Nehawka - Nebraska

Colleen Kline and sister, Miss Frances Kline, Mrs. E. A. Kitzberger and Mrs. Tracy were visiting with friends in Nebraska City for a few days last Friday.

Charles Chappell, the first of the week, purchased the Joe P. Jackson place, near the mill, and will, when he gets the arrangements all completed, have a home.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Stutzman and the children were enjoying a visit last Sunday at the home of Grandfather and Grandmother Mr. and Mrs. C. D. St. John.

Among those who attended the Daughters of Rebekah district meeting at Ames on Tuesday of this week were Mrs. and Mrs. Louis Ross and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson.

Henry Shumaker, who was ill with an attack of the flu at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Henry Thiele, is now slighter again, and is up and about again.

Carlisle Griffin and P. L. McConall have been having a time with the flu during the past week, and it would seem that the boys had gotten a victory over the malady.

Wm. Honald and Sam Martin have been having logs in the station for shipment for the walnut log dealer, Mr. H. M. O'Neil, who is doing much business in that line at the present time.

D. C. West of the Nehawka bank was a business visitor in Union where he had some matters relative to the Taylor estate to arrange as well as his business at both Plattsmouth and Omaha.

Mrs. J. B. Hill was a visitor in Plattsmouth one day last week where she went to visit with her mother and brother, who are here from the state of Washington, and were going west for a visit.

Frank Martin was in town last Monday after some lumber for the construction of hog troughs, which will supply the needed drink and some land as well for the porkers which are growing on his place.

James R. Hill and family were visiting last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Gline, who resides near Memphis, they driving over for the day and all enjoying the visit very much. The ladies are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. East Troop were visiting last Sunday at Union where they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Leach for the day, and where the visitors and host and hostess enjoyed the day very much.

Frank M. Lemon and wife were enjoying a visit and an excellent dinner at Nebraska City last Sunday, they driving down and enjoying the day there as well as remaining for a moving picture show in the evening.

A. F. Sturm was the successful bidder for the furnishing of the cement for the work which is to be done on O street, and which will require about three cars of the material. Mr.

Robert L. McHenry, of Weeping Water has the contract.

Clarence Robinson will handle the Texas gasoline and oil, which are celebrated products of the Lone Star state. Earl W. Rook, of Nebraska City, was in town on last Monday making preparation for delivering the product to Nebraska.

The little ones at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hall Pollard who have been so seriously ill for some time, are now reported as getting along very nicely and are much better. Miss Esther Saint John is assisting with the work and the care of the little ones.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hoback were visiting at Percival, Iowa, for a week, where they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Reed, and where they enjoyed the visit very much. Mrs. Reed and Mr. Hoback are sister and brother. They returned home on last Saturday evening.

John Norris, who has been so severely ill with an aggravated attack of pneumonia, is reported as being quite a bit better and which is very pleasing news to his many friends here as well as in other portions of the country, and especially in the vicinity of his home near Ayres.

The Daughters of Rebekah team of the Nehawka lodge put on the memorial work at the district meeting and demonstrated the fact beyond peradventure of a doubt that they thoroughly understand the idea and the execution of this excellent order in the way they handled the ceremonies.

The Rev. C. Hewitt departed with Mrs. Hewitt for the western portion of the state where they will stop for a time at the home of a daughter where the change of climate, it is hoped, will be beneficial to the health of Mrs. Hewitt. Rev. Hewitt will return to care for the church work here.

Mrs. Henry Shumaker, who has been so sick for some time past, and who is still quite poorly, is reported as being so much better that she now able to be up a portion of the time. This is good news for the friends of this excellent woman, and they are all hoping that she may soon be well again.

J. G. Wunderlich and Henry M. Pollard were bustling last Monday and though they worked until the pulch without their dinner, got the roof on the new garage of Mr. Wunderlich. Now it can rain and not get the wagon of Mr. Wunderlich wet. These gentlemen have constructed an excellent building.

