parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Lynde and also with Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Upton, Mr. Lynde being a brother of Mrs. Upton.

Mrs. C. C. Pittman was taken to the hospital at Omaha one day last week, where she is receiving treatment. The husband was over on last Monday to see the wife and learn as to how she was progressing under the treatment.

The Rev. W. S. Lynde, of Ventura, California, who has been visiting at the home of his brother, M. Lynde, for some days past, departed on last Monday afternoon for Weeping Water, where he will visit for a short time with relatives and friends.

Mrs. J. F. Clugey, of Plattsmouth, was a visitor on last Sunday at the home of Robert Eaton, a nephew, and also with her father, Mr. Eli Eaton for a short time as well as visiting at Kamp Kill Kare. She was accompanied by M. S. Briggs and wife.

While rounding the corner just west of the bridge over the Weeping Water river just west of Union, a man from Crete driving a Universal car was overturned on last Sunday, with the result that one of his legs was very badly bruised as well as the car being somewhat damaged.

E. E. Leach and A. W. Propst were called to Omaha on last Monday, where they had some important business matters to look after and upon the conclusion of which they also took in the Ak-Sar-Ben races which are on at this time. They made the trip in the Universal auto of Mr. Propst.

For an infraction of the temperance law, Charles True was arrested by City Marshal Bruce Wolfe and upon being arraigned before Judge Lynn was assessed a fine of ten dollars which with the costs were paid, and the young man was given his liberty after being admonished to see that he did not repeat the offense.

The new boat in the Weeping Water and ready for its trial trip to Lake Manawa, but is not as yet christened. There has been much speculation as to whether it would be named LaVaughn or Doris, but a young lady who was observing said she saw a name on its side which greatly resembled "Keep Off," so that must be its name for the present at any rate.

John Everett and John Eaton, who live in the land of plenty, that is the Sciota bottoms, where the Weeping Water has its fling, have been harvesting their wheat. Those who have viewed the grain as it stood in the field, were estimating the field at John Everett at 40 bushels per acre while the wheat of John Eaton was placed at 50 bushels per acre. This looks like a pretty good yield to us.

Robert L. Propst and son, W. E. Propst, arrived in Union one day last week from their home at Lake Worth, Florida, and were visiting at the home of A. W. Propst for a few days, Mr. R. L. Propst departing for Avoca, where he visited at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. J. Hallstrom, while Mr. W. E. Propst departed for the western portion of the state, where he has some wheat to harvest, thresh and market.

Harry Graves, son of Attorney C. L. Graves, and Harry Royal, son-in-law, slipped down to Union in the early morning last Sunday and took Mr. C. L. Graves to Lincoln with them for the day's visit. While there he watched a ball game or two between St. Joseph and visited with the daughter and boys as well as many of his friends in the capital city and was brought home by his son, Harry Graves, on Monday morning. They were accompanied over by John Lance, who is a fellow worker in the office in Lincoln with Harry Graves.

Veteran Visits Buddy Here
H. H. Boydson and family of near Ashland drove down Sunday and family east of town. The boys were buddies in the World war, first in the training camp, later crossing the ocean together and serving together in France and Germany. After returning home and receiving their discharge, they have kept in touch with each other and often manage to spend a day together, these semi-occasional visits being greatly enjoyed by both men. George is an active Legionnaire, being one of the Union service men who maintain their membership from year to year in the Plattsmouth Legion post.

At Kamp Kill Kare Sunday
One hundred and fifty people visited at Kamp Kill Kare on last Sunday, it being a picnic in honor of some one having a birthday. Of course, the birthday may not have arrived as yet, but that does not make any difference, it is the celebration of the birthday anyway. The guests were all enjoying themselves when we were there. With a horse-shoe court, bathing, boating and the most interesting number, the big swimming, and was looked after by Bruce Wolfe who was careful that no one was hurt or got wet. The writer was invited to swing and gladly accepted the proffer. Some of his friends were hoping that he might get his shirt wet, but as it transpired, he escaped luckily with nothing but the exhilarating experience of scooting over the water away out and back again a number of times. The young men and ladies all participated in the sport and enjoyed it. The older of the gathering were content to toss the horsehoes or set in the shade with the fan cool breeze cutting capers about their necks and talk of current topics of the day as well as visit with their fellow picnickers.

Golden Wedding Anniversary
On last Sunday, June 27th, at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Fleming W. Robb there was assembled a very happy gathering in honor of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery Robb, which occurred two days later on Tuesday, June 29th.

Fifty years ago in this same home, Mr. and Mrs. Robb began life's journey together and lived there for 17 happy years. The two sons, Hugh M. and Fleming W., as well as one daughter, Augusta, spent their childhood here.

Hugh owned and farmed this place at the time of his death in 1922. Since then Fleming and family have resided there.

Those to enjoy the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery Robb, Mr. and Mrs. Fleming W. Robb, Jane and John Robb, little Elizabeth, Hugh's youngest daughter, Miss Augusta Robb, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Glover and son, Bob, Omaha, Mrs. Fleming R. Fenn and daughter, Dorothy, Salina, Kansas; C. C. West and daughter, Lillian Dell, Miss Della West, Wyoming; Clifton West, Dunbar, Kathryn W. Smith, Union, Ore. grandchild, Mary D. Robb, and mother, Mrs. Kate Robb, are spending the summer in California, and could not be present.

Mr. Clifton West was present at the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Robb fifty years ago. He and two others, Rev. Frank Chisney and Charles Walbridge, Foley, Alabama, brother of Mrs. Robb, are the only three guests living who were present on June 29, 1876.

