

Murray Department

Prepared in the Interest of the People of Murray and Surrounding Vicinity Especially for the Journal Readers

If any of the readers of the Journal know of any social event or item of interest in this vicinity, and will mail same to this office, we will be glad to publish it under this heading. We want all news items.—EDITOR

If you pay as you go you can travel anywhere!

U.B.P. Whiffy

What Would a Hi-Jacker Want With Your Check Book?

He couldn't use it—so if you keep your money in a checking account, all the thief or robber could get would be a book of blank checks.

Murray State Bank

Murray, Nebraska
There is No Substitute for Safety

Mrs. Wayne Lewis was a visitor at the home of relatives at Union for a number of days during the fore part of the week.

Attention, Farmers

I have instituted at my Cafe a Labor Bureau. When you need help or any one needs work, let me know. I will try and supply you.

True Service

Is always giving Best Service and Best Goods. We carry only the Best Supplies and Best Accessories.

Quality and Service Store

If You Haven't Died You Can Dye for EASTER!

Get a Package of Paas Egg Dye, 10c a Package.

WHEN YOU SAY
Town, say Murray
Groceries, say Soennichsen Co.
Quality, say Soennichsen Co.
Service, say Soennichsen Co.

The H. M. Soennichsen Company

Telephone No. 12 Murray, Nebraska

Mrs. A. A. Young had at her home for the occasion on Tuesday of this week many of the friends of Mrs. Lyman, who greeted her and extended wishes for her health and happiness. A delightful luncheon was served and which was greatly enjoyed by all.

A number of the people of Murray have been receiving flower seeds from the Henry Field seed house, in response to the telegrams which were sent at the time of the birthday celebration of the establishment of the broadcasting station. One gentleman who did not receive the automobile, returned the flowers with a very caustic communication in which he criticized Mr. Field's methods, and dared the popular announcer to read at one of the broadcasting hours.

Celebrate Birthday.

The friends to the number of some thirty properly celebrated the passing of the birthday anniversary of Albert Johnson, at the Johnson home last Monday near Nehawka where the friends of this excellent man were present to aid in the celebration. The celebration was in the shape of a surprise, and all took well filled baskets of good things to eat and how they all did eat too. B. H. Nelson and family and Conrad Johnson of near Murray were enjoying the occasion.

Celebrates Birthday.

Henry W. Vallery who recently moved from Murray to Myrnard celebrated his 75th birthday anniversary most appropriately when on last Thursday the time when he passed his mile post, he had for his guests many of his relatives and friends, and to which the writer was invited to attend, but owing to a press of business was unable to attend. The eats were delicious and the time that was enjoyed was great. Those present for the occasion were: T. W. Vallery and wife, Thomas Tilson and family, Glen Vallery and wife of Plattsmouth, and daughters, Marie Helen and Gertrude, Frank Vallery and wife and niece, George Snyder and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Smith, Hugo Brown, C. A. Vallery and wife their daughter and Wade Porter and wife, in departing all extended to Uncle Henry the wishes for a long and happy life with many more happy birthdays.

Will Conduct Meeting.

The Rev. Nelson Gardner, father of the pastor of the Christian church of Murray began a revival meeting at the church in Murray on Wednesday of this week. He will have the assistance of his son, Rev. Frank Gardner and also will have a special singer from Lincoln. All are cordially invited to attend these meetings and assist in the singing and all other ones possible.

Ladies Aid Will Meet.

The Ladies Aid of the Christian church will meet at the church on April 6th, when they will be entertained by Mesdames Philip F. Rhin, Fred L. Hill and Addie Bartlett, who are the hostesses. The leader in the entertainment will be Mrs. James E. Gruber, who has prepared a most worth while program for the occasion. All members are requested to be in attendance.

THE VETERAN

I
He sprang to the rescue in haste
When death and destruction were near
Do we think we can pay
For those years thrown away
With our few hundred dollars
A year?

II
Shall we eridge while a few wealthy men
Express the extravagant fear
That we'll rue the dark day
When the veteran's pay
Is increased a few dollars a year?

