

The Plattsmouth Journal

VOL. NO. XXI

PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, AUGUST 6, 1925.

NO. 53

PLATTSMOUTH DEFEATS FAST JUNCTION NINE

Score Shutout Over the Iowa Aggregation by the Score of 6 to 0 in a Fine Game of Ball.

From Monday's Daily—
Yesterday afternoon fans of this city and a very large delegation of the residents of our neighboring city of Pacific Junction were given the chance to see a real exhibition of the national pastime that was fast and well played by both teams.

The fielding of the Plattsmouth team was par excellent and left the visitors little chance to score as Swanson, the hurling ace of the locals, allowed but four hits that were well scattered through the game. The Plattsmouth team annexed seven hits off of Flynn, the speedy youngster of the Junction team. Flynn retired four of the locals through the strike out route while Swanny nicked five of the visitors.

In the gifts of bases, Flynn allowed four, walks while Swanson passed but one.
The Plattsmouth team started to do business in the opening stanza with Martin, the fast third sacker, leading off with a clean hit over the base. Herold sacrificed Art to second and Herb Klauschie scored Art with a safe poke through shortstop. Hans Newman, who was in his best of form showed his spirit by slapping one of Flynn's slants for a two sacker that scored Herb, McCarty and Burkhardt closed the inning.

In the fifth the locals again made two runs, the old combination working fine in the battle, Martin hit safe and advanced on the out of Herold, reaching third on the drive of Herb Klauschie and both scored when Newman dumped one into the outer garden. Newman was caught between first and second on an attempted steal while McCarty closed the inning.

The seventh inning saw two more runs annexed by the locals. Johnson opened with an out from the first, Swanny drew a pass from Flynn, Martin was out on a fly to center. Herold hit to right advancing Swanny and both runners tallied when Herb Klauschie hit for the third time in the game.

In the last of the seventh frame the hopes of the Junction team arose to boiling point, but was sadly dashed by the steadiness of Swanson. Baeus opened the inning with an out, from Martin to O'Donnell, Lee hit safe to left and Carr followed with a grounder to Swanson, who threw a slow one to first, Swanny drew a pass from Flynn, Herold hit to right advancing Swanny and made two away when Newman fumbled the drive of L. Flynn, filling the bases and two away, which caused much enthusiasm among the visitors but Briley, the visiting first sacker failed to come through as he was out on an easy grounder, Swanson to O'Donnell.

The tabulated score of the game was as follows:

	AB	R	H	PO	A	E
Martin, 3b	4	2	1	1	0	0
Herold, 2b	3	1	3	0	0	0
Klauschie, c	4	3	6	1	0	0
Newman, ss	4	2	1	5	1	0
McCarty, cf	3	0	1	0	0	0
Burkhardt, rf	3	0	1	0	0	0
Johnson, 1b	3	0	1	0	0	0
O'Donnell, lf	3	0	1	1	1	1
Swanson, p	2	0	0	4	0	0

	AB	R	H	PO	A	E
Dickson, ss	3	1	0	5	1	0
W. Flynn, 2b	4	0	2	4	0	0
Spidell, c	4	1	4	0	0	0
Baeus, lf	4	2	1	0	0	0
Lee, cf	4	1	2	0	0	0
Carr, 3b	3	0	2	0	0	0
Kobbiar, rf	4	0	0	0	0	0
L. Flynn, p	3	0	1	3	0	0
Briley, 1b	3	0	1	2	0	0
Gammon, rf	1	0	0	0	0	0

33 5 24 13 1
Struck out—by Swanson, Carr, W. Flynn, 2; by Kezler, Gammon, W. Flynn, Martin, Johnson, O'Donnell, Mason. Bases on balls—Off Swanson, 1; off Flynn, 4. Two base hit, Newman.

RETURNS FROM CAMP

From Tuesday's Daily—
The larger portion of the Plattsmouth delegation of Campfire Girls who were in attendance at the Omaha Campfire Girls camp at Little Sioux, Iowa, returned home yesterday. Miss Alice Pollock, who chaperoned the girls at the camp, as well as Helen Sharp and Elizabeth Hatt, remained over for another week at the delightful summer outing camp.

