

Alvo Department

Peter Friend and Charles Haretle were shipping some hogs to the South. John B. Skinner had a load of hogs at the South Omaha market last Thursday for Jesse and Samuel Hard-neck.

Floyd Dickerson was a visitor in Omaha last Thursday where he was looking after some business matters for the day and making purchases for the store.

Mrs. Ivan Clites of Fremont, a daughter of Mrs. Mary Skinner, has been the guest at the home of her mother for a number of days during the past week.

Mrs. Mary Skinner, who has been quite poorly from an attack of the grippe during the past week is reported as being about recovered from the malady and is feeling quite a bit better.

J. W. Ranning and wife were visiting and looking after some business matters in Lincoln last Friday. They drove over to the capital city in their car to look after some Christmas shopping.

Orris Foreman, who is the new manager for the Lee Hill elevator has been doing a nice business with the reception of corn and the handling of the same, having shipped four cars during the past week.

The junior class of the Alvo high school enjoyed a sleigh ride on last Thursday evening and while they thought there might be an other opportunity to get at the sleighing, they would take no chance as the return of summer weather might come any day.

Mrs. Arthur Dinges and the general husband were enjoying the visit of the parents and a sister of Mrs. Dinges, Mr. and Mrs. George Bray and Miss Venice. The day was most pleasantly spent by both the guests and the host and hostess.

Philip Coatman was a visitor at Weeping Water last Thursday where he went to install a super-hydrolyne radio for G. L. Henneger, which was sold by the Coatman Hardware Co. last week. Philip has had enough experience with the radio business that he is able to do expert work in the installation.

Mrs. John Murtey entertained the Queen Esther society of the Methodist church at her home last Saturday and at which time there were some twenty-six present and a most enjoyable time was had. They did some excellent work for the church as well as enjoying the evening. Mrs. Murtey served a delightful luncheon to the young folks.

The Missionary society of the Methodist church met last Wednesday with Mrs. John Murtey, when they were entertained and where they both enjoyed a social session and at the same time looked after the business which was a portion of the causes which called them together. Mrs. Murtey, who is a wonderful entertainer served a delightful luncheon at the close of the meeting.

They do say that Art Roelofsz and Westley Vincent do not pose as being experts but that they can, when the sun is shining good and bright during the day, tell the difference between a duck and a goose, but when it is dark at night and even when there is a moon and some flimsy clouds to obscure the light they are not always certain, and especially unless they have the initial of some dealer in poultry stamped on each wing.

A number of the young people of Alvo made good use of the small snow which came during the past week and were out sleigh riding during the evening last Wednesday and after having enjoyed the exhilarating experience for some time they stopped at the home of Charles Foreman where they enjoyed an oyster supper and spent the remainder of the evening in playing games and when they finally reached home all voted that they had had an excellent evening.

Corn Marketing Now Heavy.

The marketing of the present corn crop is coming pretty rapidly at the present time. During the past month Simon Rhemeyer has shipped 18 cars up to last Thursday and was then receiving corn so rapidly that he was not able to go to his dinner, being busy from dawn to dark. Lee Snaeveley, Carl and Glen Lewis, W. W. Coatman, Loren Peterson, John Sutton, Earl Dreamer, Jack Morris, William Hoffman, James Weaver, John Nickel, were delivering corn recently.

TRUCK SMASHES INTO CAR

The Cass county court house came near having two of the well known and popular officials missing from that temple of justice this morning as the result of an auto accident that occurred Saturday evening on the K. T. highway just a short distance north of the Nebraska Masonic Home and which fortunately did not result in the injury of anyone but did considerable damage to the car of County Judge, Duxbury. Judge Duxbury and County Attorney W. G. Kieck were returning home from Omaha at the time of the accident, but we wish to correct any hasty conclusions that might be arrived at by the reader on account of the Judge and Bill having the accident while spinning homeward from the metropolis, as the officials did not even stop in South Omaha and also Mrs. Duxbury and Mrs. Kieck were also in the party.

The car of Judge Duxbury was descending the hill north of the Masonic Home as a large truck belonging to the Higgins Transfer Co. of Nebraska City was coming north along the highway and in the slippery condition of the road the driver was having a hard time to control the truck and for a time it seemed that the truck would crash head-on into the car of the Judge, but the driver managed to head the truck into a small bank to avoid hitting the car while the judge stopped his car over on the right hand side of the road, hoping that the truck could slip by, but as the head of the car swung into the bank the rear portion of the truck skidded across the road and struck the Duxbury car, knocking off the motorometer and badly damaging the car and by a narrow margin of inches just escaped tearing the top off the car and badly injuring all of the party.

It was a very close shave for all of the occupants of the car from serious injury and they were all more or less shocked by the closeness of the call from the serious accident.

A GREAT CHRISTMAS GIFT

Last Friday Mesdames S. Ray Smith, A. R. Dowler and Mathew Wagner, all of Weeping Water, and Mrs. Ray Dennis of Omaha, were guests of their friend, Mrs. Herman Rauth, where all enjoyed the occasion very much.

John C. Rauth suffered the loss of a very ne two year old bull, which he found dead in the field, as to the exact cause of the animals death he is uncertain but thinks it was caused by corn stalk disease.

During the past week there have been a goodly number of people who have shelled and delivered corn at Manley, among whom are Walter Mockenhaupt, John Gruber, James O'Leary, Charles and John Murphy. At this time the Farmers' elevator is filled and Mr. Brann had to stop the shellers until he could get cars for the grain to be shipped in.

There has been no lack of entertainment in Manley during the past week and the medicine show which ran every night drew large crowds who were sure amused and entertained by the excellent shows which were put on.

CHRISTMAS AT ST. JOHN'S SCHOOL

From Saturday's Daily— Yesterday afternoon on the occasion of the closing of school for the Christmas holidays the children at the St. John's school enjoyed a very pleasant treat and program at the school building on North 6th street. The occasion was one that gladdened the hearts of the little folks and a very interesting contribution to the afternoon was given by the little folks themselves in a short program of Christmas songs and recitations that were all very cleverly given by the young people.

The Christmas treat arranged for the event was one that was enjoyed to the fullest extent by the children. A fine Christmas tree, its decorations and candy and nuts had been presented by Mrs. E. J. Richey to the school while Miss Elizabeth Bergmann gave the delicious pop corn balls that were a feature of the treat.

Each of the children received a gift and Santa Claus, who had charge of the distribution of the gifts also found remembrances for Monsignor Shine, rector of the St. John's church, and the teachers who have been so faithful in their work in the school.

LITTLE DAUGHTER ARRIVES

The farm home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Nave west of this city was made very happy on Tuesday by the arrival of a fine little daughter that has come to make her home with them. The occasion has been a most pleasant one for the members of the family circle and all parties are reported as doing nicely over the happy event. The friends of the family are joining in their well wishes over the happy event.
