

Nehawka Department!

Prepared in the Interests of the People of Nehawka and Surrounding Vicinity Especially for the Journal Readers.

Robert Chapman and Thomas Mason, the two R. F. D. carriers, were making good streets out of poor ones last Monday.

W. O. Troop and family were enjoying the Cass county fair last Friday where they visited with their many friends.

Earl Troop was picking corn last Monday for feeding the cattle and found it in very good condition.

C. D. St. John and wife were among those who were attending the Cass county fair at Weeping Water last Friday afternoon.

William Kruger was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Monday where he was called to look after business. He made the trip in his auto.

Sam Martin and Earl Weeb have been busy hauling walnut logs from "the Countryman place" to Nehawka for H. M. O'Dill, for shipment.

Mike Cisney was busy last Monday getting the fences in condition to hold in his stock when he has completed the picking of his corn.

D. C. West of the Nehawka bank, was a business visitor last Monday at Plattsmouth and also was called to Omaha to look after some business.

County Commissioner C. F. Harris of Union, was a visitor in Nehawka last Monday afternoon, where he was looking after some business for the county.

Ivan Balfour and wife of near Union, spent last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. St. John, where all enjoyed the day most pleasantly.

Hudson Beck and family, who now reside at Lincoln, drove over to north of Nehawka where they formerly lived, for a visit with old friends for over Sunday.

Eugene Nutzman and family were guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Balfour, where both guests and hosts enjoyed the time very pleasantly.

Edward Murray and wife from north of town was over to Weeping Water Sunday to visit his mother, Mrs. L. C. W. Murray, who has been quite sick for some time.

Will O. Troop, son of Robert, were visitors in South Omaha last Monday, looking over the yards as to the arrival of feeding cattle as they both want to secure a number for feeding.

Mrs. Hewitt, who has been very ill for some time and who was at a hospital where she underwent an operation and received treatment for some time is reported as being somewhat improved at this time.

Mesdames T. E. Fulton and Elmer Philpot were attending the funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Doly, which occurred at Weeping Water, at the Christian church, of which the deceased was a member. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon.

Charles Pitman and wife of Medford, Okla., who are farming there, arrived, driving their car, and are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Sutphan. They will spend several days here, Mr. Pitman and Mrs. Sutphan are brother and sister.

C. R. Troop was trying out the new car, which is a Buick sedan, last Sunday, driving down to Nehawka via Union in order to use the good roads as much as possible, going to Plattsmouth to Union on the gravel.

A. R. Troop and family were accompanying them.

Mrs. A. F. Sturm departed for Nebraska City last Monday morning where she visited with her mother, Mrs. E. M. McCarthy, and from there she went to Omaha where she visited her daughter, Mrs. John O. Yieser, the second, and also their son, of the third generation.

George Troop, 12 years old, took a team of mules from the neighborhood north of Nehawka to Union last Saturday evening, which he delivered to E. E. Leach and accepted the very kind invitation of that gentleman to be his guest for the night and returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hay, who are engaged in farming at Otis, Colo., arrived at the home of W. O. Troop and wife where they are visiting. They will also attend the Ak-Sar-Ben festival and the American Legion convention while here. Mesdames W. O. Troop and John Hays are sisters.

Henry Knabe and son, Edward, were on the South Omaha market with a car load of cattle which were very fine. They being on the market last Wednesday. They also had a truck load of hogs on the Nebraska City market on Monday of this week. Mr. R. Kettlehut took the hogs to market in his truck.

G. E. Young of Weeping Water, who has been in the west for some time, returned to Weeping Water last week and is arranging to move to Rawlins, Wyo., where he will establish himself in business. Mr. Young was formerly engaged in the hardware business in Weeping Water where he made a success, disposing of the business but a short time since.

Klansmen Hold Klouave. Last Thursday, the day, or rather, the evening, scheduled for the Klouave.

Earl E. Schaefer, son of Max and Lucy Schaefer was born on December 2, 1906 at Walters, Oklahoma, and died Sept. 29, 1925 at the St. Joseph hospital in Omaha at the age of 18 years 9 months and 7 days.

