Those who plan to go from Alvo are Emeline and Pauline Snavely, Alice Cook, Eleanor and Lola Henschley, Helen Schafer, Mearle Vickers, Alice Fairfield, Dorothy H. Peterson and Dorothy and Doris Coatsman.

For All the News
You don't have to worry about not getting some important bit of Cass county news if you are a Journal reader. Our reporters cover the entire county and there is published regularly departments representing the towns of Alvo, Greenwood, Manley, Murdock, Nehawka, Union and Murray, together with general news of interest from Eagle, Avoca, Elmwood, Weeping Water, Louisville, Cedar Creek and Mynard. In addition all the county seat happenings are available in the semi-weekly as well as the daily edition. Reaching its subscribers twice a week instead of only once, the Journal costs no more than any weekly paper published in the county and gives a vastly greater amount of news. $2 will put your name on the subscription list for an entire year. What could be cheaper than that?

Notice of School Meeting

J. M. STONE SERIOUSLY ILL
J. M. Stone, one of Nehawka's pioneer residents is in a critical condition at the home of his daughter, Mrs. D. C. West of this place. Mr. Stone has been in poor health for some time, suffering from numerous complications. He was apparently feeling quite well Monday and offered his services in the garden of his daughter-in-law, Mrs. R. B. Stone. That evening he took suddenly sick and his condition has been serious since that time. Tuesday evening he underwent a slight operation and has been having a high temperature and pneumonia is said to have developed in a light form.

His son Charles, of Clearwater, Nebraska, arrived here Wednesday night and Lester Stone, another son residing at Del Norte, Colorado, expects to leave at once, should he receive word to do so. His other children, Mrs. D. C. West, R. B. and Carl W. Stone of this place are at his bedside almost continuously.

He is being cared for by Mrs. Phillip and everything that is possible is being done for him. Mr. Stone is eighty-one years of age and being in a weak condition makes his condition very serious.—Nehawka Enterprise.

HOLDS BOX SOCIAL
From Saturday's Daily—
The Samaritan class of the Christian church held a very delightful box social at the church building last evening that was enjoyed by a very large number of the members of the class. The time was spent in games that added interest to the occasion and was participated in by the young people for several hours. The auctioning of the boxes made a great deal of interest and fun for the members of the party and after the sale of the boxes came the fine supper that was provided by the many toothsome boxes of the good things to eat.

DECLINES TO MAKE RACE
Fred Patterson, who has been the county surveyor of Cass county since the memory of the earliest inhabitant, is one county official that does not feel the lure of office and is going to voluntarily step out of the office at the close of his term. Just to show how little he cares for the office Mr. Patterson had a chance to make the race without the cost of a cent to him but has so far refused to the lure of the call of the political wild. A few days ago one of the residents of the county called at the office of County Treasurer Miss M. U. Gering and deposited the sum of $5 which was paid for the purpose of having Mr. Patterson's name placed on the ballot for the office of county surveyor. This was followed by the supplying of a blank on which the candidate could file his personal filing in order to comply with the law in this regard. Mr. Patterson has refused so far to file his acceptance in the office of County Clerk George R. Sayles and the office will be occupied by some other person so far as he is concerned, Mr. Patterson states. The county surveyor, who is a native son of the once thriving city of Rock Bluffs, desires to lay aside the cares of office and live himself to the native hills and lure from the fertile soil of that locality his livelihood, or in other words, farm. If Fred still continues to refuse to make the race this is a chance for a lifetime for some politically ambitious person to shie in their hat and take a chance of getting the job of doing the county surveying and keeping up to date the records of this office.

One Killed in Highway Accident Last Night
Otto Neilson, Omaha, New State Secretary of B. P. O. E., Killed Near Falls City Friday.

Falls City, Neb., June 4.—Otto Neilson, thirty-nine, secretary of the Omaha Elks lodge, is dead here as a result of an auto accident on the King of Trails highway, seven miles from Falls City, early this evening. Neilson sustained a fracture of the skull and internal injuries and died in an ambulance on the way to Falls City for medical attention. George Wickert, a passenger in the Neilson car, escaped with only slight bruises. Neilson, who was today elected state secretary of the B. P. O. E., and Wickert, also of Omaha, were on their way home after the close of a three day Elks' convention which closed here this afternoon. They were riding in Neilson's roadster and left Falls City about 6 p. m. In an attempt to pass another car the Neilson machine skidded in loose gravel on the roadway and turned over several times in the ditch. Neilson lived about an hour after the accident.

