

Nehawka Department!

Prepared in the interests of the People of Nehawka and Surrounding Vicinity Especially for the Journal Readers.

Mrs. James Stone has been suffering quite severely with an attack of appendicitis.

Gust Hanson and wife were visiting in Lincoln on last Monday, they driving over in the car for the day.

Frank P. Sheldon loaded two more rolls of cribbing in his truck, taking them to the farm where more crib room is needed.

George Pollard was a visitor for a few hours in Union last Monday where he was looking after some business matters.

The young people of Nehawka enjoyed a dance which they gave at the auditorium one day during the fore part of the week.

Uncle George Tate, who returned home last week from the hospital at Omaha is showing some marked improvement, and it is hoped that he will soon be well again.

On last Monday J. W. Magney was a visitor in Nebraska City, driving down in his car and was accompanied by Mrs. Magney, Mesdames Glen Rutledge and Edna Tucker.

James Palmer is filling his crib with ear corn as it brought in by those who are wanting to sell a small amount to get more crib room or ready money and do not care to shell.

Mrs. W. O. Troop was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Sunday evening where she enjoyed hearing her son deliver the address of Paul before King Agrippa, as in the Bible lesson of last Sunday.

Verner Lundberg, the postmaster and Ernest Kropp, the deputy were visiting last Sunday evening in Lincoln where they were called to secure some necessary repairs for the auto of Mr. Lundberg.

The ladies of the M. E. church will hold a bake sale this Saturday at the auditorium and at which they will endeavor to show all a good time and furnish some good things to eat, better keep the date in mind.

Hal Hanson, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hanson, has been having some stomach trouble which has kept the little fellow uneasy for some time, he however is showing good improvement at this time.

Father George Donald Pierce, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Nehawka last Sunday and conducted services at the auditorium, having already a large and interested congregation.

C. D. St. John and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Nitzman were in attendance at the Shriners banquet at Lincoln last Friday where they drove in the car of Mr. Nitzman and where they enjoyed the occasion very much.

Earl Opp has been hustling in picking corn but has not been feeling very well as he has been encumbered with some grip and a very bad cold, which he has been trying to wear out, and is just about making it.

William Brandt, who has been rustling at the picking of corn, has it all done now and the work is now one step nearer ready for winter than formerly. However, we do not any of us entirely get ready for winter at any time.

Last Sunday evening at the Methodist church in Plattsmouth Earl Troop, who is a very clever speaker gave at the evening meeting of the Epworth League the address of Paul before Agrippa which was listened to with much interest by the congregation present.

On last Monday W. S. Norris and W. H. Kruger were attending a fine bred cow sale which was held south of Lincoln, they both desiring to secure a new cow and they were needed more of this kind of stock. They drove over to the sale in the car of Mr. Norris.

Dan Anderson was shelling and binning the corn at the farm last Monday, as thereby he could store it in less space than otherwise, and as there was a scarcity of space this year for holding corn this will allow him to go along with the work of getting the balance in the cribs.

Marion M. Tucker and Walter J. Wunderlich, who were at Fort Crook some weeks since, where they were in training as a portion of the reserve officers of the United States army, have been appointed as members of the regular army and are required to serve for a few weeks each year.

The little two-year-old son of Mrs. Carrien Bashford, who is visiting at the home of her brother, Mr. Harold Kimlon, from her home at Breckridge, Mo., is quite ill, having an attack of infantile paralysis and she with the little son was in Omaha one day last week to consult a specialist regarding the malady.

where she enjoyed hearing her son deliver the address of Paul before King Agrippa, as in the Bible lesson of last Sunday.

Verner Lundberg, the postmaster and Ernest Kropp, the deputy were visiting last Sunday evening in Lincoln where they were called to secure some necessary repairs for the auto of Mr. Lundberg.

The ladies of the M. E. church will hold a bake sale this Saturday at the auditorium and at which they will endeavor to show all a good time and furnish some good things to eat, better keep the date in mind.