There were some thirty-five pheasants shipped to Nehawka and liberated here for the purpose of populating the country with these useful birds. Penalty is provided for the shooting of these birds now, but as they multiply rapidly, it will only be a few years until they will be placed on the list and open season declared on them.

Mrs. James Miller, who has been quite poorly for some time, was taken to Omaha where she entered a hospital for treatment and will be looked after by the eminent specialist, Dr. C. E. Kenedy, and will if possible be saved from an operation which it is now feared she will have to undergo. The many friends of this excellent lady are hoping that she may be able to return home in a short time entirely well.

Word has been received in Nehawka to the effect that Mrs. E. B. Wilcox, wife of the physician who formerly was located at Nehawka, but who has been practicing in Okaloosa, Iowa, for a number of years, was suddenly taken ill and died in a short time. The report tells of her having been buried on Tuesday of last week. Besides her husband, she leaves three children to mourn her sudden demise. The many friends who knew this excellent couple when they resided here, will be pained to know of the sudden death of this lady.

A traveling troop of entertainers gave a very creditable entertainment at the Auditorium last Saturday evening which was enjoyed by many. The Auditorium association arranged this show when on Monday evening they presented their college play. This was well attended and enjoyed. When you attend a show put on by local people like the Auditorium association, remember you are assisting in caring for one of the institutions which goes to make a better town in which to live, for Nehawka should be pretty well satisfied with so elegant a meeting place as their Auditorium.

Have an Excellent Wagon. D. C. West, trading in the auto which he had and which has served him well in the past, a few days since and got a new Hudson coach, and which is an elegant car. In a short time the favored will make a trip with the car to the west, where they will expect to put in the summer and will be driven out by Walter Wunderlich, who will leave the car and return on the train for the summer, returning for them in the fall.

Will Hold District Meet. The Independent order of Old Fellows will hold their district meeting in Nehawka on Monday of next week, at the auditorium and you may be certain that the meeting will be a good one. The Old Fellows are a very sociable and hospitable set of fellows and when it comes to getting the Nehawka ones into the game you may be well satisfied that they will make it worth while to all who visit the meeting. So put on your old sun bonnet with the blue ribbons on it and get here at time to enjoy all the beauties which this morning affords.

Local News

Mark Reed Lark.
Mark Reed, who was kept to the house with the grippe is again out and at it. He cannot keep from work when he has an opportunity to be doing something. The wife, who suffered a fracture of her shoulder in an auto collision, is getting along nicely now. The little boy, who suffered a fracture of his arm, is progressing as well as could be expected. But with this come an accident to the little girl, who while running fell on a concrete walk, sending her face and mouth badly. Mark went out to look after some work and the credit that of his mother's. It seems that all here is constantly perishing them. Still they will shake off the ill fortune in time and in the meanwhile they are smiling in spite of adversity.

Have a Place to Play
The Boy Scouts and the teachers of the Nehawka school, have put the tennis court of A. F. Sturm in condition for use, getting an excellent job on it. The park was surely put to good use last Sunday as there was some one playing continuously from early morning until the evening stars peeped out of the blue. Many were sitting on the fence waiting for a turn at the game.

County-Wide Achievement Day.
Two representatives from each club taking the clothing project this spring under Miss Theresa Judson of the extension service will enter the style show at the county-wide achievement day on May 12 at Weeping Water at the Congregational church. Miss Judson met with her project leaders from each club on Friday, April 9, at Weeping Water, to plan for this big event next month. She also gave them the regular April lesson in which they discussed necessities of a costume and the finishing of the costumes.

The representatives of each club will be chosen from the style show held by each club at its local achievement day. In this way every costume made by members of these clubs will be in a style show, yet the county contest will not be too large to handle. The costumes showing the best use of suggestions given by Miss Judson in her monthly lessons will be declared the winner.

