent, Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Hathaway, Mrs. Kieck and Mrs. Ramard.

ENJOYS TRIP TO OMAHA

From Thursday's Daily—
Yesterday Miss Alice Pollock entertained for Miss Alice Louise Westcott and her guest, Miss Irma Westcott, of Arlington Heights, Ill., by a pleasant auto party to Omaha, where the ladies enjoyed the day at Krug park and its splendid beach, later returning to the city where they were dinner guests at the Athletic club and a small theatre party, returning home late in the evening after a very pleasant time.

FILES SUIT FOR DIVORCE

From Thursday's Daily—
This morning action was filed in the office of the clerk of the district court in which Carme E. Lewis was the plaintiff and Wayne E. Lewis the defendant. The action is one for divorce, the plaintiff in her petition alleging cruelty and which compelled her on the 24th day of June, 1925, to leave her home and go to that of her mother. The custody of the two minor children and the allowance of suitable alimony is also asked. W. G. Kieck appears in the action for the plaintiff as attorney.

MADE FAST DRIVE

From Thursday's Daily—
Harlan Gorder and his friend, Vernon Wood, of Omaha, left Plattsmouth at 6:20 a. m. Monday and arrived at Bovina, Colorado, at midnight of that same day. They ate dinner in Hastings and reached Norton, Kansas, at 3 p. m. and were at the ranch in Colorado, a distance of 526 miles before Tuesday rolled around.

By Journal West 56. It pays.

TO ATTEND SUMMER SCHOOL

From Thursday's Daily—
Miss Goldye and Gladys Kaffenberger of Lincoln, left Tuesday, June 30th, for New York city where they are going to attend summer session of Columbia University. This makes their second trip to Columbia, where they are working on a Masters degree in Education. They are also going to study voice culture under the direction of Madame Hyskell. They have been chosen by Professor J. H. Hall as members of the Choral choir.

Miss Goldye Kaffenberger is treasurer and Miss Gladys is secretary of the Nebraska club of the Columbia University for the summer session. They are planning on stopping over in Des Moines, Iowa, for a visit with their sister, Mrs. Carl Cortright and in Washington, D. C., with Mrs. Earl Bowman.

HEAT REACHES A HIGH PEAK HERE OF 104 DEGREES

Yesterday Proves Hottest Day of the Year With Hot Winds Prevailing—99 Today.

From Thursday's Daily—
Yesterday proved the hottest July 1 in many years in these parts, with the mercury hovering at 104 for the greater part of the afternoon and the lowest that was reached in the evening was 73, real old fashioned corn weather.

Not only the high temperature but the hot winds today were not quite as intense as that of yesterday as the cooling breezes gave some relief although the temperature at noon registered 99 in the shade.

TANGIER TEMPLE BAND WILL GIVE A CONCERT IN CITY

Members of Patrol and Families Will Give Picnic Here at the Nebraska Masonic Home.

From Thursday's Daily—
The Nebraska Masonic Home in this city is to enjoy a visit in the next few weeks from a large number of the members of the Tangier Temple of the Ancient Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, of Omaha.

The Shriners are coming with their patrol and band and will make the date of their visit here Sunday, July 12. The members of the party will arrive with baskets of the good things to eat and expect to enjoy picnic dinner at the noon hour on the spacious lawn at the home and a real old fashioned visit with the members of the big family at the home in the afternoon. The band will give one of their very popular concerts at the home for the benefit of the members of the Home and their guests.

LEAVES FOR SAN FRANCISCO

From Thursday's Daily—
Mrs. P. J. Flynn, recent of the local court of the Catholic Daughters of America and also the state advocate of the order, departed today for San Francisco where she goes to attend the national convention of the order that is to open there the coming week. Mrs. Flynn was named as one of the delegates from Nebraska to the national gathering, the honor being conferred as a recognition of her splendid work for the order in the state and will prove a fitting representative of this great state at the convention.

RETURNS FROM THE HOSPITAL

From Friday's Daily—
Yesterday afternoon, Dr. R. P. Westover returned home from the hospital at Omaha where he had been for the past several days taking treatment and recovering from a slight operation performed there on last Sunday. Dr. Westover is still feeling to some extent the effects of the operation and will require some treatment until the effects of the operation is entirely passed over, but he hopes in the next few days to be able to resume his active practice.

AMERICAN LEGION ELECTS DELEGATES TO STATE MEETING

Representatives to Columbus Selected and Resolutions on Death of Comrade Adopted.

From Thursday's Daily—
Last evening the regular monthly meeting of the local American Legion post was held at the M. W. A. hall and despite the heat there were quite a number of the members in attendance.