Hal Hanson, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hanson, has been having some stomach trouble which has kept the little fellow uneasy for some time, he however is showing good improvement at this time.

Father George Donald Pierce, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Nehawka last Sunday and conducted services at the auditorium, having already a large and interested congregation.

C. D. St. John and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Nitzman were in attendance at the Shriners banquet at Lincoln last Friday where they drove in the car of Mr. Nitzman and where they enjoyed the occasion very much.

Earl Opp has been hustling in picking corn but has not been feeling very well as he has been encumbered with some grip and a very bad cold, which he has been trying to wear out, and is just about making it.

William Brandt, who has been rustling at the picking of corn, has it all done now and the work is now one step nearer ready for winter than formerly. However, we do not any of us entirely get ready for winter at any time.

Last Sunday evening at the Methodist church in Plattsmouth Earl Troop, who is a very clever speaker gave at the evening meeting of the Epworth League the address of Paul before Agrippa which was listened to with much interest by the congregation present.

On last Monday W. S. Norris and W. H. Kruger were attending a fine bred cow sale which was held south of Lincoln, they both desiring to secure a new cow and they were needed more of this kind of stock. They drove over to the sale in the car of Mr. Norris.

Dan Anderson was shelling and binning the corn at the farm last Monday, as thereby he could store it in less space than otherwise, and as there was a scarcity of space this year for holding corn this will allow him to go along with the work of getting the balance in the cribs.

Marion M. Tucker and Walter J. Wunderlich, who were at Fort Crook some weeks since, where they were in training as a portion of the reserve officers of the United States army, have been appointed as members of the regular army and are required to serve for a few weeks each year.

The little two-year-old son of Mrs. Carrien Bashford, who is visiting at the home of her brother, Mr. Harold Kimlon, from her home at Breckridge, Mo., is quite ill, having an attack of infantile paralysis and she with the little son was in Omaha one day last week to consult a specialist regarding the malady.

where she enjoyed hearing her son deliver the address of Paul before King Agrippa, as in the Bible lesson of last Sunday.

Verner Lundberg, the postmaster and Ernest Kropp, the deputy were visiting last Sunday evening in Lincoln where they were called to secure some necessary repairs for the auto of Mr. Lundberg.

The ladies of the M. E. church will hold a bake sale this Saturday at the auditorium and at which they will endeavor to show all a good time and furnish some good things to eat, better keep the date in mind.

Hal Hanson, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hanson, has been having some stomach trouble which has kept the little fellow uneasy for some time, he however is showing good improvement at this time.

Father George Donald Pierce, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Nehawka last Sunday and conducted services at the auditorium, having already a large and interested congregation.

C. D. St. John and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Nitzman were in attendance at the Shriners banquet at Lincoln last Friday where they drove in the car of Mr. Nitzman and where they enjoyed the occasion very much.

Earl Opp has been hustling in picking corn but has not been feeling very well as he has been encumbered with some grip and a very bad cold, which he has been trying to wear out, and is just about making it.

William Brandt, who has been rustling at the picking of corn, has it all done now and the work is now one step nearer ready for winter than formerly. However, we do not any of us entirely get ready for winter at any time.

Last Sunday evening at the Methodist church in Plattsmouth Earl Troop, who is a very clever speaker gave at the evening meeting of the Epworth League the address of Paul before Agrippa which was listened to with much interest by the congregation present.

On last Monday W. S. Norris and W. H. Kruger were attending a fine bred cow sale which was held south of Lincoln, they both desiring to secure a new cow and they were needed more of this kind of stock. They drove over to the sale in the car of Mr. Norris.

Dan Anderson was shelling and binning the corn at the farm last Monday, as thereby he could store it in less space than otherwise, and as there was a scarcity of space this year for holding corn this will allow him to go along with the work of getting the balance in the cribs.

Marion M. Tucker and Walter J. Wunderlich, who were at Fort Crook some weeks since, where they were in training as a portion of the reserve officers of the United States army, have been appointed as members of the regular army and are required to serve for a few weeks each year.