The decorations in the dining room were white daisies. The bride's bouquet of sweet heart rose buds in a lavender basket, was sent by the bridemaid of 50 years ago, Mrs. Ida Lathrop Farber, Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Robb were presented with a number of gold pieces, expressing the love, appreciation and good wishes of those present.

As the shadows lengthened, the guests departed for their homes feeling it was the end of a perfect day.

Methodist Church Notes
If you have been absent from Sunday school several Sundays, next Sunday will be a splendid time to start in again. It is the beginning of a new quarter. Every scholar is urged to be there.

Sunday school, 10-15.
Morning worship, 11-30.
Epworth League, 7-15.
Evening services, 8-9.

The services for next Sunday night will be very interesting. Dr. M. E. Gilbert, an ex-superintendent, now the corresponding secretary at the Wesleyan university, will be with us and give the evening sermon. All are invited to come and hear Dr. Gilbert Sunday evening.

Last Sunday morning the congregation was favored with two surprises which were indeed much appreciated. Rev. Swearingen, a Christian pastor from Indiana, was stopping over Sunday in Union and was invited by Rev. Rannels to give the morning address. His text was "What is Man that Thou art Mindful of Him," and from this was delivered a most impressive sermon. During the morning hour of worship, a beautiful solo was given by a lady from Virginia, who is visiting the Harris family. These special features were greatly appreciated by all present.

The Women's Home Missionary society meets with Mrs. J. C. Harris, the 15th. Mrs. Kathryn Smith is the leader. All members are kindly asked to remember this date.

The Epworth League members are looking forward to a good time the 3rd, as they will do their celebrating that evening. A picnic is planned with a good supper and fireworks following.

The Ladies Aid wish to thank all who helped in any way with the supper last Friday evening. They feel that it was very successful, about $55 being added to the treasury as a result of their efforts.

MEMORIES OF KAMP KILL KARE

I
There is joy in my soul
words cannot express,
As we dwell on the days
that are past;
Of pleasures untold and
hours of pure gold,
In memory forever to
last.

Of the cool leafy grove on
the banks of the stream,
Where with boating, and swinging in mid air,
Or the feast of good things, Oh!
'twas real, not a dream.

For it was found at
Kamp Kill Kare,
Oh the days that have fled
will never return.

They will live in
memory alone;
Till time cuts us off and
they say we are dead,
And are laid in our
last long home,

Where we will rest undisturbed
from all sorrow and care,
'Till the call of the
Angel of Light,
Who is coming in power,
we His glory will share.

In that home of no
sorrow or night,
Oh there pure and bright
in that City of Light,
We shall dwell with those
gone on and the best;
With sorrows all past we
shall anoint at last,
In that city of eternal
rest,

With those gone before on
that bright golden shore,
Where rejoicing we'll meet
them once more.

With all sorrow and care
all parting and tears,
Will forever and ever be ours,
W. A. TAYLOR,
Union Neb.

MRS. FRANK A. FINKLE DIES

Miss Anna Young was born August 6, 1872, near Union, and has lived there all her life, some years ago uniting in marriage with Frank A. Finkle, and they settled on a farm south of Union, where they have lived for more than a quarter of a century.

There Mrs. Finkle, who had been in reasonably good health for many years, was taken ill last Wednesday, and after but a few days of illness died early Sunday morning, after all had been done which good nursing and the best of medical attention could do to restore her to health.

Mrs. Finkle had conducted the farm with the aid of her two sons for a number of years, the husband being employed with the Missouri Pacific railroad company. The union of this couple was blessed by two sons, John Finkle and Leo Finkle. Besides the two sons and the husband, Mrs. Finkle leaves two brothers, Fred Young and Edward Young, they living near Arriba, Colorado.

The funeral will be conducted from the Baptist church of Union, of which the deceased was a member, and will be conducted by her pastor, the Rev. W. A. Taylor, interment being in the west Union cemetery.

Prohibition is Great National Scandal--Hall

President of Oregon University Declares Volstead Enforcement Act Greatest Mistep in History.

Iowa City, Iowa, June 29.—Thru his criticism of national prohibition, Dr. Arnold B. Hall, president-elect of the University of Oregon, today diverted attention of the fourth annual commonwealth conference from self-government problems.

"Prohibition is the greatest national scandal in the history of the country," was the statement made by Doctor Hall which precipitated an argument on the eighteenth amendment. On the basis of numbers, advocates of national prohibition won the argument, but not without the opponents voicing their views before the political science leaders of the country who heard the discussion.

The prohibition element was led by Mrs. Ida B. Wise Smith, Des Moines, Iowa, president of the Iowa Woman's Christian Temperance union, and A. R. Hutton, member of the city council of Cleveland, Ohio.

Doctor Hall considers the Volstead enforcement act as the greatest mistake in the history of the government, but is a staunch advocate of state and local prohibition. He made it plain that he favored state laws prohibiting liquor, but not national measures.

VOTING IS OUTLAWED

A western state just published a book of its election laws and regulations. It takes 295 pages of fine print which few ever read.

There are so many laws and regulations governing registration and voting, that half the citizens do not know whether they are entitled to go to the polls or not, or whether they can vote after they get there. Result, fewer and fewer people take part in elections.

In many precincts almost no one votes but the election officers, the judges and clerks; and the cost of going to the polls and counting, some of the eastern states have even more voluminous laws and regulations.

Manhood and womanhood suffrage has become a thing of the past, and legislatures are trying to hold fewer elections, and hold all general and local elections on the same day.

Multiplicity of law making and regulations tends to break down popular government.
