

Alvo Department

Simon Rehmeier and family were visiting in Weeping Water for a short time during the early portion of last week.

George Hardcock was going into the work with a will, unloading a car of sand for the lumber yard on last Wednesday, when he visited in Alvo. John B. Skinner of the Coatsman-Skinner truck line, was a pretty busy man, making four trips to the South Omaha stock yards with stock during the past week.

Mrs. R. M. Coatsman was visiting with relatives for a few days in Weeping Water, being there from Tuesday until Thursday, where she enjoyed a most pleasant visit.

George Brown and wife, of South Bend, were visiting in Alvo on last Wednesday afternoon, driving over in their car to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Yeager, parents of Mrs. Brown.

Mrs. C. F. Rosenow, who has been visiting for some time at Chappell, where she was a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ada Mack for the time, returned last week after a visit of two weeks.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church held their weekly meeting at the church basement on last Wednesday and had a most enjoyable time, as well as doing some excellent work for the church.

Arthur Prouty and mother, Mrs. Ella Prouty, of Falls City, were visiting in Alvo one day last week and were guests at the home of Orville Prouty and family, the occasion being a most enjoyable one for all.

Joseph Armstrong departed on last Wednesday for his old home town in Indiana, where he will visit for two weeks with the friends of his childhood and again go over the places where he spent his younger days.

In the Sunday school baseball league game which was played on last Wednesday between the teams of Alvo and Elmwood at the latter place, the Alvo team won over the Elmwood team by a score of Alvo, 6; Elmwood, 4.

Art Bird, the genial blacksmith, who was in Lincoln for a number of days last week, where he was receiving treatment, was back on the job again and while he is not feeling the best, is able to look after the business and is gaining with the days.

There was a big crowd at the free movie show on last Saturday evening and many people from a distance who were also doing some trading as well. This feature in the business and social life of the community is a very popular one and pays well besides.

W. H. Warner, the Samaritan and the one who is always seeking to do a good turn for somebody, was hoeing potatoes and other garden stuff for Wm. Yeager, as well as plowing the corn for Uncle P. J. Lineh and also doing some mighty good work at that.

F. E. Dickerson, who is a member of the Alvo baseball team, was over to Elmwood and showed the players of the big city how the thing was done, when he assumed the role of Babe Ruth with a swat at the ball, which gave him a home run and thus clinched the game.

The Bible school chorus met at the home of James McCartney on last Wednesday evening for practice for the singing which they give to the session of the Bible school. The chorus is made up of the membership of the Young Ladies' and Young Men's classes of the Bible school.

R. M. Coatsman, believing in having things looking their best, has been having the front of his store room painted white, and while it is not completed, it is looking much the better for the work which has been done on it, and with the completion will be much more improved.

The girls of the Camp Fire club departed on last Sunday for Crete, where they expected to remain about ten days and will be home by the middle of this week. We will endeavor to have some of them write a story of their stay, in order that our readers may know what an excellent time they have had.

There has been quite a good deal of corn coming into Alvo during the past week, this work taking up the time of the farmers when it is possible to be relieved from the press of other work about the farm. Those who were shelling and delivering corn at the Simon Rehmeier elevator, are as follows, Ben Swanson, Charles Haertle, J. M. Manners, Samuel Jordan, Jess Holke and John Woods, Sr.

John Keefe and family, who are making their home in California; Fred Keefe and family, who are making their home in Iowa at this time, and Jesse Keefe and family, who have been living in Colorado for the past few years all met here and visited with friends for the day one day early last week. They enjoyed the visit at the old home town very much and were greeted by their many friends here.

At the school election which was held in Alvo on last Monday, the estimate of expense of caring for the school upkeep during the coming year was set at $16,500.00 and the tax levy will be based on that figure. Some other minor matters of business were also looked after. It is the intention to have the building entirely renovated and disinfected and gone over before commencing the fall term of school.

Chautauqua in August
The Alvo chautauqua is listed for about the middle of the month of August and will provide some good entertainment. The hopes of the citizens of Alvo are that the weather may be fine and the attendance good. Further details will be published about the entertainment and when it will occur at a later date.

MRS. H. W. SCOTT DIES

Mrs. H. W. Scott, mother of Mrs. A. F. Weibke of Greenwood, and who has been making her home with the daughter for some time past, passed away on last Tuesday after a period of poor health, though she has not been confined to her bed but just a short time. Mrs. Scott, who was Miss Rachel Jane Ingram, was born November 22, 1846, at Parkersburg, W. Va., and with her parents came to Nebraska in 1863, when she was a young woman, and on January 21st, 1870, she was united with Mr. H. W. Scott, when the parents made their home at Wahoo. Mr. and Mrs. Scott engaged in farming for a number of years, after which they moved to Waverly where they have made their home for the past twenty years.

The husband and a daughter passed away early this spring, and since then the mother had been making her home with the children, and it was at the home of the daughter, Mrs. Weibke, that she spent her last days, and where she passed on to join the husband and daughter, who so recently preceded her to the other world.

Mrs. Scott was for many years a member of the Methodist church and a devoted follower of the Master. The funeral was held from the Methodist church in Waverly on Thursday afternoon and the services were conducted by the Rev. Longacre, pastor of the church at that place. Mrs. Scott leaves to mourn her departure five daughters, they being Mesdames Emery of Waverly, Wallace Borden of Greenwood, Fama Donaldson Bessie Taylor of Lincoln and A. F. Weibke of Greenwood.

