PLATTSMOUTH LOSES HEART BREAKING GAME

Contest With Woodmen of the World Gives Best Game of the Southwest Iowa Tournament.

From Monday's Daily— The Plattsmouth baseball team, Saturday afternoon, lost what will undoubtedly be the best game of the Southwestern Iowa tournament at Council Bluffs, when the Woodmen of the World team of Omaha in a ninth inning break scored the run that gave them the victory by the score of 1 to 0.

The contest was replete with the most sensational playing on the part of the local team which can be seen on any baseball field in the country and, while losing, the locals have made a splendid showing against the fast and hard hitting foes that they faced through the long and grinding battle.

The contest was a stiff battle between Krupski, the veteran hurler of the WOWs and Harry Burkhardt, the youthful slab artist of the Plattsmouth team, in which the Omaha hurler had ten of the Plattsmouth hitters on his list while Burkhardt whiffed four of the insurance agents.

Ten hits were garnered by the Omaha team and four by the Plattsmouth fighting ball tossers. Throughout the game Burkhardt displayed his skill against the crafty and hard hitting foes and the hits were scattered throughout the innings.

The fielding of the Plattsmouth team was of a sensational character, twice the perfect pegs of the fielders nipped the chances of the WOW's scoring at the plate as their runners dashed to the plate.

The Plattsmouth team was threatening in the second inning when Jardine and Gradoville both drove hot singles over third base into left field for what looked good for scoring. Warnstaff and Monaghan were hot fanned by Krupski, while Burkhardt was thrown out at first on a grounder to Donahue at second base.

The WOWs threatened in the fourth inning when Monaghan doubled to right field, Krajiček sacrificed to third base, and Volz was walked and Bernstein, the right gardner of the Omaha team popped a fly into the short right field, Peter Herold, who was playing the game of games of his long baseball career, raced into the field from second base and grabbed the fly, turned and nipped the ball in a perfect peg to Gradoville at the plate and who nipped the fleet footed Monaghan at the plate as he tried for the score.

In the seventh the Omaha team again threatened to score and only the strong right arm of Herb Klauschie intervened to check the WOWs in a perfect throw to the plate. Bernstein opened the inning with an out to Gradoville on a high foul, Spellman hit to center and was able to plifer second base. Krupski was out on a fly to Art Klauschie at third base, when Kudlacz, who was later to wreck the game, lifted a single into short center. Klauschie secured the ball and nurlid it home as Spellman attempted to tally and scored. The runner was tagged easily by Gradoville. Klauschie was one of the bright outstanding features of the game as his throw in the third inning from center to third base placed Mr. Kudlacz on the retired list and retired the WOWs.

The break of the game came in the last half of the ninth inning. Volz the Omaha first sacker succeeded in getting a two bagger from Burkhardt to left, that Warnstaff failed to handle in time to hold the runner at first. Bernstein got in the way of a slant "Chin" and was given a base. Spellman was out on a grounder to Burkhardt, who threw the runner out at first. Kudlacz hit safe in the turn at bat, a grass-cutting single into short center permitting Volz to score and the battle was over.

The large crowd of fans numbering several thousand, after the first two innings were strong for Plattsmouth and gave them a hearty hand as they came to bat and took the field.

The box score was as follows:

CAR HAS WRECK

From Tuesday's Daily— This morning, Carter Minor, the younger son of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Minor, had a very startling experience with his coaster wagon that will leave a painful impression on the little lad. The boy started out to coast down the hill from his home on high school hill, using the large sized wagon belonging to his elder brother, Herb, which the little fellow was unable to handle as he had with his smaller wagon. As the car coasted down the hill the boy turned in at the Methodist church and the car and the boy were hurled into the area way in front of the church and Carter received a shower of glass from the broken window. A small cut on the forehead and several on the fingers of the boy was the result of the toll of the accident.

DEATH OF MRS. ALEX BALLANCE OCCURS IN EAST

Lady Well Known in This City Passes Away at Her Home in Michigan City, Indiana.

