

Nehawka Department!

Prepared in the interests of the People of Nehawka and Surrounding Vicinity Especially for the Journal Readers.

Miss Emma Munn has been assisting with the work at the switch Albert Wolfe, the manager of the exchange.

Mrs. Verna McReynolds was a visitor last Monday afternoon with her friend, Miss Gladys Wolfe, at the telephone exchange.

Mr. Edwin Balthezar of Weeping Water, was a caller at Nehawka and the guests of his friend, Miss Emma Munn last Sunday.

Fred Smith of the Plattsmouth Motor Company was a visitor in Nehawka last Monday afternoon and was transacting business here.

The clock at the postoffice was requiring a little stimulation and Vernon took it in hand and soon had the machine ticking just the right time and also shining like Mars at pre-lition.

The Sheldon Manufacturing Company had an electric saw rigged up and were cutting wood for the factory last Monday and were making the wires out of the door and hooked them up for the occasion.

Mrs. Albert Wolfe, who has been ill for the past week or ten days at her home in Nehawka, is much improved though still not feeling the best as yet. Mrs. Wolfe is able to be up and around but looking rather peaked as yet.

Eugene Nutzman was called to the west last Monday to look after business and went to Burlington and Cheyenne Wells, Colorado, where he had some business matters to look after. He will expect to be away for some ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kettlehut, of Weeping Water, were visiting last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Anderson, where all enjoyed the visit very much. The ladies are sisters which added much to the enjoyment of the visit.

The movie loving people of Nehawka and vicinity were given a rare treat last Sunday and Monday evening, when they had the opportunity presented to them of seeing the great play "Quo Vadis," and all were very pleased who went to the play.

A Tucker and wife were in from the farm last Monday afternoon and had a crate of chickens which they disposed of at good prices, and helped the town as well, as the business done through the business house here. This chicken business is a good paying concern and brings much money into town.

Our old time friends Attorney William DeLes Denier, of Elmwood, was a business visitor in Nehawka last Monday afternoon, coming down to look after some legal matters and returning home on the afternoon train. Attorney DeLes Denier tells of his town of Elmwood enjoying a very fine business at this time.

Uncle Z. W. Shrader and Ben Martin were visiting in Omaha last Tuesday where they went to look over the live stock market with a view of purchasing cattle for feeding purposes and will put them on the farm north of town and when they have made them the very best of all and all that they will return them to the market.

The Boy Scouts of Nehawka are an enterprising bunch of American citizens and rustlers. They took the contract of unloading a car load of sand for A. F. Sturm, the lumberman, and got most of the material off the car when darkness over took them Saturday evening, and they could not see to work any longer, and so the matter had to go over until Monday, the sand was frozen then and Mr. Sturm finished the job on Monday just as the sand thawed out.

Miss Mollie Salement, who has been one of the teachers of the Nehawka schools and who has done much to keep the standard of the resignation last week and which was accepted and Miss Mollie will teach in an institution where there will be probably only one pupil? The position was filled by the election of Miss Evelyn Wulph, who went to work and will look after the instruction in the seventh and eighth grade. Miss Wulph is an excellent instructor and the schools of Nehawka are fortunate in securing such an excellent teacher.

Glen Rutledge, went out one day last week when the snow was the deepest thinking he would get a cotton tail or so for the dinner for surely they must taste very fine this kind of weather. He wandered far and wide, and was about discouraged when he fell in with the Nehawka lumberman, A. F. Sturm, who had also gotten about as much rabbit hunting as he could well use. They consulted and thought it would not be well to return until they could bring something in with them. They came in late with two diminutive cotton tails between them. We would not attempt to guess who was successful in landing them.

Arrive in Florida Safely.

Word has been received from W. S. Steele, who is now making his home in Florida, where he was born, and where he, with the children, drove in their car just recently. In their trip they found the roads and the weather through Iowa and Illinois and a portion of Indiana, wet and bad, but when they had entered Kentucky and were going over the Cumberland mountains they found some excellent weather and fine roads, both of which stayed with them until they had arrived at their destination at De Feniak, Florida. The children describe the scenery as they passed over the mountains as being the most beautiful they had ever seen. The evergreen trees on the mountain and clear balmy air, and one could see over miles of country and beautiful beyond description, and all covered with an abundance of crops, streams and towns.

Returns to Home in the West.

