

Nehawka Department!

Prepared in the interests of the People of Nehawka and Surrounding Vicinity Especially for the Journal Readers.

R. C. Alford and wife of Elmwood, were visiting in Nehawka for Sunday and Monday.

E. M. Polard, who has been looking after some business matters at Lincoln for some days returned home last Sunday.

H. H. Stoll and his niece, Laverta Flemma, were visiting in Nebraska City last Saturday, they driving down in their car to do some shopping.

James Bullin was a visitor at the home of W. O. Troop the first of the week and was making some repairs on a tractor for Mr. Troop.

Frank McConnell and family have moved to the Joe DeClos building, this putting him nearer his work as he keeps his trucks at the old livery barn.

Miss Laverta Flemma departed on Sunday morning for Minford where she will teach this season, she taking up the work on Monday morning of this week.

Chris Murray, living northwest of Nehawka lost their little daughter early Monday morning from diphtheria, an account of which will appear elsewhere in this paper.

Charles D. Keltner has been secured as the caretaker of the Auditorium and is there on the job, looking after the work very promptly, and having the building in the best of condition.

A. F. Strum was a business caller at Plattsmouth and also in Omaha one day last week. Henry Barkhurst of Otoe county, living some six miles south of Nehawka was a visitor in town last Monday.

Frank Trotter was a visitor in Omaha and South Omaha last Monday taking a truck load of hogs to the stock market and also returning a number of empty oil barrels to the oil company.

The many members of the American Legion and others who visited in Omaha last week report the convention week and the Ak-Sar-Ben a combination hard to beat and say that everybody had a splendid time.

Henry Wessel and family, accompanied by Carl, in their auto departed for Omaha early last Monday morning where they spent the day in looking after some business matters in many lines and had a very fine trip, making it in the new car.

On Tuesday of this week Albert Wolfe and wife, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Gladys, who has been troubled for some time with a mastoid, which has come on the rear portion of her head, went to Omaha to see a specialist regarding treatment.

Miss Emma Munn, who has been the housekeeper for H. H. Stoll, has resigned her position, taking effect last Saturday. Mr. Stoll has secured the services of Mrs. Grace Benjamin of Alliance, who has arrived and is installed as the housekeeper of the Stoll home.

W. O. Troop and wife were visiting and looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Monday, they going that Mr. Troop might secure a mechanic for the purpose of overhauling his tractor, while Mrs. Troop went along to visit with friends for a short time.

Mrs. Ola Buckingham of Auburn was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Chrisweisser for the last week and where she and Mrs. Chrisweisser enjoyed the week most splendidly. On last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Chrisweisser, with their new car took Mrs. Buckingham home in the evening.

Eli Keckler of the Manley road machine and Earnest Mann, the driver of the truck came down from Manley last Monday morning and placed the streets of Nehawka in excellent condition, and were ready to return home in the afternoon. This outfit surely knows just how to put a road in the best of condition and it does not take long to do it.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Marshall of Fort Lupton, Colo., the latter formerly being Miss Anna Peterson, who many years made her home with the Frank Sheldon family, arrived in Nehawka Sunday and are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon and will also visit with Mr. Marshall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Marshall of Weeping Water while here. They will remain for a week or ten days.

Two people have added to their homes the convenience and pleasure of the radio during the past week, they being Tommy Mason, the mail carrier, and Henry Swartz, the farmer. Mr. Swartz securing a three tube Crosley, which reaches out to the limits of the possessions of Uncle Sam while Mr. Mason selected a super-heterodyne, which covers the world as thoroughly and is very selective in its tuning in on different stations.

The Ladies Aid society will give a chicken pie supper at the Modern Woodmen hall October 30th to which everybody is very cordially invited.

Burk Kirkland of Lander, Wyoming, arrived in Union on Wednesday of this week for a visit of a few days and will be a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Mougey while here.

Went to Louisville Meeting. Last Monday afternoon, Columbus day, the banking force of Nehawka were at Louisville, where they went to the meeting of the Bankers Association of Cass county, as well as attending the banquet which the bankers of Louisville put up for them.

Hunting the Festive Duck. A crowd of nimrods of Nehawka, and who are excellent shots as well went up into the central portion of the state, near Burwell and to the northwest, with the intention of hunting some chickens and ducks, and their friends here say they are looking for Elk, Deer and Buffalo, however that if we do not know, but we are of the opinion they are looking more for sport and a good time and they will have that whether they get any big game or not, those among the crowd departing Sunday were, George Pollard, Fred Hild, Arthur Hild, John Hanson and Leo Switzer.