The Omaha Elks' band canceled plans to give a concert here tonight following the close of the convention when its members were advised of the accident. Neilson had been secretary of the Omaha lodge for several years, members of the order said, and was very popular.

Young People Joined in Wedlock Today

A. S. Miller of this City and Miss Henrietta B. Lanspa of David City Married Today.

From Wednesday's Daily—
This morning at 10 o'clock at the St. Mary's Roman Catholic church at David City, Nebraska, occurred the marriage of Miss Henrietta B. Lanspa of that city to Mr. A. S. Miller of Plattsmouth, the ceremony being witnessed by a party of the close friends and relatives of these estimable young people.

The nuptial mass of the church was celebrated by the Rev. Father Sproll, rector of St. Mary's with all the impressiveness of the ritualistic service.

Following the wedding ceremony the members of the bridal party were entertained at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lanspa, at a very charming wedding breakfast, the home being tastefully arranged in the spring flowers and the bridal note carried out in their well wishes to the newly weds.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller departed this afternoon from David City for the west where they expect to spend a period of two or three weeks there on a honeymoon and on their return will locate at Plattsmouth where the groom has a home arranged for the coming of the bride in the Schmidt-mann apartments.

The bride has spent her lifetime in David City where she is one of the popular and highly esteemed members of the teaching force of the city schools of that community. She has been very active in the social life of her home community and where she will be greatly missed by the large circle of warm friends but who are joining in their well wishes to her in the new home.

The groom is also a member of one of the well known families of David City, a son of Mr. and Mrs. August Miller, and has for the past four years been a resident of Plattsmouth and is at the present time engaged in the Burlington shops as one of the supervisors of the production system of the shop. In his residence here Mr. Miller has made many warm friends who are delighted to learn of his new found happiness and extend to him and his bride their best wishes for the future years that lie before them. Mr. and Mrs. Miller will receive a cordial welcome here to Plattsmouth where they are planning to make their future home.

LOUISVILLE PEOPLE WED
The following from the Louisville Courier gives the details of the marriage of two of the prominent young people of that community, Harvey B. Koop and Miss Gertrude Wood, of University Place.

The wedding occurred Wednesday morning at the Evangelical Lutheran parsonage, the pastor, Rev. Theodore Hartman, officiating. They were attended by the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wood, of Lincoln, with whom she made her home during the early years of childhood. Only the immediate relatives were present.

After the ceremony they drove to Omaha where they will spend a few days in that vicinity, after which they will go to housekeeping in Louisville.

The bride is the daughter of W. A. Wood, of Omaha, and is a granddaughter of the late Judge J. P. Wood of Louisville.

The groom is cashier of the Home State bank of Louisville, and his conduct of this institution has marked him as a young man of excellent business judgment and trustworthiness. He is also clerk of the Village of Louisville.

These prominent young people are respected and admired by a large circle of friends and they will receive a hearty welcome in to the social circles of the community.

Campaign for Paid Secretary of Local C. of C.
Committee of the Local Chamber of Commerce Engaged in Campaign for Salary Funds.

From Saturday's Daily—
Some time ago the matter of securing a paid secretary for the Chamber of Commerce was taken up and agitated and now the practical side of the matter is being investigated by a committee of the members of the civic body and the most pleasing prospects for the ultimate success of the movement that will have a real important bearing on the general advancement of the city and its interests.

The securing of the kind of a secretary that will be needed will require a salary of from $2,000 to $2,500, as the man holding this position must be a real live wire and a man fitted in every way for the work of boosting the city by personal efforts and keeping alive with the city's progress in the line of civic development. The city could not afford or should they try the experiment of securing a man of mediocre talents for the position but should endeavor to secure a man that can understand and appreciate the right kind of publicity for the community and the interesting of the outside world in the business life of the city.

The committee that is soliciting the city for the funds needed to assure the securing of the secretary is F. L. Rae and Henry G. Seennichsen and L. O. Minor were pleased with the interest shown in their campaign yesterday afternoon and they will continue the task of raising the funds until they have secured pledges that will assure the paid secretary being possible.

The funds needed will be from $2,000 and $4,000 to assure not only the salary of the secretary but as well the amounts that may be necessary in the campaign that will be made in securing industries and improvements in the city in which the paid secretary will play an important part.