Last Sunday morning, Marion Tucker took Mr. and Mrs. A. E. ### CELEBRATES TENTH BIRTHDAY

From Wednesday's Daily—Yesterday was the tenth birthday anniversary of Donald Stewart son of Sheriff and Mrs. E. P. Stewart, and the occasion was most fittingly observed by the young man at his home last evening and in which he was assisted by some sixteen of the young friends and schoolmates that had been invited by Mrs. Stewart to be present. Mrs. W. G. Kieck and Miss Alice Waters, teachers of the young men were in attendance and added to the enjoyment of the occasion.

The time was spent in playing basketball in the large room on the second floor of the jail building, and which proved a most pleasant diversion to all of the members of the party.

After the fun and frolic the youngsters were invited to the dining room where a most sumptuous repast had been arranged by Mrs. Stewart and who was assisted by Mrs. Golda Noble Heil and Mrs. C. M. Gensers in serving. The dinner consisted of all the good things to tempt the appetite of the young people and featured the birthday cake with its glowing candles and also popcorn and apples served at the close.

DENIAL OF ANY MONOPOLY

Washington, Nov. 2.—The Famous Players-Lasky moving picture corporation today denied the conspiracy and monopoly charges against it which have been pending before the federal trade commission since 1921. In a brief filed with the commission, the corporation declared its organization and development had been but a lawful integration in the motion picture field, not as broad as in the cases of the United States Steel corporation or the Ford Motor company. The brief denies directly some of the evidence taken by examiners for the commission at hearings throughout the country during the past two years and contradicts the conclusions reached by the commission's counsel.

By November 20 counsel for the commission will file a reply, and on November 24 and 25 final arguments will be heard.

ST. PAUL'S EVANGELICAL NOTES

O. G. Wichmann, Pastor
With deep regret the announcement has to be made that Mrs. Graham is unable to receive the auxiliary of the Ladies Aid this time Thursday the 5th of November. We trust the meeting this month can be held at some other place and time.

This coming Saturday, November 7th, the pastor expects to meet his confirmation class the first time at the church, at 10 o'clock a. m.

Democrats are Victors in New York Election

All Candidate on Slate in Greatest City Swept to Victory. James A. Walker Elected Mayor.

New York, Nov. 3.—James J. Walker, the democratic candidate who was sponsored by Governor Al Smith and Tammany Hall, won a smashing victory in the New York City mayoralty elections today.

On the face of incomplete returns Walker was elected by a large majority over the combined vote of all other candidates and by a plurality of more than 400,000 votes over his republican opponent, Frank D. Waterman, the millionaire fountain pen manufacturer. Walker carried every one of the five boroughs in the city.

The election proved such a landslide that at 8:30 tonight Mr. Walker ended his single venture from business life into politics with a telegram to his successful rival conceding defeat and extending congratulations.

It is possible that the final returns will disclose that Walker was elected by a margin greater than Mayor Hylan's record-breaking reelection of 417 thousand in 1921. A plurality of 400 thousand was indicated by the latest returns for 2,880 election districts out of 3,073 in the greater city, which gives the following vote for mayor:

Walker, democrat, 697,496.

Waterman, republican, 319,415.

With Walker there was swept into office the entire democratic city ticket. General Charles W. Berry for city controller and Justice Joseph V. McKee for president of the board of aldermen winning by plurality approximating Walker's. The democrats will have all places in candidates for judges were elected, as were practically all the democratic candidates for borough president.

District Attorney Joab Banton, Whitman, whom the republicans nominated for the office of public prosecutor in which he made the reputation which sent him to the executive mansion in Albany. The Whitman failed to stage a comeback, he returned to Waterman.

One of the few republicans elected is Mrs. John T. Pratt, a "silk stocking" candidate for alderman in the fifteenth Manhattan district adjoining Fifth Avenue.

Mrs. Pratt, daughter-in-law of a Standard Oil magnate, defeated a son of former United States Senator O'Gorman by a plurality of 26 hundred. She will be the first woman to sit in the New York City board of aldermen.

Tammany Hall was jubilant tonight over the election of its inner circle to the offices of mayor for the first time since Robert A. Van Wyck and the formation of the greater city. Of the other democratic mayors elected since the enlargement of the city, Gaynor and McClellan, though a member of Tammany, was of the faction opposed to Boss Murphy.

The fracture has been placed in splints again and which has given some relief but the injured finger has caused a great deal of pain to the entire arm and made it almost impossible for the lady to secure any rest. The finger is still quite stiff and it is a question of whether or not it can ever regain its former condition.