From Monday's Daily— The information was received here late Saturday evening by William Ballance of the death of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Alex Ballance, which occurred Saturday at the family home in Michigan City, Indiana, the attack that caused death coming very suddenly.

Mrs. Alex Ballance was in her seventies and was a sister of the late Mrs. William Ballance of this city, she and her sister, who has preceded her in death some three months, having met and married two brothers, William and Alex Ballance, who survive.

The deceased lady was formerly Miss Jessie Hill and prior to her marriage and in the many years since has been a frequent visitor here at the Ballance home and has made many warm friends in this city and community who learn with the greatest of regret of the sad news.

Owing to the health of Mr. William Ballance he will be unable to attend the funeral services and the family will be represented by Samuel Ballance of Lincoln, another of the brothers. The husband, Alex B. Ballance, is an invalid and is in very poor health.

Funeral services are to be held at Michigan City.

GOLFERS START THEIR TOURNEY ON SUNDAY

From Monday's Daily— Yesterday there were a very large number of the golf enthusiasts out on the local course to prepare for the coming fall tourney that will be one of the high spots of the year's golfing and in which a very excellent score is being looked for from the devotees of the sport.

The cards of John Victor Hatt and John Bauer were turned in at the office of the secretary last evening and showed that Mr. Hatt had made the rounds in 41 and 42, a total of $3 for the eighteen holes, while Mr. Bauer made the rounds in 48 and 43, a total of 91.

The score made by Mr. Hatt in the qualifying round is very gratifying to him and he states that undoubtedly the cup for the tournament will be reposing on the Hatt parlor table the coming winter. C. A. Rosenkrans, who has been noted as one of the strong contenders for the cup disputes the claims of Mr. Hatt and promises a score in his round at the golf course that will make the record of John look bad.

The desires of these two enthusiastic devotees have however to contend with the playing of Jess Waga, Jim Holmes, Dr. R. P. Westover, Andy Moore, August Cloidt and Geo. E. Dovey before they get anywhere near the championship, as the veterans of the club are all hard to displace from the big race.

PLATTSMOUTH YOUNG MEN AT FT. DES MOINES

Citizens Military Training Camp Proves Great Experience to Plattsmouth Members.

From Tuesday's Daily— The training camp, a part of the United States government's citizens military program for preparedness, has closed and the young men of the Seventh corps area who have been training at Fort Des Moines are home again.

Those who were at the camp this year from Cass county were Ray Lambert, Carl Keil, Oscar Campbell, Fred Trilety and Richard Pierson Hobson, of Weeping Water. All of the young men were assigned to Co. B of the provisional regiment of the 17th infantry, which was the unit in charge of the training camp.

Of the attendants at the camp this year Lambert and Keil were taking their second year training while the others were "rookies" at the camp, but returned well versed in things military.

The squad over which Ray Lambert was assigned was awarded the silver cup for the best drilled squad in the provisional regiment and it is a source of a great deal of pride to Ray, who served as corporal and drillmaster of the squad in the daily routine of drill work.

The commanding officer of Co. B was Captain Irwin, U. S. A., of the 17th infantry, and who had the trophy cup won by the crack squad in the trophy room at Fort Crook.

Carl Keil was also assigned to the drilling of a squad in the regiment and his snappiness and the accurate manner in which he carried on the work was the object of commendation from his commanding officers.

Fred Trilety was also assigned as the corporal of one of the squads in Co. B and with the other Plattsmouth members proved a real military leader.

RETURNS FROM PLEASANT TRIP

From Tuesday's Daily— George K. Petring and wife, who have been visiting for the past two weeks in Colorado and the west, returned home yesterday afternoon after a most pleasant stay in the mountain country.

On their way west Mr. and Mrs. Petring made the trip in their Lincoln car and made excellent time in going from this city to the playgrounds of the mountain country. They spent some time at Estes park where they visited the points of interest and took several auto trips up the auto trails into the mountains several times reaching over 12,000 feet above the sea level and where the snow was to be found even though the temperature was hot and sweltering in the level below.