III
We pay for the big swivel chair,
And for criminals shed the moist
tear:
But O, how it pains
To contribute our gains
To the veterans' pittance per year.

IV
O yes, there are bridges to build,
And contracts for bridges are
dear:
Somewhere we must save,
With one foot in the grave
The soldier needs little per year.

V
Not long shall he burden us now;
He knows that the grave is quite near—
He is four score and five,
And may yet keep alive—
On his miserly pittance per year.
—W. F. GRAHAM,
Murray, Neb.

EIGHT MILE GROVE LUTHERAN CHURCH

Good Friday—Services and Holy Communion in German at 10:30.
Easter—Services and Holy Communion in English at 10:30.
Sunday school begins at 9:30.
An offering will be taken both on Good Friday and on Easter.

United Presbyterian Notes.

W. F. Graham pastor.
Sabbath school at 10 a. m.
Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.
Y. P. C. U. at 7 p. m.
Mid-week prayer meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.
Omaha Presbytery will meet in the Murray church April 7 and 8.
The sacrament of the Ladies Supper will be observed April 11th at 11 a. m.
The Y. P. C. U. held election March 28th. The officers are:
President—Julia Troop,
Vice President—Charles Boedecker,
Secretary—Mary Graham,
Treasurer—John Gilmore,
Pianist—Beth McCracken.

MARCELLING

Marcelling after April 1. One dollar. Retrace 50 cents.—Mrs. T. J. Brendel.

Senate to Probe Attempt to Lease Land in Mexico

Borah Announces Meeting to Consider Means of Blocking Foot-hold Near the Border.

Washington, March 31.—Means of blocking the attempt of a Japanese syndicate to gain a foothold in lower California by leasing an immense tract of land over Magdalena bay will be considered at the meeting of the senate foreign relations committee Wednesday, Senator Borah of Idaho, chairman, announced Tuesday night.

Definite action regarding the situation, however, probably will await a full report on the transaction by the State department, Borah said. Thus far the State department has no official information concerning the negotiations between the Japanese syndicate and Col. A. B. Vaskuez, who has obtained a concession of 2,000,000 acres of land from the Mexican government.

Dispatches from Mexico City stating that Luis Leon, minister of agriculture, denied reports that the Mexican government had sold the Japanese syndicate a concession in lower California, did not serve to allay the concern in official circles here.

It was indicated that Senator Borah intends to gather full information on the subject and press the appropriate action by the senate, in view of the government's policy laid down in the Lodge resolution which passed the senate at the time of the Magdalena bay incident in 1912.

Senators made no effort to conceal their concern over dispatches from San Diego indicating that Colonel Vaskuez will insist upon "exercising his right" to close the deal with the Japanese syndicate, unless some American agent makes a higher bid for the land.

RADIO FOR THE FARMERS

Chicago, March 28.—Importance of radio to the farmers is illustrated by a survey just completed, the national farm radio council reported today. Particularly in this fact noticeable in connection with markets, the council said.

A digest of the replies received from thirty-two states showed that more than 46 per cent of them gave specific examples of cash savings effected by the use of radio for the reception of market reports, and practically all of the returns indicated the value to the farmer of having market reports from twenty-four to forty-eight hours earlier than heretofore.

The survey showed that 95 per cent of the farmer radio-owners consider their receivers a utility as well as an amusement device. The figures placed the maximum farm audience as listening between 8 to 8:30 p. m., with a sharp decline in its size after 8:30 p. m. A little more than 60 per cent of these listeners go to make up the noon audience, with very few farm folk tuning in before 12 o'clock. There is no afternoon audience.

GILMAN IS RE-ELECTED MAYOR OF SIOUX CITY

Sioux City, Ia., March 29.—Mayor Stewart Gilman was re-elected today by a majority of about 2,500 votes, out of a total of 42 thousand votes, over former Mayor Wallace M. Short.

Former Police Commissioner Taggart, defeated the present commissioner, Charles E. Wilcox, by a small margin.

Police and firemen won increased wages, while an appropriation of 100 thousand dollars for branch libraries appears to have been carried.

