school were entertained by their teacher, Mrs. Gust Sorman, on Thursday of last week when they met for the purpose of looking after the business, which is to make a great success of the class and its work. They believing in the slogan that all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy, has a social side to the meeting which was wholly enjoyed by the young ladies, their hostess and teacher.

A number of the young men of Greenwood have answered the call of the Northwest for assistance to get the harvesting and threshing done, and departed a short time since for the fields needing their help, they being Earl and Edward Stradley, Don Marshall, James Olsen, Lud Gustafson, Glen Stradley and Fokej Gustafson. They first went to North Montana, where the harvest is plentiful and the laborers are few and will expect to stay until all the work in that line is done.

Not for the mere dollar which it brings but for the reason that he believes in co-operation, helping where he can, S. S. Peterson, the blacksmith, is every trying to accommodate everyone, and as an instance of this kind he went to James Greer when that gentleman was so busy and brought in his wagon, set the tires and returned the wagon, so that the harvesting might not stop. He also done the same things at the home of William Bauer, the gentlemen surely appreciate the kindness of Mr. Peterson.

To the Taxpayers! Take Notice

It is the earnest desire of Mia U. Gering, treasurer of Cass county, that every taxpayer carefully survey the standing of Cass county which appears in this issue. You are all stockholders in this concern and now have the opportunity to learn in detail, and in a summary form the condition of all funds.

Please take note that Cass county has not a single outstanding registered claim against the county, and the complete co-operation of the efficient county board, as well as the school directors and city and village treasurers in conjunction with the information set of books conducted by the county treasurer makes this possible.