The chief matter to come before the meeting was the election of the delegates to the state convention of the Legion in Columbus July 27th to 29th, inclusive. For the position of delegates, Henry Leacock, Sr., C. L. Pitman and Father George D. Pierce were named, while as alternates Emil Hild, Sanford Short and Joseph A. Capwell were named, and these will represent the post at the meeting, where many important matters in connection with the Legion state organization will be taken up.

The post took up the matter of the death of their comrade and associate, Clarence L. Beal, clerk of the district court, and on motion a committee on resolutions composed of Frank Smith, Emil Hild and J. A. Capwell was named, reporting the following resolution that was unanimously adopted by the post as the expression of the general feeling of regret of the service men on the taking away of one of their members:

Resolutions of Sympathy
"In the death of Clarence L. Beal, Hugh J. Kearns Post No. 56, Department of Nebraska, American Legion, has lost a faithful and earnest worker and the ranks of the service men have yielded another to the great army that has gone before. Therefore, be it—Resolved, that Hugh J. Kearns Post No. 56, American Legion, Department of Nebraska, extends to the sorrow-stricken wife and little son, as well as the parents and brothers and sister, their deepest sympathy in their loss, which has been also our loss in the taking away of a beloved comrade—one who served usefully in the cause of his country in the time of its greatest need, who has borne his part in life with the true spirit of an American service man and faithful Christian gentleman."

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be placed on the records of Hugh J. Kearns Post No. 56, also a copy be transmitted to the family of the departed comrade as a brief expression of the universal grief and sorrow felt by the service men of Plattsmouth at the loss of one of their faithful members and friends.

ENTERTAINS FOR GUEST HERE

From Thursday's Daily—
Mrs. Frank L. Cummins was hostess on Tuesday afternoon at a very charming afternoon bridge at the beautiful Cummins home on Pearl street, given for Miss Irma Mueller of Arlington Heights, Illinois, who is a house guest of Miss Alice Louise Westcott, niece of Mrs. Cummins.

The decorations of the tables were of the attractive daisies and formed a very pleasant feature of the setting for the jolly party of young people. Prizes were given to Nora Livingston for the first honors and Miss Helen Wurl the second, while the guest prize was presented to Miss Mueller.

ENJOY PLEASANT TIME

From Saturday's Daily—
The Merry Workers Extension club enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred Hanni on Tuesday, June 30. Twenty-two ladies attended the meeting.

A demonstration of the steam pressure cooker was given by Mrs. L. G. Meisinger. As a part of this demonstration a pan of navy beans was prepared and cooked in the pressure cooker in one-third the time commonly required to cook them.

The lesson on the "Where and Why in Kitchen Arrangement" given by the club leader, Mrs. R. G. Kiser, instructed the housewives how to carefully group equipment, utensils and supplies so as to save time and steps when about their daily kitchen duties.

VERY PLEASANT PARTY

From Thursday's Daily—
Last evening the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hunter on North Eighth street was the scene of a very pleasant gathering, the occasion being a bridge party given by Miss Helen Hunter and Mrs. E. P. Stewart, for a number of their friends.

The rooms were arranged in a color scheme of pink, sweet peas and snapdragons being used in the plan of decoration and which added to the charm and beauty of the event.

CATHOLIC ORDERS HOLD VERY PLEASANT SOCIAL TIME

Knights of Columbus and Catholic Daughters Join in Big Social Meeting Last Evening.

From Thursday's Daily—
The Knights of Columbus hall was the scene of a very delightful social gathering last evening in which the members of the K. of C. and the C. D. of A., after their business session enjoyed several hours in a social way.

The hall had been arranged very prettily in the national colors of red, white and blue as well as the purple and gold of the C. D. of A., this decorative plan being carried out both in the main hall and in the lodge room on the upper floor of the building.

In the lodge rooms were held the card games, high five and bridge serving to entertain the members of the jolly party. At the high five games, Joe Kieck was awarded the gentleman's prize while Mrs. Anna Zarka was given the first lady's prize. In the bridge contests, Mrs. F. G. Egenberger proved the most successful of the ladies while John Bergman was awarded the gentleman's prize of the evening.