He leaves to mourn his death his father and mother, one brother, Joseph, two sisters, Marie and Gertrude. Earl has been a patient sufferer since early in June, but had regained strength sufficient to be about for a few weeks. On Thursday, Sept. 17th, he had a stroke of paralysis of the throat which resulted in his death at 6 a. m. Sunday the 20th. Earl was a member of the M. E. church of Nehawka, Neb., also of the DeMolay, Omaha chapter. Funeral services were held from the Healy and Healy chapel in Omaha, Tuesday Sept. 22nd, at 2 p. m. They were conducted by W. A. Taylor of Union, Neb., assisted by DeMolays and Rev. H. H. W. Gable sang two beautiful solos with Miss Olive Halsey as accompanist. Many and beautiful were the floral tributes. The interment was held at the Forest Lawn cemetery in Omaha.

Taken Up. One bay horse, one bay mare, thin, smooth mouth. Both with halters. Taken up week ago. Owner can have same by calling and paying cost of advertising and expense or if not claimed will be sold. S. E. Mack, two miles west of one mile north of Weeping Water. 01-51w

Rev. Hewitt Returned. The Rev. C. Hewitt, who has been the pastor of the United Brethren church at Nehawka, and north of town, was by the conference, returned to the charges here, which was very pleasing to the members of the two congregations.

Gets the Latest Model. Verner Lundberg, of the firm of the Lundberg garage, last week sold one of the latest model universal touring cars to Fred Williams, the genial and efficient drayman. This is the first of the latest models to be owned by anyone in Nehawka.

Changes in Business Here. Bert Willis, the cream and produce merchant, this week purchased the business of Mr. Joshua Sutphan, most of which he sold and cleared out the room and after he has things arranged he will install an entirely new stock of groceries. Bert is well known here, having a large circle of friends and he being rustler, he should enjoy an excellent trade.

Visiting Relatives in Nehawka. Frank Vantine and wife, who live near Crawford, where they are engaged in farming, arrived in Nehawka for a visit with relatives, they being the guests, while here, of Mr. and Mrs. O. Lundberg, the ladies being sisters.

Making It Safe. Frank McConnell, who moved into the Hotel property, found things not in the best of condition, but has gone to work to clean up the property and make it safe to live in and at the same time make it attractive for others.

The Pool Hall Changes Hands. Ned Anderson, the proprietor of the Pool Hall, and who has conducted it in a very efficient and becoming manner, leased the same to Delbert Switzer. The transfer being made on Monday of this week. Clyde Switzer, an excellent young man, will have charge of the place.

Lineup of High School Players Seems to Show More Speed and Skill in the Last Practice. From Wednesday's Daily—The work of the Plattsmouth High school football team since the Thomas Jefferson game of last week has shown a great deal of improvement and the increasing interest and improvement in form of the boys has been the source of a great deal of pleasure to Coach Rothert and gives the brightest hopes of the team being able to take the measure of North High when they appear here on October 9th for the first home game of the season.

The players who have been working out and form the first string of players for the season are Keil and Fitch, Egenberger and Gansmeyer, ends; Adam and Hatt, tackles; Johnson, Stubbins and Sullivan, guards; John Nelson and Clark, center; Westcott, quarter; Buttery and Eastwood, halfbacks; Harlan Gorder, captain and fullback.

The team this year has one of the stiffest schedules of recent years which will give the local followers of the game a chance to see many of the fastest high school teams of the state here in action. The home schedule includes North High of Omaha, October 9; Nebraska School For the Deaf, October 30; Creighton Prep of Omaha, November 15, and Nebraska City High November 25. The Nebraska City game, which usually takes place on Turkey day, has been pushed forward one day as members of both teams wish to witness the Nebraska-Notre Dame game Thanksgiving at Lincoln.

Died at Omaha. Earl E. Schaefer, son of Max and Lucy Schaefer was born on December 2, 1906 at Walters, Oklahoma, and died Sept. 29, 1925 at the St. Joseph hospital in Omaha at the age of 18 years 9 months and 7 days.

He leaves to mourn his death his father and mother, one brother, Joseph, two sisters, Marie and Gertrude. Earl has been a patient sufferer since early in June, but had regained strength sufficient to be about for a few weeks. On Thursday, Sept. 17th, he had a stroke of paralysis of the throat which resulted in his death at 6 a. m. Sunday the 20th. Earl was a member of the M. E. church of Nehawka, Neb., also of the DeMolay, Omaha chapter. Funeral services were held from the Healy and Healy chapel in Omaha, Tuesday Sept. 22nd, at 2 p. m. They were conducted by W. A. Taylor of Union, Neb., assisted by DeMolays and Rev. H. H. W. Gable sang two beautiful solos with Miss Olive Halsey as accompanist. Many and beautiful were the floral tributes. The interment was held at the Forest Lawn cemetery in Omaha.

