OUR DAYS ON EARTH

Our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is none abiding. — Chronicles 29:15. We want no third term presidents. Ten down when launch capsizes on Florida coast. Progress consists of swapping old troubles for new. Some of the fall styles are so sensible they don't seem possible. Spend your life making faces at people and you will look that way. The greatest crime in the movies is the way they select some of their heroes. Those who always depend upon luck soon have nothing else to depend on. Newspapers correspondents covering the world series number something like 400. We don't believe the pursuit of happiness at sixty miles an hour is to be recommended. Whether a friend in need is a friend indeed usually depends upon what he is in need of. Somebody robbed a loan office in St. Louis instead of a loan office in St. Louis robbing somebody. Learning what a woman is crying about is almost as easy as unscrambling an egg or in spilling milk. A Texas editor refused to pay a $50 fine. Mighty hard, but he could make it back in ten or twenty years. It is of the utmost importance that you take care of the minutes if you ever expect to be a man of the hour. Make a wish when you see the first star and it will come true, if you wish it hard enough. All wishes do that. "No searching of homes without a warrant," the United States Supreme court holds. Amendment protects those justly suspected as well as the innocent. Children everywhere in the country have a right to an equal chance at an education. As long as the present inequalities in opportunity exist democracy has failed to function and the cost will be paid in inefficiency and poor citizenship of large numbers in future generations.

With a woman, "headwork" means selecting a new hat. Soldiers of fortune often become captains of industry. Steam roller is greased to name Coolidge for a third term. Time must wear rubber heels. It slips up on us so quietly. Wouldn't it be awful if we always were as awful as we often are? Another convenience would be to pave the roads with rubber and abolish tires. One decision the federal judges are unanimous on is that they are underpaid. So far it is difficult to tell which side is on the defense at that air service hearing. When you see a man standing with his wife before a window full of hats you know she is boss. When a man says "I run things at my house," he may mean the lawn mower and the furnace. In Africa they rub noses instead of shaking hands. That is becoming the custom at our dances. They say it took millions of years to make us what we are, and still the job is only half started. You would get along better if you worried over what you make as much as you do over what you are paid. Aaron C. Reed, 80 years of age, of Stanton county, and a retired farmer, opens a law office in Lincoln. Uncle Sam is planning to make a dollar bill that will wear longer. What we need is one that will last longer. Maybe a man doesn't go home nights because he is afraid of his wife. And maybe he is afraid of his son's arithmetic. "A fool and his money are soon parted," says an ancient wheeze. Like a lot of fools who keep right on making money, just as if they had good sense. Arson is practically unknown in many European countries where, for other reasons, fire losses amount to comparatively little and insurance rates therefore are low. Isn't it time for an awakening to the real facts of the situation in America?

Another good man gone. After a long illness, Senator Ralston, of Indiana, passed away Wednesday night. Telephone operators should work eight hours and sleep eight hours, but they should not do both at the same time. Don't forget to select your winter supplies of winter goods at the bargain day offerings next Wednesday and save money. If all the saxophones in the world were made into one large saxophone it would be a wonderful thing. Nobody would be able to blow it. Gloria Swanson's husband is offering documentary proof that he is really a marquis. We suppose his wife made him do it. Gloria is that kind of a girl. A man in Knobnoster, Mo., has shingled his house with old car license plates. The plates bear the names of nearly every state in the Union and were laid five inches to the weather. Henry Ford has put his new type of airplane on sale in the John Wanamaker store in New York. And what we are now hoping to see is the new models of Ford cars on sale in the Woolworth and Kress stores. A human being must be able to take pride in his job and in the importance of the work he is doing and must get recognition for it, whether he is Judge Gary at the head of the United States Steel corporation or the man who runs the steam shovel on a sewer contract. A woman in St. Louis who has been married fourteen times had her latest husband arrested on the charge of beating her with a board. We may be mistaken in our diagnosis of the case, but, in our judgment, it is improper to hit a woman who has been married fourteen times with a mere board. The husband should have used an axe or a sledge hammer.

Up to this point, Andrew J. Volstead's services to civilization have been rewarded only with the empty accolade of fame. His name is known and pronounced in every hamlet of the nation. But this celebrity, gratifying as it may be, pays no gas bills and buys no shoes for baby. Even Andy's $7,500 a year as a congressman was cruelly struck off when an ungrateful constituency refused to re-elect him. Andy, therefore, has decided to reap more tangible fruits and is now on the payroll as legal adviser to the prohibition director for his district. And who is more entitled than Andy to share in the richest gravy that politics has known in many a year?

CAN ANYBODY TELL US—

If anyone ever heard the night fall? If the Mexican border pays the rent? If the giraffe is the highest form of animal life? If Lansing, Michigan, is a surgical instrument? If aspirin tablets are something to write on? If blood vessel is a new kind of boat? If Baton Rouge, Louisiana, is the place where hip sticks are made? If Easter Sunday is Billy Sunday's sister? If the girl who broke all records in her home town got careless with her Victrola? If Paris hatters are only worn by Frenchmen? If the eye of a needle sees anything worth while? If corns ever grow on the toe of a boot? If an ear of corn can hear the wind blow? If Cochon China chicks are hatched from china eggs? If the ship of state is manned by real sailors? The German delegates to the security conference at Lucerne are expected to open proceedings with a discussion of Germany's war guilt which promises to take as much time as the selection of a jury in an American murder trial.

JURY ON NOVEMBER 16

District Judge James T. Begley has announced that the petit jury for the November term of the district court would be called to report on Monday, November 16th, at the court here. Judge Begley is now winding up the jury term in Sarpy county, and goes from there to Otoe county for a jury term and then back to Cass county for the jury term. There are a large number of cases for trial in the court and which will probably take a great deal of the time of the jury unless a number of them are settled and dismissed. Few are satisfied with their lot unless it is a lot of luck.
