INGERSOLL ORATION AT THE BURBANK FUNERAL HELD TODAY

Following are excerpts from the oration delivered by Robert G. Ingersoll at the grave of his brother, Ebon C. Ingersoll, at Washington, D. C., on June 3, 1879, and which were read at the funeral of Luther Burbank at Santa Rosa, Cal., this afternoon.

"Life is a narrow vale between the cold and barren peaks of two eternities. We strive in vain to look beyond the heights. We cry aloud, and the only answer is the echo of our wailing cry. From the voiceless lips of the unreplying dead, there comes no word; but in the night of death hope sees a star, and listening love can hear the rustling of a wing."

STATES HE WAS INNOCENT

The Journal has received a letter from Sterling Hodge of near Lincoln, relative to a charge that was filed against Mr. Hodge here in Cass county on August 25th, charging him with removing mortgaged property from the county.

DEATH OF WILLIAM COURTNEY

Winter Wheat Above Average in This State

Report of State Department Indicates Very Little Abandonment—Farm Wages Higher.

Winter wheat is considerably above the average. Very little abandonment expected. Rye condition excellent. Cash rents are about the same as a year ago but farm wages higher, according to the April report of the State and Federal Division of Agriculture Statistics.

The preliminary estimate of area is 3,047,000 acres planted last autumn as compared to 3,078,000 acres planted the previous year, and 2,192,000 acres harvested last year.

The condition of rye is 91% as compared to 92% in December and the average of 88%. Conditions are very favorable in western sections where the snowfall was heavy during the winter.

The average cash rent paid per acre for farms throughout the state is $8.85, while the average for plow land is $4.95 and for pasture, $1.25 per acre.

'Phantom of Opera' is Called Chaney's Best

Many Stars in Super-Spectacle—Phibbin, Kerry and Other Noted Artists.

Lon Chaney, of "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," and the two favorites, Mary Phibbin and Norman Kerry, who played together in "Merrey Go Round," one of last year's greatest successes, all play together in "The Phantom of the Opera," Lon Chaney's successor to "The Hunchback." Universal's spectacular mystery coming to the Parnello for four nights starting tonight.

Miss Phibbin plays the role of Christine Daae, the opera singer whose love the "Phantom" sacrifices his life for, one of the most poignant stars were considered and several were negotiated with, before, at the behest of Rupert Julian, who directed her in "Merrey Go Round," Miss Phibbin was decided on.

Julian directed the new Chaney picture, and holds that Mary Phibbin, in his estimation, is the only actress who was ideally competent to play the role. In this Lon Chaney concurred.

Norman Kerry and Lon Chaney played together in "The Hunchback of Notre Dame" and are close friends, so Kerry's choice for Count Raoul de Chagny in the production was hailed with joy by the star.

The missing of the leading characters in two famous pictures of last year in the big production of the Universal new season is in line with the policy of Carl Laemmle for big casts—in fact literally all star casts—for super-productions. All three of the leads rate as among the best known stars of the screen, and never before have the three all played in a single picture.

The new picture, a massive spectacle, is adapted from the famous mystery novel by Gaston Leroux. It is laid in and about the famous Paris Opera, and the sinister machinations of "The Phantom," a mysterious creature with a warped soul who had his refuge in the cellars, five stories deep, under the famous old building, where he exerted a sinister influence on the gay throngs above.

The entire interior of the opera, its great stage, on which an entire opera was presented coincidentally with the mysterious and weird events in the catacombs below, was reproduced on a lavish scale, rivaling "The Hunchback" production in magnitude. Thousands appeared in gorgeous scenes, many photographed in color. Among the principals are Arthur Edmund Carewe, Gibson Gowland, Virginia Pearson, John Cainpollis, Cesare Gravina and many other noted artists.

AN EXPANSION OF CREDIT

Washington, April 11.—Federal reserve banks expanded their outstanding credit to the largest total—about $1,500,000,000—since the close of 1921, it was shown today in the annual report of the federal reserve board for 1925.

"In no previous year" the report declared, "has the course of events, both at home and abroad, afforded a broader scope for operation of the reserve banks, and shown more fully the strength and usefulness of the reserve system."

The increase in credit, it was explained, resulted from an advance of $135,000,000 to meet an export demand for gold coincident with restoration of gold standard by England.

LAKES' FOREIGN TRADE SHOWS FALLING OFF

Washington, April 11.—Foreign commerce traffic on the Great lakes was very nearly 1,900,000 cargo tons less in volume in 1925 than in 1924, the bureau of research of the United States shipping board pointed out today in the fourth of a series of analysis on foreign trade fluctuations.

The 1925 movement was 11,825,000 cargo tons.

FIGHTING A GRASS FIRE

Sandstone, Minn., April 11.—Thirty men are fighting a forest and grass fire south of her and extending over a territory one mile wide and five miles long. J. C. Hanson and his family narrowly escaped the fire by backfiring after Hanson had witnessed the start of the blaze.

According to Hanson, the blaze originated as a Great Northern train bound south from Duluth, passed thru that territory shortly before noon. It is his belief that sparks from the locomotive set the grass afire.

'HONEYMOON SHIP' ON LAST BERMUDA TRIP

New York, April 11.—The "honeymoon ship," that for 23 years had plied between New York and Bermuda, completed its last trip in that service today. The ship, the Furness-Bermuda liner, Fort Hamilton, has been sold to the Cosulich line and will be placed in the Mediterranean service under the name of Stella de Italia.

L. E. Vroman and daughter, Mrs. Jesse Atterberry were among the visitors in Omaha today to visit with the little child of Mr. and Mrs. Atterberry at the Methodist hospital and with Mrs. L. E. Vroman at the Immanuel hospital.

CHINESE TYPEWRITER A COMPLICATED AFFAIR

San Francisco, April 13.—From out of the orient with its mysteries and ancient love, has come an invention worthy of occidental genius in the form of a typewriter capable of transcribing the thousands of ideographic crypts of old China. It is being marketed here. The machine, first of its kind, was designed by Tze Quon, a native of Shanghai. It is the product of years of toil and experiments with various machines of foreign make, in which was involved the tedious task of collecting nearly all of the common-use characters needed for the expression of the Chinese language of commerce. There are 5,000 characters on the machine. They are transcribed to paper thru the medium of the familiar rubber roller, line shifting apparatus and linked ribbon.

Instead of such character being mounted on an individual arm as is the case with American and European machines, however, the characters rest on a sliding table and a single key rod drops down, picks up the letter wished and after it is used drops the type back into its respective slot. The entire apparatus weighs about forty pounds.