The little two-year-old son of Mrs. Carrien Bashford, who is visiting at the home of her brother, Mr. Harold Kimlon, from her home at Breckridge, Mo., is quite ill, having an attack of infantile paralysis and she with the little son was in Omaha one day last week to consult a specialist regarding the malady.

where she enjoyed hearing her son deliver the address of Paul before King Agrippa, as in the Bible lesson of last Sunday.

Verner Lundberg, the postmaster and Ernest Kropp, the deputy were visiting last Sunday evening in Lincoln where they were called to secure some necessary repairs for the auto of Mr. Lundberg.

The ladies of the M. E. church will hold a bake sale this Saturday at the auditorium and at which they will endeavor to show all a good time and furnish some good things to eat, better keep the date in mind.

Hal Hanson, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hanson, has been having some stomach trouble which has kept the little fellow uneasy for some time, he however is showing good improvement at this time.

Father George Donald Pierce, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Nehawka last Sunday and conducted services at the auditorium, having already a large and interested congregation.

LOCAL NEWS

Dr. H. C. Leopold, Osteopathic physician and surgeon, phone 208. 17-tta

Dr. Heineman, Dentist, Hotel Main Bldg., Phone 527.

From Monday's Daily—
W. G. Boedeker, wife and family were here yesterday from Murray as dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Hiatt.

H. R. Schmidt of Murdock, was among the visitors in the city today where he was attending the Thimman trial in the district court.

Attorney C. E. Tefft of Weeping Water, was here today for a few hours attending to some matters of business and visiting with his friends in this city.

H. A. Guthmann and Henry A. Toof of the Bank of Murdock and J. E. McHugh, well known business men of that city, were here today to attend the hearing in the Thimman estate matter.

W. P. Sitzman, wife and daughters were guests yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Bell, south of this city, and report these estimable people as being in the best of shape and doing nicely.

From Tuesday's Daily—
Mrs. Caroline Propst returned this morning to Omaha after a visit here over Sunday with her parents and friends.

G. W. Peterson of Eagle, justice of peace of that locality, was here today as a witness in the Kettlehut case in the district court.

Adam Melsinger and son, Arthur, motored in this morning from Cedar Creek to look after some matters of business here for a few hours.

W. T. Sacks and wife of Eagle were here today attending to the Kettlehut case in the district court in which they were interested.

Henry Snoko, one of the well known residents of Tipton precinct, was here today to attend the hearing of the Kettlehut case in the district court.

O. A. Davis, well known resident of Murray, was in this city today for a short time attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends.

Attorney C. E. Tefft and J. M. Teegarden, the Weeping Water real estate man, were here attending to some matters at the court house for a few hours.

El Keckler and Earnest Mann of near Manly were here today attending to some matters at the court house with the board of county commissioners.

C. W. Fleishman and Henry Sturm of Nehawka were here today for a few hours attending to some matters of business at the court house and visiting with friends.

J. H. Tams, former superintendent of the Case county farm, with Henry Jess, motored down this morning from Omaha to spend a few hours visiting with the old time friends.

W. J. Philpot, one of the leading residents of the vicinity of Weeping Water, was here today for a few hours and while in the city was a pleasant caller at the Journal office.

W. F. Diers, Fred Ossenkop, J. A. Nelson and L. J. Mayfield of Louisville were here today looking after some matters of business at the court house with the board of county commissioners.

Fred S. Vallery, wife and little daughter, who have been visiting here from Sterling, Colorado, for the past week, departed this morning for their home in the west, spending the day in Omaha and leaving this evening for Sterling.

T. R. P. Stocker, well known Lincoln attorney and his mother, Mrs. Thomas Stocker, were here today from Lincoln to attend to some matters of business and visiting with friends, Mr. Stocker being one of the attorneys in the Kettlehut estate hearing.

From Wednesday's Daily—
Merle V. Lanning of Eagle was in here city today for a short time looking after some matters in the district court.

E. C. Oberle of Eagle was in the city today and had his subscription to the weekly edition of the Journal advanced for another year.