One of the pleasing new art work is that of fancy lamp designing and which can be learned by calling at the Bates Book & Gift shop annex and free lessons given. Join the classes that are working now.

BIBLE SCHOOL LESSON

Sunday, April 4th
By M. S. Briggs

Golden Text: "Because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed. Blessed are they who have not seen and yet have believed."—John 20:29.

Resurrection from the Dead

The disciple Saint John has carried us through the entire life of Christ during the past quarter, and has given an inspiration to a better and a nobler life, by his translation of his vision of the Christ which he has furnished us. With the closing lesson of the quarter he carried the narrative to the crucifixion and spoke of the resurrection of the Master of heaven, earth and the skies, as well as of life and death itself. In His resurrection we see that He has mastered death and the grave and triumphantly arose from the grave where the body had rested for three days.

He had told that He would arise, and had declared to Martha that he was indeed the resurrection and the life and that whosoever should believe on Him, though they should die, yet should they live, and whosoever should live and believe on Him, should never die, asking at the same time, "Martha, believest thou this?"

It was a sad day indeed when the prince of life was crucified and laid away in a tomb with a seal set upon it and a group of soldiers from the Roman army placed on guard.

After all which had been told them of His resurrection, the disciples did not understand, and were not there at the time of his advent from the grave. After the wonderful experience of Lazarus being raised from the dead, it would seem they should have had faith and believed all the Master had told them. The women who went to embalm the body was very close to the resurrection, as they appeared at the sepulcher just after the resurrection itself. As they were coming they were talking about who they would get to roll the stone away from the sepulcher that they might embalm the body. Imagine their joy when they arrived and discovered that the stone had been rolled away and the grave was empty with the grave clothes lying in the sepulcher. They ran to tell the disciples and found Peter and John waiting for the grave Peter leading, but only for an instant, for he was coupled up with a much younger man who outran him and arrived at the grave first, and looking in awaited the coming up of Peter, who immediately entered, and was followed by John. When they made an examination they departed, Mary, remaining at the tomb, asked one whom she thought was the gardener, where the body had been placed, and was addressed by the Master himself. As he called her by name, she immediately recognized him, and after a few minutes' conversation, he vanished from her sight.

That evening as two of the disciples were walking in the country, they were joined by the risen Lord, who walked with them and talked with them, and as they were going to eat with him, they discovered it was he, and he immediately vanished from their sight.

The disciples made haste back to Jerusalem, where they told the others of their number, who were gathered in an upper chamber, of having seen the risen Lord. Again, when all the disciples but Judas, who had killed himself following his betrayal of Christ, and Thomas who was unable to be present, were gathered in an upper chamber, the doors leading to which were securely closed, the Master appeared in the room, saying, "All hail, peace be unto you," and spoke words of peace and comfort unto the company. They told Thomas of the incident, but he would not believe. A few days later when they were gathered together again in the same place, the Lord appeared as before and called Thomas, saying to him, "Come, place your fingers in the prints of the nails in my hand and be faithful, and believing thrust your hand in my side and believe it is me." Thomas said, "My Lord and my God." The Master said, "Because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed. Blessed are they who have not seen and yet have believed."

Then later, when some weeks had passed, Peter said unto the other disciples, "Let's go fishing," for they were all fishermen and were all gathered together on this occasion. They fished all night long and had caught nothing, a very unusual occurrence, and as the day was breaking, they were still at their task, weary and worn. It was then that the Lord appeared unto them on the shore. When the fishermen saw the Master, they failed to recognize him, and even when he called to them asking them if they had any fish, they still did not know him. So Jesus said unto them, "Cast your net on the right side of the boat and you shall find, and in abundance." This they did, and instantly the net was filled, there being 153 fish in it. As they were endeavoring to land the big catch, John observed and by intuition discovered it was the Lord, and so said unto Peter, who was naked, Peter at once threw his fisherman's coat about him and jumped into the water. The disciples drew the net to the shore, and Peter said unto the Master, "If a sinful man, oh Lord!" The Lord then asked them to bring of the fish which they had caught, and they found he had a meal already prepared for them, for after they had put in the night with the hard work, they were quite hungry and tired.

