

Greenwood Department!

Prepared in the Interest of the People of Greenwood and Surrounding Vicinity

L. M. Mowery had the misfortune to lose one of his fine calves by its eating of clover and alfalfa too freely.

Mrs. A. F. Weibke, has been spending a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Scott of Waverly.

E. L. McDonald was a visitor in Omaha last Wednesday, where he went to make purchases of goods for his store.

G. W. Holt of the Burlington, and editor of the Greenwood Gazette was a business visitor in Lincoln last Friday afternoon.

C. D. Fulmer with his force of workmen are making the corn dry, and getting the harvest started as lively and snappy as possible.

E. O. Miller of the First National Bank has been having a tussle with an attack of lumbago, which he has at this time about overcome.

W. J. East and wife were visiting and looking after some business matters at Manley last Thursday afternoon driving over in their car.

A. R. Birdsall and wife were visiting in Lincoln last Friday where they were guests of friends as well as looking after some business.

Ed F. Brunbow and L. J. Waldradt from over toward Murdock were in town and joined the boys here in cutting wood for Mrs. Opal Hartsook.

W. A. Armstrong has just completed a concrete watering trough which he has been constructing for his brother John Armstrong, who resides west of town.

George Fels, formerly of this community, but who has been making his home at Sioux City for some time past, was visiting with friends here during the past week.

Mrs. Harry Leesley has been feeling quite ill for some time on account of an attack of flu, but is getting along nicely now and hopes to entirely well in a short time.

Oscar Hall, living over towards Waverly, who some time since sustained a lumbago on account of a sprain, was in town last Friday and, while not entirely well, reports as being better.

Nelson Umelund was a visitor in Lincoln last Saturday where he went to enjoy the football game which was staged there between the Cornhuskers of Nebraska and the Huskies of Washington.

Charles Schulte has been making some repairs on his crib at the farm where he resides and also building a crib on the farm where his son, E. A. Schulte, lives, getting ready to care for the corn crop.

Emmitt H. Carr of Omaha a representative of the Father Flannigan home for boys, of which he is a member, was in Greenwood soliciting for the home on last Friday and met with very good success.

C. N. Conrad and wife, formerly of Greenwood where they farm for a number of years, and who have been making their home for some time near Wray, Colo., were enjoying a visit here last week with their many friends.

Aurthur Stewart and Charles Holka have been getting the leaks surrounded and the holes filled in order that the water system may be accepted by the city of Greenwood and the citizens get some use of the new way of getting water.

C. E. Calfee of the Harness and horse millinery store of Greenwood, and family were enjoying a visit for over Sunday at Lincoln with the parents of Mrs. Calfee. Mrs. Calfee went on Sunday and was joined by Mr. Calfee on Sunday.

Last Sunday there was a wild west aggregation at Greenwood, which entertained the people here with some of their stunts of the cow pastures of the west, and created a desire in the hearts of the urhins to excel in the feats which were pulled off.

Henry A. Talcott, who has been in Denver during the past summer, where he has enjoyed the stay very much with relatives and friends, returned home last week, and will stay here for the winter. Mr. Henry A. Talcott is an uncle of Dr. Talcott.

W. E. Newkirk, the proprietor of the Newkirk Market and Grocery, who has made such a success of the business here, was a visitor in Omaha for a number of days last week, looking over the market and making purchases for the store at Greenwood.

Under the superintendency of Larry Leesley, there was held a very fine sale of pure bred stock on last Saturday, at which many of the farmers and others took advantage of the opportunity to obtain some very fine stock for their farms and dairies.

During the week the Peters' Grain company has purchased some eight thousand bushels of corn, from last year's crop and which the farmers are cleaning up for the purpose of getting crib room. They also received a load of new corn in the ear from W. A. Backemeyer which is of very good quality.

E. O. Miller of near Cordon, in the northwest cattle country and who is engaged in the cattle business was in South Omaha for a short time on business last week, and after having delivered and sold his shipment, he ran over to Greenwood to visit with his relatives, A. R. Birdsall being his brother-in-law.