The committee in charge had arranged a very pleasant program that added to the entertainment of the members of the party. Miss Irma Pitman, one of the accomplished young pianists of the city, gave a very delightful number, Misses Margaret and Elizabeth Stitzman were heard in the most charming duet in which the voices of these two talented ladies were at their best. Miss Catherine Stefan of Omaha also gave a very pleasing vocal selection. Miss Zdobov of Omaha favored the members in clearing the ground of her fine Airdale puppy, while Mrs. A. G. Bach received the lady's prize, a wrist watch. The music for the dance was furnished by the Peter Gradoville orchestra in their usual pleasing manner and the dancing continued until the midnight hour.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

From Thursday's Daily—
Yesterday afternoon, Tommy, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. William Mendenhall, was taken to Omaha where he was placed in the University hospital for treatment. Tommy has been quite poorly for some time past and it was found that he was not improving as had been hoped and in order to give him some permanent relief it was decided to have him taken to Omaha where he could be cared for more conveniently. The exact cause of the illness has not as yet been determined and it is hoped that in the course of the treatment the lad may receive some permanent benefit.

MRS. STREIGHT POORLY

From Saturday's Daily—
Mrs. William J. Streight, who was taken back to the Clarkston hospital at Omaha Tuesday, is still suffering quite a good deal at times, reports from the hospital state. Mrs. Streight was operated on several weeks ago and at the time had a most acute case of appendicitis that caused the greatest apprehension to the members of the family. After a few weeks, Mrs. Streight was allowed to return home and the family were hopeful that her recovery had been permanent but in the last week she has been suffering a great deal and made necessary her return to the hospital.

FUNERAL OF CLARENCE L. BEAL HELD THIS AFTERNOON

Services at First Methodist Church Very Largely Attended by the Friends and Societies.

From Friday's Daily—
This afternoon at 2:00 at the First Methodist church was held the funeral services in memory of Clarence L. Beal, whose death on Tuesday evening caused such a profound sorrow in the community.

The church auditorium was filled with the many old time friends who had known the deceased in his lifetime in the community here, as well as a large representation of the Masonic order, Elks, American Legion and the county officials who gathered to pay their last tributes of love and esteem to the memory of the departed.

The wealth of beautiful flowers elegantly attested the genuine sorrow that had been felt and the deep sympathy extended to the bereaved wife and family at the death of their loved one. The casket, covered by the folds of the American flag, rested at the front of the church surrounded by the flowers that had been sent by friends.

Briefly and impressively the services were conducted by the Rev. Frank Emory Pfoutz, who spoke on the subject of "A Christian's View of Life, Death and Immortality," taken from the comforting words of St. John, the beloved, which brought to the family and sorrowing friends a sense of peace in their troubled hour.

The Masonic male quartet, composed of Frank A. Clouid, R. C. Cook, L. O. Minor and H. G. McClusky, sang at the church "Now the Day is Over." Mrs. E. H. Westcott also gave two very beautiful and impressive hymns, "Pies as a Bird" and "The City Four Square."

After the close of the service at the church the body was borne to Oak Hill cemetery to the last resting place on earth, the pallbearers who formed the last escort against the elements were the members of the American Legion and were Raymond J. Larson, A. H. Duxbury, W. R. Holly, Frank A. Rebal, P. T. Heinemann and W. G. Kieck.

Plattsmouth Lodge No. 6, A. F. & A. M., conducted the service at the grave, the impressive committal service being carried out by the officers of the lodge and the Masonic honors given as the casket was lowered to the last long resting place. At the grave the Masonic quartet gave the numbers, "Jesus Savior Pilot Me" and "Rock of Ages."

The newest shades and attractive designs in the Dennison crepe paper can be found at the Bates Book and Gift Shop. The finest line of crepe paper is available at all prices.

WILL NOT COMPETE

From Friday's Daily—
While the plans for the celebration of the Fourth of July are being discussed they are of particular interest to H. N. Dovey, president of the First National bank, as they recall one particular celebration of the past. It was in the celebration of 1877, held in the Smiths grove near where the standpipe of the water company is now located, that Mr. Dovey was one of the chief features of the celebration himself. At that time one of the features of a celebration was the greased pole and Mr. Dovey, then a youth and full of pep and ginger, was the one who successfully scaled the pole and received the "gold" watch that was the prize and fastened to the top of the pole.

DEATH OF FORMER CASS COUNTY MAN OCCURS IN WEST

William Beardsley, One Time Merchant of Elmwood, Expires at Home at Lexington.

From Friday's Daily—
Word was received here today of the death yesterday at his home in Lexington, Nebraska, of William Beardsley, one time Elmwood merchant and well known in the central and western portions of Cass county, where he was very actively identified with public affairs and a well known political leader of that part of the county.

Mr. Beardsley was sixty years of age at the time of his death and leaves to mourn his death the widow, three daughters and four sons. While a resident of Elmwood, Mr. Beardsley was engaged in the conduct of a furniture store which was destroyed by fire several years ago. Mr. Beardsley then moving to Lincoln and later to Lexington where he has since made his home.

