Rancher Admits Slaying Cowboy; Fearful of Mob
Alteration Over Victim's Attention to Wife Blamed by Slayer for Fatal Shooting.

Alliance, Neb., July 24.—Fearing mob violence, Albert Hill, 42-year-old rancher, who Friday afternoon confessed he shot and killed Neal Obennis, 21, one of his cowboys, and buried him in a shallow grave last Thursday night, was removed from the Sheridan county jail at Rushville, and brought here Friday night.

Animosity was aroused in Rushville immediately after Hill was incarcerated there, the officers said when they arrived here with the alleged slayer.

The mystery surrounding the murder of Obennis, whose bullet riddled body was found early Friday in a shallow grave on the Nurn ranch, eight miles southwest of Gordon, Neb., was cleared Friday afternoon when Hill confessed he had shot and killed the young cowboy last Tuesday night during an altercation. Hill's confession indicated the quarrel was caused by alleged attentions being paid Mrs. Hill by Obennis.

Suspensions of neighbors, aroused by the disappearance of the cowboy, led to an investigation by officers. After the body had been found, the Hill family was questioned. Mrs. Hill and her mother, Mrs. Averson, finally admitted that Hill had slain Obennis. Hill then confessed.

Hill said he first threw Obennis' body into a hog pen, but later, about midnight, he dragged the body several miles to the Nurn ranch where he buried it in a sand grave about three feet deep.

When arraigned in county court at Rushville, Hill pleaded not guilty. Obennis, who was born and reared near Rushville, had been in Hill's employ for more than a year.

Form Farm Body for Relief Fight
Corn Belt Committee an Agricultural Council Unite on the Program.

Des Moines, Ia., July 23.—A legislative committee to actively conduct the fight for farm relief laws at the coming session of congress was appointed here this week by the corn belt organization heads and the American Council of Agriculture, it became known Thursday.

This committee will be composed of six members to be named by the corn belt committee and as many to be selected by the Council of Agriculture. Former congressman James A. Minahan of St. Paul, will serve as chairman, representing the corn belt committee, and F. W. Murphy, Wheaton, Minn., executive head of the council, will be vice chairman.

The financial program of the corn belt committee contemplates raising 25 cents per member from each of the 28 farm organizations and cooperative associations represented on the committee. A complete response per capita would raise from $100,000 to $250,000, it was estimated at the meeting here.

This plan of financing legislative activities is entirely separate from that of the committee of 22, which also met here this week. The latter group decided to ask appropriations from the legislatures of the 11 states represented on the committee.

THREE SAVED FROM 'BREAD AND WATER' DIET BY MANDATE
Lincoln, Neb., July 22.—Howard Witacre, who with Thomas Nelson and Roy Carson was sentenced in Burt county to serve 60 days in jail, the first and last 20 days to be on an exclusive diet of bread and water, also met here this week. The three were convicted of liquor violations.

The high bench several weeks ago reversed and remanded Witacre's sentence with instructions to dismiss, and the clerk's mandate is merely a formality in accordance with the court's decision.

Nelson is the only one of the three who now faces the "bread and water" sentence. His conviction was affirmed by the court but execution of sentence was stayed pending argument on his motion for a rehearing before the supreme bench.

Fight Plans are Halted Because of Old Contract

Lawyers Admit That Clements Has a Fairly Good Claim on Dempsey's Services to Meet Will's.

Chicago, July 23.—Tex Rickard's plans for holding a world championship fight between Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney in Chicago next September came to a sudden and abrupt halt tonight when his attorneys, after examining the contract held by B. E. Clements of the Chicago Coliseum Club, advised Rickard that Clements had "a fairly good claim," on the champion's services for a match with Harry Willis, the negro challenger.

Rickard, still professing every hope that he would be able to stage the Dempsey-Tunney contest as planned, September 11 immediately plunged into the task of untangling the legal entanglements involving the champion's signature. He declined to reveal, however, just what steps would be taken to clear away the obstacles confronting him. He had a long session with the attorneys of Chicagoans who are associated with him in the venture.

While Rickard was in conference with his attorneys, Clements announced that the Dempsey-Willis fight would be held in Chicago between the dates of September 15 and 20, and that the proceeds would go to a Christmas charity fund raised annually by Patrick J. Carr, county treasurer. Clements, however, failed to reveal where he would raise the $300,000 he must pay Dempsey on August 5, under the terms of his contract, and $500,000 ten days in advance of the contest.

"I can't say think or do a thing until this contract business is settled," Rickard said. "My attorneys tell me that Clements has a claim on Dempsey's services. Until this is adjusted my plans are at a standstill. I would look foolish to go ahead and face lawsuits and injunctions which possibly might not be filed until a couple of days before the fight. That would ruin the advance sale. I am meeting my people tonight to put the situation before them. I feel confident that everything will be all right but it may take some time to iron it out."

Sheldon Clarke, millionaire vice president of the Sinclair Oil company, confirmed reports tonight that he would be associated with Rickard in promoting the Dempsey-Tunney contest in Chicago, and that seven other Chicagoans, all of them prominent and wealthy, also would be interested. Clarke declared that neither he nor his associates would share in the profits but consented to aid Rickard in handling the fund for charity. Rickard's plans provided for guaranteeing $100,000, to be evenly divided between the policemen and firemen's widows and orphans funds. Trustees of these two funds, it is understood have not as yet accepted Rickard's offer.

It was reported that Rickard intends to ask whoever handles this charity to apply to the state athletic commission for the permit to hold the contest. Rickard had nothing to say in this regard, dismissing the subject with "Oh, that end of the matter will be handled all right."

Ray Cannon, a Milwaukee attorney, with a reputation as an authority on sports contracts, conferred with Rickard today at the New York promoter's request.

SHENANDOAH TOURISTS WILL SING CORN SONG BEFORE KING
Chicago, July 22.—King George is due for some first hand information on where America's tall corn grows. "That's where the tall corn g-r-o-w-s" echoed from two special trains which left here tonight carrying 650 tourists from Iowa and Nebraska, who will sail from Montreal on a trip to England.

A rendition of the Iowa corn song for both the pleasure and information of the English court at an audience before King George, is one of the high points planned for the tour, which is sponsored by the Kiwanis club of Shenandoah, Ia.

BRAZIL REFUSES TO SEND ENVOYES TO THE LEAGUE
Rio de Janeiro, July 22.—The president of the republic Wednesday signed a decree suppressing the Brazilian delegation to the league of nations.

All the newspapers approve this action, saying the money spent on the league might better be used to open schools, so as to approximate the Brazilian educational system with that of the United States.

Brazil's expenses in connection with the league have been more than $2,000,000 yearly.
