RAISED THE WIDOW'S SON.

Now when he came nigh to the gates of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. And when the Lord saw her, He had compassion on her. And He said, Young man, I say unto thee, arise, and begin to speak. And there came a fear on all: and they glorified God. —Luke 7:12-16.

The Rev. Arthur Atkinson, local pastor of Loveland, Colorado, has invited the city voters to ballot on the modification of the Volstead act to legalize wines and beer, in his church. Loveland has a population of about 8,000.

Since big business makes most of our wars we will believe that peace on earth and good will to men are possible when we see as much enthusiasm on the market over plow shares as there is occasionally over some of the other kinds.

No wonder that Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel of the Anti-Saloon League, protests against the Protestant Episcopal church, urging a modification of the Volstead act. Mr. Wheeler sees in the campaign of the Church Temperance Society the beginning of the end of his control of the government at Washington.

The real fight, the only conclusive fight to be made, is a fight for the complete restoration of the vigor and force of the constitution. The success of that fight would put the nation back on the right road, the road that assures the preservation of rights and liberties, the continuance of local self-government and the re-establishment of the freedom that is necessary to preserve the greatness of the nation and to develop strong, capable citizenship.