P. L. HALL
Democratic candidate for State Treasurer. Stands for a progressive and economic administration in support of farmer and producer.

For County Treasurer
I hereby announce my candidacy for nomination for the office of County Treasurer, subject to the vote of the republican party at the primary election August 10, 1926. I am a graduate of the Elmwood high school, a student of the state university, but did not complete course, as I stopped to serve in the World War. Since returning, I have been manager for the Farmers Elevator Co., at Elmwood.

I shall appreciate your consideration of my candidacy for this place.
JOHN E. TURNER,
Elmwood, Nebr.

For County Sheriff
I hereby announce myself as a candidate for nomination for County Sheriff, subject to the voters of the republican party at the primaries on August 10, 1926.

Should I be selected for this position, I shall endeavor to enforce the laws without fear or partiality. If this suits you, will be pleased for your support. Should you not want the laws enforced, better not vote for me. I have lived in Cass county since I was 14 years of age.
BERT REED.

Celebrate the 4th

Monday, July 5th

At PLATTSMOUTH

Forget all your troubles—make a day of it! Come to Plattsmouth for a real good old-fashioned 4th. This celebration is in honor of our Nation's birthday—the Sesqui-Centennial of American Independence. There is no other similar celebration within a radius of 75 miles. Let's make this an occasion worthy of the day. Come early—stay late—bring the whole family—something doing every minute.

Base Ball!
Plattsmouth vs. Bellevue

This is the regular Cass-Sarpy league game, and a small admission will be charged. Gents, 35c, and ladies FREE. Game will be called at 3 O'Clock!

Big Street Parade at 10:30 A. M.

You probably have seen parades in your life time—but none like this will be—in other words it's going to be a HUNDINGER. This parade will comprise not only floats from the business houses, but numbers representative of every interest in Plattsmouth—also floats from other cities. There will be strange and wonderful creatures from Samson's den—there will be a bevy of Bathing Beauties, Black Faces, Mutt and Jeff, Andy Gump, Eppie Hogg, two Bands and possibly three, two Drum Corps, one Drunk and Bungle Corpse, one German Band, 3 Elephants, one Camel and other features too numerous to record. This parade is sure going to be a knockout. By all means, don't miss it. Bring the children—they will enjoy it especially. Equal to three circus parades in one. Remember, at 10:30 o'clock!

Water Fight! Plattsmouth Fire Department vs. Nebraska City Fire Department.

$300 Display of Fireworks at 8:30

If you were here last year, you remember the gorgeous display of fireworks on the river front. The American Legion committee in charge of this feature is going to eclipse all former efforts on this Fourth. We think we can safely say you will see no grander Fireworks Display anywhere in the middle west than you will see right here in Plattsmouth on the evening of MONDAY, JULY 5th.

Fairly Shows and Riding Devices at the Tourist Park!

Free Dance at K. S. Park Pavilion.

Complete Program of Street Sports.

Special Ferry Service for Iowa folks.

Music by Plattsmouth Eagles and Weep's Water Bands.

Splendid Piano Recital Held at Freeman Home

Members of the Class Give a Very Delightful Offering Before a Large Audience.

From Saturday's Daily—Last evening the beautiful home of Mrs. Lillian Freeman on Marble street was the scene of a very pleasant gathering of the relatives and friends of the young people comprising the piano classes of Mrs. Freeman to enjoy the recital offered by the young people and which proved an event of the greatest interest to the music lovers of the city.

The rooms of the home were profusely decorated with the baskets of daisies and larkspurs that made a very handsome setting for the occasion and one that everyone appreciate very much in adding to the charm of the very attractive home. The recital was one of the most finished that the young people have given and all of those who participated in the program showed a great advancement and skill in their work and their offerings were presented artistically and in a most finished manner. As a special feature of the recital Miss Helen Perry gave one

BORNEMEIER—DILGER

Velma Bornemeier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bornemeier of Elmwood, Neb., and George Dilger, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dilger, were united in marriage at the Dilger home in Edgewood last Thursday, June 3. They were married by the ceremony was performed in the presence of the Dilger family, Harold Minker of Edgewood and Mr. and Mrs. William Witt of this place. Rev. Cleveland officiated. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Dilger left on a honeymoon trip to Coldwater, Mich., and next fall will be located in Garrettsville, where the former will be superintendent and the latter one of the instructors in the public schools of that place.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Dilger have been efficient members of the local public school faculty for several years and during that time have made a host of friends here in Elkader and with the students they taught and all will join us in wishing them a large measure of happiness and prosperity in their wedded life.—Clayton Co., Iowa, Messenger.

MANY ATTEND CONGRESS

From Saturday's Daily—The great Eucharistic congress, one of the greatest events in the christian church history of the year, opening in Chicago on Sunday is to have a large number of the Plattsmouth people in attendance if their present plans carry out. The congress is bringing representatives of the Roman Catholic church from all parts of the earth and the pilgrims come to the great American city from the farthest of the globe to join in the great glorification of the Holy Eucharist. The Plattsmouth members of this

MRS. T. P. LIVINGSTON ILL

From Saturday's Daily—A message has been received from Denver, Colorado, announcing that Mrs. T. P. Livingstone, of this city, who has been at the Colorado city visiting at the home of her daughter, had been taken ill and had been removed to the St. Luke's hospital in that city.

The patient was reported as to be suffering from an attack of appendicitis and her condition was so grave that the message called Dr. T. P. Livingstone west to the bedside of his wife. The relatives and friends have not received any additional word since yesterday as to the condition of the patient and they are anxiously awaiting some word as to her condition.