The Plattsmouth girls found the camp an ideal one for the enjoyment of their summer outing, being pleasantly situated in the surroundings of the pleasant Missouri valley country.
The young ladies from this city received some very high honors for their work during the camp. They were awarded medals and citations were numerous for the excellent service that they rendered while they were in camp.

So well pleased were all of the members of the party with their stay at the camp that they are planning to return there next summer and enjoy more of the outdoor life.

ENJOY FINE DANCE

From Monday's Daily—
The dance on Saturday evening at the K. S. platform was one of the most delightful that has been held for some time and very largely attended, there being many here from out of town points to take part in the pleasant entertainment of the evening.
The Gradoville Classique orchestra furnished the music and was up to their usual high standard, their numbers being repeatedly encored and enjoyed to the utmost by the members of the jolly party. Many of those attending expressed themselves that this was the best they had enjoyed in the dancing line for some time.

The orchestra will play here again on Saturday, August 15, having an engagement out of the city on next Saturday.

PLATTSMOUTH MEN HAVE AN AUTO ACCIDENT

Car of Earl Fish Badly Damaged and Charles Turnbaugh Suffers Injured Foot in Mixup.

From Monday's Daily—
Last evening while Charles Turnbaugh and Earl Fish were returning home to this city from Omaha, they were the victims of a very serious accident on the federal highway, a half a mile north of Fort Crook.

As a result of the accident the car of Mr. Fish is practically a complete wreck and Mr. Turnbaugh is getting around on crutches as the big toe of one of his feet was badly injured. The two gentlemen were driving along at a fair rate of speed when they suddenly saw another car approaching and before they could get out of the way the two cars crashed into each other. The car of Mr. Fish was sent hurtling toward the roadside, turning completely over twice and then coming to a rest on its side. The two men were able to extricate themselves from the wreckage, Mr. Fish being uninjured while Mr. Turnbaugh suffered only the injury to his great toe, which, while painful, will not be a real serious nature.

The car with which they collided was one belonging in Omaha and the occupants escaped injury aside from being very badly shaken up in the wreck.

A FAMILY REUNION

From Tuesday's Daily—
At the home of Mrs. and Mrs. Clara Up on Wintersteen Hill is occurring a family reunion of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Parker, which has not been assembled completely for about 8 years. The five daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Parker are residents of Plattsmouth, being Mrs. Elmer Elliott, Mrs. Bert Donaldson, Mrs. Earl Redd, Mrs. Clara Up and Miss Pauline Parker. The two sons are here with their families, being Mr. Harry Parker of Fairbury, Neb., and Mr. Chauncey Parker, of Belle Fourche, So. Dak. Another guest at the Up home at this time is Mr. David F. Parker, from Dallas, Texas, who is a brother of Ben Parker, and an Uncle to the family. The eldest son, Chauncey has not been in Nebraska for three years, and has owned and operated one of the finest bakeries in Marmarth, No. Dak. He has sold out up there and is now seeking a location. Harry Parker from Fairbury, has just been dismissed from the Veterans' Hospital in St. Louis, after four months treatment, and placed on a disability list for life, having suffered a complete nervous collapse and partial stroke of paralysis. Mr. Parker was the first man from Fairbury to enlist, entering the U. S. Army in 1916 at the time of the trouble with Mexico. He was an officer in the American Legion of Fairbury and an active booster for the Legion in the community. Mr. Ben Parker runs the little grocery store on Wintersteen Hill. Two of the son-in-laws, Mr. Up and Mr. Elliott, are employed by the Neb. Gas & Electric Co., and two, Mr. Donaldson and Mr. Redd, are employed by the C. B. & Q. The youngest daughter, Miss Pauline is stenographer in the store house of the shops.

Everyone is enjoying the occasion very much not knowing there will be another opportunity for such a reunion again. Nine grandchildren who are all well, happy and full of pep, help fill in the family circle.

NEW REPAIR SHOP OPERATING

From Tuesday's Daily—
The machine shop which was operated by A. J. P. Bertschey for several months and was formerly owned and operated by the L. C. Sharp Co. is now again the scene of activity as the plant is being used as an auto repair and machine shop, being under the management of Bert Coleman and Fred Wynn. Mr. Coleman also has his carpenter shop in the old Al-Maize building which is well suited for that purpose and the machine shop makes a fine place to handle the jobs of auto repairing and overhauling of cars.