Taken Up. One bay horse, one bay mare, thin, smooth mouth. Both with halters. Taken up week ago. Owner can have same by calling and paying cost of advertising and expense or if not claimed will be sold. S. E. Mack, two miles west of one mile north of Weeping Water. 01-51w

Rev. Hewitt Returned. The Rev. C. Hewitt, who has been the pastor of the United Brethren church at Nehawka, and north of town, was by the conference, returned to the charges here, which was very pleasing to the members of the two congregations.

Gets the Latest Model. Verner Lundberg, of the firm of the Lundberg garage, last week sold one of the latest model universal touring cars to Fred Williams, the genial and efficient drayman. This is the first of the latest models to be owned by anyone in Nehawka.

Changes in Business Here. Bert Willis, the cream and produce merchant, this week purchased the business of Mr. Joshua Sutphan, most of which he sold and cleared out the room and after he has things arranged he will install an entirely new stock of groceries. Bert is well known here, having a large circle of friends and he being rustler, he should enjoy an excellent trade.

Klux Klan demonstration, was duly celebrated when 200 cars came and one hundred and ten klansmen in full regalia paraded the streets of Nehawka after which they repaired to the pasture of Nelson Berger, where they held their speaking. It is estimated that nearly or quite a thousand were in attendance.

CASS COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION PROGRAM

County Gathering of Sunday Schools Will Be Held October 5-6 at Nehawka; All Invited.

The annual Cass county Sunday school convention will be held Monday and Tuesday, October 5 and 6 at Nehawka. The meetings of the convention will be held in the Methodist church which has been placed at the disposal of the county Sunday school association for the big gathering.

It is urged that schools send at least one delegate for every 25 of their enrollment and it is wished that every Sunday school be represented at the meeting.

The officers of the county association are: George Shackley, president; Jesse P. Perry, vice president, and Agnes F. Rough, secretary and treasurer.

The program for the convention as announced will be as follows:

- Monday, October 5
- 2:30—Devotional period, Grace Countyman.
- 2:45—Address of welcome, Mrs. Ernest Pollard.
- Response.
- 3:00—Talk, Cradle Roll Methods, Mrs. Howard Cappell.
- 3:30—Appointment of committees.
- 3:45—Scouting and the Sunday school, Mr. W. H. Kimberly, Jr.
- 4:15—Children's Hour, Miss Ellen Brown.
- 8:00 p. m.—Devotional period, Rev. Hewitt.
- 8:15—Reading, Mrs. Sumner.
- Address—"Fireproof Faith," Rev. G. R. Birch.

Tuesday, October 6

- 8:00—Devotional period, James Stander.
- 8:15—Address, "Three Main Objectives of the Modern Sunday School," C. A. Rawls.
- 8:45—Address, "Training in Duties of Church Membership," L. C. Oberlies.
- 9:15—Division and superintendent reports.
- 10:30—Address, "Instructing Boys and Girls in Christian Living," Rev. Elizabeth Carlyle.
- 11:15—Round Table discussions.
- 12:00—Dinner.
- 1:30—Devotional period, Geo. A. Morey.
- 1:45—Address, "The Obligation of Church Members to the Sunday School," Mrs. O. E. Innis.
- 2:15—Election of officers.
- 3:00—Address, "The Evangelistic Opportunity in the Sunday School," Frank Emory Ploutz.
- 3:30—Address, "Efficiency in Sunday School Work and Equipment," R. M. C. Van Dyke.
- 4:30—Discussions.
- 8:00—Devotional period, Rev. J. A. Runnel.
- 8:15—Address and Stereoptican Views," Miss Ellen Brown.

BOOTH FESTIVAL TO BE HELD AT PLATTSMOUTH

Epworth League Will Conduct a Festival and Rally for the Sub-district.

On Saturday, Oct. 17, the Epworth League of this city will put on a Booth Festival and Sub-district Rally. The purpose of the festival is to make a collection of fruits, vegetables, etc. which will be sent to the Methodist Hospital at Omaha.

Invitations to attend have been sent to the churches at Ashland, Gretna, Spring Grove, Springfield, Louisville, Weeping Water, Nehawka, Union and Nebraska City. Each of these places will be assigned a booth in which to place their donation. A banner will be awarded to the booth based on the value of the donation, the number of persons present and the distance traveled.

The officers of the district cabinet will be here to conduct departmental conferences and a special demonstration of games and stunts will be given at 4:00 p. m. In the evening there will be a general meeting presided over by Mildred Dunham, who is the district president this year. This will be followed by an address especially for young people by Rev. Handel Collier, the pastor at Nebraska City.

