

Nehawka Department!

Prepared in the Interests of the People of Nehawka and Surrounding Vicinity Especially for the Journal Readers.

Frank Schlitchmeier was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Saturday where he was looking after some matters of business.

Marion Tucker was called to Omaha last Sunday evening to identify some goods which had been stolen and were found hidden there.

Miss Lelia Goodhue of Stella has accepted a position with the Sheldon stores and it working at this time with them, as saleslady in the dry goods department.

Mr. Stewart Rough, manager of the Farmers Elevator reports that the movement of grain has been good in the recent past notwithstanding the not very good roads. They shipped four cars of corn last week to the market.

Miller and Gruber were over near Cedar Creek last Sunday with a vault for the burial of Miss Mary Kehne who had died a few days before at a hospital in Lincoln. They report the roads and weather very bad and the trip a difficult one.

Fred Nutzman who has been so ill at his home for many weeks is at this time reported as being much improved and is now on the road to recovery a fact that he highly appreciates and which his many friends are glad to hear of.

Clara Ahrens was a visitor at the home of her parents for over Sunday and returned to the farm near Mynard on Monday afternoon Fred driving down for her and also visiting for a short time as well as looking after some business.

C. W. Stone and Edward Woods have been working in the timber and getting out wood for the summer, they cutting and sawing wood making it ready for use, these days when there is little else to do. They are both hustlers and if the winter is long enough they will have enough wood to last over the summer.

Many of the people of Nehawka who have not as yet harvested their ice crop are feeling as though they will have to go short this time as the second crop has been washed out of the creek and they fear notwithstanding the ground hog they will not have enough cold weather yet this season to freeze more ice. We think their fears are groundless, but still they may be iceless.

Frank P. Sheldon and Marion Tucker were in Plattsmouth last Sunday where they were to identify goods found which it is certain was stolen from the store of Mr. Sheldon, some of which was identified and other was of a nature which showed that they were of a line carried by this store and that had been stolen, but could not be identified as the real goods which they had lost.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Yeiser of Omaha who have with their mother been visiting at the home of A. F. Sturm, have been quite ill for some time, and the sickness has been of a nature bordering on pneumonia, and a nurse has been maintained during the illness. Their conditions are now such as to justify the non use of the nurse, and they are showing much improvement which is a joy to the home. The nurse, Miss Helen Muir departed on last Monday for her home in Omaha.

The Modern Woodmen of America, lodge of Nehawka on last Friday evening at their meeting place in the auditorium, gave an entertainment, a social evening and a magnificent feed to their wives and sweethearts, and which was well attended and most thoroughly enjoyed by all in attendance. When it comes to putting up the eats and a worth while program, the lodge members of the M. W. A. of Nehawka is there with the goods and then some. One thing which added much to the occasion was the way in which Morris Pollard did the cooking and serving of the oysters.

A Clever Writer. Justin Sturm of Chicago, a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Sturm of Nehawka, and former Nehawka boy, is now a novelist. He recently completed his first book and it has received the stamp of approval of the leading critics in America. The novel which is estimated by the publishers to make at least four hundred pages will be known as "The Bad Samaritan." It is a western story and much of the book is said to dwell upon the state of his pride, Nebraska. The story has received the highest approval by Harper Bros., of New York City, the leading critics on this line, and one of the best known publishing houses of the United States. Besides Harper Bros., others who are authority on writings, have given Mr. Sturm much praise and a great deal of encouragement on his accomplishment.

The book is now being made ready for print and will be published in a short time. It will be for sale thru out the country in August or September, according to Harper Bros., who will publish it.

Justin has been in the contracting business in Chicago for some time and the book was written at working hours and during the time he was composing it, worked until the early hours of the morning.

His Nehawka friends and acquaintances, of whom he has many, are joyous in learning of his success as a writer and will patiently await until they may purchase a copy of his work.—Nehawka Enterprise.

ENJOY FINE MEETING

From Wednesday's Daily— Last evening despite the unpleasant weather conditions that were prevailing the members of the Plattsmouth Professional and Business Women's club, gathered at the home of Miss Matilda Soennichsen in the north part of the city to enjoy a fine business and social meeting. The first part of the evening was devoted to the study of the parliamentary law and its procedures, one of the course of which the ladies of the club are now engaged. The members of the party also enjoyed a very fine time in the singing of the songs of the present and the past and which afforded a great deal of pleasure. Miss Marie Kaufmann, president of the local club gave a very interesting account of the state convention of the clubs held in Lincoln the past week and which had been very largely attended. At a suitable hour Miss Soennichsen served dainty refreshments that were very much enjoyed by all of the party.

SUFFERS LOSS OF CAR

From Wednesday's Daily— Philip Albert was unfortunate yesterday in having his auto destroyed by fire at Omaha where it was being repaired. Mr. Albert had the car recently repaired it is stated but on his trip to Omaha yesterday morning the car became balky and it made the trip one of greatest difficulty. On reaching the city Mr. Albert placed the car in a garage to be worked over and in some way, it is thought from the wiring, the car suddenly burst into flames and was soon burned up before the flames could be extinguished.

Pleasing Farewell for Stark-john Family

Residents of West of the City Join in Gathering at the G. W. Godman Home.

The forthcoming departure of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Starkjohn from their farm home west of the city of Plattsmouth has been the occasion of a great deal of regret to their neighbors and friends there and they have been made the guests of honor at a number of very pleasant social events in the past few weeks.