Have you anything to sell or buy? Then tell the world about it through the Journal Want Ad column.

PLEASANT PICNIC IS HELD AT BERGMAN GROVE SUNDAY

Catholic Daughters and Knights of Columbus With Friends Enjoy a Big Time Yesterday.

From Monday's Daily—
Yesterday the John Bergmann farm was the scene of a very of pleasant gathering on the occasion of the annual outing of the Catholic Daughters of America and the local council of the Knights of Columbus, as well as the members of St. John's and the Holy Rosary Roman Catholic churches and a few of the invited friends.
The grove on the farm proved ideal for the event, giving plenty of shade from the heat of the day and the pleasant greensward a place where all could rest and enjoy a real day's recreation and pleasure.
There were from 250 to 300 persons gathered at the grove and the entire day was spent very happily by all of the party in games and contests that served to furnish an entertainment program of more than usual interest.
In the sports and games there was no record kept of the prize winners and for this reason the list of the most skillful of the party must be omitted from the record of the day's proceedings.
The members of the jolly party from the city were pitted against the country members of the two parishes in a tug of war that proved the big athletic contest of the day. It is stated that the town contestants attempted to tie their end of the rope to a tree in desperate effort to defeat their opponents while the country puliters secured a footing in a small ditch that held their end of the battle. In the final outcome of the tug of war the country huskies walked away with the honors of the day by a wide margin.
At the noon hour the many parties comprising families and their guests, spread well prepared and delicious dinners in the pleasant shade and had a real feast that was followed by the free ice cream provided by the committee in charge.
In the evening the committee had arranged a catered luncheon of sandwiches and other good things that were served and made the occasion one that was of unforgetten pleasure.

So well did the committee in charge serve their purpose that they will probably be called upon to act at more of these pleasant events if the large majority of the attendants have their wish.

A PROFOUND SORROW

From Monday's Daily—
Most heartily, the life terrestrial of our beloved friend, Amelia ended near the midnight hour, on the sacred Friday, to enter the life immortal. Amelia's flight into the world beyond has shrouded our homes in sweet melancholy.
Thoughts beyond expression grow when we think that we are deprived of that warmth of true friendship and hospitality which was ever felt upon entering her home.
In her lingering malady she displayed self-control and patience, when all bodily strength was exhausted, the vigor of her mind sustained her. Her life is spent—our pilgrimage must be.
Knowing that ruthless time will one day rend the veil that hides the deep which all must cross, the eternity, to which we trend is made richer, lovelier, holier for our loss.
Farewell Amelia, a long farewell!
MIA U. GERING.

ENTERTAINS AT LUNCHEON

From Monday's Daily—
On Friday Mrs. James T. Begley of this city was hostess at a very delightful 1 o'clock luncheon given in honor of Mrs. John W. Falter of Falls City and Mrs. Floyd Harding of Lincoln, at the Carter Lake club in Omaha.
The decorations were of the stately and beautiful gladioli and furnished a very colorful feature of the occasion.
The ladies enjoyed the occasion to the utmost and the opportunity of spending a few hours most delightfully with the guests of honor of the occasion.
Those attending were Mrs. B. A. Rosencrans and Mrs. R. F. Patterson of this city, Mrs. R. W. Case and Mrs. G. E. Alexander of Fort Omaha, Miss Gretchen Donnelly and the guests of honor of the occasion.

PLEASANT ANNIVERSARY

From Monday's Daily—
Sunday, August 2, being the sixty-second birthday anniversary of Mr. John G. Lohnes of this city, the children and grandchildren came to enjoy a splendid dinner and spend the day most pleasantly. Mr. and Mrs. Lohnes moved from their farm two years ago and are finding Plattsmouth a splendid little city in which to spend their retiring days. Mr. Lohnes received several nice gifts, also a large angel food cake baked by Mrs. John B. Kaffenberger, who is very skillful in this art. All enjoyed the day greatly and hope to be able to spend many more years together.

