Pretty Home Weddings Held at Murdock

Misses Catherine and Margaret Tool Married to George T. Work and William P. Meyer.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Tool was the scene of a very pretty double wedding when their daughters, Catherine Elizabeth and Margaret Josephine, were united in marriage to George T. Work and William P. Meyer Monday, June 21st.

The bridal party entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Mr. Leland Wood, violin, accompanied by Miss Velma Wood, of Lincoln, who also played "To a Wild Rose" during the service.

The following girls, Irene Panska and Eleanor Slotz, nieces of the grooms, scattered roses on the path to the altar which was improvised of ferns and baskets of roses and lilies. Little Jeanne Adair Foreman, cousin of the brides and Richard Meyer nephew of a groom carried the rings in Galla lilies. The lines were read by Rev. J. V. Bandy of Beaver City, uncle of the brides, in the presence of about fifty relatives and close friends. The brides wore dresses of silver lace over white tulle crepe and carried shower bouquets of bride's roses.

Mr. Work is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Work of Litchfield, Nebraska. He was graduated from the University of Nebraska where he was a member of the Theta Chi and Sigma Tau fraternities. The bride, Miss Catherine Tool, received an A. B. from the University of Nebraska and studied piano at the Nebraska School of Music with Mrs. Lura Schuler Smith and Herbert Schmidt. 1901 TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY 1926
A Quarter Century of Service to Farmers

Hart-Parr Power

Replaces 3 Men and 5 Teams

Hart-Parr power cuts the cost of hired help and horses and protects your profits by getting the work done in season. Plowing, planting, harvesting, threshing, and silo-filling must be done at the best season regardless of heat, flies, the hardness of the soil or the heaviness of the crop. Comparison with all other lines convinces us that the Hart-Parr is the most powerful, durable, and economical tractor made. Come in and see the 1926 line.

Your Neighbor Knows! Read What He Says!

Dix, Nebraska, March 16, 1926.

Hart-Parr Co., Charles City, Ia.

Gentlemen: Have never had one bit of trouble with my Hart-Parr 16-30. It has never refused to start and run smoothly. It has cost me nothing for repairs. I would not have any other kind of tractor but a Hart-Parr. My tractor is kept busy. I purchased it March 25, 1925. To date it has plowed 250 acres, seeded 260 acres, disced 575 acres and cut 160 acres of grain, pulling a 28" binder. Last fall I threshed 35 days with a 24" separator. Any farmer in the market for a good tractor, should buy a Hart-Parr. (Signed) C. HARMSENT.

JUDGE SAYS KLAN PARADES NOT A VIOLATION OF LAW

Emporia, Kas., June 24.—The United States supreme court probably will be asked to pass on the validity of a statewide injunction prohibiting Ku Klux Klan demonstrations, following a parade of 1,000 men and 300 women wearing the regalia of the Klan. An application by the state of Kansas for an injunction to prevent the parade was refused here yesterday by Judge I. T. Richardson, in district court, on the ground Klan parades violated no law and that the state had no authority to interfere with them. He also overruled a city ordinance passed yesterday requiring Klansmen to wear numbers on their regalia and to register with the police prior to the parade. There were no disorders during or after the parade.

Through the co-operation of Superintendent William Baird of the local shops of the Burlington, the whistle of the shops will sound at 10 o'clock as a signal to clear the streets and at 10:30 the whistle will again sound for starting the parade.