The April lesson was about shoes, hosiery, neckwear, gloves, and purses to wear with different types of costumes. Miss Judson brought several examples of each with her to show proper and attractive selections. Some were not so attractive. This with a few suggestions about finishing costumes completes the course of lessons given month by month this spring which the women have used in making over old material or making new costumes for themselves and their families. The project leader brought material and an idea for a poster and spent about a half hour with Miss Judson working out the poster. These will be used to advertise the local and county-wide achievement days and also with the exhibits which the clubs may make in store windows or at the county fair next fall.

Considerable extra time was spent this month on reports in checking up all the work that has been done by the members and getting ready to make the final summary next month. Miss Judson will meet with the project leaders during the forenoon of the county-wide achievement day and take the final reports of the county.

DEATH OF PROMINENT MASON

From Wednesday's Daily—
This morning at the Masonic Home occurred the death of John J. Points, former well known Mason of Omaha and who has been a resident of the Home since December 9, 1922.

Mr. Points was born at Muncie, Indiana, January 21, 1845, and has for a great many years been a resident of Omaha. He was a member of St. John's lodge No. 25 A. F. & A. M., and also one of the four surviving charter members of Omaha lodge No. 1 of the Scottish Rite Masons of Omaha.

The deceased was for many years president of the Omaha Philopoeian society and interested in the study of Shakespeare, being one of the large school readers and students who had contended that the works of the bard of Avon was largely the handiwork of Lord Francis Bacon. Mr. Points is survived by two daughters and two sisters, living in different sections of the city.

The body of Mr. Points was taken to Omaha this morning and the funeral services there will be under the auspices of the Masons.

Abie's Irish Rose Author Sues Film Co.

$3,000,000 Damage Alleged by Anne Nichols in Action Against Universal; Injunction Asked.

New York, April 20.—Anne Nichols, author and producer of "Abie's Irish Rose," Monday asked for an injunction in United States district court prohibiting Universal Pictures corporation from exhibiting "The Cohens and the Kellys," alleging that the picture infringed upon her play.

Miss Nichols placed the value of the dramatic and motion picture rights of her play at $3,000,000 and alleged that she had been damaged to an equal amount by the Universal motion picture.

Miss Nichols, who named Carl Laemmle and Harry Pollard as joint defendants with the company, also asked that an injunction against further showing of the picture be ordered. The suit was filed in United States district court.

The petition in the suit recognized that the defendants claimed the motion picture was taken from the play "Two Blocks Away."

"As a matter of fact," it continued, "the said motion picture, 'The Cohens and the Kellys' contains but a modicum of the play 'Two Blocks Away,' but was and is intended to be, with certain minor exceptions, a complete steal, piracy and infringement of the complainant's play."

Miss Nichols alleged that she had been actually damaged in the amount asked, and requested an accounting of the profits of the picture.

Filing a manuscript of "Abie's Irish Rose," with her petition, she asked that the defendants be obliged to file a scenario of the picture within 20 days.

GARY PLANS RETIREMENT

New York, April 19.—In an address which many believe may have been his valedictory as chairman of the United States Steel corporation, Elbert H. Gary today told stockholders that the world's greatest industrial company, despite its huge surplus of more than $500,000,000 was not yet in a position to distribute dividends with a lavish hand.

Recounting his twenty-five years of stewardship, which has spanned the full life of the corporation, Mr. Gary outlined the steady growth in the financial strength of United States Steel. A hint of Mr. Gary's possible retirement which has been rumored in Wall street since early this year, came when the veteran chairman concluded:

"While we are all strong and vigorous today, yet we know that in the natural course of events, it will probably soon be time for some of us to say 'good-bye.'"

PAPAL PROTEST MADE

Rome, April 19.—Pope Pius XI, protesting against treatment of Catholics in Mexico, in an apostolic letter to the Mexican bishops, made public here today, forbade Catholics in that country "to establish any political party under the name of Catholic."