Home From the Old County. Gustav Nelson, who, some nine months since, departed for a visit at his old home in Sweden, after an absence of some thirty-eight years, returned last week after having spent several months in the home of his childhood, and other places of interest there. Mr. Nelson visited the land of the mid-night sun, which is in the north and met many Lappers while in the section. He reports times in Sweden very fair with but few people out of employment, and the crops very good. In all he had a most pleasant trip while away but looks on America with a good deal of satisfaction when he is back here.

Phonograph For Sale. I have a Claxtonola, phonograph, in excellent condition with about one hundred popular records for sale, cheap.—John Opp.

Suffers Injury From a Bull. While attempting to load a bull for shipment, Mr. B. Wulph was thrown by the infuriated animal and his shoulder dislocated, which caused him much suffering. This animal was finally loaded and taken to market by Frank Trotter, but when it was unloaded caused much commotion among the people at the stock yards on account of its very bad disposition.

Admire the Hampshires. Philip Moore and "Bill" Ferguson of the Stockman Journal, at South Omaha, were visiting at the home of Harry Knabe last Sunday, and were looking over his farm and the herd of Hampshires which Harry raised, and of which he will make a sale on Saturday, October 24th. (see his ad in this issue of the Journal.) Mr. Moore is on the editorial staff, while Mr. Ferguson is a cartoonist.

Will Hold Hampshire Hog Sale. Harry Knabe, the breeder of the celebrated Hampshire swine, and one of the most successful, having the best of stock, and a large herd of many pens and lots, will hold a sale of purebreds on Saturday October 24, at which time he will offer some of the best hogs of this strain that can be found in this or any other state. Whether you are a purchaser or not better come see this fine herd and know what a good hog is.

Visited in Nehawka. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Johnson and daughter, Esther, of Hastings, Nebraska stopped over at the home of Mr. Johnson's niece, Mrs. Omar Schlichtemeier, on Wednesday and Thursday. They were enroute home from a Northwestern Railroad officials convention at Kansas City, and had a visit at Guthrie and other points in Oklahoma. He has been a railroad road-master for the Northwestern for the past 31 years and has been with the Northwestern for 41 years.

WILL TRADE REAL ESTATE. A large list. Have bargains in eastern and western Nebraska wheat, corn, alfalfa and ranch land. Several improved Plattsmouth acreages to trade. Will leave about October 28 with land party to Perkins and Chase counties. See me soon if interested. Yes, I can match your trades. Frank E. Vallery, P. O. Box 577, Plattsmouth, Neb. o13-1td-1tw

ALL MASONIC WORK CEASES IN ITALY FOR TIME BEING. Rome, Oct. 10.—Domizio Torrigiana, grand master of the Masonic order in Italy, issued an order to all lodges to hold no meetings and cease all work until further notice. His action follows the recent fascist-Masonic clashes at Florence, in which several persons were killed.

LAST WEEK'S FOOTBALL AN UPSET OF DOPE

The Favorites of the Season Who Were Scheduled to Win, Lose Out in Battles on Gridiron.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 13.—The Missouri Valley dope bucket played tricks on the entire valley last Saturday—except the followers of Missouri, of Drake and of Iowa State.

At noon Saturday, Nebraska was the favorite to win over Missouri, Kansas Aggies were favored to wallop Drake, and the Kansas Jayhawkers were expected to turn in a victory over Ames.

Saturday night, each and every one of the unexpected had happened and Missouri had been declared the winner over Nebraska, 9 to 6, Drake had beaten the Kansas Aggies, 19 to 0, and Iowa State had turned back Kansas, 29 to 0.

For the rest of the Valley, little out of the ordinary happened. Minnesota romped over Grinnell and Oklahoma A. & M. lost the decision to Emporia Teachers.

Notre Dame's unexpected opposition from Beloit was rather heartening to the future opponents of the Irish. Washington's decisive triumph over Montana branded the west coast team as a dangerous aggregation of the Cornhuskers when the Huskies and the Huskers meet in Nebraska Memorial Stadium next Saturday.

BUELL MCRAE

A guard with better than 75 pounds of beef to back him, and one year of experience under his belt, McRae will give the Nebraska Cornhuskers something to worry about when the Universities of Washington (Seattle) and Nebraska clash in the opening game of the Nebraska gridiron season at Lincoln, October 17. McRae is 23 years old and claims Sedro-Woolley, Wash., as his home.

Treasurer Robinson says his office is "$600,000 in 'red' on Oct. 1." He also adds: "Regardless of politics, I am going to give the state administration emphatically to understand that I will take no more responsibility for the reckless spending of money which the state has not got to spend." Robinson is a republican.