Mrs. Harry Long was among those going to Omaha this morning to spend the day in that city attending to some matters of business.

George Ritter, one of the well known residents of Eagle was here today for a short time attending to some matters at the court house.

Albert Shellhorn of Louisville, was here today for a few hours attending to some matters of business and bringing in a load of chickens. A Vilas Kettlehut of near Nehawka, was among the visitors in the city today, attending the trial of the Kettlehut case in the district court.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kettlehut of near Weeping Water was here today for a few hours looking after some matters of business and visiting with friends.

Mrs. Robert Troop and sister, Mrs. M. A. Leist were among those going to Omaha this morning where they will spend the day there with friends.

Mrs. Martha Aherns of near Nehawka was here today for a few hours attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends in this city.

G. W. DeWolf and wife of Gibson, Nebraska are here on their visit at the home of their son, Superintendent G. E. DeWolf and family in this city.

Oscar Hatelife of near Nehawka, was among the visitors in the city today for a few hours enjoying a visit with friends and taking in the points of interest in the city.

E. J. Dempster of Geneva was here today for a short time attending to some matters in the district court.

From Thursday's Daily—
The first Sunday in December, set aside by the Benevolent, Protective Order of Elks as the day on the order pays tribute to the departed brothers, will be fittingly observed here in this city by Plattsmouth lodge No. 739.

The services will be held at the lodge rooms in the Elks' club house on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 and the public is invited to be present and participate in the tributes to the members of the order who have gone on before.

In the membership of the local lodge, one member, Clarence L. Beal, has, in the past, year answered the last summons to the everlasting rest.

The program for the services will be as follows:
Piano solo "The Lark"
Initial Service
Lodge Officers
Invocation
Chaplain
"One Sweetly Solemn Thought"
Song
Masonic Quartet
Roll Call of the Departed Brothers
Secretary
Tokens of Remembrance at the Altar
Song "The Singing in God's Acre"
Mrs. E. H. Westcott.
Address
Lloyd E. Peterson, Nebraska City
Song "The Silent Voice"
Mrs. James T. Begley
Closing Services
Benediction
Chaplain

See Tidball's bargain in Coal for Bargain day, Wednesday, Dec. 9th.

Newspaper advertising pays!

The Early Christmas Shopper -

WILL BE ABLE TO SAVE BIG MONEY ON Christmas Dolls!

this year, as we have decided to close out this entire line of our stock at just one-half price, which means fully 20 per cent below the first cost of the goods. Our line is principally the famous Madam Herdern mamma doll, the very best on the market, but we are going to quit handling the doll line this year, and want to clean them all up. You will find in our line dolls from—all marked in plain figures, and will go at just ONE-HALF of this price. You will find them on display now at the Bates Book Store Annex, a new gift department room that we have just opened where our Art department is now located. You will also find our other toy lines in this room.

25c to $7.50

Shop Early, Save Money and Avoid the Rush

Our entire store room is now filled with a greater line of gift goods than ever before.

Remember we carry the only line of Christmas Cards, Dennison Seals and Stickers, Crepe Paper and Candy Boxes.

TREE DRESSINGS and ARTIFICIAL XMAS TREES

Bates Book and Stationery Store

5th and Main Streets Plattsmouth, Nebraska

CASH GROCERY

Cream Station

Try us with your next bill. Our motto "Best of Service"

Bert Willis

Sulphen's Old Stand

Nehawka, Nebr.

HERE ARE YOUR Hog Supplies

OIL MEAL

Buttermilk Powder — One pound for eight gallons of swill.

We carry Tankage, Shorts and Bran. Any quantity up to a car load.

See us for best prices, or phone us.

C. D. St. John

Nehawka - Nebraska

Receives a Broken Arm.

Last week while returning from Omaha Clarence Fleischman and W. A. Hicks stopped at Plattsmouth to have some work done on their car and among which was the placing of a new loom on the timer, the workman who did the work, failed to place the connection rod between the timer and the steering column and when Mr. Hicks tried to crank the car it backfired and broke his arm. The break is in his right wrist and he is getting along in fine shape at this time.