RETURNS FROM SAD MISSION

From Tuesday's Daily—
This morning F. M. Welschmer and son James, of southeastern Kansas, with Chester Welschmer of this city, arrived here after a sad mission back to the old home at Columbia City, Indiana, where they laid to rest the wife and mother, Mrs. F. M. Welschmer died at her home in Kansas on July 23 and in response to her wish to rest in the scenes of the old home in Indiana, the husband and the sons took the body there and remained until after the funeral service. Mr. Welschmer and son, James, will remain here for a short time visiting with old friends. Mr. Welschmer, who was formerly quite an extensive land owner in this city, was very much pleased with the changes in the city and the advancement that has been made in the lines of civic improvement.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF MRS. WILLIAM J. STREIGHT ARE HELD

Private Service at the Home at 2 O'Clock and Also at 5 O'Clock at Forest Lawn Cemetery.

From Tuesday's Daily—
Yesterday afternoon the last sad rites for Mrs. William J. Streight were held at the home on Oak street 2 o'clock, where the members of the family circle gathered for their last farewell to their loved one, the services being entirely private in their nature.

The services were very simple and impressive, the Rev. J. H. Salsbury of Lyons, former rector of the First Presbyterian church of this city being the officiating clergyman. From his long acquaintance with the deceased and her splendid work in the work here, he spoke feelingly of her work and influence in the advancing of the work of the church in this community. The pastor also gave a short sermon on "Faith" which pointed the strong christian faith that had been an outstanding feature of the life of the departed lady.
During the service, Mrs. Edna M. Streight, a daughter, gave a reading of the numbers that had been such favorites of the departed, "Lead Kindly Light" and "Abide With Me."
At the funeral here the body accompanied by the members of the family was taken to Omaha where a short service was held at the Forest Lawn cemetery where the body was taken for the cremation.

GIVES PLEASANT SOCIAL

From Monday's Daily—
Last evening the St. Paul's Evangelical church gave a most enjoyable and delightful social at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Born, southwest of the city, which was very largely attended. The members of the party in cars commenced to arrive shortly after 5 o'clock in the afternoon and soon the hostess had a very enjoyable and pleasant time. The party was most enjoyable and jolly that lasted several hours, in which all of the members of the party enjoyed themselves to the utmost.
The ladies of the church society had prepared a luncheon such as they are justly famous for and which was served at the evening meal hour, adding very much of the enjoyment of everyone in the party, the luncheon being served cafeteria style.
During the late afternoon and evening games and contests as well as social conversation and visiting among the members made the occasion one that all will remember most pleasantly. Those who attended felt amply repaid for their effort and vowed that the St. Paul's Auxiliary was a real hospitable organization that knew well how to stage these pleasant affairs.

SHOWING SOME IMPROVEMENT

From Tuesday's Daily—
Mrs. L. H. Young, of Nehawka, who has been here visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Troop, while taking treatment of Dr. T. P. Livingston, for a growth on her right hand, departed this morning for Omaha where she will have the hand looked after by Dr. B. B. Davis. Mrs. Young has been suffering for several weeks from a growth that has developed a cancerous nature and caused the patient more or less suffering. In order to aid the healing of the hand skin grafting was employed and it is hoped that this will finally result in the betterment of the condition of the hand and its cure.

RECOVERS FROM OPERATION

From Tuesday's Daily—
Miss Gerda Peterson, one of the assistants in the local postoffice, was able yesterday to resume her duties after an enforced vacation due to an operation that was performed on one of her eyes. Miss Peterson has been troubled for the past several years with growths on the eye and both of the eyes have now been operated upon and it is thought that this will give the patient complete relief from her affliction and soon restore her eyes to their former strength. The many friends of Miss Peterson are pleased to see her back on duty and trust that she may now enjoy the best of health.

BASEBALL TEAM HAS MANY ACTIVITIES IN VIEW

Proposal of a County Series of Games Being Considered—Will Play at Council Bluffs.