L. M. Marvin, who a short time ago purchased a home in Greenwood and for which he exchanged another place, has been making some very substantial improvements on it of late. He is at this time constructing a basement under the house. The space under the house and will greatly improve the value of the building.

There were a number of the people of Greenwood and vicinity, who will not go to the northwest where they are accustomed to hunt for a short time in the fall on account of the rains at Pittsburgh, or the ability of the Pirates to play ball for they were evidently on the wrong side and they feel they cannot afford the expense of the hunt this fall.

W. A. Bachemeyer and wife were over to Murdock last Friday and also Thursday evening, called there because of the very severe illness of Mrs. Charles Bachemeyer, mother of Will, who has been quite sick for some time past and in connection with her advanced age it is very severe on her. All care possible is being given to her both as to nursing and medical attention.

Col. and Mrs. P. L. Hall were enjoying the banquet and meeting of the Cass county bankers association, which was held at Louisville last Monday, which being a holiday on account of Columbus day was used by the bankers for the purpose of getting together. All enjoyed the occasion very much and were well pleased by the excellent manner in which the bankers of Louisville entertained their friends.

Will Attend Grand Lodge.
Fred Ethregre of the local lodge of Odd Fellows and one who endeavors to practice the principles of Odd Fellowship, has been selected to represent the lodge of Greenwood at the meeting of the state grand lodge, which convenes in Grand Island this week. Fred is departing this morning for Grand Island to be present at the meeting.

Hears of Brothers Death.
Mrs. J. T. Carpenter received word last week of the passing of her brother, Mr. Ed Brown, at his home in Kensington, Kansas, where he had made his home for some time past. Mr. Brown was about fifty-two years of age, at the time of his death and had been engaged in farming. Mr. Brown had his heart affected and it was due to overwork of this organ that the death occurred. Mrs. Carpenter departed immediately to be present at the funeral and to render all assistance possible in the hour of sorrow which has come to the family as well as to herself.

Building a New Home.
Martin Doud has begun the erection of his home on the D. L. D. highway, which will make a fine home for this excellent gentleman and his good wife. The work is to be done by Mr. Gust Sorman the contractor and builder, and this fact assures the execution of the work in the best possible manner. The work will be pushed forward as rapidly as the weather will permit.

Proved Their Brotherhood.
The members of the I. O. O. F. lodge of Greenwood in a demonstration of the principles which they hold most dear, mutual assistance and caring for the members of their order and also of the members of the Daughters of Rebeckah, when on last Friday they went to the home of their sister, Mrs. Opal Hartsook, and sawed up the wood, which a short time since they had gone to the timber and chopped and hauled to her home. The members of the lodge sawed and split it and placed it under shelter that it may be ready when the cold days of winter come. The members of the Rebeckah Assembly, in keeping of the principles of the organization which they belong, supplied the workers with eats as well as Mrs. Hartsook, who they dined with and gave assurance in a real way that they were indeed her sisters.

Received the Teachers.
A community affair which combined the reception of the teachers of the schools of Greenwood and the new minister of the Methodist church the Rev. L. S. Jeffreys, who has been returned to the charge at Greenwood for the coming year, was held last week. A very worthwhile program was given by the committee having the matter in hand and a most enjoyable time was had by all that attended the gathering. The teachers who are to instruct our public schools and the minister who is to continue to break the bread of life to the members of his flock here were surely given to understand the people of Greenwood appreciate their labor in the city.

Greenwood School Notes.
Out of the 142 children given the physical test last week, 53 were reported as having defective eyes, 3 with poor eyes, 30 with bad throats or nose and 42 with defective teeth. This means that 37%, or considerably better than one-third, of the total enrollment have poor eyes which have not been corrected by glasses or who are not wearing the glasses after the eyes have been so corrected. Another startling fact is noticed when we see only two cases of bad eyes reported in the lower room, and two in the 3rd and 4th grades while the intermediate rooms report 17 cases, the grammar room 16 and the high school 16 more. This would seem to indicate that eye trouble is met with considerably after the child has started to school. The board have tried to meet their part of the situation by having electric lights installed this year which will help out a great deal during the dark winter days, but if the eyes are very bad, glasses very likely be the only real remedy.

