Many Enjoy Commencement. The closing of the schools of Union last week was marked by much interest in the ones who are leaving school to enter in the activities of life. There were eleven who were concluding their studies in the schools of Union and are taking their places in "The World's Broad Field of Battle."

Their it is to win in the ever increasing conflict, in which some win and other are defeated. The opportunity is there for all, and all have about an equal show for success. It matters much what is our attitude and the amount of thought and zeal we put in the problems of life that makes for success. The chief speaker for the occasion was Former Governor Samuel B. McKelvie, who made a wonderful address, showing that the race was not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, but to him who, with a determination to win, was willing to pay the cost of success, that is patient and thoughtful honest endeavor.

A large number of people friends relatives and acquaintances of the graduates crowded the hall to enjoy the festivities of the occasion. There were to graduate from the school this year: George Stine, Amos Crook, Carl Niday, Rose Brandt, Carrie Hanson, Ruby Meade, Pearl DeLes Denier, Sarah Morton, Harriet Cheney, Anna Riecke and Mable Johnson.

Card of Thanks. We wish to gratefully acknowledge the many acts of kindness shown to us in the hour of our bereavement in the taking away of our beloved husband and father, for the loving words of sympathy that has made our burden less heavy to bear and for the beautiful floral remembrances that were given to our loved one. May the kind friends be given the same tender thoughtfulness in their hour of sorrow.—Mrs. G. W. Eaton and Family.

Mrs. Shumaker was a member of the Methodist church, and was firm any years. Uncle Mat and Aunt Alice Shumaker have enjoyed the reputation of being the best neighbors and friends which this excellent community affords.

The funeral was held on Sunday and interment was made at the Wyoming cemetery, where side by side, this excellent couple will rest until the trumpet of the Angel of the resurrection shall sound the message when time shall be no more.

Mrs. Shumaker leaves to mourn her departure, E. L. Shumaker, a son, Omaha, Mesdames Jessie Montgomery and Minnie Chalfant of Burlington, Colo.
