D. P. Sloan of Thurston, Neb., was here Tuesday visiting and attending to some business matters.

Harry Vantine of near Nehawka was looking after some business in Union last Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Mat Stewart moved from Union a few days since and will make her home in Nebraska City in the future.

Constable James F. Wilson was in Nehawka on Thursday, serving some legal process from the court of Justice Lynn.

C. E. Giles has been placing a bridge over a small stream on the farm in order to save time in the work on the farm.

Fred Woolsey of Nebraska City drove up to this village Monday morning to spend a few hours attending to business matters.

Nick Klarens of Nehawka was in town Thursday, looking after matters of a legal nature, filing a suit in Judge Lynn's court.

Tony Sudduth and family were enjoying a splendid visit at the home of Mrs. Sudduth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carter Albin, northeast of Union.

Bruce Wolfe has been selected by the town board as the city marshal and will, we are certain, make an excellent man for the position.

Attorney C. L. Graves was called to Plattsmouth one day during the past week, to look after some legal business at the county's office building.

Herold Nickles and family of near Greenwood were spending Easter with Frank and Anna Bauers, they driving over to Union for the day in their car.

Joseph Dare, who has recently disposed of his property in Union to Mrs. Lavina Comer, has since purchased the property of James Reynolds.

Mrs. Harry Graves and daughter Helen, of Lincoln, returned home Saturday, after spending several days with relatives and friends in this village.

Clarence Armstrong, who has been put in charge of the section of track work for the Missouri Pacific at Murray, has moved to that place to make his home.

Uncle Geo W. Leach has moved into the place where Albert Eaton has formerly lived and will make his home directly in the city of Union in the future.

Sherman Austing was busy getting the oats into the ground on last Monday and while it looked like it would be spring, sometimes it was rather raw for seeding.

R. D. Stine, who was quite sick last week is again at the place of business again and greeting every one with usual jocular manner and is feeling much better.

The Baptist church and its management are appreciative of the large audience which attended the service during last Sunday when the Easter services were celebrated.

Miss Vera Ppton, who is attending the state university, was home for Easter and a few days vacation, and on Wednesday of this week returned to her studies in the capital city.

J. O. Perdue and wife, of Auburn, accompanied by their son, James, made a brief visit here Sunday evening while on the way home from Plattsmouth where they had been visiting relatives.

Mrs. Lavina Comer is having the property which she recently purchased from Joseph Dare remodeled and put in excellent condition for occupancy and when it is completed will make it her home.

Joe Bauer, who was compelled to remain home and was confined to his bed on account of illness last week is much better at this time and able to be out and about again with prospects that he will soon be in his usual good health again.

Warren Haverin and wife and their daughter, Nora, and a friend and wife of Omaha were visiting in Union last Sunday being the guests of Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Taylor, where all enjoyed the occasion very much. Mesdames Haverin and Taylor are cousins.

Ray Frans, the lumberman, has been kept to his home and bed for a number of days during the present and past week on account of illness and while he has not been able to be at the place of business W. A. Taylor has looked after the work at the yard.

The Cozy Cafe, which has been operated by Mrs. Pickins for some time and which was some time since sold to Mrs. Pitman, has again changed hands, this time by the receiving into partnership by Mrs. Pitman of the business, who is managing the business for the present.

Albert Eaton, who has been in Plattsmouth for some time, where he has been with the Standard Oil Co., returned to Union last Saturday, not satisfied with the position and will expect to depart for a point in Kansas in a short time to make his home for the present.

Mrs. Fred Linville is reported as being very sick at her home and has been having the care of Mrs. Hattie Pickins, who is looking after the work and also caring for Mrs. Linville. It is hoped by the many friends of Mrs. Linville that she may soon be well again.

John D. Tigner, a former resident of this village now living in the vicinity of Louisville, was here last Friday to spend the day with his son, Fred and family, also called at official headquarters of the "Whittier Club" in which he held membership when he resided here.

A. L. Becker and the force of workmen who are a portion of his assistants have during the past week been busy building a house on the new lands which he acquired near the river and which will be the home of M. R. Edminston, who is employed by Mr. Becker at a farm hand.

H. D. Royal and wife of Lincoln, rove down Sunday and visited Mrs. Royal's father C. L. Graves. They were accompanied by Miss Margaret Wiles of Plattsmouth, who is attending college in Lincoln, and they all went to Plattsmouth to visit Mrs. Wiles' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wiles.