From Tuesday's Daily—
The activities in the baseball circles of this city and county are now being very much stirred over the proposal that has been made by the fans in the central part of the county for a series of games between Plattsmouth, Manly and Greenwood to start in the next two weeks.
The proposal is that these three teams play a double header each Sunday for three weeks at the different towns, the prizes being arranged from the receipts of the games and divided according to the standing of the teams. While the full details of the plan will not be worked up until a meeting on Friday evening at Manly of the three teams, it is supposed that the games will be carried out by the home team at each place playing the two visiting teams when their turn comes. That is, in the case of the games at Plattsmouth, the team of this city would play at Manly and Greenwood and the order be changed in the towns where the games were scheduled.
The teams at Manly and Greenwood are very enthusiastic over the proposition and believe that it can be made a very pleasing success. In the returns to the teams and the entertainment of the fans of the county, both Manly and Greenwood are good baseball towns and will give the project a great boost as their attendance and support of the game has been strong.

The Plattsmouth baseball team today entered the baseball tournament that it is to be held at Council Bluffs starting August 28th, it being one of the biggest baseball events of the middle west and bringing many of the leading teams in Iowa and Nebraska to contend in the several classes that will mark the playing schedule.
Plattsmouth will be in Class B in which is also included Griswold, Sidney, Pacific Junction, Red Oak, Iowa teams, the Drive-It-Yourself team of Leok, and the Knights of Columbus of Omaha, some of the best teams in this part of the west.
The teams in Class A of the tournament will bring with them a great many of the best known stars in amateur baseball as the teams are all strong as they will be at the event that annually attracts thousands of fans to the Broadway park at Council Bluffs.

The Plattsmouth fans will have the opportunity of seeing Sidney, Ia., another of the Class B contenders for the title as they will meet up with the locals on the Plattsmouth grounds. Sidney was runner up in the Class B series last year and is one of the best teams in southwestern Iowa.

GIVES SURPRISE ON FRIEND

From Monday's Daily—
A very pleasant surprise was given on Saturday evening by Mrs. B. A. Hennessey in honor of her son, Paul Vandervoort, at the family home on Sixth street. The guest of honor had been kept in the dark as to the surprise in store by the mother and the friends, and it was not until he reached home that he found the delightful occasion that had been arranged in his honor.
The evening was spent in dancing and games and at which all derived a very pleasant time.
Those attending the occasion were: Misses Elizabeth Sitzman, Violet Valley, Helen Farley, Edith Farley, Fae Halstead, Marjorie Shopp, Matilda Olson, Maybelle Tuck of Weeping Water, Messrs. Paul Vandervoort, William Matschullat, Edward Matschullat, Virgil Perry, Elmer Johnson, George Price, Donald Drake, Roy Olson, Kenneth Vandervoort and Mr. and Mrs. William Dunn of Omaha.

VISITING FRIENDS HERE

From Monday's Daily—
Miss Ruth Troxel of Zion City, Illinois, is enjoying a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walling, Sr., in this city and recuperating from the effects of a very severe injury sustained on July 10 when she was visiting in Lincoln at the home of friends. On that occasion, Miss Troxel suffered the tearing of the ligaments of her back that has kept her to her bed up until a few days ago. She is improving nicely and in the pleasant outing at the Walling home hopes to be able to recuperate a great deal in strength.

GUESTS FROM TEXAS

From Monday's Daily—
Mrs. Will Jean and two children, of San Juan, Texas, are expected to arrive in the city today to visit Mrs. Jean's mother, Mrs. O. P. Newbranch and her sister, Mrs. N. C. Abbott. They will visit relatives in Omaha before returning home.—Nebraska City Press.

VERY PLEASANT BRIDGE PARTY

From Tuesday's Daily—
The pleasant home of Mrs. John B. Livingston, on South 7th street was the scene of a most enjoyable gathering on Saturday evening when Mrs. Livingston entertained a number of friends at bridge.
There were four tables arranged for the occasion, the decorations of yellow and white being carried out in the reasonable flowers which made a very tasteful setting to the scene.
In the games, Mrs. Hamilton Thorne, of Philadelphia, was awarded the first prize, while Mrs. Henry McMaken was awarded the second prize of the evening.
At a suitable hour the hostess assisted by Misses Janet Bajcek and Alice Ptak served a very dainty and delicious two course luncheon that was very much enjoyed by all of the members of the party. The color theme of the evening was in the refreshments very effectively.