They also were the guests at Denver for several days with friends and at Colorado Springs where they enjoyed side trips out into the places of interest in that locality that draw each summer large numbers from all parts of the country to view and enjoy.

While at Denver Mr. Petring received a message that a party that had purchased a car here and had failed to pay for it had left for the west, and accordingly Mr. Petring had the man nabbed at Denver and the car turned over to him. Mr. and Mrs. Petring made the return trip in the Ford and made the 650 miles in two days from the west in the Ford which is very fine time and experiencing life difficultly in getting through in record time.

There are tourists in Colorado from almost every state. Mr. Petring states that one of the best seasons both in auto travel and in railroad tourists is reported in that section.

VISITS FROM ST. LOUIS

From Tuesday's Daily— After an absence of thirteen years, Louis J. Hyek of St. Louis, arrived here today for a visit with old friends in this city for a short time. Mr. Hyek came here when a young man from his old home at Vienna, Austria, and his first impressions of the new land were obtained here. Later he located at St. Louis where he has been very successful in his work as an electrician and he has grown to the responsible position of superintendent of one of the large manufacturing companies engaged in turning out electric appliances in that city. While here Mr. Hyek is staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roucka and family, old time friends.

HIT BY TRAIN AND CRITICALLY HURT

Ross A. Rich, Burlington Brakeman, Well Known Here, Killed at Lincoln Last Evening.

From Tuesday's Daily— Ross A. Rich, thirty-one years old, a brakeman employed on the Burlington railroad, was struck by a train in the Burlington yards a short distance south of the O street viaduct Monday evening and received critical injuries. It is doubtful that he will recover, in the opinion of Dr. F. B. Hollenbeck, who is attending him. He was found lying beside the track at 10:20 p. m. by yard employees. He was rushed to St. Elizabeth's hospital in Castle, Roper & Matthews ambulance. His injuries consist of a fracture at the base of the skull, a large external scalp wound, the loss of his left foot, and the skin on one side of his right leg is stripped from the knee down. He was in no condition to undergo an operation early Tuesday, according to Dr. Hollenbeck.

Mr. Rich was unconscious when he arrived at the hospital but later began to regain consciousness to a slight extent and uttered a few incoherent words.

He worked as a brakeman on a train out of Omaha and was not on duty at the time of the accident, according to Burlington employes. Mr. Rich's rural does not reach Lincoln, it is said. He is married and lives at 1918 South Twenty-sixth street. It is believed that he was struck by a freight train, an extra which entered the yards a short time before he was discovered.—State Journal.

Mr. Rich died at the St. Elizabeth hospital in Lincoln at 2 a. m. this morning. He was well known in this city in railroad circles, as he had been in the service of the Burlington for some years.

Girls Clothing Clubs.

Miss Clara Mohr, of Avoca held the achievement day for her club at her home. The mothers of the girls and several visitors were present. Mrs. Bullock held her club achievement program in Elmwood, the attendance was good. Mrs. O. A. Kitzel and Pauline Snavely, each have first and second year clubs and have completed their work. Miss Ruth Ranney held her program at the home of Helen Johnson in Weeping Water. The attendance was good. Mrs. Elmer Johnson of South Bend presented her club program at the school house and had 80 in attendance. Mrs. Henry Wendt gave her program at the home of Mrs. George Moore, in Wray. Mrs. Lloyd Schneider of Cedar Creek held her program in the school house, there was a large number in attendance. All these clubs will exhibit at the state fair and many placings should be won. The ladies have worked faithfully and club members have a better chance to win than ever before. Helen Johnson, of Alvo will represent Cass county as Health Girl, and Mary Ellen Wiles will represent us in the Style Show. Leola Heil and Esther Albert will represent the county Clothing Demonstrators. Marjory Joyce, Charlotte Joyce and Cathryn Lau will be the county's judging team.