Women Sought to Aid League

Izaak Walton Group Seeks Their Membership to Promote Civic Good.

Chicago.—Some accomplishments of the fourth annual convention of the Izaak Walton League of America were:

A resolution urging all chapters of the association of 150,000 members to encourage memberships of women, "recognizing the fact that women constitute the finest force for civic good in any community."

The league was authorized to present to the United States government certain lands that the league owns "in Teton county, Wyoming, and in vicinity of Jackson's Hole, to use as a refuge for elk and to grow hay to provide forage for the elk in Jackson's Hole country."

It was agreed to continue an aggressive campaign of education for higher standards of sportsmanship and to make more use of publicity.

Co-operate With Schools.

A resolution was passed urging all chapters actively to co-operate with schools in their communities for increased instruction in conservation of wild life, prevention of pollution of water, reforestation, and other related subjects concerning which the league is vitally interested, for the future of America.

Encouragement of chapters of the league in Canada was officially declared and announcement was made that the first Canadian chapter had a few days ago, been established in Kingsville, Ont., by Jack Miner, celebrated bird lover.

Recommendation was made that all state chapters promote state laws to fix a season bag limit on migratory birds.

Some other specific results of the convention were:

A resolution urging enactment of state laws forbidding issuing of a fishing, hunting, or trapping license to any United States resident who is not an American citizen.

Recommendation that the War Department of the United States limit amount of water that may be withdrawn from Lake Michigan, "as it lowers lake levels to widespread damage of territory surrounding."

Natural Park in Lake Superior. In dorsement was given to making a natural park of the Isle Royale in Lake Superior. A movement to restore for posterity 40,000 acres of wilderness of the Horicon Marsh area was indorsed and disapproval of further extension of roads in Superior National Park was written into the convention record.

Approval of "creation of forest reserve at or near Ponemah Point in Red Lake Indian Reservation," was expressed.

Interior Cities at Disadvantage

Panama Canal is Held to Blame for Loss of Millions in Trade to Pacific Coast Region.

Chicago, April 18.—The Panama canal was held to blame for the loss of millions of dollars in trade to the Pacific coast region by members of the Illinois manufacturers' association in response to a questionnaire sent out to 3,000 members of the organization. The members said they had lost business because of the cheaper transportation afforded eastern manufacturers who shipped thru the canal, while middle west manufacturers were forced to ship by rail to the west or send their goods east by rail and then by boat via the canal.

The questionnaire, replies to which were made public tonight, inquired relative to ability to compete with eastern manufacturers, the condition of supplying western markets and whether any Pacific coast business had been lost as a result of Panama canal competition.

The replies, the association said, are but a series of complaints against the destructive influence of the Atlantic to the Pacific low freight rates by water, which, when contrasted with the higher railroad rates which the middle western manufacturer has to pay, make dealing on the western coast, with the expectation of realizing a legitimate profit prohibitive.

The letters said freight rates from New York by water are a little less than 15 per cent of the cost of the product, with slight variations on different wares, whereas from Chicago they are 38 per cent by rail.

Some of the manufacturers said they are shipping to St. Louis and then by way of the Warrior barge line and steamship to the west coast, but are still unable to combat the New York all water route. Manufacturers who ship by rail to New York and then by water to the Pacific coast, had the same complaints.

"DRY" QUESTIONNAIRE. UTAH EPISCOJALANS

Provo, Utah, April 17.—More than four-fifths of the Protestant Episcopal church of Utah adult members believe the prohibition amendment cannot be successfully enforced. This is revealed by a questionnaire survey made under the direction of Archdeacon F. Burley, local pastor, and Utah diocesan social service commission secretary.

The entire membership of the Episcopal church in Utah is about 2 thousand.

Seventy-seven per cent of the men and 72 1/2 per cent of the women think the Volstead act cannot be fully enforced. While 68 per cent of the men and 67 per cent of the women favor modification by legalizing light wine and beer.
