Former Platts-mouth Lady Answers the Call

Mrs. Susie Keefer Sullivan of Basin, Wyoming, Died at the Hospital at Rochester Minnesota.

From Tuesday's Daily—
The many friends of the Charles Keefer family, one time well known residents here, were shocked yesterday to learn of the death of Mrs. Eugene Sullivan of Basin, Wyoming, who passed away at the hospital at Rochester, Minnesota, a few days ago.

The deceased lady was formerly Miss Susie Keefer and spent her girlhood days in this city where she attended school and will be well remembered by number of the old time friends and school associates. At the time of her death Mrs. Sullivan was aged forty-five years. The Keefer family left here some twenty years ago and moved to Omaha where they spent the remainder of their lives. Mrs. Sullivan was a member of the Methodist church and where Miss Susie married to Mr. Eugene Sullivan, who is now one of the most widely known lawyers of Wyoming and was the republican candidate for governor of Wyoming last fall against Governor Nellie Ross and was defeated by the latter.

Mrs. Sullivan has been in failing health and was finally sent to Rochester where she has been under treatment for some time.

The body was brought to Omaha yesterday and the funeral services will be held there today and the interment made in the cemetery at that place. Mrs. Frank L. Cummins, an old friend of the deceased journeyed to Omaha this afternoon to attend the last sad rites.

Wilbur Anness Hears Last Call at Dunbar Home

Well Known Political Leader of Otoe County and Candidate for Congressional Nomination.

Dunbar, Neb., Nov. 3.—Wilbur W. Anness, former legislator and well known Nebraska statesman, died at his home here Monday night after an illness lasting several months. For the past three or four weeks, Mr. Anness' condition had been critical. Funeral arrangements have not been completed but tentative plans are to hold the services Thursday.

Mr. Anness, for many years a druggist here, was always prominent in civic affairs. He was for many years a member of the town council and in 1911 a member of the state legislature. He was an unsuccessful candidate from the First district on the republican ticket in 1914 for congress running against Frank Reeves. He again entered the lists for congress in 1922 against Walter Anderson but was again defeated.

Mr. Anness was born on a farm near Versailles, Ind., in a log cabin in 1873. He was the son of a soldier of the civil war who for many years practiced medicine at Beaver City and later founded the Beaver City Times. Mr. Anness learned something of the newspaper trade from his father and in early life followed for a time this profession.

Mr. Anness stood high in Masonic circles being a member of the Blue Lodge, Scottish Rite and Shrine.

Besides his wife, Grace, he is survived by two sisters, Mrs. L. R. Simmons of Beaver City and Mrs. W. T. Glen Anness of Lexington, Ky.

LITTLE POLKS ENTERTAINED

From Tuesday's Daily—
The home of Dr. and Mrs. R. P. Westover, on high school hill, was the scene of a very delightful Halloween party on Saturday evening which was arranged by Miss Jessie Robertson, in honor of her little niece, Miss Vesteta Robertson.

The home was arranged in keeping with the Halloween spirit and the many interesting and enjoyable games of childhood were arranged and carried out in a manner that brought a great deal of pleasure to the members of the jolly party of little folks. Fortune telling as well as the usual "stunts" in keeping with the spirit of the occasion were enjoyed to the utmost by the members of the jolly party of little folks.

The members of the party had come masked and in costume and which added to the fun and enjoyment of all of the members of the gathering of youngsters.

At a suitable hour dainty and delicious refreshments were served that added to the completion of the enjoyment of all of the members of the party.

Those who were in attendance were: Jean Caldwell, Jean Hayes, Carlin Thomas, Maxine and Nadine Cloidt, Helen Virginia Price, Madeline Garnett, Helen Hultz, Helen Jane West, Berta Hennessy, Velina Sharp, Virginia Robb, Vivian Moore, Eleanor Steger, Marjorie Arn, Emily Lorenz.

TO A LOVING SON AND BROTHER

Were you born just to wither and die, lovely brother.
Just to live for a day and a night— ah, who knows—
Whence the beautiful soul of you came, whence it goes?
When your life is faded and gone, dear son,
When your work on this earth is done,
Is your beautiful, benevolent life, over, complete?
Or as you lie there alone, in the sod
Your body to crumble and mix with the clod,
Does your soul in its spirit go back up to God.
—Your Loved Ones.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our deepest thanks and appreciation for the great kindness, sympathy and assistance shown us, by our kind friends and neighbors, during the long illness and death of our beloved son and brother.