Then he told Peter the devil wished to sift him, but for him to stand fast and that when he should be converted, he must comfort the disciples. He also said unto Peter, "Simon, son of John, lovest thou me more than these?" (meaning the fishing life).

BIBLE SCHOOL LESSON

Sunday, April 4th
By M. S. Briggs

Golden Text: "Because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed. Blessed are they who have not seen and yet have believed."—John 20:29.

Resurrection from the Dead

The disciple Saint John has carried us through the entire life of Christ during the past quarter, and has given an inspiration to a better and a nobler life, by his translation of his vision of the Christ which he has furnished us. With the closing lesson of the quarter he carried the narrative to the crucifixion and spoke of the resurrection of the Master of heaven, earth and the skies, as well as of life and death itself. In His resurrection we see that He has mastered death and the grave and triumphantly arose from the grave where the body had rested for three days.

He had told that He would arise, and had declared to Martha that he was indeed the resurrection and the life and that whosoever should believe on Him, though they should die, yet should they live, and whosoever should live and believe on Him, should never die, asking at the same time, "Martha, believest thou this?"

It was a sad day indeed when the prince of life was crucified and laid away in a tomb with a seal set upon it and a group of soldiers from the Roman army placed on guard.

After all which had been told them of His resurrection, the disciples did not understand, and were not there at the time of his advent from the grave. After the wonderful experience of Lazarus being raised from the dead, it would seem they should have had faith and believed all the Master had told them. The women who went to embalm the body was very close to the resurrection, as they appeared at the sepulcher just after the resurrection itself. As they were coming they were talking about who they would get to roll the stone away from the sepulcher that they might embalm the body. Imagine their joy when they arrived and discovered that the stone had been rolled away and the grave was empty with the grave clothes lying in the sepulcher. They ran to tell the disciples and found Peter and John waiting for the grave Peter leading, but only for an instant, for he was coupled up with a much younger man who outran him and arrived at the grave first, and looking in awaited the coming up of Peter, who immediately entered, and was followed by John. When they made an examination they departed, Mary, remaining at the tomb, asked one whom she thought was the gardener, where the body had been placed, and was addressed by the Master himself. As he called her by name, she immediately recognized him, and after a few minutes' conversation, he vanished from her sight.

That evening as two of the disciples were walking in the country, they were joined by the risen Lord, who walked with them and talked with them, and as they were going to eat with him, they discovered it was he, and he immediately vanished from their sight.

The disciples made haste back to Jerusalem, where they told the others of their number, who were gathered in an upper chamber, of having seen the risen Lord. Again, when all the disciples but Judas, who had killed himself following his betrayal of Christ, and Thomas who was unable to be present, were gathered in an upper chamber, the doors leading to which were securely closed, the Master appeared in the room, saying, "All hail, peace be unto you," and spoke words of peace and comfort unto the company. They told Thomas of the incident, but he would not believe. A few days later when they were gathered together again in the same place, the Lord appeared as before and called Thomas, saying to him, "Come, place your fingers in the prints of the nails in my hand and be faithful, and believing thrust your hand in my side and believe it is me." Thomas said, "My Lord and my God." The Master said, "Because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed. Blessed are they who have not seen and yet have believed."

Then later, when some weeks had passed, Peter said unto the other disciples, "Let's go fishing," for they were all fishermen and were all gathered together on this occasion. They fished all night long and had caught nothing, a very unusual occurrence, and as the day was breaking, they were still at their task, weary and worn. It was then that the Lord appeared unto them on the shore. When the fishermen saw the Master, they failed to recognize him, and even when he called to them asking them if they had any fish, they still did not know him. So Jesus said unto them, "Cast your net on the right side of the boat and you shall find, and in abundance." This they did, and instantly the net was filled, there being 153 fish in it. As they were endeavoring to land the big catch, John observed and by intuition discovered it was the Lord, and so said unto Peter, who was naked, Peter at once threw his fisherman's coat about him and jumped into the water. The disciples drew the net to the shore, and Peter said unto the Master, "If a sinful man, oh Lord!" The Lord then asked them to bring of the fish which they had caught, and they found he had a meal already prepared for them, for after they had put in the night with the hard work, they were quite hungry and tired.