BRIDGE OVER MISSOURI RIVER IS TO RECEIVE SUPPORT

From Tuesday's Daily—
The session of the chamber of commerce directors this morning among matters of civic interest taken up discussed was that of the securing of a free wagon and auto bridge over the Missouri river and the opening up of an extension of the Harding highway that would pass through this city, hence south thru Murray and Weeping Water and on to Lincoln, largely over fine graveled roads.
The committee of the chamber of commerce which has had charge of the investigation relative to the possibilities of securing a bridge over the Missouri river here have taken the matter up with the governor and other officials who might be members of the Iowa-Nebraska commission, which will locate the bridge to be erected along the Missouri river between Nebraska and Iowa. So far there has been only preliminary work carried up with the governor and his staff will be pushed to try and secure some favorable action on the matter. The local chamber of commerce is not opposing other locations along the river but merely urges the consideration of the need of the bridge to serve the people of the central sections of Iowa and Nebraska, that would find a crossing of the Missouri at this city a great deal more convenient for them in every way.

In line with this movement it is also noted that the Harding highway be extended through Cass county, crossing the river and thence south and west through the central portion of this county onto Lincoln, the state capital. This movement has received warm support from several towns of the county and they feel that a branch of the highway thru this locality would be of benefit to the traveling public. Until a free bridge is secured there is a crossing on the ferry here that can serve a large number of cars in a day and assist travel through this locality a great deal.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE VOTES TO CONTINUE EFFORTS TO SECURE NEW BRIDGE AT THIS POINT

From Tuesday's Daily—
The session of the chamber of commerce directors this morning among matters of civic interest taken up discussed was that of the securing of a free wagon and auto bridge over the Missouri river and the opening up of an extension of the Harding highway that would pass through this city, hence south thru Murray and Weeping Water and on to Lincoln, largely over fine graveled roads.
The committee of the chamber of commerce which has had charge of the investigation relative to the possibilities of securing a bridge over the Missouri river here have taken the matter up with the governor and other officials who might be members of the Iowa-Nebraska commission, which will locate the bridge to be erected along the Missouri river between Nebraska and Iowa. So far there has been only preliminary work carried up with the governor and his staff will be pushed to try and secure some favorable action on the matter. The local chamber of commerce is not opposing other locations along the river but merely urges the consideration of the need of the bridge to serve the people of the central sections of Iowa and Nebraska, that would find a crossing of the Missouri at this city a great deal more convenient for them in every way.

In fitting keeping with the service John E. Fry sang as a solo, "I'll Go Where You Want Me to Go," one of the favorite hymns of Mr. Bryan that he had played on the night of his third defeat for the presidency, when he realized that the great political honors were not for him and that his mission laid along other lines that were to make him the great religious leader of his day.
"I will go where you want me to go, dear Lord;
I will do what you want me to do;
I will say what you want me to say, dear Lord;
I will be what you want me to be."

The services were closed with the singing of the hymn, "The Faith of Our Fathers," which had been used by Mr. Bryan in his last address at the trial at Dayton.