The latest of these was the surprise given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Goodman west of this city, on Friday evening when the neighbors came in and gave the Starkjohn family a real surprise. Mr. and Mrs. Goodman had invited the Starkjohn family to their home for supper and after the close of the feast the friends arrived to join in the good time that followed.

The forepart of the evening was spent in games and questions and answers that gave a great deal of pleasure to the members of the party and they enjoyed the reading of the Mercersville Journal, a special edition of this neighborhood news sheet having been prepared by Martin Nelson. Mrs. Henry Starkjohn, who has been the active editor of the previous editions, is reported as not having the extra with favor but the members of the party enjoyed the various matters in great shape and it produced a great deal of delight as the items were read.

At a suitable hour at the close of the evening Mrs. Goodman served a very delicious oyster supper that was very much appreciated by all of the party. Those in attendance were: Messrs and Mesdames Henry Nolting, Elmer Tritsch, Q. K. Parmele, Martin Nelson, Ray Patton and son, Robert W. V. Weber and son, Billie Oliver Harvey and children, Charles and Phyllis, George W. Goodman, Henry Starkjohn and son, William, Mr. Ed Todd and son, Albert, C. A. Harvey.

TO BE SCOUT EXECUTIVE

The Plattsmouth friends of C. H. Peden, formerly teacher in the local high school, will be interested in learning that Mr. Peden is to return to the west to make his home and will be located at Sheridan, Wyoming, where he will serve as boy scout executive at that place.

Mr. Peden has arrived at his home at Dawson, Nebraska, after taking a special course in scout executive work at Columbia university since last June and which has fitted him for this line of work in splendid shape and will make him a real valuable man in any of the scout work that he may be assigned to. He has been selected as scoutmaster at the Sheridan district of the scouts.

During his stay here Mr. Peden was scoutmaster of the local scout troops and made a very fine record in that line of work, securing some splendid results in the development of the boys and their general lines of work.

Passing of J. L. Breckenridge Last Week

Funeral Services Held in Weeping Water and Conducted by Revs. W. A. Taylor and Crouse.

The funeral services of the late James Lytle Breckenridge were held on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Christian church at Weeping Water and were conducted by the Rev. William A. Taylor of Union, who was assisted in the services by the Rev. Crouse of Lincoln.

The interment was at the Oak Hill cemetery at Weeping Water when the cortege comprised a large number of the old friends and neighbors. James Lytle Breckenridge and Martha Hamlet Breckenridge, was born in Racine, Wisconsin, October 19, 1865. He lived there until six years of age, when he and his parents moved to Caldwell county, Missouri.

Mr. Breckenridge was educated and grew to manhood in Caldwell county, Missouri, where he affiliated with the Methodist Episcopal church at that place at an early age and has been associated with that church ever since.

In 1887 he came to Cass county, Nebraska, locating on a farm six and one-half miles northeast of Weeping Water.

In 1891 he moved to the farm 4 1/2 miles northwest of Weeping Water and at which place he lived until the day of his death. On February 27, 1890, he was married to Nancy Emma Akeson, the daughter of Matis and Rebecca Akeson. To this union one child was born, Mattis James Breckenridge, who resides with his parents on their farm. Mr. Breckenridge died January 27, 1926, after a lingering illness, at the age of 60 years, 8 months and 13 days. He died, as he had always lived, a true Christian.

He leaves surviving him his widow, Nancy Emma Breckenridge; his son, Mattis James Breckenridge, and a grandson, James Lytle Breckenridge, also his sisters Mrs. Nettie Cane, of Littleton, Colo., Mrs. Mary Brown of Omaha, Nebraska, and four half sisters, three half brothers and other relatives and numerous friends.

ST. PAUL'S TRUSTEES ELECTED.

From Monday's Daily— At the close of the congregational meeting of the St. Paul's church yesterday, the members of the church re-elected as the trustees of the church for the ensuing year, Mike Hill, John Wickman and Theodore Starkjohn.

In pursuance of their building program for the ensuing year, J. P. Eiler and Carl Kunemann were named as members of a committee to look into the cost of having the basement portion of the church completed and which would give a great addition to the church and its facilities for handling the work of the church.

Wm. Balfour Wins a Prize in Radio Contest

Aged Nehawka Fiddler Proves One of the Lucky Ones in the Contest Last Night.

Of the 48 middle western fiddlers who fiddled their way into the hearts of a hundred thousand or more radio fans Monday in the five-hour WWOV old fiddler's contest Gabe Stephens of Council Bluffs was voted the best. He received 1,700 votes from all parts of the midwest of the 15,000 communications received from fans. He was given a $50 violin and $25 in cash.

But William Balfour, 81-year-old Nehawka man, demonstrated that the "boys" all of whom are past middle age, couldn't walk off with all the prizes. He won fifth prize in the WWOV contest and in a second contest of the eight highest at the World Theater at 10:30 Monday night he won a medal for highest honors. He was more at ease in playing before the theater audience and his age was apparent and appreciated.

Winners of the first eight places who appeared in the finals from 9 to 9:45 Monday night, and the order in which they placed are: Gabe Stephens, Council Bluffs, Ia. J. P. McGowan, McCool Junction, Iowa. L. Oathout, Ethan, S. D. A. C. Brooks, Auburn, Neb.

Family Has Sick Spell

Sickness has been keeping the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Clويد a very busy place the last few days in caring for the ailing members of the family circle Mrs. Clويد and two of the children have been confined to their beds for the greater part of the time in the past week, suffering from the prevailing malady of the grippe and colds that has made their condition anything but pleasant.

Mr. Clويد and one of the children have been the only active members of the family circle and caring for the ailing portion of the family.