The deceased was a brother-in-law of Mrs. C. L. Herzer and was Fred Oltshausen of this city, they being sisters of Mrs. Beardsley. The funeral services will be held at Elmwood Saturday at 10 a. m. and the interment made in the family lot in the cemetery there.

HAVE SMALL EXPLOSION

From Saturday's Daily—
This morning the vicinity of 5th and Main streets was the scene of a very exciting time for a few moments when a cargo of fireworks belonging to Robert Livingston ascended in smoke. The young man had come down to the main portion of the city with a small wagon loaded with the fireworks and had stopped near the Bates Book store to shoot off a few firecrackers. The crackers were exploding in their usual successful way, when suddenly the piece of "punk" used in lighting the crackers fell into the wagon and ignited a small quantity of gunpowder and in an instant there were big doling that looked as though it would blow up that section of the city and smoke and explosion attracted the attention of everyone on the street. The large show window in the Bates store was powder marked but fortunately not broken, the chief loser of the affair was Robert, who will be called upon to replenish the supplies for the celebration.

WILL LOCATE AT MURRAY

From Thursday's Daily—
Dr. and Mrs. Clinton Kennard, well known in this city are soon to locate at Murray, where Dr. Kennard will take over the practice of Dr. G. H. Gilmore, who with Mrs. Gilmore, expects to travel for the coming summer as their health is not of the best and it is hoped that a change of scenes will be beneficial to them. Dr. Kennard is just completing his post graduate work at the Anchor hospital at St. Paul, Minnesota, and is one of the best of the young members of the medical profession that has been graduated from the University of Nebraska in the last few years. Mrs. Kennard is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kroehler of this city and has been engaged in teaching at LaPlatte for the past year.

The newest shades and attractive designs in the Dennison crepe paper can be found at the Bates Book and Gift Shop. The finest line of crepe paper is available at all prices.

YOUNG MAN LEAVES ON TRIP TO THE ORIENT

Henry Todd, Grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mauzy, En Route Across the Pacific.

From Friday's Daily—
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mauzy have received word from their grandson, Henry Todd, of Kearney, that he is now en route to the Orient and will reach the port of Hongkong July 4. Mr. Todd is on the President McKinley, one of the American liners that covers the Pacific travel and which makes the trip to the far east from the port of Seattle, it being one of the most popular boats of the American line on the long voyage across the Pacific.

The young man is a member of the orchestra on the President McKinley that assists in making the voyage across the ocean less tiresome and whose melodies serve to entertain the passengers in the evenings at dinner and in dancing, one of the pleasing diversions of the trip across the water.

This is the first trip across for Mr. Todd and he is enjoying it to the fullest extent and anticipating many wonderful scenes in the Orient and particularly at their China port, which is one of the picturesque cities of the far east.

NEPHEW SERIOUSLY INJURED IS NOW IN OMAHA HOSPITAL

Mr. Arthur Stander and little daughter, Mary, are staying at Cedar Creek for a few weeks with Mrs. Stander's mother, Mrs. Mary Metzger, while Miss Pattie Metzger is at the M. E. hospital in Omaha with her nephew, Bryan Metzger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Metzger, of Merriam, in Cherry county.

The young man was driving cattle on his father's ranch when his horse stepped in a hole and fell, throwing him against the saddle horn and injuring him in the stomach. He is unable to ride home but complained of great suffering and their local physician recommended his removal to the city hospital. His condition has been very serious and his family have been with him all the time. He is 28 years old. He is also a nephew of Mrs. A. H. Peterson, of this place. His many friends and relatives feel grave apprehension over his condition and are hoping that he will be able to pull through. The injured place has developed into an abscess which is what is causing the great trouble.—Louisville Courier.

WILL TRY WARTHEN ON INSANITY CHARGE

From Friday's Daily—
The case of John Warthen in police court was continued again today until Friday when it was indicated endeavors will be made to have complaint filed with the insanity commission that would commit Warthen to an institution. Relatives told Judge Dineen that they would file the necessary papers this afternoon. It is understood that the murder charge will be dropped if such an action is taken.—World-Herald.

All the home news defuncted to your door for 15c a week.

The Semblance of Silk!

By dissolving wood pulp and cotton "linters" (short cotton fibre) in chemical solutions, a fabric can be made which bears a close resemblance to genuine silk. This is a perfectly good fabric, but it looks like what it isn't.

By spending money as fast as you earn it, you can present a semblance of prosperity—but it is not real prosperity. The latter can be created only by saving part of what you earn.

Have you a Savings Account here?

"The Bank Where You Feel at Home!"