PAY TRIBUTE TO WILLIAM J. BRYAN AT M. E. CHURCH

From Monday's Daily—
The services at the Methodist church yesterday was in the nature of a memorial to William Jennings Bryan, the Christian crusader who fell asleep at Dayton, Tennessee, Sunday, July 26th, to awaken no more.
There was a very pleasing attendance of the members and a few visitors who had come to pay their brief tributes of respect to the memory of the fallen leader.
The president of the class, Joseph A. Capwell, presided, giving a brief eulogy of Mr. Bryan as well as a sketch of his life from his birth at Salem, Illinois, on March 19, 1860, through his political life, his three times race for the presidency of the United States and through defeat, his struggles for the rights of the mass of the people of the nation. The address of Mr. Capwell largely followed the deeply religious strain of the life of Mr. Bryan, his deep rooted and earnest faith in the teachings of Christ that had marked his every action and in which he found comfort and hope. The courage of Mr. Bryan, his strong attack on the things he believed to be wrong, his refusal to compromise or countenance any alliance with the things he opposed on moral grounds was stressed by the speaker. The broad religious views of Mr. Bryan were shown in the fact that while a leading figure in the Presbyterian church in the nation he had attended and taught in the Sunday school at the church near Fairview, his Lincoln home while a resident of that city. The last great struggle of the life of Mr. Bryan had been in defense of the teachings of the Christ as he saw them, of the attacks on the theories that might take from mankind the belief and faith in the promise of the Savior, that man would live again in immortality rather than accept the theory that man, a mere physical being—had sprung from purely earthly source—without the divine spirit that would make of each man a quickening spirit in the hereafter through faith. The speaker made again the beautiful passages of the last published address of Mr. Bryan touching immortality, "Death is the pathway of stars between the companionships of today and the reunions of tomorrow."
In fitting keeping with the service John E. Fry sang as a solo, "I'll Go Where You Want Me to Go," one of the favorite hymns of Mr. Bryan that he had played on the night of his third defeat for the presidency, when he realized that the great political honors were not for him and that his mission laid along other lines that were to make him the great religious leader of his day.
"I will go where you want me to go, dear Lord;
I will do what you want me to do;
I will say what you want me to say, dear Lord;
I will be what you want me to be."

Young Men's Bible Class Has Special Services to Honor Memory of the Christian Leader.

From Monday's Daily—
The services at the Methodist church yesterday was in the nature of a memorial to William Jennings Bryan, the Christian crusader who fell asleep at Dayton, Tennessee, Sunday, July 26th, to awaken no more.
There was a very pleasing attendance of the members and a few visitors who had come to pay their brief tributes of respect to the memory of the fallen leader.
The president of the class, Joseph A. Capwell, presided, giving a brief eulogy of Mr. Bryan as well as a sketch of his life from his birth at Salem, Illinois, on March 19, 1860, through his political life, his three times race for the presidency of the United States and through defeat, his struggles for the rights of the mass of the people of the nation. The address of Mr. Capwell largely followed the deeply religious strain of the life of Mr. Bryan, his deep rooted and earnest faith in the teachings of Christ that had marked his every action and in which he found comfort and hope. The courage of Mr. Bryan, his strong attack on the things he believed to be wrong, his refusal to compromise or countenance any alliance with the things he opposed on moral grounds was stressed by the speaker. The broad religious views of Mr. Bryan were shown in the fact that while a leading figure in the Presbyterian church in the nation he had attended and taught in the Sunday school at the church near Fairview, his Lincoln home while a resident of that city. The last great struggle of the life of Mr. Bryan had been in defense of the teachings of the Christ as he saw them, of the attacks on the theories that might take from mankind the belief and faith in the promise of the Savior, that man would live again in immortality rather than accept the theory that man, a mere physical being—had sprung from purely earthly source—without the divine spirit that would make of each man a quickening spirit in the hereafter through faith. The speaker made again the beautiful passages of the last published address of Mr. Bryan touching immortality, "Death is the pathway of stars between the companionships of today and the reunions of tomorrow."
In fitting keeping with the service John E. Fry sang as a solo, "I'll Go Where You Want Me to Go," one of the favorite hymns of Mr. Bryan that he had played on the night of his third defeat for the presidency, when he realized that the great political honors were not for him and that his mission laid along other lines that were to make him the great religious leader of his day.
"I will go where you want me to go, dear Lord;
I will do what you want me to do;
I will say what you want me to say, dear Lord;
I will be what you want me to be."

Read the Journal for all the news.

Use ALL of our SERVICE

Platinum Coins and Compound Interest!

From 1828 to 1845, platinum coins worth $2.32 each were minted in Russia. Today the value of platinum has increased so greatly that the metal in one of these coins is worth $35.

But if $2.32 had been deposited in 1828 at 4% compound interest—the amount this bank pays on Savings deposits—it would now be worth not $35, but nearer $100.

Open a Savings Account today and let Compound Interest work its wonders for you!

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK
THE BANK WHERE YOU FEEL AT HOME
PLATTSMOUTH NEBRASKA
"The Bank Where You Feel at Home"

Try Journal Want Ads. R page.