We wish also to thank the faithful sisters and nurses of the St. Catherine hospital for their trustworthy kindness and constant services, shown our beloved one, during his last few days of suffering.

Also we wish to thank everyone for the beautiful floral tributes sent—Mr. and Mrs. Christ Bell, and family.

WOMAN'S CLUB HOLD MEETING

From Tuesday's Daily—
The Platts-mouth Woman's club enjoyed a very fine session last evening at the auditorium of the public library that was one of the most interesting and pleasant that the club has enjoyed in many months.

The topic of the evening was that of "Peace Through Understanding" and was under the leadership of Mrs. H. C. Leopold, who had been most fortunate in securing as the speaker of the evening Attorney J. A. Capwell, well known member of the bar and student of world affairs. Mr. Capwell's address was one that was fully appreciated by the ladies of the organization and gave them some very clear insights into the cause of universal peace which is now one of the most absorbing problems of the whole world.

Mrs. James T. Begley also gave a very pleasing vocal solo, "O God Give Us Peace," that was very beautifully given and enjoyed by all of the members of the club.

There were also a large number out to take part in the choral work which is one of the features of the year's work in the club circles.

After the close of the program there were the reports of the state federation meeting at Scottsbluffs, given by the delegates that showed that the local ladies who were in attendance at the state meeting had certainly been on the job and taken in every detail of the state meeting.

MAKING VOLUNTARY DONATIONS

From Monday's Daily—
There are many donations being received by the committee in charge of the American Legion-Elks carnival which represent the voluntary acts of the business men in assisting in the good work that the committee is seeking in the securing of funds for the Legion community building project. The local merchants have not been solicited also a number of the wholesale houses have responded to the notices of the forthcoming carnival with very substantial donations. The local people who have made donations are as follows:
Nebraska Gas & Electric Co., $100 Hurley Electric Washer, Tidball Lumber Co., half ton of coal, C. E. Hartford, half ton of coal, Bestor & Swatek, Crossley Pup set, George Conis, four boxes of cigars, Royal Cafe, $2 in trade, First National bank, $10 saving account, Farmers State bank, $10 savings account, Fred Lugsch, $5 in trade.

VERY DELIGHTFUL PARTY

From Tuesday's Daily—
Yesterday afternoon the first of a series of "Entertainment Week" given by the ladies of the St. Mary's guild of the St. Luke's church was held at the home of Mrs. R. W. Clement on Granite street, Mrs. Clement and Mrs. C. A. Rosencrans entertaining jointly in the afternoon of cards.

The diversion of the afternoon was bridge and there were seven tables of this very pleasing card game enjoyed by the ladies and in which the first prize was won by Mrs. Frank Bestor, the second prize by Mrs. Fred Lugsch and the consolation prize by Miss May Murphy.

The occasion was one of the rarest enjoyment and a very pleasing number of the ladies of the city were present to take part in the enjoyable event that had been arranged by the hostesses for their entertainment.

At a suitable hour dainty refreshments were served that added to the pleasures of the occasion and completed the afternoon of real enjoyment.

The various members of the guild will hold some social gathering each evening of the week during the Entertainment week.

TEAM WORK WHAT HELPS

That support of home institutions is vital to the persons who draw their support from the community is shown by an incident that occurred a short time ago in one of the local stores. One of the men employed here in the Burlington shops had called at one of the local stores and inquired as to the price of a sack of sugar of the local dealer. He was told the price and at once informed the dealer that he could buy the same quality of sugar in Omaha cheaper. The man left the store and returned a few days later with a bill showing the purchase of the sugar and it was 25¢ less than that which had been quoted by the local dealer. The business man then showed to the man the fact that he purchased the sugar from the wholesaler and had it shipped here by freight as a good supporter of home institutions should, and which added to the price of the sugar in Omaha made the difference of the price between this place and Omaha, by reason of the freight charges. The business man stated that his twenty-five cents had gone to help the railroads and they in turn had had that much more revenue with which to pay the wages of the man in the shops. Money spent at home is always working, it has no idle moments as it is spent by the citizens at the store for goods and by the merchant in his salaries and expenses, a part of which includes freight that helps the railroads and thereby returns again to the man that first made the purchase, in the form of wages paid the worker.

Support of home institutions by shop men, the citizens in general and the business man is the only way to build a real town. A dollar sent away from home is one that is gone from local circles but spent in home institutions it is always working. This applies to every class of business and industry.