Program. Arranging of Booths, 2 till 4 p. m. Games and Stunts, 4 p. m. Department Conferences, 5 p. m. Dinner, 6:00. General Meeting, 7:00. Address, 8:00.

TAKEN SICK ON THE WAY

Word was received by relatives in the vicinity of Nehawka of J. D. Shroder, who with the wife have been making their home in the state of Maine, where he has been engaged in the barber business, that he had disposed of his interests there and started for California to make their home. They were driving, and when they had gotten as far as Salem, Mass., Mr. Shroder was taken ill and an examination developed the fact that he had an abscess on his vertebrae which required an operation for relief. They will be detained there for some time until he shall have recovered, not considering the suffering incident to the illness.

Most disfiguring skin eruptions, acrofolia, pimples, rashes, etc., are due to impure blood. Burdock Blood Purifiers as a cleansing blood tonic is well recommended. $1.25 at all stores.

Remember Stambaugh's pure bred Duroc sale Friday, Oct. 9th, at Richfield, Nebraska, five miles southwest of Papillion.

AVOCA NEWS

Fred Lenhardt was a visitor at Oteo on Tuesday of this week. The acreage put to wheat in the vicinity of Avoca averages about the same as that of a year ago.

Henry B. Kubga and wife were in Oteo in the county, where they were to purchase potatoes for the winter on last Monday.

C. M. Bogard, who purchased the Barber shop at Oteo, was to that place on Wednesday to take charge of the business.

George McFadden, who has been farming on one of the W. W. Street places, will move to near Weeping Water in the spring.

Word from Omaha where Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Opp are making their home at this time, is to the effect that Mr. Opp is feeling much better.

Some of the roads south east of Avoca are being which is certainly good news. Sure, there are others which would stand a little work.

The switch board at the telephone exchange has been rebuilt and the operators are rejoicing as they can now give the much needed service.

The testing of cattle, east and south east of Avoca, the percentage of factory cattle is very low, while those testing negative are very high.

William Hallenberg and wife and son, C. O. Hallenberg, who were visiting at Bird City, Kans., several weeks returned after having had a most enjoyable visit.

Thomas H. Straub, who sells Ford cars as well as other kinds, received one of the latest model Ford touring cars long list, there being many with orders in.

The Avoca Garage will have "Free Air" in the future which will save much pumping in this vicinity. You can have your tires inflated now in a very short space of time.

School district No. 4, of Oteo county, just across the line south of Avoca, has a new plan which will be a great convenience for the teachers and scholars in the music and drills.

William Gallner, the market man, and by the way, he is conducting one of the best markets in this part of the state, says business is good and he is looking for it to be better soon.

L. J. Marquardt, who some time since underwent an operation, has been making very satisfactory gains and is feeling very well at this time, but not strong enough to go to work yet.

Charles Gruber, who has been living in Cass county on the farm of Henry Straub, will in the spring move over into Oteo county where he will farm on a place belonging to V. W. Straub.

All the buildings available for living purposes have been occupied and people would like to find the Avoca to live, but cannot find the accommodations. Richard Briener would like to move to Avoca but cannot find a place to live at this time.

At the drug store there is being a renovation made in the appointments of Henry Straub, will in the spring move over into Oteo county where he will farm on a place belonging to V. W. Straub.

Fred Kuhheim of Syracuse was a business visitor in Avoca one day during the week.

Last week W. H. Maseman was a visitor in the capital city where he met his old time friend, C. D. Quinton, a former citizen of Avoca, who has moved to Lincoln for the purpose of giving the children the advantage of better school facilities.

Their daughter, Miss Edith Quenton, graduated with high honors from the Plattsmouth high school and is now a student in the state university.

The black boards and electric work on the new school building have been installed as well as other minor matters and all will soon be completely finished. Arrangements are about complete for the dedication of the building by a very worthy program which will be celebrated at the building Oct. 9th. Watch these columns for further particulars of the event.

Some of the mirth loving ones of Avoca were poking fun as because a few letters of the alphabet had been on a frolic. The letter a had crowded the letter o out of William Morley's name and the letter p had shoved the letter k away from the latter end of Troop and made it spell Troop, while in another name in their contest for place some right ones and some wrong ones got so arranged that the proper places was uncertain.

Are at Home Now. Mr. and Mrs. Marion Pitman, who have, since their departure some ten days ago, been on their wedding trip, returned home a few days since and are getting nicely set up in house-keeping in a portion of the hotel building. The other portion of the building is occupied by Carl O. Zaiser. Mr. Pitman has not returned to his work as the carrier of the rural mail as yet but will in a short time.

