Does Enjoy Fine Time at Cards-Dancing

Elks Club Scene of Enjoyable Social Event Last Evening—Ruby Orchestra Plays.

From Tuesday's Daily—Last evening the ladies of the B. P. O. Does entertained at a card party and dance at the Elks club which proved one of the real social successes of the season and the dancing public throwing aside the restraint that they have kept during the Lenten season and enjoying to the utmost the pleasantness that had been provided them by the Does.

The devotees of the games of bridge and high five were entertained in the dining room of the club where several tables of these interesting pastimes made the time pass most pleasantly. In the bridge playing William Barclay secured first prize while John F. Wolfe received the consolation and in the ladies contest Mrs. H. A. Schneider was the winner of the first prize and Mrs. Sidney Bell the consolation. The high five tables were also much enjoyed and in the gentlemen contestants E. P. Stewart proved that he was the most successful while A. J. Snyder was awarded the consolation prize, and in the ladies contest Mrs. C. F. Valley carried away the first prize and Mrs. A. J. Snyder the consolation.

The Ruby orchestra of KMA radio fame was the chief attraction of the evening for the dancers and their tuneful and popular melodies kept the members of the party enjoying themselves to the fullest extent until the approach of the midnight hour.

As the result of their enterprise the ladies of the Does scored a very pleasing success and are very appreciative of the fine time afforded them.

MASONIC CERTIFICATE IS IN 1789.

Elk City, Kan.—Mrs. J. T. Mitchell, of this city, has a certificate issued to her husband's grandfather in 1789 by a Masonic Lodge in Ireland. It is written on plain white paper in a clear hand and the ink has faded very little. The text of the certificate is as follows: "To whom it may concern, We, the Master, Wardens and Brethren of Lodge No. 575, in the town of Vow and county of Antrim do certify that our trusty friend and well beloved Brother Thomas Mitchell was by us regularly made a Master Mason and continued a sitting member in our body the space of one year during which time he behaved as becometh a Worthy Brother and as such we recommend him. Given under our hand and seal of our lodge at our lodge room in Vow in the year of our Lord one-thousand, seven-hundred and eighty-nine and in Masonry 5789."

Death of Old Time Resident of the West

From Tuesday's Daily—Mrs. Harriett E. Miller, Sister of A. H. and C. L. Graves of This County, Passes On.

Attorney Charles L. Graves, of Union, and A. H. Graves of Murray are mourning the passing of their oldest sister, Mrs. Harriett E. Miller of near Glenwood, which occurred some time ago. The two brothers and sister have been in the habit of spending their birthdays together each year and the loss of the sister has been very keenly felt. The following is a short sketch of her life:

Mrs. Harriett E. Miller. Funeral services for Mrs. Harriett E. Miller, of whose death mention has been made, were held from the home on the farm east of Glenwood Thursday forenoon, conducted by Rev. J. H. Freedline of the Glenwood Methodist church. Music for the services was provided by the Community Quartet of Center township—Mrs. James Sawyers, Mrs. S. J. Parker, C. R. Buffington and F. V. Kemp (serving in place of S. J. Parker, who could not be present). Mrs. Clyde Rhoads presided at the piano. Two of the songs were selected by the deceased as her favorites—"Sweet Bye and Bye" and "No Night There." The pallbearers were neighbors—Henry Buch, Fred Thieshafer, L. S. Johnson, C. R. Warren, J. R. Graves and Frank Varner. Those who attended the funeral services, coming from a distance, were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pitzer, Nebraska City; a niece, Mrs. Pearl Shelley, a sister, Mrs. Mary Burnett, a nephew, Maurice Lacy, all of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Graves, the former a brother, of Peru, Nebraska. The following is the obituary given:

Harriet E. Graves was born in Knox county, Tenn., November 22, 1838, and went to her crowning March 9, 1926, being 87 years, 3 months and 17 days old. She was a daughter of Wm. W. Graves and Mahala P. Graves. Mrs. Miller came with her family from Tennessee in 1852, her father being one of the early pioneers in this community.

On November 14, 1861, she was united in marriage with Joseph M. Miller. The Civil war was just then beginning. Mr. Miller left his young wife and enlisted in answer to his country's call for troops. She endured this hardship as only a devoted and brave woman can. When the war was over her husband returned home and together they journeyed down life's pathway until November 16, 1916, when she was bereft of her husband. To this happy union were born five children—three sons and two daughters. The three sons preceded their mother to the spirit world. The two daughters who survive are Etta and Pearl, who devotedly administered to their mother during these years.

When quite young, Mrs. Miller united with the Methodist Episcopal church and remained a faithful and devoted member until she was transferred to the church triumphant. She was a true and loyal wife, a loving and kind mother, and the very best of neighbor. Her long life has not ended, but just begun in that finer and higher realm where the true and the good shall meet and greet each other in that summer land of the soul.

Mrs. Miller leaves one sister and six brothers, as follows: A. H. Graves of Murray, Nebraska; C. M. and E. L. Graves, of Yakima, Washington; J. D. Graves, of Peru, Nebraska; A. S. Graves, of Washington state; C. L. Graves, of Union, Nebraska; and Mary E. Burnett, of Omaha, and other relatives and friends who mourn her passing.

Livestock Feeders' Day.

Everyone interested in feeding cattle should attend Feeders' day on April 14th, beginning at 9:30 and lasting until 4 o'clock, which will be held at the Agricultural College, Lincoln, Neb. Nine different lots of feeding steers will be shown and results given on each.

Get Hardy Alfalfa Seed.

Much of the alfalfa seed imported from Argentina, Italy, Spain and France, is not hardy enough for Nebraska conditions. Peruvian alfalfa from the southwestern part of the United States will winter kill here badly also. Recent tests at the Agricultural College at Lincoln have proven that home grown seed or seed from the north will make plants that live thru the severest winter weather in Nebraska. Farmers can get good seed of this kind by referring to the spring seed list just issued by the Nebraska Crop Growers Assn. County Extension Agents and the Agricultural College at Lincoln have this list to furnish without charge to requesting parties.

A Good Brooder House.

The most practical and profitable brooder house for baby chicks ever used by the Agricultural College poultry plant at Lincoln is a small house eight by twelve feet in size. Many other poultrymen of the state have used the same type of house with good success so it has now been adopted as the Nebraska type brooder house. It is recommended for constructing brooder houses and so constructed that a careful poultry keeper can brood from 250 to 360 baby chick in it in any kind of weather. The same house can be converted into a colony house for the young pullets that are kept from this batch of chicks. Material for this house costs not to exceed $80 at the average lumber yard.

Best success with young chicks is now being had by poultrymen who are raising their chicks on clean ground where chickens have not run previously. The small 8 by 12 house is so constructed that it can be hauled around and is therefore ideal for the profitable plan of rotating chicken yards each year.
