WOMEN DISCUSS HOME

Atlantic City, N. J., May 25.—Five thousand women of the General Federation of Women's clubs met here tonight to open the greatest forum ever held on the subject touching millions of lives behind them, the American home.

Mrs. John D. Sherman of Estes Park, Colo., president of the General Federation, presided.

"A sarcastic friend reminded me that it might be well for us to gather on the bench en masse, and watch the incoming tide, realizing that here, at least, is one thing we need not feel called upon to regulate," she said. "There are unknown, obscure women, three, four thousand miles away, who are part of the great tide of womanhood—and it is all these hundreds of thousands of women who create for us any power we may possess."

Woman's Club Has Very Delightful Banquet

Parlors of the First Presbyterian Church Scene of Most Delightful Gathering.

From Wednesday's Daily— The members of the Plattsmouth Woman's club last evening held their second annual banquet at the parlors of the First Presbyterian church and the occasion was one of the greatest interest and pleasure to the large number of ladies that were in attendance.

The three tables were very handsomely arranged with the decorations of the purple iris and which with the snowy lilies and sparkling glass and china and the silver made the setting of the banquet one of the rarest delight to all of the ladies present.

The Q. Z. society of the Presbyterian church prepared and served the banquet in their exquisite manner and which made the event more than doubly pleasant as the feast arranged left nothing to be desired in the way of deliciousness and the delightful manner in which it was served. The menu was as follows:

- Veal Birds
Dutchess Potatoes
Asparagus Rosettes
Spring Salad
Hot Rolls
Marmalade
Angel Food Cake
Coffee

The banquet was presided over by Mrs. Ralph Anderson, vice-president of the club, in the absence of Mrs. Allen J. Beson, the president, and the vice-president very skillfully handled the work of the meeting.

At the close of the banquet the members of the party joined in the singing of "Nebraska," Mrs. E. H. Wescott leading the singing.

The chairman of the various committees gave their reports for the year and showing the different activities of the club year.

The recently elected officers of the club were installed, with the exception of Mrs. Allen J. Beson who is in California, the work of installing being conducted by Mrs. P. J. Flynn, past president, and guest of honor of the evening.

The officers installed were: Vice-President—Mrs. Katherine Lugsch. Recording Secretary—Mrs. Henry Soennichsen.

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. A. H. Duxbury. Treasurer—Mrs. L. W. Egenberger.

Auditors—Mrs. S. S. Chase, Mrs. Glen Perry, Mrs. F. G. Egenberger. During the installation the members joined in reciting the "Woman's Club Litany," a very beautiful feature of the meeting.

Mrs. W. R. Holmes was the toast-mistress of the evening and her very clever and witty introductions of the various speakers made a pleasing feature of the evening.

Raymond C. Cook, well known soloist, gave a very beautiful number, "O Dry These Tears," the accompaniment being played by Mrs. R. W. Knorr and responded with a most delightful encore.

The first toast given was responded to by Mrs. William Baird, "Our Jewels," our children, and which was presented with the usual charm and effectiveness of this talented lady and on a subject very dear to all of the members of the club.

Damian Flynn gave in his usual pleasing manner two numbers, "The Rosary" and "Machulsa," the accompaniment being played by Mrs. P. J. Flynn and was one of the most delightful features of the evening program.

Mrs. William Woollett responded to the toast, "Our Jewel Case"—the home and gave a very pleasant outline of the importance of the home life to the child and the proper surroundings of the children and their surroundings.

Mrs. Joseph Capwell, talented dramatic reader gave a most interesting number, and one that was appropriate to the sentiment of the evening, "It Takes a Heap of Livin'" the poem describing the associations of the old home and the ties that bind the lives of the family to the old home.

Mrs. John F. Gorder closed the list of speakers with the toast "Our Safety Vault," the home town and stressed the importance of the community life in connection with the home life and the children that formed a family circle and was one of the strong and forceful addresses of the banquet party.

At the close of the toast list Mrs. Holmes gave a few words of appreciation from the club ladies to Mrs. P. J. Flynn, who has been one of the hard workers in the club and who is soon to leave the city. Mrs. Flynn responded very gracefully to the sentiments of her fellow members.

The banquet was brought to the close very appropriately by the singing of "Home Sweet Home."
