CASS COUNTY GIRL WINNER AT SHOW

Mary Ellen Wiles Takes First Honors at State Fair With Blue Pongee Afternoon Dress.

Not how much finery they could put on but how becomingly dressed they could be was what counted when the twelve best girls in Nebraska club work entered the first annual style show at the recent state fair. The girls have been taking practical training in making and choosing their own costumes. They made their dresses and chose the shoes, stockings and hat to complete the costume. Cost of dress and entire costume entered into the selection of the winners.

The preliminary competition was staged Wednesday afternoon in the agricultural extension building at the fair and the final placing of awards came in the evening while the girls appeared on the stage before the crowded grandstand as the feature of boys' and girls' club night.

Mary Ellen Wiles of Cass county won the championship. She wore a blue pongee dress trimmed in white which cost her $6.30. It was entered as an afternoon costume. Her hose were black silk and her shoes black low-heeled slippers. Her entire costume cost $12.30.

Gladys Hettman of Lancaster county placed second, wearing a gray tweed dress trimmed in blue. Her dress cost $5.51 and her entire costume cost $11.51. She wore black hose and black slippers. Her costume was for street wear.

Virginia Janak of Saunders county was third. She wore a rose linen dress with a small black tie and black patent leather belt. Black cotton hose and black oxfords completed her costume. Her dress cost $3.30 and her entire costume $7.75. It was made for school wear.

The Misses Irene Sierk of Dakota county, Frieda Wiedhorst of Otoe county, Mildred Meyers of Red Willow county, Mary Blakely of Johnson county and Adeline Frederickson of Polk county were placed in the order named for the eight prizes offered.

Others who entered costumes were Sarah McLean of Seward county, Virginia Richardson of Washington, Washington, Helen Nunn of Fillmore and Laura Price of Douglas.

The average cost of the dresses made by the girls was $3.90 and of the whole costume $9.45. Miss McLean of Seward county made a school dress for $1.15 and got her entire costume for $4.51.

Miss Rose Shoemaker of the Lincoln schools, who acted as judge, said the girls showed their training in choosing materials, colors and trimmings that suited their particular types of figures and complexions. She thought another outstanding feature of all their costumes was their neatness, notwithstanding their simplicity. All of the girls showed a wise expenditure of money. They were dressed as girls, not as little women, as is the tendency of so many girls who have not had the training of girls' sewing club work of the agricultural extension service.

The winning girl will represent Nebraska in a style show at the annual club congress held in connection with the international livestock exposition in Chicago each year.

EPISCOPAL LADIES TO HOLD CHRISTMAS SHOP IN DEC.

Date For Annual Event is Fixed Upon as Wednesday, December 2; Plan Very Fine Event.

From Wednesday's Daily— The members of the St. Luke's and St. Mary's Guilds of the Episcopal church held their meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sidney W. Bell on South Sixth street and at which there were present a very large number of ladies and the greatest interest taken in the proceedings of the meeting.

The ladies at this meeting took steps to perfect the final arrangements for their annual Christmas shop which each year has been a special feature of the holiday season in this city and afforded the opportunity of displaying and selling large lines of the most dainty needlework and fancy hand-made novelties. The ladies at the meeting fixed the date for the Christmas shop as Wednesday, December 2, the location to be announced later.

During the course of the meeting the members of the guilds had the pleasure of hearing the first of a series of talks on "The History of the Church," given by the rector, Father George D. Pierce, which was most interesting and gave the ladies an insight into the ancient Christian church of which the Episcopal church is one of the great branches and retains the forms and teachings of the original church.

The social time was spent in sewing and in the visiting among the members until an appropriate hour when dainty and delicious refreshments were served that added to the enjoyment of the occasion.