Then he told Peter the devil wished to sift him, but for him to stand fast and that when he should be converted, he must comfort the disciples. He also said unto Peter, "Simon, son of John, lovest thou me more than these?" (meaning the fishing life).

Spring Shoes for MEN!

That set the pace for style, comfort and quality. They contain more value feature than you will expect to find in shoes at higher prices.

The Famous Selz Shoes $6

Other Fine Oxfords at $3.95, $4.85 and $5.50

The H. M. Soennichsen Co.

"The Store of Big Values"
Plattsmouth - - - Nebraska

Peter answered him, saying, "Yea, Lord, I love thee," when he was told by Christ, "Feed my sheep." This same question was asked of Peter three times, for he had denied the Master three times on the night of the betrayal, and it was intended he should repeat one "I love thee" for each denial, and at the same time be as oft commanded, "Feed my sheep."

As the Lord had commanded Mary to tell the disciples on the resurrection morn, for them to meet him on a mountain top in Galilee, this they did after the forty days were fulfilled, and as he stood there with them, he gave them some final instruction, they being advised to remain in Jerusalem until they should be imbued with the spirit from on high. Then, after he had given the last commandment, he was parted from them and borne unto heaven, vanishing from their sight as he ascended.

While they were thus standing gazing into space where but a few moments before they had seen his form, there appeared unto them a couple of men in shining raiment, who said unto them, "Men of Israel, who stand you thus gazing into heaven? The same Christ whom ye have seen vanish will come again in like manner. Go ye into Jerusalem and await until you shall be instructed from on high. This they did, which brought them to Pentecost.

Before the Lord had ascended into heaven, he had commanded them, "Go ye into all the world and teach my gospel to every creature." He was thus making missionaries of them all, and not this alone, but to all of us who read the account, for we are to help bear the message to a sinful world, so that unto the entire populace may the story of salvation be brought.

How are we treating this command that is just as effective and just as binding on us today as it was to the disciples when it was given to them from Christ's own lips just before he ascended into heaven, there to sit on the right hand of his father throughout eternity.

"Go ye into all the world and teach my gospel to every creature."

WOMAN WRITER SUES SURGEON

New York, March 30.—Mrs. Rhea Huston Stephens, a magazine writer, brought suit for $100,000 Monday against Dr. J. Eastman Sheehan, a plastic surgeon.

She charges that her face was permanently scarred and her health injured by the "face lifting" operation which he performed upon her. She said she was forced to remain in the hospital 30 days as a result of the operation.

Dr. Sheehan said he would issue a general denial.

For earache, toothache, pains, burns, scalds, sore throat, try Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil, a splendid remedy for emergencies.

You can save money on school supplies at the Bates Book Store.

Service Our Watchword!

When the cash is running low, come see us, for your money goes farther in the purchase of the very best goods. We are here to serve you to the best. Not alone are we after your wealth, but to give you best service as well. Every article in the store a bargain.

Earl Lancaster Store

Murray, Nebraska

Bring in the Listers!

Sure, we are busy at the Blacksmith shop, but we are here for business, so bring your work along and we will get it out for you promptly. We are prepared to care for your plow work, discs and listers. Remember, we guarantee all our work to be the best and entirely satisfactory in every way.

Roy Gerking

The Blacksmith, Murray, Nebraska

PILES

A mild system of treatment that cures Piles, Fistula and other Rectal Diseases in a short time without a severe surgical operation. No chloroform. Ether or other general anesthetic used. EXAMINATION FREE. A cure guaranteed in every case accepted for treatment, and no money to be paid until cured. Write for FREE BOOK on Rectal Diseases, with names and testimonials of thousands of cured persons who have been permanently cured.

DR. E. R. TARRY SANATORIUM, 340 Petersen Trust Bldg., Omaha, Neb.