The Eagle Junior Fair

The six clubs—Baby Beef, Swine, Dairy, Poultry, Corn and Potato, held their achievement day Friday the 25th. Byron McMahon is local leader of these clubs. Mr. Gardner of the Eagle Beacon, presented a loving cup to the Swine Club as the club doing the best work this year. The business houses closed and all attended the basket dinner. After the parade, consisting of 16 floats representing the different clubs, $100 in prize money was awarded. There were about 300 people in attendance. The following were exhibited—80 pigs, 4 baby heaves, 5 dairy calves, 20 chickens, 17 and 6 potato exhibits. The best co-operation between club members and parents was shown at this Eagle Junior Fair.

KILLING THE FARMERS FRIEND

When an Iowa farmer complained that the pheasants were eating his corn, the game department hinged two of the birds, examined their crops, and found 200 cutworms—and no corn. Almost without exception, when the scientists investigate such cases they find the same results. The farmer owes his crop to the feathered pest. The game department keeps the birds and worms. With continuing slaughter of every form of bird life, the insects loss will be heavier and farm work harder. The nation could train an army of riflemen in a comparatively short time, but it couldn't in a century restore the bird army that are the farmers' allies in raising food to feed the country.

SHENANDOAH WILL PLAY HERE COMING SUNDAY

Fast Iowa Team Will Entertain the Fans Here Sunday With Platts-mouth Baseball Players.

From Wednesday's Daily—

The fast Shenandoah (Iowa) baseball team is scheduled to be here on Sunday and be the opponents of the Plattsmouth baseball artists, who have been going at their best in the last few weeks.

This team comes very highly recommended as having won a large number of their games and playing some of the best teams in southwestern Iowa in the present season and should give the fans a real run for their money in the exhibition of the national pastime.

Charging the cost of securing these higher class teams it will be necessary to make the admission to the game Sunday 35 cents with the ladies being admitted free as usual at the park. The team has been at most or less expense in getting the party in excellent shape, the best that it has been in the last two years and with the high class teams that are now being scheduled for the close of the season, the cost is made somewhat greater, which, the team feels will justify the additional dime charged on the admission.

The local management is attempting to secure the fast Brown Park Merchants of South Omaha, with which team Walter Connors, former Plattsmouth hurler, has made a great record this season, for a double header here on next Monday (Labor Day), which should make a real treat for the fans if it is possible to secure this fast organization.

ENTERTAINS FOR BRIDE TO BE

From Tuesday's Daily— The very charming E. H. Becker home on high school hill was the scene of a very pleasant gathering yesterday afternoon when the Misses Leone and Verla Becker, entertained a number of friends in honor of their cousin, Miss Harriett Becker, of University Place, whose marriage to Mr. Delbert J. Hollingshead will take place in the early fall.

The ladies enjoyed the afternoon at bridge, there being four tables playing and in which Miss Ethelyn Wiles received her first prize and the second prize was given to Miss Ursula Herold.

The guest of honor received a number of very pleasant remembrances of the happy occasion from the members of the jolly party.

The home was very attractive in the decorations of the late summer flowers.

RETURN FROM THE WEST

From Wednesday's Daily— Last evening John Livingston and wife and Mr. and Mrs. John Bajek returned home from a very pleasant outing in the western portion of the state where they have been enjoying the sights of that sections and visiting with relatives and friends for the past ten days. Mrs. Livingston and Mrs. Bajek and Master John have been there for some little time and were joined later by Mr. Livingston and Mr. Bajek.

The party visited for a short time at Oshkosh with Conrad Schlatter and family and also at Minnatare, where Mr. and Mrs. Paul Campbell are making their home. Mrs. Campbell having formerly been Miss Elizabeth Bajek of this city.

DEATH OF LITTLE CHILD

From Wednesday's Daily— This morning the death of the little twelve-day-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Art Pointer occurred at the family home at Murray following the few brief days of life that were allowed the little one. The friends are joining in their sympathy to the bereaved family in their loss that has so suddenly come to them.