Thirty per cent of the pupils had bad teeth. This is especially bad when it is considered that no account is taken of any in the lower rooms who have their "baby set." Some are already in so bad condition pulling is the only help.

Bad throats and noses come third with 21% for the entire school. Many of these have very bad cases of tonsils; while there were nineteen cases where children had poor eyes, teeth and throats combined.

Parents, may we not ask your cooperation in raising the physical standard of our school? Let's make physical tests of real value to our community.

The game with Alvo last Friday was called off by Supt. Dale of that place because so many of his players were ineligible because of low grades. Get busy, boys; we would like to play you some time.

We have a 100% enrollment among our teachers in the Nebraska State Teacher's Association. Our association's motto is: "Better teachers and better schools."

Miss Clark attended the Wesleyan-Simpson football game last Saturday. Miss Clark's brother plays on the Coyote team.

Mr. and Mrs. Worley went to Omaha on Wednesday evening to see the electrical parade. Mr. Worley remained over Thursday to attend the National Legion convention.

The ball team won its second game of the season by defeating Ceresco 6 to 0 on the local diamond. Welton and Brakhage pitched for Greenwood and allowed but one hit apiece. Lundstrum twirled for Ceresco and allowed six hits.

The ball bat offered by the Armstrong Hardware Co. to the one having the highest batting average bids fair to belong to anyone so far as all the boys have been suffering from a batting slump, the four highest having a score as follows: Welton, .375; Brakhage .292; Schuelke .250 and Schmidt .250.

Friday night the three upper classes initiated the Freshmen at the school building and a splendid time was enjoyed by "all?" Out of the 18 in the Freshman class only one was absent and that on account of sickness.

DeAlton Fulmer and Lillian Schuling are both back after having been absent all last week with the flu.

Doctors and nurses came in answer to the summons; railroad officials sat in the Red Cross office and cleared their tracks, called out equipment and personnel ready to speed to the scene of disaster; hospital equipment and supplies trundled in trucks over the bridge to East St. Louis terminal and were loaded upon waiting trains with almost inconceivable haste, and yet without distracting hurry. The material of relief was gathered, loaded, and before midnight went steaming off through the night upon its errand of succor and mercy. The whole episode furnished the never-failing inspiration for the addresses of the weeks that followed, and never failed in its impressions upon those who listened.

RED CROSS ALWAYS HELPS
I was in St. Louis when the great tornado plowed its swath of terror and destruction across the middle west. It was a wonderful thing to stand on the side lines and watch the Red Cross mobilize for action.

With the speed of a carefully constructed machine, and yet with the sureness and certainty that only organized intelligence could insure, a few hours brought results that a few years ago would have been impossible.

Doctors and nurses came in answer to the summons; railroad officials sat in the Red Cross office and cleared their tracks, called out equipment and personnel ready to speed to the scene of disaster; hospital equipment and supplies trundled in trucks over the bridge to East St. Louis terminal and were loaded upon waiting trains with almost inconceivable haste, and yet without distracting hurry. The material of relief was gathered, loaded, and before midnight went steaming off through the night upon its errand of succor and mercy. Some reasons for Red Crown's DEPENDABILITY

Red Crown Gasoline is a pedigreed product—the result of two generations of refining experience.

It may fairly be called a home product, for the Standard Oil Company of Nebraska is chartered under the laws of Nebraska and is a state corporation. Practically its entire business is in Nebraska, and it is bound up with the life and progress of the State.

Other concerns—individuals or companies—may come and go. With no permanent investment involved, they can open up or close up as a chance for profit appears or passes: the Standard Oil Company of Nebraska years ago undertook the responsibility of meeting the requirement of Nebraska motorists from one end of the State to the other. It goes where it is needed.

That is why motorists everywhere in Nebraska turn naturally to Red Crown when away from home. They know it is always the same—whether in a remote hamlet or on a crowded city street—the same dependable gasoline, balanced in the correct proportions for quick starting, power and economy.

So keep the Red Crown habit. Always fill up where you see the Red Crown sign. You will get prompt, obliging service, dependable, uniform, clean-burning gasoline, and motor oils that assure protective lubrication.
