ON LAST LAP OF SUMMER OUTING IN COLORADO

Rev. H. G. McClusky and Family Are Now Ready to Start on Return Trip From the Rockies.

From Wednesday's Daily—
The Rev. H. G. McClusky, wife and daughter, Catherine, and Miss Jean Caldwell, who have been enjoying a visit of several weeks in the western country, particularly in the Rocky mountain region, are now preparing to return home and expect, if they do not meet with unexpected delays, to reach home by Friday.

The party have found the trip most pleasant and spent the greater part of the time in the mountains, where they enjoyed the wild rugged scenery and the high and bracing atmosphere of the great mountain regions. They made the auto trip to an altitude of 12,000 feet and had the fun and pleasure on days that were hot and roasting here in Nebraska, of making snowballs and throwing them around as in the good old winter time.

They enjoyed a stay at Green River Falls, a very attractive spot and at the time of writing they were preparing to make the ascent of Pike's peak on Monday, this being one of the best known mountains of the Colorado Road and one that the tourists find filled with the greatest of interest as it offers a view of the surrounding cities and country for miles.

While in Colorado the McClusky family had the pleasure of visiting with Father W. S. Leary, wife and mother, formerly in charge of the St. Luke's Episcopal parish here, at their new home at Evergreen, where Father Leary has charge of the Mission of the Transfiguration.

SWEET CLOVER PASTURES STOOD THE DROUTH WELL

Sweet clover stood the dry weather in Fillmore county this summer and furnished fair pastures long after the blue grass and other grasses were gone, according to Lee W. Thompson, county agent. The acreage of sweet clover in Nebraska is being steadily increased, not only on account of its value as a pasture and hay crop, but because of its value as a soil builder. Fall seeding is recommended.

JAMES L. EDWARDS LAID TO LAST REST MONDAY AFTERNOON

Burial of Victim of Auto Accident Sunday Occurs Near Old Home in Mills County, Iowa.

From Tuesday's Daily—

Yesterday afternoon was truly a day of mourning in the community with the funeral of two of the victims of the Sunday auto accident near Oresopolis being held and in which the friends of the families gathered to pay their last tributes to the men who death had so suddenly snatched from the family circles.

The funeral of James L. Edwards, one of the unfortunate men, was held late in the afternoon from the Martin chapel north of Pacific Junction, the cortege leaving this city immediately after the Johnson funeral for Iowa where the last sad rites were observed.

A large delegation of the members of Platte lodge No. 7, I. O. O. F., of this city accompanied the Edwards funeral party to Pacific Junction and as the funeral party arrived on the east side of the Missouri river they were joined by a very large number of the old friends of the family, there being some fifty cars in the funeral cortege as it proceeded to the chapel near the scene where the deceased had grown to manhood.

The services were very impressive and the deep feeling of sorrow was manifested in the large number present at the church and at the grave in the cemetery nearby where the old friends paused to pay their last tributes of love and respect to their friend who was gone from them.

James Lee Edwards was born in Mills county, Iowa, March 1, 1885, and grew to manhood in that community, being married there on October 3, 1908, to Miss Minnie Myers, who, with three children, Fred, Richard and Maxine, survives the passing of the husband and father. The family removed to Plattsmouth several years ago and Mr. Edwards was engaged in working here for some time, but in the last few months has been located at Lincoln at his work, the family continuing to make their home in this city. There is also surviving him the parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Edwards of near Pacific Junction, three brothers, Fred of Pacific Junction, Earl of Ashland and William of York, and one sister, Mrs. Ella Johnson of Council Bluffs.

Mr. Edwards was a member of Platte lodge No. 7, I. O. O. F., of this city and Mystic Encampment No. 31, being a faithful and earnest worker in the cause of the fraternity.

In their sorrow and bereavement the family have the deep sympathy of the friends in this community and who share with the family the sorrow that has come to them so suddenly.

NOTICE!

All parties are notified that weeds and brush along the highway must be cut by September 1 in road district No. 1, C. C. Barnard, road overseer, District No. 1.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

From Wednesday's Daily—
Yesterday at the Immanuel hospital in Omaha, Mrs. E. J. Richey of this city, was operated upon for a very severe case of appendicitis from which she has been suffering for some few days and which resulted in the decision that the operation would be necessary at once. The reports last evening from the hospital were that the patient was coming through the operation in very fair shape al-

the she was still suffering from the effects of the operation, the ordeal being a very severe one. The many friends of Mrs. Richey are hopeful that she may rally and in a few days show marked signs of improvement that will point to her speedy recovery.

LOUIS LEINER IMPROVING

From Wednesday's Daily—
The reports from the bedside of Louis Leiner at the Immanuel hospital state that Mr. Leiner is holding his own nicely and while his injured hip has given him a great deal of pain it is thought that he will recover from the accident. However, the patient is in serious condition and may, as the result of the accident, be wholly or partially crippled from the effect of the crushed hip, altho every effort is being made to restore the hip to its former condition, but the severe crushing makes it very difficult to assure the use of the hip.

VISITING SISTER HERE

From Tuesday's Daily—
This morning Miss Gertrude Ekholm, of St. Paul, Minnesota, arrived in the city to enjoy a visit for the coming two weeks at the home of her sister, Mrs. William V. Wood, and family. Miss Ekholm has had teaching in the public schools at Seattle, Washington, and is now enroute to Plattsmouth to take up her work for the fall term in that city. The long journey to the west coast will be most pleasantly broken by the visit here for the next few weeks with the sister here and enjoying the many points of interest in this section of the west.