Entertain the School. The Freshmen and the Sophomores on one morning and the Seniors and Juniors on another take turns in giving program for the entertainment of the schools and benefit of themselves.

Buys Himself a New Home. Elmer J. Hallstrom, the banker at the farmers bank, who is liking Avoca as a place in which to live has purchased himself a home in which to live. He has been renting but as he plans to continue living in this city has purchased the property known as the T. E. Carter place. This will make Mr. and Mrs. Hallstrom a very fine home.

LOST—A CAMERA! Lost on Saturday, September 19, at Farmers' Union Picnic, a No. 2 Brownie camera. Finder please notify Pauline Vogler, Louisville, Neb. 01-2tw

Eagles' Dance

Eagle hall, Plattsmouth Friday Evening OCT. 2

MUSIC FURNISHED BY Cy Stafford's Red Hot Orchestra of Lincoln

Cy will bring one of the best 6-piece singing bands of the Capital city.

You've come to the rest; Now come to the best!

Admission Dancers $1, plus tax 10c—$1.10 LADIES FREE Spectators, 35c

DRY AGENTS INDICTED.

Peoria, Ill., Sept. 29.—Walter Moody, deputy United States marshal of Springfield, J. E. "Lena Wolfe" Asher, and Max Hartzler, prohibition agents, were indicted by the county grand jury today in connection with recent dry raids in Peoria.

POTATOES SCARCE HERE

But we have 10 cars coming from Red River Valley at prices much lower than our market. Carry stock at store, or sell car lots delivered anywhere. Write for prices.

JOHNSON BROS., Nebraska City.

One way to relieve habitual constipation is to take regularly a mild laxative. Dean's Regulents are recommended for this purpose. 30c a box at all drug stores.

Moye Produce Co. PAYS CASH FOR Poultry, Eggs, Cream and Hides!

Sells Chic Feeds and Oyster Shell.

"Prompt and Courteous Service Our Motto!"

Opposite Tidball Lumber Co

PHONE 391 Plattsmouth, Neb.

Picture Framing and Furniture Repairing

John P. Sattler Funeral Director

PHONES Office, 400 Res., 29

C. E. MARTIN Attorney-at-Law

Offices over Soennichsen Dry Goods Store—Main Street between Fifth and Sixth.

PHONE 70 Plattsmouth - Nebraska

It's Bad Luck

to delay arrangements for that Farm Loan until the last minute.

I am accepting loans for March first closing right now. Lowest rates, liberal payment privileges.

WRITE OR SEE Searl S. Davis Real Estate—Insurance

DISPERSION SALE OF Spotted Poland China Hogs
Wednesday, October 7th
NEHAWKA, NEBR.

60 Head—25 Spring Boars, 14 Spring Gilts, 2 Fall Boars, 13 Fall Gilts, 1 Bred Sow and 3 Sows with litters. Don't miss this offering!

The first prize Senior Yearling Boar at Nebraska State Fair this year included. Creator, the first prize Aged Boar at Nebraska State Fair in 1924, is also included!

This will be one of the greatest sales of the season. All hogs have been immuned and every animal is guaranteed. Write for catalog and other information at once.

Sale to be Held in Town Come! You are Invited!

R. H. Ingwerson & Sons
NEHAWKA - NEBRASKA

"The Ten Commandments"

NEHAWKA AUDITORIUM

Sunday and Monday Nights

OCTOBER 4 - 5

The best show you have seen—Remember, Sunday and Monday nights, October 4-5.

Kiddies' Comfortable Shoes

Nature never intended little feet to grow up to cause pain and misery. Sometimes through wrong selection of shoes this condition occurs.

You can defend your kiddies' tiny toes from hurt and harm through having them fitted at this store.

BETTER SCHOOL SHOES FOR BOYS

The wear a boy gets out of his shoes at school depends greatly upon quality and strength built into the shoes at the factory.

This store insists upon shoes made of good leathers by expert workmen, in correct styles.

We Invite Your Inspection

F. P. SHELDON
Where Customers Feel at Home
Telephone No. 14 Nehawka, Nebr.
ESTABLISHED 1888

HERE ARE YOUR Hog Supplies

Buttermilk Powder — One pound for eight gallons of swill.

We carry Tankage, Shorts and Bran. Any quantity up to a car load.

See us for best prices, or phone us.

C. D. St. John
Nehawka - Nebraska

Newspaper advertising pays!