Grandmother W. A. Brown, who is making her home at Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Smith, is still very poorly, the showing some improvement, she is still confined to her bed and is receiving the best of care and nursing and it is the hope of her many friends in Union and elsewhere that she may soon be able to be up again.

Otis Keene, while attempting to dismount from his motor car which he uses in his work, slipped and in a manner bruised the bone of the heel of one of his feet which has put him among the list of the disabled, but he is getting along nicely now. Mrs. Keene, who has also been sick with an attack of the grippe for some time, is also improving.

Miss Ida Freeman has been quite ill at her home in Union with a very aggravated attack of pneumonia and which was so severe that her many friends were much concerned regarding her recovery, but at this time she is showing much improvement, which is a source of much gladness to her friend who are hoping that she will soon be heartily recovered.

Earl Troop has been rustling during the past week with the sale of the Universal cars and has disposed of two of these excellent wagons, one going to Luther Wamak, which was delivered during the past week, while he has also disposed of one to Miss Blance Scotton of Murray which is to be delivered as soon as it shall have arrived, this one being a roadster of the latest make.

Last Sunday evening Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor made a visit to some of the friends and members of the church, finding Mrs. Clara Taylor feeling quite poorly, she having been sick for some time but is hoping ere long to be up again. They visited at the home of Thomas McQuinn where the folks are getting along

An Excellent Chicken Dinner.

Last Sunday notwithstanding the fact that Mrs. Daniel Lynn was impeded in her actions by an affection in her foot and knee which made it very inconvenient for her to get about, she demonstrated her ability as one of the best cooks in the county when she prepared and surprised her relatives and friends with one of the best chicken dinners of the season. Nothing was known of the preparations until the close of the services at the church when the Easter was celebrated, and as the worshippers were leaving the church they were directed to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn, where the feast was awaiting. There were there for the occasion John Lidgett and wife, J. W. Wood, and George Hastings and wife, Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor. All pronounced the dinner par excellence and as a presentation contained much merit and was participated in by a large number of the people of Union and vicinity.

The Garden of Joseph. At the Methodist church on last Sunday was put on a cantate and pageant for the Easter, or Resurrection, which was most highly enjoyed as presentation contained much merit, and was participated in by a large number of the people of Union and vicinity.

Celebrate Easter. At the Baptist church the Easter was appropriately celebrated, when Rev. W. A. Taylor delivered his discourse to the church, its members, the general public and the invited guests, the Masonic lodge of Nehawka, many of whose members are residents of Union and vicinity. That the Bible school might not be interfered with the gathering of the participants in the special services they gathered at the drug store of Mr. Moore, and at the appropriate time all marched were celebrated.

A Pleasant Afternoon. The Jolly Helpers of the Methodist Sunday school accompanied by their teacher, Miss Ora Clark, passed the afternoon of Easter Sunday in a very pleasant way. After a brisk hike over several miles of country meadows and highways, the girls enjoyed a luncheon at the home of Miss Clark. Those present were Clara Lynn Propst, Dorothy Clark, Frieda McCarrroll, Letha Mae Rakes and Pauline Runnels.

SPEAKER FOR DECORATION DAY.

Decoration day falling on Sunday this year, will doubtless be more largely observed than for a number of years past. The fast thinning ranks of the Civil war veterans has given rise to a custom in effect here for several years whereby each of a number of patriotic organizations has arranged for a certain part of the program. Included in this plan, the American Legion has been designated each year to secure the speaker. Last year efforts to secure Dr. Mat Tinley of Council Bluffs, Iowa, were unsuccessful due to an engagement of a year's standing to go elsewhere, but at that time the doctor agreed to come to Plattsmouth in 1926 and those who have heard him speak on other occasions are looking forward to one of the best Decoration day addresses ever delivered in this city, not excluding the fiery wartime oratory of Judge Stevens heard here in 1918.

General Tinley is a world war veteran and prominent Legionnaire. He served with the famous Rainbow division of Iowa, with which a number of Plattsmouth boys saw service, as members of the Glenwood company, Iowa National Guard. Hugh J. Kearns, in whose memory the local Legion post was named, having been one of the Plattsmouth "squad."

The services of such capable speakers as Dr. Tinley are in great demand and it is pleasing to note that the Legion secured his promise more than a year ago to speak at the 1926 Decoration day observance here.