Serious Auto Accident Near Eagle Sunday

Mrs. S. W. Bream of Near Unadilla In Serious Condition at Hospital in Lincoln As the Result.

The toll of the Sunday auto accidents yesterday numbered one in the vicinity of Eagle when the car of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Bream collided with one of Frank Lanning of Eagle at the crossing, a mile south of Eagle.

The reports of the particulars of the accident received here are very slight and failed to give the details of the crash that resulted so seriously for the Bream party. The accident occurred early Sunday morning and the injured members of the party were hurried on into Lincoln for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Bream were taken to the Lincoln sanitarium by ambulance from the scene of the accident and the condition of Mrs. Bream was not fully determined as she was unconscious at the time and at the latest reports early this morning had failed to regain consciousness.

Mr. Bream was cut and scratched about the head and otherwise bruised but was not thought to be in serious condition.

DIES FOLLOWING AMPUTATION

Fred W. Race passed away Saturday evening in a Los Angeles hospital, following the amputation of his left leg that day.

Two weeks ago, while walking in a park in that city, he was struck by a falling tree, and the bones in his left leg badly crushed. The tree was a big eucalyptus.

Mr. Race formerly lived here, but has made his home in Los Angeles for the past three years. He was about 74 years of age. His wife Mrs. Eliza Race is the only daughter of Mr. E. Ratnour of Weeping Water. Funeral services were held on Monday.—Weeping Water Republican.

CHRISTMAS CARDS

You will find the big line of Christmas Cards this season at the Bates Book and Stationery Store, where you have bought for many years, and the line is bigger this year than ever. If you want your name engraved thereon let us have your order now, so we will be able to get them back for you on time. We have an exceptionally fine line this year to select from, but please let us have your order early as possible.

Santa Claus' Toy Headquarters!

A wonderful array of attractive Toys, that will delight the children on Christmas morning.

We have all sorts of suggestions in our store — things for every member of the family, appropriate remembrances that bear out the spirit of the yuletide.

Do Your Christmas Shopping Early!

F. P. SHELDON

Where Customers Feel at Home

Telephone No. 14 Nehawka, Nebr.

ESTABLISHED 1888

HOLIDAY NOTE IN DECORATIONS

The near approach of the Christmas season is to be seen in the windows at the store of the H. M. Soenichsen Co. on upper Main street where the clever and efficient window decorators have interwoven into display of the large lines of goods the touch of the holiday season in the bright red and green that colors the holiday season with its beauty. The windows are arranged with a fine array of staple articles of the various departments and certainly make a very fine attractive appearance especially in the evening when they are lighted up and add to the beauty of the Main street where there the so many other fine and well arranged show windows.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in a "run-down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that when Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions.

BOY SCOUTS MEET

Last evening the members of the Boy Scouts troops of this city held a very interesting session at the high school and in which they carried out their investiture services in a very impressive manner.

Ira Mumm was selected as patrol leader of a part of troop one and Warren Taylor advanced from second to first class scout at the meeting.

There were also seven of the boys received into the tenderfoot class and will be an active part of the scout movement in this city.

ITALIAN DEBT FUNDS IS GIVEN AN IMPETUS

San Francisco, Dec. 3.—The fund which the Italian colony here is raising to aid in the payment of the first installment of Italy's war debt to the United States was given an impetus today with a contribution of one million lire, amounting more than 40 thousand dollars by A. P. Giannini president of the Bank of Italy.

Read the Journal for all the news.

Chevrolet Cars!

Over 2,000,000 in Use!

We have just unloaded two car loads of Coupes and Sedans on our floor for inspection. Come see them. We will be pleased to give you a demonstration any old time.

Also a number of used cars — some good bargains in 1924 and 1925 Fords.

—PHONE 255—

J. B. LIVINGSTON,

Opposite Court House, Plattsmouth, Neb.